

Blackburn-Heller.

Feb 12 1933
Miss Henrietta Lyle Blackburn of this city and Edward W. Heller of Louisville were quietly united in marriage at Versailles Sunday morning the ceremony taking place at the Episcopal Church with the pastor, the Rev. Murphy, officiating. The only attendants were Sam Blackburn brother of the bride, and Mrs. Blackburn, of Lexington.

The announcement came as a pleasant surprise to the friends of the couple here. They were to have been married in June, but decided to waive the formalities and move the date forward to February. Both Mr and Mrs. Heller are members of Kentucky's most prominent families.

The bride is the only daughter of Mrs. Lucy Lyle Blackburn, of this city, and the late Judge Samuel E. Blackburn, and was born in Ancon Panama, her father having been judge of that district. She came to Kentucky with her parents when a child and, after living here for some time went to Frankfort where the family resided until Judge Blackburn's death in 1926. Since that time she has made her home here. She attended the Lebanon High School and the Frankfort High School, later going to Lexington where she specialized in art for three years at the University of Kentucky. She is an attractive and talented young woman and enjoys a wide circle of friends here and throughout the State. She is a member of the Chi Omega social sorority.

The groom is a fine young business man and is an accountant. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Heller.

Mr. and Mrs. Heller were here for a short visit to her mother the first of the week. They will leave next week to spend a few days in Cincinnati, after which they will return to Louisville to make their home.

Blackburn