Sudden Death

There was never a more universal shock experienced by the people of this city than yesterday morning at the announcement of the death of Miss Bertha Ummethun, daughter of our esteemed citizen, G.W. Ummethun, who died at 8 o'clock the previous evening, in the twenty-third year of her age.

She had been dangerously ill of typhoid for the past two weeks, but her physicians did not anticipate immediate danger, until in their presence the approach of the death angel was heralded by a severe hemorrhage, which she withstood but for a few seconds. She was always the chief attraction and a universal favorite in young society. She was bright, and wore upon her placid countenance a winsome smile for all. She had a sweet and happy disposition, which illuminated with the brightest sunshine wherever she chanced to be. From a galaxy of roses, death often, as in this instance, plucks the fairest.

She will be greatly missed by her many friends, old and young, and especially by young society.

Her funeral will take place today at 12:15 from the Second Presbyterian church. Her remains will then be taken to Cincinnati and laid to rest beside her mother.
