Local Woman Fatally Hurt Crossing Street – Mrs. Will J. O’Daniel Struck By Machine Driven By Walter Hardesty – DIES TWO HOURS LATER

Mrs. Mary Ellen O’Daniel, wife of W.J. O’Daniel, was struck by an auto in front of her home on West Mulberry street Monday evening at 7:30 o’clock and so badly injured that she died two hours later at Boldrick’s Infirmary where she was taken following the accident. Examination at the hospital disclosed that she had suffered a probably fracture of the skull, that one of her legs was broken and that she was bruised about the body. It is also thought she suffered internal injuries. She was unconscious when picked up and passed away without regaining consciousness.

The machine that struck Mrs. O’Daniel was being driven by Walter Hardesty, attorney. He was going west on Mulberry street and was nearing his home, which is on the south side of the street almost directly across from the home of Mrs. O’Daniel, when the accident occurred. Mr. Hardesty, it is understood, had drawn to the north side of the thoroughfare in order to make the turn into the driveway at his home and while near the curb Mrs. O’Daniel is said to have stepped off the pavement into the path of the machine. She was on her way to the home of Judge and Mrs. John M. Cooper, across the street, where she was to join Mrs. Cooper and attend a card party at St. Augustine’s school. It was raining at the time and it is believed that her umbrella, probably drawn down close to her head, prevented her from seeing the approaching car. Mr. Hardesty was alone in the auto said he saw Mrs. O’Daniel only a moment before he struck her, and not in time to stop.

Persons who ran to the scene picked the injured woman up and placing her in Mr. Hardesty’s car hurried her to the hospital. Mr. Hardesty was too unnerved to drive the machine and someone in the crowd volunteered this service.

News of the distressing accident spread rapidly and caused sorrow throughout the community. Widespread sympathy was expressed not only for the family and relatives of the unfortunate victim but for the driver of the car who since the accident has been under the care of a physician part of the time.

Mrs. O’Daniel, one of the city’s well known women and a devout member of the Catholic church, was 65 years old. She was a daughter of the late Richard and Emily Brady Cummins and was born in this county July 30, 1865. She was married twice. Her first husband, to whom she was married twenty-nine years ago, and one daughter, Mrs. J. Lee Goodin, born of her first marriage. She is also survived by two sisters, Mrs. Margaret Mattingly and Mrs. Elizabeth Gardiner, and by one brother, J. Pat Cummins, all of Louisville.

Funeral services, conducted by the Rev. J.A. Hogarty, were held yesterday morning at St. Augustine’s church. Burial was in the St. Augustine’s cemetery.

The pallbearers were: F.E. Hardesty, S.A. Noe, Frank L. Dant, Robert L. Spalding, Jno. W. Clarkson and Wm. Hamilton.
