Dear Madam or Sir,

I am doing research on my fathers family for Bowman.

my great-grandfather William Henry Bowman (Born)
2/14/1838 Washington Co. Ky. son of William B. Bowman (Born 1818 Ky) and Francis (Franky) Harley. William B. Bowman's father Jacob Bowman (Born 1770 to 1780 Ky. I don't know who Jacob's father was yet.

I located William H. Bowman (above) on the 1860 Washington Co. Ky. Census living with his parents. And for the next 17 years I am unable to locate him until 3/22/1877 in Jackson Co. In. when he married his 2nd wife Sarah Isabelle "Bell" Smith (Born 1858 Clark Co. In.) (She is the daughter of William Smith and Margaret _____, both born In.). William H. and 2nd wife Sarah are listed on the 1880 Jackson Co. In. Census with 3 sons from his 1st marriage James W. ^{age 16}; John M. ^{or W.} age 13; James age 8; and Thomas E. age 1 their son and my grandfather.

I've been told William Henry Bowman served in the Civil War for Union Army (but could be Confederate army as stories go).

1- Do you have any type of Civil War records or index books, or where soldiers mustered in from your

City and other cities for both Union and Confederate.
Anything that could help me locate my great grandfather
William Henry Bowman.

I believe the following names are some of his relatives:

William H.'s
brother

- 1- George W. Bowman Pvt. Union Army - Company "B" Eleventh Ky.
Volunteer Cavalry - died Andersonville, Ga. Jan. 15, 1864.
enrolled 7/19/62 - mustered in 9/22/62 at Louisville, Ky.

William H.'s
Uncle

- 2- James Bowman - Pvt. Union Army - Company "K" Ninth Ky.
Volunteer Cavalry - died 1/24/63 - Lebanon, Ky.
enrolled 8/12/62 - mustered in 8/22/62 Eminence, Ky.

uncle

- 3- Jacob Bowman Pvt. - Union Army - Company "K" Ninth Ky.
Volunteer Cavalry - Discharged 4/16/63 Lebanon, Ky.
enrolled 8/12/62 - mustered in 8/22/62 Eminence, Ky.

I would like to find Civil War records for:
1- William Henry Bowman ^{Born} 2/14/1838 Washington Co. Ky.

brother

- 2- William B. Bowman ^{Born} 1816 or 1818 Ky.

Thank you for your time, courtesy, and help.

Sincerely,
Thelma B. Woods

Booman,

Several of my relatives married in Mercer Co. Ky and Washington Co. Ky. I have all of Wm. H. brother & sister except for Mary J. Bowman and John C. Bowman.

I found a marriage record for a William H. Bowman to Elizabeth Doudlet in Mercer County records on July 20, 1856. I am not sure if this is my gr-grandfather, wish it had their age and their parents listed.

Elizabeth Doudlet Bowman must be listed on 1860 Census with her parents? since William H. is listed with his parents on the 1860 Washington Co. Ky. Census. I wonder about 1870 Census also for them.

THE KENTUCKY GENEALOGIST

Anchorage. By Leone W. Hallenberg. Edited by Ruth Sanders and Sara Campbell. [Anchorage, Ky.: 1959] 223 pp. $4.00.

The sub-title of this book, A Casual Gathering of Facts and Stories from the Past and Present at a Unique Kentucky Town, stimulates interest at once, and the colorful, sparkling style of the author holds that interest to the end. The importance of the book to the genealogist or historian, however, is that the facts presented are accurate and well documented. A map showing the location of some of the old landmarks, and many illustrations of homes, churches, schools add to the value of the book.

In the author's foreword we read that "The town of anchorage was not incorporated until 1878 but as early as 1860, under the name of 'Hobbs' Station', it already boasted a general store, a railroad station housing the S. Post Office, a blacksmith shop, a meat market, and a scattering of spacious country homes...." A chapter is devoted to Edward Dorsey Hobbs, the founder of anchorage, the town having first been called after r. Hobbs. Steamboat Captain James W. Goslee, retired from the river, cast the anchor from his last boat, atamora, on the lawn of his home and christened his state "Anchorage". A short genealogical sketch of aptain Goslee is included in the chapter entitled Early Families." The old stone spring house built by lchard Chenoweth in 1785 and the massacre which took lace there in 1789 are described. Public institutions and business houses, the part played by the railroad in ie early development of the village, the churches of anchorage, including Hobbs Memorial Chapel, are discussed. In the appendices one will find excerpts from Minutes the Town Board, a list of Anchorage school superintendents, tombstone inscriptions, and a bibliography. Copies may be obtained from The Anchorage Press, anchorage, Kentucky.

QUERIES

Each subscriber to The Kentucky Genealogist may submit one or more free queries, limited to a total of fifty words per year. They must relate to Kentucky genealogy.

Dear Sir:

I have on hand copy of a marriage license issued 1829 to Thomas Boorman and Ann Mattingly (or Nancy Ann) of W. County.
Thomas Boorman was born in Charles County Maryland 1804 son of Russell Boorman of Md. and was in Washington Co. Ky later in Marion County Ky.
Thomas Boorman at the time he received this license was 24 yrs of age Ann Mattingly was 19
At that age did his parents have to sign this consent? If so what were their names?

Do you have a file (or should I ask the question of the Probate Court of Washington Co) names of men who had received in the Revolutionary war?
Will you please check for you a fee in payment of the answer to these questions

Sincerely

(Signed)

Ward Brooks

five daughters, Sally, married Robert Warring, second married Bridges; Maris, married Nicholas Lafon; Hannah, married Richard Price; Lucy, married first William Warring, second William Sthreshly; Cordelia, married Childs Terrill. The last four came to Kentucky at an early day and their descendants scattered over the entire country.

Talbott

One Samuel Talbott lived in Fairfax County, Va. He married Mary Magdalene DeMovill. Their children were DeMorrill Talbott, born July 25, 1754; Samuel, March 17, 1756; Presley, April 9, 1758; Nancy, December 28, 1760; Jemina, October 15, 1762; Rodham, February 15, 1764; Sampson, November 27 1767; Hannah N., January 11, 1770; Katherine, December 3, 1772; Ann, May 27, 1774. Samuel Talbott died December 31, 1777. His wife, Mary DeMovill Talbott, died July 2, 1791, in Virginia. Several of their children came to Bourbon County, Kentucky.

Bowman-Hite

Joist Hite and his party were the first emigrants to settle west of the Blue Ridge. He held in his own right a grant from King George for 40,000 acres of land and was a fourth owner in another grant of 100,000 acres. Hite had a long contested suit with Lord Fairfax, which his descendents won, after all the original parties to the suit were dead.

Mary, the daughter of Joist Hite, married George Bowman prior to 1722. Of their children, Maj. Joseph, Isaac, John and Abraham and their son-in-law, Isaac Rudell, were Revolutionary soldiers. Maj. Joseph, of the Illinois campaign, died in the fort at Vincennes, John was the first County Lieutenant of Kentucky, virtually Governor, and Abram was Colonel of the Eighth Virginia regiment.

Two other daughters of Joist Hite married Jacob Chrisman and Paul Froman and came with him from Pennsylvania to the valley of Virginia in 1732. George Bowman's will dated 1764, probated 1768. Hite settled five miles south of what is now Winchester, Va. His son-in-law, Jacob Chrisman, at what is now called, Chrisman Springs; Bowman six miles farther south, and Froman nine miles northwest of Bowman.

Jacob, the son of Joist Hite, married a sister of Col. James Madison, the father of the President. Maj. Isaac Hite, of Bell Grove, Va., grandson of Joist, married a sister of President Madison's, Sarah Hite; granddaughter of Joist, became the wife of Jonathan Clark, Colonel in the Revolution and brother of Gen. George Rogers Clark.

Death and taxes are inevitable. --Thomas C. Haliburton

1671. His will is dated January 8, and proved March 13, 1671, at the Lancaster courthouse. He left the bulk of his estate to his only son, Hugh, (another son, William, having died probably before the father). The son, Hugh, was J. P. in Lancaster in 1706. In June 1719 another Hugh, no doubt son of the second one, makes a conveyance to his brother, William. September 13, 1726, there is a deed from Hugh Brent to his children William, Hugh, Katharine, and Elizabeth. In 1743 another Hugh Brent was sheriff of Lancaster. There are also marriage bonds filed in that county as follows: James Brent and Catharine Martin, July 26, 1724, Hugh, security; William Brent and Margaret Haines, January 7, 1723-24, James Hains, Jr., security, William Brent and Letitia Wale, April 1735; William Brent and Judith King, widow, May 1, 1753; James Brent and Sarah Currell, November 4, 1768; and others too numerous to mention; although I have given all where the names of William and James occur. Whether these Brents were descended from Giles, the immigrant, who came to Maryland in 1637-38, is not yet established, but the fact that Giles' sister, Miss Margaret Brent, who has been called the most-noted woman in colonial history, herself patented lands in Lancaster the same year Hugh died, shows some connection.

Walker

John Walker was born in King and Queen County, Virginia, in 1709. He married a Baylor. One daughter married a Semple; they had other children. Robert B. Semple, the Baptist minister and Baylor Semple, of The Fredericksburg News, were descendants. George Semple, a lawyer who came to Louisville early in the 19th century, may have been a descendant of John Walker. A Buckner from Caroline County, Virginia, married into the Walker family.

Bowman

Grizel Greenlee, daughter of James Greenlee and Mary E. McDowell, eldest daughter of Ephraim McDowell of London-derry fame, married first Capt. John Bowman, the Indian fighter, killed at Ramsour's Mills, June 20, 1780. In the case of Bowman vs. Barlett, et al., three Marshall, page 96, Kentucky reports

Court of Appeals, a witness swears that John Bowman is the son and sole heir of Col. John Bowman mentioned above as Capt. John Bowman, and to be at that time between 45 and 50 years of age. Cannot give names of descendants of Abraham and Joseph, brothers of old John B., Fayette, Mercer, and Boyle counties, Kentucky.

Pope

Elijah Backus, of New London, Connecticut, born 1759, died 1811, married in 1784, Lucretia, widow of Daniel Tracy and daughter of Russell Hubbard, son of Daniel Hubbard, son of the Rev. John Hubbard, of Jamaica, and his wife, Mabel Russell (of royal descent). Elijah and Lucretia Backus had, first, Lucretia, who married Judge Nathaniel Pope of Kaskaskia, Illinois, born in Louisville, Kentucky, 1784, and died in 1850, while United States District Judge in Illinois, and had first, Maj. Gen. John Pope, United States Army, born March 13, 1823, married, in 1860, the daughter of Valentine B. Horton of Pomeroy, Ohio, and had Horton, John, Francis, and Lucretia.

Second, William Pope, of Springfield, Illinois, born 1816, died in 1853, married Elizabeth Douglas Pope, United States Army, died 1880; John; Cornelia; Lucretia; and Nathaniel.

Third, Elizabeth, married Dr. Thomas Pope of Alton, had issue. Fourth, Penelope, married Beverly Allen of St. Louis, Missouri, had issue. Fifth, Cynthia, married James E. Yeatman of St. Louis, Missouri, had issue. Sixth, Lucretia, married Thomas Yeatman of New Haven, had issue.

Livingston

The direct male line of the old Lord Livingston being extinct, the line of male descent now (both in Scotland and Virginia) lies with the descendants of Rev. Alexander Livingston, rector of Monabach 1561-1598. His ancestor, name unknown, was killed at Pinkie, 1547, being a younger son of the fourth Lord Livingston. His son, Rev. William Livingston, of Lanark, 1576-1641, was the father of Rev. John of Ancrum, 1603-1672, who had three sons William and James, merchants of Edinburgh; and Robert, founder of Livingston Manor, New York. The latter was born 1654, died 1728; emigrated to America in 1673.

His nephew, Robert (son of John), came over in 1687. These two left numerous descendants.

Hopson

Col. Joseph Hopson, son of Henry and Martha Neville, had by his wife, Sallie Boyd, of a wealthy and influential family of Virginia; George, Morgan, Samuel, Joshua, Henry, and Mildred. Dr. Samuel Hopson, third son, married Sallie J. Clark and was the father of the late gifted, Winthrop Hartley Hopson, minister of the Christian Church. Dr. Henry Hopson died in Paris, Kentucky, and left one son, Joseph, of Lexington. Joseph Hopson of St. Mathews, Kentucky, is the son of Joshua Hopson of Trigg County and the grandson of Morgan, the son of Col. Joseph, whose ancestors are wanted. Dr. Winthrop's only child is Mrs. R. L. Cave of Nashville, Tennessee.

Napier

There are Napiers in Goochland, formed from Henrico County in 1827, at an early period. Bouth Napier and Sarah, his wife, conveyed land in Goochland County in 1728, patentee of land in Henrico County, 1719. They probably died in Albemarle County. Robert Napier, Jr., and Mary, his wife, conveyed land in Goochland, in 1737. He had a son, Patrick and daughter, Frances. Rene Napier died in 1751, and in his will mentions his wife, Wene, and sons, John, Rene, and Champion; daughters, Cole and Mary. He had a brother, Patrick Napier, and cousin, Bouth Woodson. Court records of Henrico and Albemarle counties should be consulted.

Homes Built by Royal Bowman

Located at the corner of East Main Street and Forrest Street, this brick home was built @ 1850's for W. W. Wathen by his father's brother in law, Royal Bowman. It was originally known as the "Rose Cottage."

The old Jackson house, located on east Main Street, was built for Thomas and Nancy Rodman Jackson. The house was built @ 1830's.

"Myrtledene" located on north Spalding Avenue was built in 1833 for Benedict and Elizabeth McElroy Spalding.

No longer standing, but located where the Marion County Public Library is, was the home of Royal Bowman. It was built before the Civil War and the last tenant was Walter Beswick.

This house built @ 1840 was built for David Phillips. Miss Edmonds' article indicated that Phillips probably built the house. Later Mr. Dehringer, wrote that the home was built by Royal Bowman. There are similiar features in this house, the house next door (see bottom photograph), the Jackson house and the house Royal Bowman lived in.

Paul Lige Bowman, 79

Paul Lige Bowman, 79, of 2298 Beechland Road, Springfield, died at 6:15 a.m., Sunday, August 29, 1993 at the Ephraim McDowell Regional Medical Center in Danville.

He was born in Bell County on Sept. 17, 1913 to the late Frank and Josie Wilburn Bowman.

In 1955 he moved from Bell County to Washington County and was employed by ICI America, Inc. in Charlestown, Ind., until his retirement in 1975. Following retirement he maintained the grounds of Peter Cemetery in Mackville until 1988.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Clea Webb Bowman, two sons, Paul W. Bowman of Charlestown, Ind., and Phillip Bowman, of Springfield; five daughters, Mrs. Kenneth (Mary Sue) Lanham of Mt. Washington, Brenda Marks of Lexington, Sharon Pinkston, Mrs. Lynn (Rhonda) Holderman and Mrs. Mike (Betty) Grigsby, all of Springfield.

Also surviving are eighteen grandchildren, ten great-grandchildren and two sisters, Mrs. Ann Lawson of Middlesboro and Thena Bowman of Virginia.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m., Tuesday, Aug. 31 at the Carey and Son Funeral Home with the Rev. Chuck Robinson, pastor of the New Harmony Baptist Church, officiating.

Burial was in the Peter Cemetery at Mackville.

Serving as pallbearers were grandsons, Timothy Dale Bowman, Kenneth Lanham, Jr., Craig Lanham, Jerry Bowman, Patrick Grigsby, Christopher Holderman and Timothy Michael Bowman.

Carey and Son Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.

Dear Thelma:

I looked through our collection of genealogy for the name of William Henry Bowman. I found only one reference to a William Henry Bowman. It was in the book: "Index of Confederate Pension Applications; Index to Soldier's Applications for Pension & Widows' Indigent Pension Applications." Entry:

Name of applicant	County of Residence	Date application Received	Application Number
William Henry Bowman	Rowan County	9-30-1912	1225

There was a William Bowman, Private, enlisted Sep. 2, 1862, Lexington, Ky. in Company H. Fifth Regiment Cavalry - Kentucky Volunteers - Confederate States Army. (Source - "Report of the Adjutant General of the State of Kentucky - Civil war - Confederate - Vol. I", pg. 654).

There were several William Bowmans listed in the "Report of Adjutant General..... - Union", but none were from this area or any close county.

We have a book on the "Major William Boarman, Charles County, Maryland (1630-1709) His Descendants, Boarman/Bowman and Allied Families" by Mary Louise Donnelly. I checked the index for your William Henry and William B. and did not find them listed.

Since you found William Henry on the 1860 Washington County Census, probably he was never in Marion County. I think you would be more likely to find something on him in Washington County than Marion.

I wish I could have been more helpful. Good luck in your research.

Sincerely,

Mary

Dear Mary Ella,

I have received notice about the Reunion of Descendants of Maryland Catholics to Kentucky, which is June 28, 29, & 30 of 1996. My brother, Roy, and I have made plans to tour Kentucky about this time, so will be in St. Mary, Ky for this reunion. Even at this early date, the closest rooms we could find for these dates were at the Day's Inn, on the road to Lebanon after leaving Danville. The night of the 30th we will sleep in Myrtledene.

We are most grateful to you that you told us that Royal Bowman, our great, great, grandfather, built Myrtledene and for all the information about the Riney, Spalding, Moore, Drury and Bowman families. We want to meet with you during visit to Lebanon. Perhaps for lunch or dinner? You can contact us at the Day's Inn. If you are listed in the phone book, I'll try to contact you.

Sincerely,

Bernard

(NOTE: The symbol (&) is to be read "who married.")

About the year 1800 Billie Bowman settled in Casey County at Liberty. He had two brothers: Royal who settled near Lebanon while the other one, William, settled near Louisville.

Winston, the son of Billie, born in 1805, married Polly Fitzpatrick, born 1802, daughter of the old Squire mentioned by Peter B. Riffe in "The First Protracted Meeting." To this union were born the following children: Bill, John, and three girls all died of "flux" within a space of twenty-one days. Of the other children Elvira married John Wilkinson.

Jane Bowman married Royal Wilkinson.

Winston Bowman, known as "Tug" married Amanda Portman, sister of D. G. "Duff," living in 1938. To this union were born Mollie & W. H. (Dink) Phillips (children: Lizzie and Wince). (Note—Mayor Dallas Rule was brought to Casey County and made his home with his Uncle Dink, Rule being the son of Johnnie Rule and Fannie, sister to Dink Phillips.)

Wince, known as Doc, married Ethel Hankla, had two sons: Henry and Melvin.

Osborn Portman Bowman married Ida Tilford. Lucy Bowman married Charley Davidson. Charlie Bowman died unmarried.

Anna Bowman, daughter of Winston, married Frank Warriner (children: Katharine, Herbert, and Charles).

Katharine Bowman married William Meyers (children: Bowman and Carlisle).

Dear Dr. Drury,

I have begun to collect Bowman information for you but there is more that I have not reviewed. However, I have a consulting job in New Mexico and won't be able to work on your information again until after May 15th. I send you what I have, because if you are like me you are anxious to learn all that you can about your ancestors.

You didn't mention it and I wondered if you knew that Royal Bowman was considered a master builder. Master builders in the early and mid 1800's would be like architects today. He built a number of houses in Lebanon and several of them are still standing. I believe I have some photographs of some of the homes. If I do, you want me to make copies of them for you?

Mary A. Riney is the daughter of Eleanor and Basil Riney. In the will of Benedict Spalding, he mentions his daughter Eleanor Riney. Also on her marriage license it lists Eleanor Riney as her mother. Basil Riney is probably the son of Thomas Riney. Thomas lists his children in his will and I believe Batsel is a typing or transcription error for Basil.

Royal Bowman is probably the son of Thomas and Catherine Bowman but I have not been able to locate any proof of this. There is a Boarman/Bowman Book in our library but it mentions a Royal Bowman as belonging to another line that was not research for this book. There was no information in the Riney, Bowman, Drury, Walston, Gribbins family files that helped. Most just contained requests with little or no attached information.

I am really struggling with the Walston/Gribbins/Drury lines with no information to date.

I went through the baptisms records at St. Augustine Church, Lebanon, Kentucky. I copied all the Bowmans and Moores that were Royal's children, grandchildren and may have picked up some great grandchildren. Looks like I have some different dates of births and some different names.

Dear Mary Ella,

I hope that you were able to catch up on all your work and enjoyed happy holidays. I've kept busy learning the features of my new computer. I had mentioned James E. Drury as a possible relative. Please don't spend time seeking him out. I mentioned him only if you came across the name in your other searches.

I would like to obtain more information of the Bowman family in Casey County. I again reviewed the census of 1830 Washington and there was only one Royal Bowman. I considered after reading the "Bowman Family" information from Casey County, that there had been two Royals, father and son. So this was the builder and my great, great, grandfather.

The "Bowman Tree" information from Casy County you sent is a bit confusing. Is there a census of 1800 and 1810? They might clarify if Billie had "two brothers" or could this have been two sons? Royal was born in 1802 and Winston in 1805. Both of Royal's parents were born in Virginia. The Winston Bowman family records or the census might show more about Billie and Winston and perhaps the parents of Billie. I believe that I have told you that I have located Royal Bowman in Virginia 1756 and 1764, which could be the grandfather.

I have received Civil War records of a George W. Bowman who enlisted in Louisville June 1861 Co. H 1st KY Infantry and William M. Bowman who enlisted 9-10-1862 at Lebanon, KY, captured 7-24-1863 at Zanesville, OH. No record of James A. Bowman found. Would they be buried, as might the other Bowmans, at St. Augustine's or the Lebanon National Cemetery? I notice on the map, a Glasscock Grade School. Is this named after one of your relatives?

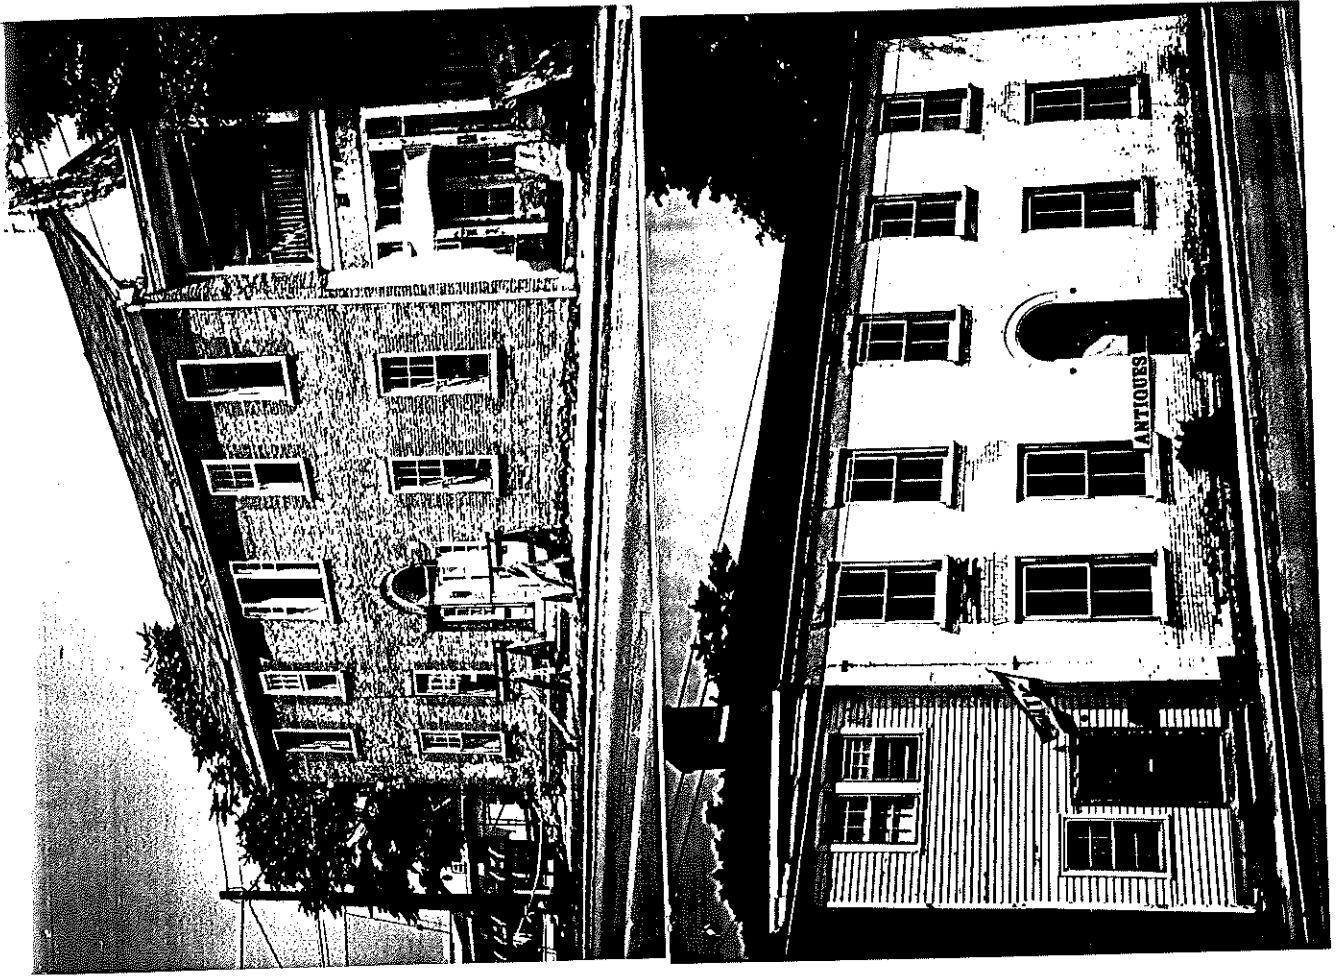

I wrote to Lillian Brewer asking her for information about the Spalding family. I had noticed that the Myrtledene brochure stated that the wife of Benedict Spalding was Elizabeth McElroy Spalding. My records show that his wife was Allie Able the daughter of Sam Able. Benedict Spalding Jr.'s wife was Mary Hamilton. I asked if Benedict Spalding had two wives. I didn't receive a response. I followed your suggestion and wrote to Marilyn Riney Shraberg and Gary White but have had no reply.

Thank you for your help. I can wait, so don't pressure yourself.

Enclosed an addressed, stamped envelope for your reply.

Sincerely,

Bernard

Dear Mary Ella,

The latest information and pictures you sent were beyond my expectations. Perhaps this carpenter-contractor portion of my gene pool aided me in my specialty of Orthopaedic Surgery. You didn't submit a fee for this information. You will find enclosed a check, which will help pay for your film and time.

After I reviewed your information about Gen. John Hunt Morgan, I went to the Civil War Special Section of the University of California, Santa Barbara Library. There I found a book entitled "History of Morgan's Cavalry". It was written by Basil Duke in 1867 and the later published as part of the Centennial Series. It accounts a vivid portrayal of how Lebanon was burned and pillaged. You perhaps have this in your library.

Again I request that you check the Washington Co. Marriage Records 1792 -1826 for James E. Drury Book 5 #63.

Enclosed for your review is a summary of information on Royal Bowman. Please check out Casey-Lincoln Co. for information.

You previously sent me information about the Marriage records of Royal Bowman to Mary Riney with the Bond dated 3/4/1828, BK II page 88. Are there copies of these records? If there are, perhaps the parents are listed.

The information you sent on Roswell Bowman states that he was from Maryland. I do not believe that he is closely related to Royal Bowman, because records have stated that Royal Bowman and both his parents were from Virginia.

Royal Bowman was 78 yrs. in the 1880 census. He probably died before he was 85 yrs. Since he was so prominent would his death be mentioned in the newspaper? Are there cemetery records of him and his family?

I'm going to write to the persons with the Riney research.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "R. M. Riney". The signature is written in dark ink and is positioned below the word "Sincerely,".

Mary Ella Glasscock
185 Miller Pike
Lebanon, Ky

Dear Ms. Glasscock,

Mary Jo Maguire of the Washington County Historical Society has been of help to me. She then referred me to a Gerald Thompson of St. Mary's KY, who I was told had information about the Bowman families and Catholic families in Marion, KY. I didn't receive a reply from him so I sought information from the Marion Historical Society. Through them, you notified me.

I have been informed that there are no records of Marion Co. before 1863. Knowing this, I realize that I need local help for possible information. Thank you for extending your help.

My great, great grandfather was Royal M. Bowman. I first located him in the Census of 1830 in Lebanon at #147, as Royal Bowman. (His wife was Mary A. Riney). I had known of these names from the death certificate of my great, grandmother Mary A. (Bowman) Moore, their second child and oldest daughter. One of her daughters was my grandmother, Lillie D. (Moore) Drury.

In the Census of 1850, he was located at #32,32 as R.M. Bowman. with his wife Mary. His daughter, Mary A. (same name as her mother), and her husband Levi Moore were at #69,69.

Royal's son William M. Bowman, in 1910 verified the marriage of Levi Moore and his wife Mary A. (Bowman) Moore in the City of Lebanon, Marion County, Kentucky September 11, 1849. In a Mexican War pension application in 1907, Levi Moore had stated that he had been married in Lebanon, Marion County, Ky in a Catholic church by Father Quin the same date, September 11, 1849. Are there records of this marriage? Levi Moore was born in Georgetown, Scott County, Ky. March 16, 1825. I have not traced him into Scott County, as yet. I hope that if there is a marriage certificate his parents will be named.

m.
Mary B.

*No death (were record)
certificates
until 1911*

In the Census of Marion County 1880, Royal and Mary A. Bowman and a few of the children are located at #311,354 on High St, Lebanon. If there are death certificates of members this family, perhaps the names of Royal's and Mary's parents will be recorded. It notes that Royal's father and mother were born in Virginia. The father of his wife, Mary A. Riney, was born in Kentucky and her mother in Maryland. Are there other records which could show the names of these parents? My review has shown that there were no Rineys in the Kentucky Census of 1790 but in the Census of 1810 there were 10 households with the name of Riney.

I have found in a typed copy of the records of the Marriage Ceremonies for Holy Mary Church, Calvary, Kentucky, 1807-1831 there is a listing on page 57 for Royal Borman and Mary Riney; March 6, 1828. I believe that this is for Royal Bowman. Are there other records of this marriage? yes Washington Co 3-4-1828

Enclosed is a list of Mary Rineys from the records of Marriages Washington Co. 1792- 1826. Could the 1828 record be with these records? NO

The Bowmans and Rineys are the grand parents of my grandmother Lillie D. (Moore) Drury. Her husband and my grandfather, Eugene Edwin Drury, was born in South Carrollton, Muhlenberg County. His father Henry Drury and mother Miley Jane (maiden name not known but could be Walston) bought land in Muhlenberg County in 1839 for $300.00. It was written that Henry was "late of Marion County". So, I believe that they were married in Marion Ky, about 1838.. Their oldest daughter Delphinia was recorded in her daughter's marriage record to have been born in Marion Co. (October 8, 1839).

In the Census of 1850 of Muhlenberg Co., Henry is listed as 35 yrs. (born about 1815) and Miley Jane as 26 yrs. (born @1824). When she bought land in 1856 in Muhlenberg CO. she was Miley Jane but when she bought land in 1864 she was Milly Jane.

Mary Jo Maguire found a Henry Drury born about 1819, baptized May 17 1819 the son of John Drury. This is probably another Henry Drury. She could not find a record of marriage for Henry and Miley Jane. Henry Drury would have been born in Washington County (birth date @1815).

In 1856, in Muhlenberg County, Miley Jane (from Marion County) was left $900 in the will of William Walston (from Marion County). In the Census of 1830 at #152 I found that Obadiah and William Walston had females 5-10 yrs. Miley Jane would have been 7 yrs. old. However, these Walstons were born in Virginia. In the Census of 1880 Miley Jane claimed that both her parents were born in Kentucky. According to my records her first child was born October 8, 1839, when she was 16 yrs. So, she was married when she was 15-16 yrs. Perhaps she only guessed at the birth place of her parents. Are there records for the names of the Walston children in 1830?

The Census of 1840 for William Walston shows no female 10-15 yrs or 15-20 yrs. the ages that the female 5-10 yrs. in the Census of 1830 would have been in 1840. Miley Jane was 7 yrs in 1830 and 17 yrs 1840. Could this missing female be Miley?

In a will of James Gribbin written in 1831 and probated 1832, Witnesses were Joseph Walston Jr., Milly Jane Walston and Joseph Walston Sr. My Milly (Miley) Jane was only @ 9yrs. so couldn't have been a witness. [Joseph Walston Jr.'s wife's name was Jane.]

William Walston died Dec. 11, 1852 at the age of 66 yrs. in High Grove of dropsy. In 1856 Miley Jane (Walston?) Drury was left $900.00 in his will. Administrators were Albin and Anthony who were his sons. Can you locate any records for this will and estate? If not, I can only guess that Miley Jane was a daughter of William Walston. It was interesting to find that the Drurys, Moores, and Bowmans and Walstons were in Washington, later Marion County at the same time.

In the Census of 1830 of Washington County: Henry Drury was @ 15 yrs. Miley Jane (Walston?) Drury @ 7 yrs.

125 William Drury: with 1 male 10-15 yrs. & 2 males 15-20 yrs.

147 Royal Bowman: [My Great grandmother Mary A. (Bowman) Moore wasn't born until 1832].

169 Joseph Walston Jr. 1 female 0-5 yrs.

152 William Walston: 1 female 5-10 yrs.

152 Obadiah Walston: 1 female 5-10 yrs.

157 Zachariah Drury: 2 males 10-15 yrs, 1 male 15-20 yrs.

203 John Drury: 1 male 10-15 yrs.

204 Joseph Walston Sr.: probably the father of William, Obadiah, and Joseph Jr. They were also in the Census of 1820 at # 384.

It is because of this close proximity of these families that I believe there is a good possibility that they are the families of Henry & Miley Jane (Walston?) Drury.

In 1865 William G. Walston the grandson of William Walston and whose father was Albany Walston married Mary Jane Drury the daughter of Miley Jane (Walston?) Drury. If I can definitely prove that Miley Jane Drury was the daughter of William Walston, they married first cousins. They had no children!! Albany was the executor of the will that gave Miley Jane $900.00 in 1865.

I am Roman Catholic, as was my father. My grandfather was also, but might have been converted after marriage to Lillie D. Moore. They were first married by a Minister of the Gospel and one year later by a Catholic priest. Lillie D. (Moore) Drury's parents Levi and Mary A. (Bowman) Moore are buried at St. Alphonsus cemetery in St. Joseph, Daviess County, KY., and were married by Father Quin in a Catholic Church Marion County September 11, 1849.

As noted, I believe that Royal Bowman married Mary A. (Riney) at Holy Mary Church, Calvary, Ky. March 6, 1828. I don't know if both were Catholics. Levi and Mary A. (Bowman) Moore were married in Catholic church by Father Quin. where I contacted the Archdiocese of Louisville with my information; they referred me to Holy Name of Mary Church, Calvary, KY. They had no information about the Levi Moore or the Royal Bowman marriages, so they referred me to the Loretto Archives, Nerinx, KY. Once again, I was informed about the marriage of Royal Borman and Mary Riney, March 6, 1828. (I have seen this record. It is typed, so I believe that there was a mistake with Borman typed rather than Bownam.) They had no record of Levi Moore & Mary Riney.

They also again found the baptism of a Henry Drury who was baptized May 16, 1819, with father John and mother Theresa. My Henry Drury was 35 yrs in 1850. So, he would have been born in @1815. I doubt that parents would delay a baptism for four yrs., so this is probably the wrong Henry Drury. In the Census of 1830 at # 203 there is a John Drury with a son 10-15 year.

My great grandfather Eugene Edwin Drury's sister, Mary Jane Drury was married to William G. Walston by a Minister of the Gospel. So I believe that possibly the Drurys of Marion or Washington County were not Catholics. I don't know the religion of the Walstons.

My grandfather Eugene Edwin is buried in Mater Dolorosa Cemetery Owensboro, KY and my grandmother Lillie D. (Moore) Drury is buried in Holy Cross Cemetery near San Francisco, CA. They were married in 1879 by a Minister of the Gospel and again in 1880 in the Catholic Church, both in Daviess CO.

In 1950 Census: at # 372 Joseph Walston aged 48 yrs., born 1802, (he was the Joseph Walston Jr. at the will in 1832).
Wife's name Jane.
He was 38 yrs in 1840, 28yrs in 1830. Born 1802.

William Walston aged 63 yrs. at # 371
Son Anthony 23 yrs.
& at #337 son Albin aged 31 yrs.
died aged 66 yrs. 1852. Born 1787

In the 1850 Census, William is 63 yrs. and Joseph is 48 yrs.
Joseph was a witness to the will in 1832, with Joseph Walston Sr. and Milly Jane Walston. This Joseph would have been 30 yrs. in 1832, so he was the Joseph Jr. at the time of the will. Miley Jane (Drury) was his cousin, aged 6 yrs.

William and Joseph Jr. were both born in Virginia as of the Census of 1850. So Obadiah probably was also. Joseph Sr. and Sarah were probably married in Virginia. But Miley Jane Drury was born in Kentucky. In 1880 census she claimed that her mother and father were born in Kentucky!!!! So whose daughter is she?
She was 14-15 yrs old when she married, so perhaps she guessed at the birth place of her parents.

William Walston died at age 66 yrs. Dec. 11, 1852 in High Grove, Marion County of dropsy. Born: Brickhanon, Virginia
Born: @1786. Father: Joseph Walston, Mother: Sarah.
[His wife Mary]

Also dying in High Grove in 1852
Carolina Walston daughter of William & M. Walston Died August 2, 1852 of flux. Aged 1 yr.

George Walston son of William Walston
Died July 1852 of flux. Aged 3 yrs

I conclude that Miley Jane (Drury) was a Walston. I believe that Joseph was the father of William and Obadiah Walston. William was the father of Miley Jane. Prove it!!

William Walston Sr.'s wife was Mary born in Virginia.
In 1830 he had a son 10-15 yrs, so he was probably married about 1815-1820. He said to have been born in Brickhanon, Virginia.

Joseph Walstons Jr.'s wife was Jane born in Kentucky. He in Virginia.

Joseph Walston Sr.'s wife was Sarah. Both born in Virginia.

Obadiah Walston's wife was?????

In 1830 he had a son 15- 20 yrs. so he was married 1809-1819, probably in Virginia. An "Obediah" who was 47 yrs in 1870 was probably the son of Obadiah who had two sons 5-10 yrs in 1830. This "Obediah" claimed that his father and mother, were born in Buckingham County, Virginia.

In 1832 Joseph Walston, Milly Jane Walston and Joseph Walston Jr. were witnesses for a will of James Gibbin in Washington County.
Who was Milly Jane Walston? The wife of Joseph Walston Jr.whose name was Jane? Joseph Sr's wife's name was Sarah.

The only Drury listed was Zachariah in the Census of Marion County 1840 and the Tax Rolls of 1835 & 1838-39. He had 210 acres and value of $100 in 1835 and 810 acres, value $440 in 1838-39.
Zachariah had two sons 10-15yrs in 1830.
The William Drury #125 and John Drury # 203 of the Census of 1830 are not in this census or these tax rolls. Have they left Marion County?? William had a son 10-15 yrs. and two sons 15-20 yrs; John had a son 10-15yrs in 1830. [Henry Drury would have been @15 yrs.]

This article appeared in the Lebanon Enterprise in 1964 or 65.

Another of Lebanon's historic old houses is the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Beswick, at the northeast corner of Main and Harrison streets. The fanlight with leaded panes over the door front is a showpiece. Royal Bowman, who constructed many Marion County homes of the era built this one in 1828 for his own use, and he built it to last. Even the inside walls are solid brick. Bowman had three sons in the Southern army but, even so, this house barely escaped destruction when John H. Morgan on his second visit here, July 5, 1863, burnt the town. Only the timely arriving of one of the Bowmans sons saved it, for the torch already had been applied. The place has long been known as the Edelen house, for it was purchased by Mrs. Beswick's grandfather J. H. Edelen a druggist, about 90 years ago. All the downstairs woodwork is hand carved, a different design in each room. The stairway is of ash, with cherry rail, and upstairs the original floors of ash and poplar still in use. Indoor locks are quaint and doorknobs are polished brass. door and window jambs are pegged. A Civil War memento, not connected with the house but cherished in the family is an old axe head used by Morgan to hack his way into the Edelen drug store that awful day in 1863, and found just outside the building the day after.

Unfortunately, shortly after this article appeared, the house was torn down and replaced with our new library. While we greatly needed a new library and certainly enjoy the benefits, our shortsightedness plagues us now.

Dear Miss Walker
your name was given me as one who might furnish me some information concerning the names of the parents of Ann or Nancy Ann Mattingly, who married Thomas Boardman (Barman) in Washington County Ky. 1829, by Evelyn R. Dale Curator of the Wilson Club.

I have a copy of their marriage license issued 11/18/29
by the Clerk of Washington County, Kentucky.
If you have any information that might prove the Thomas Boardman born 1804 in ~~Washington~~ Charles Co. Maryland, mentioned above, was the son of Roswell Boardman born in Charles Co.
Md. married there late 179- owned land 1810 there - sold it 1812 and with wife & some say 6 children migrated to Kentucky settling in Washington Co, Ky.

Wife died 182- another mystery what was the name (maiden name) of their first wife

One record says he married 2nd 1827, Margaret Calk Mattingly? Browning

Roswell died in Madison County Ky. 1854 Record on file

"The house, named for the myrtle trees surrounding it, is full of memories. It is a cornucopia of Victoriana; each room is a treasure trove. On the first floor, the drawing room, music room, and formal dining room are filled with splendid antiques. A magnificent grand piano, of Wagnerian dimensions, dominates the music room. An eclectic assortment of 19th century furniture, extravagant in texture and fabric, can be found in the drawing and dining rooms and upstairs in the three bedrooms available to the public. Homemade quilts, antique dolls, period paintings and prints, dresser sets, lamps and a profusion of accent pieces complement the collection.

"There are wonderful and rare touches that invite visitors to step back in time. The elegant green-and-white wallpaper in the formal dining room, depicting a pastoral scene, was obviously custom-made, probably in Europe sometime around the turn of the century. Some of the flowered patterns of wallpaper in the sunny bedrooms date back to the same time. There are vintage Venetian blinds, in addition to elaborate drapery, on the windows throughout the house. One of the many chandeliers was custom-made in Venice for Brewer's grandparents while they were vacationing in Europe. A floral needlepoint rug in the drawing room was made by Brewer's great-grandmother.

"According to local legend, confederate Gen. John Hunt Morgan rode his horse up the main stairway, elaborate millwork be damned. Near the staircase, concealed under a rug, is a trapdoor, used during the Civil War to conceal a hiding place. And there is also a secret stairway nearby, behind a built-in bookcase that pulls out. The state has declared the house a historical landmark...

"...All of the antique-laden bedrooms at Myrtledene are spacious, with the characteristic lofty ceilings and huge windows that fill the house with light. The beds have that old-fashioned featherbed height but are graced with first-rate mattresses. There are two modernized bathrooms, side by side, in the upstairs hallway. The television and VCR are down the back stairs in an inviting, informal family room."

As Myrtledene enters its sixth year as Lebanon's only bed and breakfast, I want to take this time to thank those who have made us a special part of Central Kentucky's most important occasions. We have been the place you could turn to when you, your family, friends, and business associates gathered together for your weddings, family and class reunions, club meetings, and office parties.

Also, as one of the region's significant Civil War landmarks, Myrtledene preserves a piece of history that is important to us all. And you have helped to make that possible.

But only you can let us know what more we can do. How else may we be more of a resource for you and your business? Please give me a call and tell me how Myrtledene can give your travelling visitors a truly unique experience. I hope to hear from you soon.

The Bowman--Edelen--Beswick House. (Now destroyed.)

Dates from 1828.- Another of Lebanon's historic old houses is the home of Mr. & Mrs. W.E. Beswick, at the northeast corner of Main & Harrison Sts. The fanlight with leaded panes over the front door is a showpiece.

Dear Mary Ella,

Many, many thanks for the copy of the Montage of the Lebanon Enterprise. When I received it I was about to write to you because I had been informed of the death date of Royal Bowman. After the reunion, I received much information about the Riney and Spalding families. So much so, that I believe I have the ancestors of these two lines as far back as anyone has traced. If you need information about the Riney line contact Pat Webber, 413 Eatherly Dr., Nashville, TN. She has published a book of the Rineys. For Spalding information contact Charmaine Goemmer Welker, 5432 Crestline Rd., Wilmington, DE 19808-3654. E-mail cwelker@sprynet.com.

The information you have gathered about Royal Bowman and family is more than I had ever hoped to obtain. Thank you for being so diligent. Thanks for naming me as a reference but I some of the information I gave you needs correction. You found that George Bowman was in Co. D 2nd KY. Cav CSA. So my reference was incorrect. The husband of Eleanor is Basil Riney. Zachariah Riney was his brother, so he was the uncle (not cousin) of Mary Alethea (Ann) Riney Bowman and the great uncle of Mary Ann Bowman Moore. Refer to new dates

Enclosed copies of information for the Eleanor Spalding Riney's family, the Thomas & Basil Riney families, the Royal Bowman family, which has direct lineage to me. After I found that George Bowman married Ada Sutton I found in the baptismal information you sent, George Bowman and Ada Smith parents: Julius Virgil Bowman Born Nov. 29, 1896 bap. Dec. 19, 1896. sponsor-Maria Sutton. Also, George Bowman & Ada Sutton parents: Mary Elizabeth Bowman born Sept 13, 1898, bap. Sept 18, 1898. Sponsor: Maria Sutton.

Mary Ann Bowman Moore's birth date is 12/18/32 as found on the grave at St Alphonsus cemetery and the death certificate. You have the grave date of George as 1844. But the at census August 1850 he was 7 yrs. and the census 1860 he was 17 yrs. The Spalding info: Jan 6, 1844. So I'm using 1844. Sallie Bowman birth was Sept 30, 1844 and baptized January 12, 1845. The grave says 1845. I'm using 1844 even though this is but nine months after George. What do you think?

You state that Royal conveyed the brick shop, May 1862 & Morgan's first raid on Lebanon was July 10, 1862. I believe that Lebanon was under the Union army control at this time. Since Royal was sympathetic to the Confederacy and was born in Virginia, it would seem he was forced out of business and given a low price for his property.

Eleanor Spalding Riney had a brother Richard Spalding (refer to info. copy.) His fourth child was Leonard Augustine Spalding b. Aug. 24, 1806. So he would be a first cousin to Mary Alethea (Ann) Riney Bowman. Leonard's father "was very rich and educated his children expensively" [Clements-Spalding and Allied Families pg 62.] "He (Leonard) died in Lebanon and left issue." It would seem that perhaps Leonard was a lawyer who was the trustee for the Bowmans and was authorized to sell his property. He died Feb. 28, 1888. His father, Richard, "was a discounteer of notes of his less prosperous neighbors oppropriously called 'shaving' and then thought to be very sinful" Leonard could have been in the same business. However, it seems helped his cousin regain her house.

Can you obtain five copies of the Montage? I will send them to my children.. Enclosed, a check for your time and postage. Mrs. Thompson sent me a copy of the Video "Maryland Pioneers at Home in Kentucky" from which I have been able to feel closer to my father's kinfolk. Last week I've requested info from Casey Co. about Winston Bowman, who was in the Legislature in the 1840s. Are you certain that William was my Royal's father? I hope that info about Winston might clarify this family. Hope your winter is less severe this year. Happy Thanksgiving, etc.

102 ²²³⁵⁷ Elizabeth⁶ of (Eleanor⁵, Benedict⁴, Benedict³, William², Thomas¹) was the daughter of Basil and Eleanor (Spalding) Riney. She was born in 1799 and I believe was the oldest child. She married Joseph Fogel, in 1824. They lived near Calvary, Kentucky. Joseph was born in 1795. I have found no record of their death. The census of 1850 names the following children:

I	Robert ⁷	b 1826	d
II	Elizabeth ⁷	b Feb. 17, 1828	d
III	Thomas ⁷	b 1830	d

107 James⁶ of (Eleanor⁵, BENEDICT³, WILLIAM², THOMAS¹) was the son of Basil and Eleanor (Spalding) Riney. He was born in 1807 (Union County Census 1850) so he and Mary Ann were twins. He located in Union County where he married his 1st cousin Mary Ann daughter of William and Elizabeth (Thompson) Spalding March 21, 1832. (See page 162)

108 David⁶ of (ELEANOR⁵, BENEDICT⁴, BENEDICT³, WILLIAM², THOMAS¹) was the son of Basil and Eleanor (Spalding) Riney. He married Ellen, daughter of Bennett and Penny Ann (Abell) Thomas. I have been unable to discover the date. They had a daughter Isabel baptised at St. Augustine, Lebanon March 1839. Also the following other children: Born 4-10-1816

42 Benedict⁴ (BENEDICT³, William², Thomas¹) was the oldest son of BENEDICT and ELIZABETH (MATTINGLY) SPALDING. He was born after 1746 for when he was excused from military duty from the fourth regiment of the Kentucky Militia on Oct. 15, 1791 he did not claim exemption for being over the age limit which was forty-five years, but for a physical disability. However, in the of Dec. 22, 1791, we find the following BENEDICT SPALDING by Captain Muldraugh's information is exempted from military duty Dec. 22, 1791. Since Muldraugh's information exempted him permanently, I think he must have reached the age limit of forty-five at this time, which would make his birth in Dec. 1746. Since he was co-administrator with his mother of his father's estate, I judge he was the eldest son.

He married ALETHAIRE ABELL, daughter of Samuel and Eleanor (Bryant) Abell about 1770. He left Calvert County with his mother on the death of his father, returning to St. Marys County, and married like her, within the year. He was a planter and became prosperous, for the census of 1790 shows him to have twelve white dependents and ten slaves.

The records do not show what became of the two hundred acres of "Hearts Delight" which his father owned at the time of the latter's death. I suppose he and mother disposed of it and bought other land, for on March 29, 1791, John Ford and Benedict Spalding deeded to Elias Smith one hundred and seventy-five and one eighth acres part of "St. Giles", "May Pole" and "Primus", shown by a clerk's minutes, records being destroyed. The sale of this land would seem to fix the time at which Benedict immigrated to Kentucky. Some authorities claim that he came to Kentucky in the fall of 1790 while others say he came out in the spring of 1791. Arch-Bishop MARTIN JOHN SPALDING agrees with the latter statement, in a letter he wrote to C.B. Spalding who was collecting data for the Spalding Memorial. On June 21, 1859, I find that he with Elias Smith appeared in the St. Marys County Court to prove the will of Priscilla Mattingly Dec. 14, 1790. So it seems certain he brought his family to Kentucky in the spring of 1791. He settled on the Rolling Fork near where the little town of Calvary now stands. The Washington County, Kentucky Tax List of 1792, shows him taxed with seven slaves, four horses, three cattle and four hundred and forty-four and one half acres of land. On August 9, 1797 he bought from James Cloyd of Lincoln County, six hundred and seventy acres lying on both sides of the Rolling Fork (Book B page 76) and built his home on the south side of that stream opposite the site where the Calvary Church and Convent afterward stood, on part of said land, ninety-five acres of which he sold to Rev. M.J.C. Fourmier in 1797 for fifty-seven pounds (Deed Book B page 12 Washington County.) He bought one thousand and two hundred and sixty acres at a tax sale from Sam Grundy, Sheriff, Sept. 25, 1798. (Book B, page 622 Washington County, Ky.) However, about four hundred acres of this land was to go to other relatives parties, as prearranged.

Wealthy, intelligent, highly respected, he was soon prominent in affairs of his adopted county, was Justice of Peace (Deed Book 1, page 467). Represented Washington County in Legislature (Western World Frankfort, Ky. Aug. 16, 1805). Was sheriff of Washington County in 1809 (Suit Benedict Spalding against R&Z. Forrest Aug. Court 1809, no. 76). BENEDICT does not seem to have taken a very active part in the Revolutionary War. He was in the St. Marys County Militia, in 1780. (Maryland Historical Society page 243) He did some other service for the cause for I find an order to the West Shore Treasury to pay Benedict Spalding eight pounds and fourteen shillings. (Md. Archives Vol 48. p. 25)

67 Eleanor⁵ of (BENEDICT⁴, BENEDICT³, WILLIAM², THOMAS¹). She was the third child of BENEDICT and ALETHEA (ABELL) SPALDING⁴. She married Basil Riney, son of Thomas and Riney, Oct. 1, 1796. They moved to Hardin Co. where Basil died in Sept. 1824. He made his will May 11, 1824 and it was probated at Elizabethtown Oct. 4, 1824. He mentions his three youngest daughters, viz.: Allethair, Ann and Merion to whom he left bed, furniture and a saddle apiece, also sons James to whom he left a bridle and saddle, to wife Eleanor he left the plantation and veranda of the estate. He had quite a number of children which he did not mention in his will. Eleanor sold the plantation and moved back to Washington Co. before the marriage of her daughter, Mary A. Riney. There is no record of Eleanor's death. She was still alive in 1850, as the U.S. Census of that year shows her living with her brother Richard Spalding. From the will and from information given John James Rabell by his grandmother in 1875, we know Basil and Eleanor had the following children:

102	1	Elizabeth ⁶	b 1799	d	March 6, 1828 died March 28, 1828? born May 28, 1775

71 Benedict⁵ of (Alethea⁴, Benedict³, William², Thomas¹) son of Benedict and Alethea (Abell) Spalding. He was named for his father. He was rich, prominent and often sent to the Legislature from Marion County. He was married three times but never had any children. His first wife was Mary Hamilton, daughter of Leonard and Nancy (McAtee) Hamilton. They were married Jan. 14, 1805. Mary died before 1815 as Benedict married Eliza Elder Jan. 13, 1815. Eliza died April 2, 1832 (Bardstown Herald Vol. 5, No. 23) He married the third time Elizabeth McElroy who was born 1814; she survived him. He is buried in St. Augustine Cemetery, Lebanon, Ky. He gave this cemetery to the church.

68 Richard⁵ of (BENEDICT⁴, BENEDICT³, WILLIAM², THOMAS¹) was the eldest son of BENEDICT and ALETHEA (ABELL) SPALDING⁴. He married Henrietta Hamilton, daughter of Leonard and Nancy (McAtee) Hamilton July 25, 1801. They had the following children:

	1	John ⁶	b June 1, 1802	d June, 1803
113	11	Ann ⁶ (Sr. Constantia)	b July 22, 1803	d Aug. 25, 1858

119	VIII	Clement C. ⁶	b May 7, 1814	d July 26, 1837

Henrietta, wife of Richard, died Dec. 3, 1815 in the thirty fifth year of her age. She is buried in the Calvary Cemetery.

Richard Spalding⁵ married the second time, Henrietta Thompson Jan. 17, 1817. She was born in 1786 and died June 9, 1826. Their children were:

120	IX	Caroline ⁶	b Oct. 15, 1817	d Sept. 18, 1849
121	X	William Thomas ⁶	b Oct. 19, 1818	d Mar. 6, 1881

124	XIII	Joseph ⁶	b Apr. 21, 1822	d Mar. 14, 1884

Richard Spalding married the third time a widow, Mrs. Mary Adams, whose maiden name was Mary Charlton, Feb. 15, 1827. Their children were:

125	XIV	Susan Mary ⁶	b May 2, 1831	d Apr., 1902
126	XV	George Robert Thomas ⁶	b Mar. 28, 1833	d
126	XV	Thomas E. ⁶	b Sept. 23, 1835	d Oct. 1, 1856

Mary Charlton, Richard's third wife, was born Oct. 11, 1792. She died Aug. 4, 1850. Richard⁵ survived her slightly more than a month. He died Sept. 7, 1850. He and his three wives are buried in the Calvary Cemetery.

Dear Dr. Drury,

I have begun to collect Bowman information for you but there is more that I have not reviewed. However, I have a consulting job in New Mexico and won't be able to work on your information again until after May 15th. I send you what I have, because if you are like me you are anxious to learn all that you can about your ancestors.

You didn't mention it and I wondered if you knew that Royal Bowman was considered a master builder. Master builders in the early and mid 1800's would be like architects today. He built a number of houses in Lebanon and several of them are still standing. I believe I have some photographs of some of the homes. If I do, you want me to make copies of them for you?

Mary A. Riney is the daughter of Eleanor and Basil Riney. In the will of Benedict Spalding, he mentions his daughter Eleanor Riney. Also on her marriage license it lists Eleanor Riney as her mother. Basil Riney is probably the son of Thomas Riney. Thomas lists his children in his will and I believe Batsel is a typing or transcription error for Basil.

Royal Bowman is probably the son of Thomas and Catherine Bowman but I have not been able to locate any proof of this. There is a Boarman/Bowman Book in our library but it mentions a Royal Bowman as belonging to another line that was not research for this book. There was no information in the Riney, Bowman, Drury, Walston, Gribbins family files that helped. Most just contained requests with little or no attached information.

I am really struggling with the Walston/Gribbins/Drury lines with no information to date.

I went through the baptisms records at St. Augustine Church, Lebanon, Kentucky. I copied all the Bowmans and Moores that were Royal's children, grandchildren and may have picked up some great grandchildren. Looks like I have some different dates of births and some different names.

Copy of Family History of C. P. Bowman by Mary M. Shise O'Neil (a granddaughter)

My father had drifted lower down in Tenn. and made the acquaintance of one Miss Mary Wilmot in Jefferson County, from here he also volunteered and served under General Andrew Jackson.

Aunt Nancy had married a man by name of John Kildoe, with whom Grand mother lived. In the fall of President election I attended a convention at Greenville, Tenn., and visited John Kildoe's farm about six miles northeast of Greenville, seat of Green County. John was dead, his son run a potters shop and his and others of the family were living together.

Sometime about 1675 or 80 there was a man by the name of Carllank, French Portuguese, emigrated to America from the south of France of the class of that people and settled in South Carolina. There also came a young man from England, James Wilmot by name, a descendant of Wilmot, Earl of Rochester and a contemporary with James, second of England. This young James Wilmot morning my father took his departure eastward for home without his negro, never saw the old man (uncle) afterwards nor heard what he done with his negr father's family, Grandfather Enoch, and Nancy and my father (John) now consti division of the U.S. Army and served in the war till he died on the border of Canada.

of him in Tenn. he married three times and was left without an heir. He had grown very rich, his third wife died and he had no company but his negroes, of course he was lonesome, on seeing my father after he was grown up insisted he should visit him and promised him a negro for his visit accordingly my father visited him. He said his uncle had all a man need to want, 4 negroes, any amount of broad acres, a cellar of the best drinks, money and stock a plenty. When father reached his place, uncle Sam at once made preparations for a good time that night. After supper, he ordered in twelve, ten year old negro boys, good dancers. after the old Virginia style and good fiddle the bowl was kept full and the dance continued till ten o'clock. Then the negroes were sent to their quarters. Then Uncle Sam tolerably full commenced a conversation in which he gave a history of his life and detailed account of his three wives and dwelled long on his troubles, part of which ran about as follows, "Well shon te lost pen goot to me. I haf cot eferytting & neunt more, ven I married my first wife

Ky. river at a ford or shoal, one mile below
Twine was drowned. He is buried there just above the high water mark. He left his wife and three children, William, Jacob, and Elizabeth. His wife took her children and joined what is known as the Shaker family, located near Harrodsburg, Mercer county Ky. and staid for a time.
She became dissatisfied and left the Shakers then bound her two boys out to a very hard master and remarried. Jacob concluded he could not stand the rough treatment he was getting and left between two days, and has not been heard of since by any of us. Elizabeth grew to womanhood and married a man by the name of Clark, William, the oldest served his time out, then enlisted in the U.S. service and served through the late British war, was discharged in 1815 and returned to Mercer County Ky. He married a Miss James and lived in Mercer for some years, but finally sold out and bought across the Ky. river in Woodford county Ky. and there lived untill he died, Oct 21st 1876 at the age of 82. Grandfather had also a brother, Samuel, who had settled lower down or west fell with his face in six inches of water and drowned when discovered. He is buried there. The last time I passed Leesborough that is the name of the place where he settled was known by. There was a new grist mill built on the same site and running. Joseph the youngest of my grand father's brothers, that came with him from Penn., left Tenn and settled in Mercer Co Ky. at what time I do not know. He seemed to have understood the manufacture of saltpeter then extensively used and in much demand for making powder, he was induced to repair to the mountains of eastern Ky. for the purpose of making saltpeter as they called it. This was a wild country then and abounded in numerous den and caves. He would construct a rude receptacle called a hopper, he filled it from the bottom of the rock house they were called, then filter water through this, the water thus obtained when boiled and produced petri. On one occasion he has made a fine lot and started home with it on pack horse down the Ky river, and got as far as where Irvine now is, the county seat of Estill county Ky and his crossing to father, on my father's side of the ^{mill} ~~mill~~ classes in Germany, with his family and other relatives, emigrated to America and settled in Penn Colony: after Pennsylvania: his son Enoch (my grandfather) I think was married in Germany and brought his wife with him, both being thorough Germans.

My Greatgrandfather died just before the Revolutionary war. My father, John Bowman was born in Penn, in 1780. There were also two other brothers, Joseph and Enoch and one sister Nancy, older than they. Joseph was killed by the kick of a horse before he was grown. In 1790 my grandfather, Enoch Bowman with two of his brothers Joseph and Samuel removed from Penn and settled in East Tenn, then part of Virginia and located five miles west where Jonesburgh now is, the county seat of Washington county and there, built a grist mill. After some years, probably about the time my father was grown. My grandfather undertook to clean his millrace, after the water was drawn off; but being subject to epilepsy, had a spell while cleaning it.

fell in at ~~Corthaus~~ ^{some name} and married his daughter Rachel, these were my grandfather and Grand mother. They settled and remained in South Carolina till my mother was ten years old, the youngest child. Then removed to Tenn and settled in Jefferson county, one mile southeast of Bulls Gap, in Bays Mountains. The country was new and land cheap, so in a short time he owned 320 acres of excellent land. He had four sons, Stephen Thomas, Wallace and James and three daughters, Sally, Matha & Mary. Stephen was sickly and died before grown. Thomas and Wallace volunteered in the U.S. Army in the late British war, at the same time my father did. They took the measles before they started to the front, the regiment started when the measles was raging the highest, the second day out they had to cross a river without a ferry; being infantry they waded waist deep and died on the opposite bank. Matha the oldest living daughter married a Josiah Daugherty and in about 1835 moved to Missouri, settled in Springfield and there lived and died. Their oldest son I knew as Mat about my age is all I knew of their children.

Dear Ms. Glasscock,

Thank you for all the wonderful information you sent me. You gave me information about my grandmother, so that I now know her baptismal name of Dafrosia and that the baptism took place 6 years and 5 months after her birth March 26, 1860. Her brother was baptized the same day, 8 years after his birth, July 23, 1858. This is why I failed in my search of Louisville files. I guess the parents wanted them to be baptized in the same church as their siblings. Do you know anything about the name Dafrosia?

Mary Jo Maquire informed me that there were Walstons and Drurys in the records of Holy Name of Mary Church at Calvary (Marion Co.) Ky. There was a baptismal record of a Henry Drury May 17, 1819. Birth @1819. Father John. My Henry was born in 1815.

In the Census of 1830 Washington Co. page # 125 there is a William Drury & family with a son 10-15 yrs, and 2 sons 15-20 years. My great grandfather would have been 15 yrs. My great grandfather's oldest son was William H. Drury. He could have been named after his grandfather William and his father Henry, so his name was William Henry. Or perhaps my great grandfather's name was William Henry and he was called Henry. So, while searching please consider William Henry Drury as well Henry Drury.

The dates you supplied easily replaced the dates approximated from census records. Enclosed corrected Bowman and Moore records for the Historical Files.

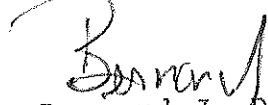

✓ In the Census of 1820 #344 I interpreted a Bittel Riney. Did I misread this name? Is this Basel? If this is please send me a copy.

Please check in the Washington Co. Marriage Records 1792-1826 for James E. Drury Book 5 #63. This could be the brother of Henry Drury because his second son was James E. Drury. It's worth a try!

Enclosed a check for your charges and a bonus for the name Dafrosia. We had considered that this was a last name of an adopted child!

Also for your use is a stamped, addressed envelope.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "Bernard J. Drury". The signature is written in a cursive style with a large, looping initial "B".

Dear Ms. Glasscock,

In my letter of May 13, 1995 I forgot to tell you that I would like copies of the photographs of the homes that Royal Bowman built. I believe that his son James A. Bowman, born in 1830, was a physician. Do you have records which verify this?

With your lead naming Basil Riney as the father of Mary A. Riney Bowman, I reviewed my files and found that in the Washington Co Census of 1810 there is a listing for only one Bazil Riney, one Thomas Riney, and one Zachariah Riney.

Bazil Riney: three male 0-10, one male 16-26, one male 26-45.
one female 0-10. two females 10-16, one female 45+

Mary A. Riney Bowman would have been @3 yrs.(born @1807).

Thomas Riney: two males 16-26, one male 26-45, one male 45+.
one female 10-16, one female 45+.

This could be the Thomas Riney who wrote the will in 1795 or his grandson. Or is the will only recorded at the time of death?

Zachariah Riney: eight children, one male 45+ and two females 45+
He is probably the brother of Basil (Batsel) (Bazil).

Also listed in the 1810 Census. (Henry Drury not born until @1815 35yrs.Census 1850).

John Drury	45+.	a son 16-26.
Zachariah Drury	26-45.	three sons < 10. a female 26-45.
Michael Drury	26-45.	two males < 10. a female 26-45.

In the Washington Census 1830. (Henry Drury would be @15 yrs.)

William Drury	40-50yrs.	one other male 10-15yrs two other males 15-20yrs.
---------------	-----------	--

Zachariah Drury	20-30yrs.	one female 20-30, one female 50-60. two males 10-15.
-----------------	-----------	---

These may not be his sons.

The Zachariah of 1810 would have to be at least 46 yrs.
This is another Zachariah. (0-10 in 1810)

John Drury	30-40yrs	one male 10-15.
------------	----------	------------------------

I hope that this additional information will be of help.

I'm still working on the information you sent on the Walstons.

Enclosed is the stamped, addressed envelope I forgot to send last time.

Sincerely,

Bernard

Could one of these have married Royal (R.M). Bowman?
Is this where the marriage certificate would be located even though the marriage was in 1828? In the Census of 1830 Royal Bowman was 20<30 yrs as was his wife Mary (Riney). There was one male under 5 yrs. There was one slave 10<24 yrs. They were married in a Roman Catholic Church March 6, 1828. We know that he was born in Virginia and she in Kentucky.

My greatgrand mother Mary Ann Bowman Moore, their daughter, was born December 19, 1832. She married Levi Moore September 11.
1849. In the Census 1850 Levi and she were at #69 on August 26, 1850. Her father R.M. Bowman was at #32 on August 24, 1850

CENSUS MARION CO. 1840

Miley Jane (Drury) would be 16 years old since she was 26 years old in the Census 1850. Her oldest daughter was born on Oct 8, 1839, so she was married about 1838 when she was 14-15 yrs old. She and Henry were not living with the Walstons in 1840.

Albin Walston: 1 male <5 yrs., 1 male 20<30 yrs,
1 fem. 20<30 yrs. father of William G. Walston. Son of William Walston.

Richard Walston: 1 male <5 yrs., 1 male 30 <40 yrs,
1 fem. 10<15 years., 1 fem. 20< 30 yrs. [this name not identified]. He could be a son of Obadiah. He had a son 15-20 yrs. in 1830.

William Walston: 2 males <5 yrs, 1 male 5<10 yrs., 1 male 20<30 yrs., 2 fem. 30<40 yrs, 1 fem. 40<50 yrs.
This could be a son of Obadiah since he had a son 15-20 yrs, and two sons 10-15 yrs; or William a son 10-15 yrs in 1830.

William Walston Sr.: 1 male <5 yrs, 1 male 5<10 yrs.,
1 male 10< 15 yrs., 1 male 50<60 yrs., 1 fem. 5<10 yrs.,
1 fem. 50<60 yrs. [no female 15-20 yrs.] [had 1 female 5-10 yrs in 1830].

Joseph Walston (Jr?). Pg 27 #4 : 1 male 10-15 yrs., 1 male 30-40 yrs, 1 male 80-90 yrs. 2 females 0-5 yrs, 2 females 5-10 yrs, 1 female 30-40 yrs, 1 female 70-80 yrs. The older people were probably living with two parents and their children, since in the Tax rolls of 1835 & 1839 Joseph Sr. had no land but had 1-2 slaves. This was probably Joseph Sr. and wife Sarah.

Obadiah Walston: 1 male 10-15 yrs, 1 male 15-12 yrs, 2 males 20-30 yrs, 1 male 50-60 yrs, 1 female 50- 60 yrs. [no female 15-20 yrs.]

[had 1 female 5-10 yrs in 1830.]

Therefore, Miley Jane could have been a daughter of William or Obadiah Walston because the daughter 5-10 yrs in 1830 is not listed in 1840. Most likely, William was the father.

Consider: the two girls absent in this census might have died rather have been Miley Jane.

I realize that this is a great amount of information but I hope it will be of help, so that you don't have to repeat and waste your time and effort in your research. Would cemetery records be of help?

I need:
The birth dates and parents of Henry Drury and Miley (Milly) Jane (Walston??)

Their marriage records, which would be about 1837-39 in Marion or Washington County.

The marriage certificate of Royal Bowman to Mary A. Riney Listed as March 6 1828 page 57 Marriage Ceremonies Holy Mary Church Calvary, KY.

The parents of Royal Bowman and Mary A. Riney. ✓

The marriage certificate of Levi Moore to Mary A. Bowman September 11, 1849.

If William or Obadiah Walston had a daughter named Miley (Milly) Jane.

Check if there are local genealogical records of Drury, Riney, Bowman or Walston that members of these families might have started. Are there still descendants of these families living in Marion Co?

I appreciate that you have taken the time to read all this information, but I know that it will be of help. I'm willing to pay your usual research fees.

I have researched as far as I can without local records and help. I need the next step into Virginia or Maryland.

Enclosed is other information which might be of help .

Enclosed an addressed, stamped envelope for your use.

Sincerely,

Bernard J. Drury, M.D.

BOWMAN, ROYAL

Mary Ann Bowman, the wife of Levi Moore, was the daughter of Royal Bowman and Mary Alethea Riney who were m. at Holy Name of Mary Church, Calvary, Marion County, Kentucky, on March 6, 1828. Royal Bowman was b. in Virginia on November 18, 1802 and d. January 27, 1891. Mary Alethea Riney Bowman was b. in 1807 and d. June 8, 1893 in Kentucky. They were both buried in St. Augustine's Cemetery, Lebanon, Marion County, Kentucky.

Royal Bowman was a master builder and built several homes in Lebanon, Marion, County, Kentucky. Most notable is Myrtledene, which was built in 1833 for Benedict Spalding III, his wife's granduncle, the brother of her grandmother Eleanor Spalding Riney. It was used by the Confederate General John Hunt Morgan during the occupation of Lebanon during the Civil War about 1863. It is now used as a Bed and Breakfast. Other homes built were the old Jackson House on East Main, the "Ma" Wathen place Southeast corner of Main and Forest, two other houses built across the street from the Wathen house; a house built in 1828 was torn down and replaced with the Library, His life's history was published in the Montage of the Lebanon Enterprise, Fall 1996. Royal Bowman and his wife Mary Alethea Riney Bowman had 12 children. Of these Royal Martin, Catherine Maria, Maria Catherine, Sarah Elizabeth, Robert Benjamin, and Leonard Monroe were baptized at St. Augustine Church, Lebanon, Kentucky from 1837-1852. Ben enlisted with General Morgan CSA at age 13 years, George was in Co. D. 2nd Kentucky Cav. CSA. William M. Bowman of Co. K 8 KY Cav. CSA was captured at Zanesville, Ohio during the Civil War. George, James A., "Prince" Royal Martin and Leonard Monroe were buried with their parents at St. Augustine Cemetery, Lebanon, Kentucky. Ben Bowman is buried in Danville, Kentucky.

Royal Bowman's parents were William Bowman (1770-1849) and Elizabeth Ann Wilkerson (1779-1849) who settled in Lincoln County before Casey County was founded in 1806. They were both born in Virginia. Their older children were Winston, William and Elizabeth Ann. Winston Bowman (1805-1892) was a judge in Casey County for forty years.

Royal Bowman's wife Mary Alethea Riney Bowman was the daughter of Basil Riney born after 1763, Maryland, and Eleanor Spalding Riney born 1775, Maryland. Basil Riney died 1824 in Hardin County, Kentucky and wife Eleanor died 1883 in Kentucky.

Eleanor Spalding Riney's parents were Benedict Spalding II who died August 1, 1815, buried in Holy Name of Mary Church Cemetery, Marion County, Kentucky, and Alethaire Abell, who died December 1, 1821, buried Marion County, Kentucky.

Submitted by Bernard J. Drury, M.D. and his brother, Roy Drury.

Homes Built by Royal Bowman

Located at the corner of East Main Street and Forrest Street, this brick home was built @ 1850's for W. W. Wathen by his father's brother in law, Royal Bowman. It was originally known as the "Rose Cottage."

The old Jackson house, located on east Main Street, was built for Thomas and Nancy Rodman Jackson. The house was built @ 1830's.

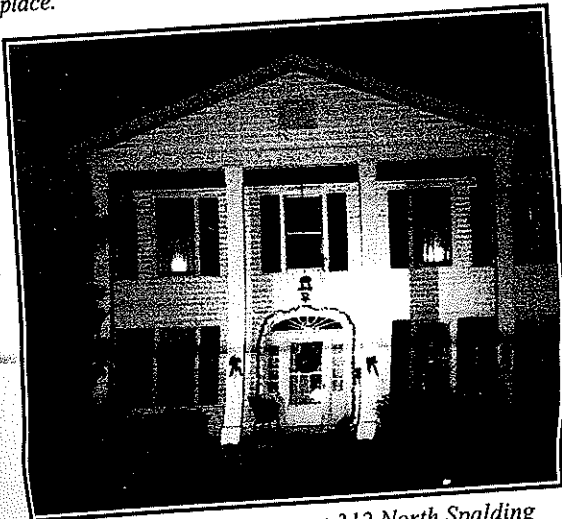

"Myrtledene" located on north Spalding Avenue was built in 1833 for Benedict and Elizabeth McElroy Spalding.

No longer standing, but located where the Marion County Public Library is, was the home of Royal Bowman. It was built before the Civil War and the last tenant was Walter Beswick.

This house built @ 1840 was built for David Phillips. Miss Edmonds' article indicated that Phillips probably built the house. Later Mr. Dehringer, wrote that the home was built by Royal Bowman. There are similiar features in this house, the house next door (see bottom photograph), the Jackson house and the house Royal Bowman lived in.

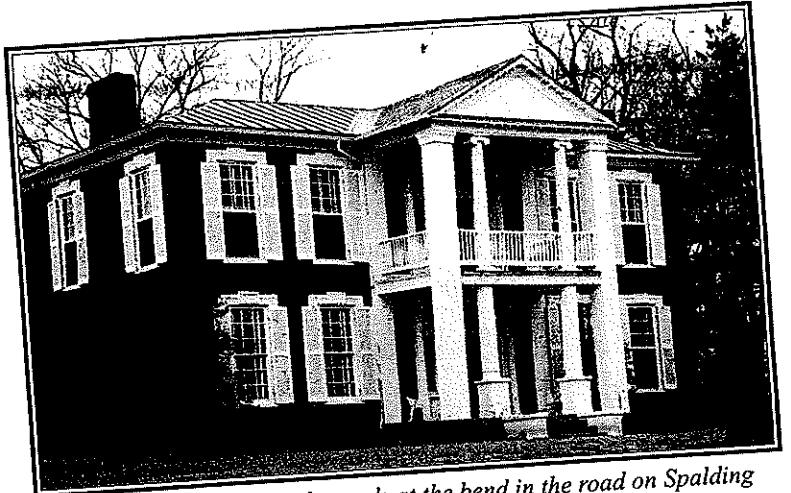

Approaching Lebanon from Springfield you will see, on your right, a spacious antebellum brick home, built in the early 1840s by Joseph Spalding. The wide central hall, entered by an arched front door, extends the full length of double parlors and has a beautiful cherry stairway. Chandeliers in the hall and parlor are reflected in floor-to-ceiling mirrors.
Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Willard purchased the property in 1933. Their daughter, Martha Jean, still lives in the old home place.

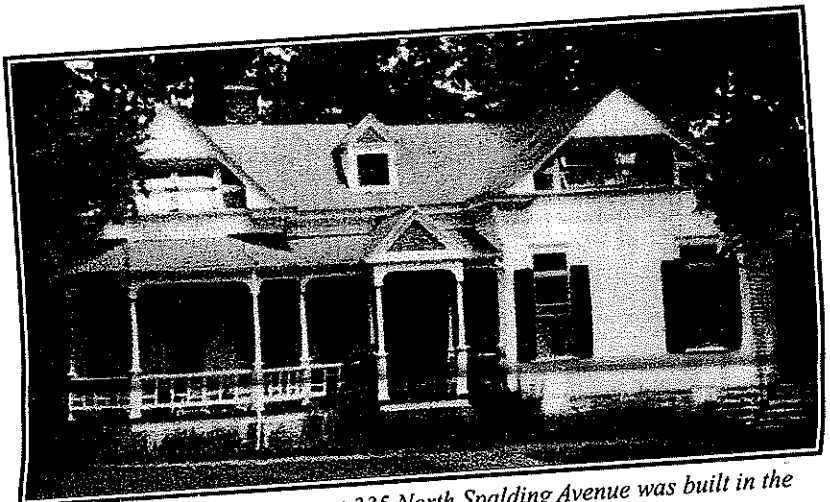

The old colonial front house at 312 North Spalding Avenue was built prior to the Civil War. Mr. and Mrs. Orson Ames were living there in 1858 when their daughter Lena was born. The home was purchased in 1947 by Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hardesty, who added the wide front porch and tall columns. A more recent owner was Circuit Court Clerk Lois Fogle. Now it is the property of Stephen and Robin Humphress, who live there with their children.

A beautiful old Victorian mansion with its third-floor tower and cupola can be found at the corner of North Spalding Avenue and High Street. Built in 1878 by George D. Boldrick, a prominent druggist and distiller, it was later occupied by the R. N. Wathen and T. W. Abell families.

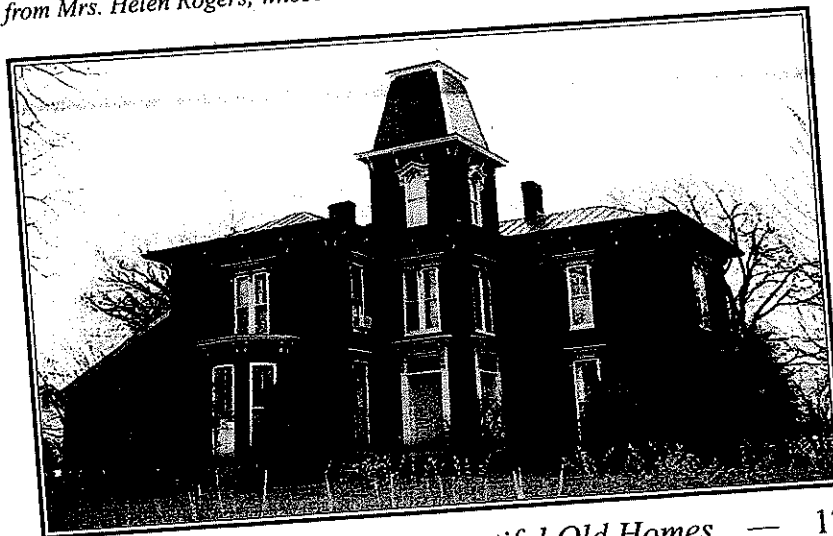

Lebanon Mayor Kathy Blandford lived in the house from 1972 until 1993, when the property was sold to Dr. Greg and Laura D'Angelo. It is now owned by Jimmy and Jane Higdon, who live there.

Colonial Myrtledene, which stands at the bend in the road on Spalding Avenue, was built in 1833 by local contractor Royal Bowman for Benedict Spalding II and his third wife, Elizabeth McElroy. Confederate General John Hunt Morgan made his headquarters here in July 1862. It is said that he rode his horse in the front door and started up the stairs, where his horse left hoof prints.
Current owner Lillian Brewer is a great niece of Elizabeth McElroy. The home is now a bed and breakfast and is operated by James Spragens.

The two-story Victorian home at 335 North Spalding Avenue was built in the 1880s by W. C. Rogers, one-time president of the Marion National Bank. Stained glass doors and windows grace the entrance.
Current owners Mr. and Mrs. Hugh C. Spalding purchased the home in 1946 from Mrs. Helen Rogers, whose husband was descended from the builder.

first railroad car in Kentucky at Lexington where he lived at one time. His greatest work was making a thrashing machine, the first one ever used in this part of the state. He had never seen a machine but had, I suppose, read of them. He made iron journals. Being an artificer in both wood and iron, he could use both. It was not unlike the "ground hog." It was a success and was extensively used. I saw the machine work when I was a child. There were four levers, and he worked six horses. The master wheel was of wood. Locust cogs or pins were used. While he lived at Lexington, he made some machinery for President Polk, before he was President, for the manufacture of cotton yarn in Tennessee. He referred to the building of the first railroad car as the greatest achievement of his life. It must be remembered that the first railroad between Baltimore and Washington was in 1830, and the one between Lexington and Frankfort was in 1831, so that the cars were a new thing. He made this car according to his own plans, submitted by him. The Lexington Observer contained an account of this car given to Colonel Hodges by me in 1888 or 1889. He made many kinds of musical instruments.

We have a harp, an Italian harp now, of his make, played with two mallets, a three-cornered box. He was fond of hunting and fishing and had indulged his tastes freely. He died in February 1881 about 81 years old. He married a Margaret Bowman and had 11 children.

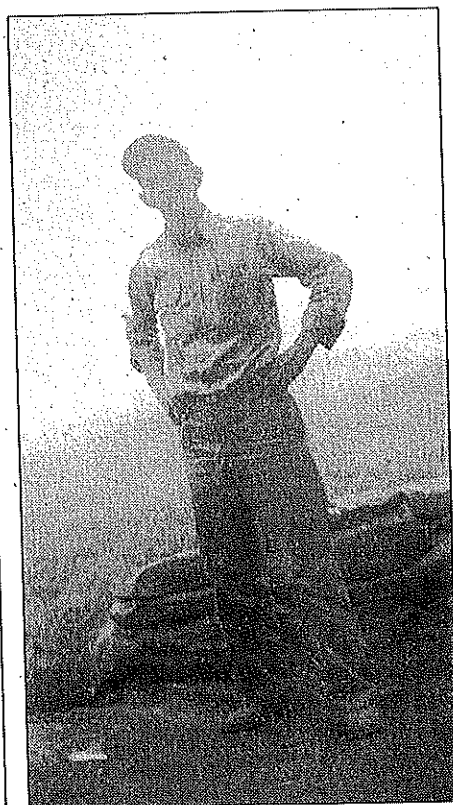

Bowman

My grandmother, Margaret Bowman, was the daughter of Jacob Bowman in Clay County who came to Clay when a boy with his father, Cornelius Bowman from Silver Creek, Madison County. James Moore, a son-in-law of Cornelius Bowman came to Owsley County in 1796, becoming the first settler of what is now Owsley County. He located on the opposite side of the river from the present site of Booneville on the farm now owned by S. B. Shepherd. Cornelius Bowman became a citizen of Owsley County and bought lands for his children and afterwards returned to his lands in Madison County. His children were Jacob Cornelius, Elisha, Elijah, Thomas, John, Mrs. James Moore, and other daughters. Jacob married an Evans. He was my great-grandfather.

Powder Manufacture

He helped in the manufacture of gun powder near Mt. Sterling for the soldiers of the War of 1812. The saltpeter was gotten from the caves of the sub-carboniferous region. He was only 12 years old at the time. Both he and his wife had cholera in Lexington in 1832 and 1833. In the morning newspaper, he read of his own death but said, "I knew that it was not so." He was eccentric. His favorite books were the Bible and the Works Of Dr. Thomas Dick.

Nancy Miller, 309 E. Guardian Street, Columbia, KY 42728, shares this photo of her father, Allen Moore, taken in Pike County, Kentucky, in the early 1950s. Allen is a Adair County, Kentucky, native. He was working in Pike County at the time.

father had sons and daughters, Moses, John, Peter, William (my grandfather), Thomas, still living in Lee County; and Abigail, a widow now living in Montgomery County. My father was a worker in wood and iron. He made the first sorghum mill in these parts and caught the last wolf caught in these parts in 1870. There were eight young ones in Owsley County or on Ross' Creek, Lee County. Moses went to Tennessee, and John lived and died in Montgomery County and was a magistrate. All are long lived. My grandfather had 14 children. Four of them still live in Owsley and Lee counties. My grandfather helped to build the

Widely-Respected Mercer County Couple Were Wed In 1842

Golden Wedding Anniversary United Descendants Of Pioneers Of A Century Earlier

Author Unknown - 1892

Mr. Dudley Mitchem Bowman and Mrs. Virginia Smith Bowman, of Mercer County, Kentucky, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary on Thursday, September 29, 1892, at their home, "Bellevue," near Burghin. From the Danville correspondent of The Louisville Times, the following is extracted:

"September 29, 1842, a large and fashionable assemblage met at Avondale, in Mercer County, the home of Abram Smith, Esq., to witness the marriage of his daughter, Virginia, then in her 17th year, to Dudley Mitchem Bowman, the son of a neighbor, the Hon. John Bowman. Avondale was then, as it is now, a lovely country home, where a bounteous, graceful hospitality was dispensed, and it is interesting to know that it yet remains in the family and is no less celebrated for perpetuating its old-time reputation.

"The ceremony of 50 years ago [1842] was spoken by the Rev. Thomas Smith, one of the pioneers in the Campbell and Stone's reformation, then just beginning. The bridesmaids were Miss Peachy Smith, now Mrs. Simeon Drake, of Chicago, and Miss Johanna Smith, a sister of the bride, who married Mr. McCann. The groomsmen were Abram Hite Bowman, brother to the groom, and Ben Campbell, yet living in Mercer County. The marriage united two of the most widely-known and respected families of Kentucky, whose names are associated with the early conquest of the land and identified with its erection into an independent state.

"In the colonial annals of Virginia are found their names in places of civil and military distinction. They came from the Shenandoah Valley in Virginia, and Zachariah Smith and Abram Bowman were among the first to make a new home in the wilderness of Kentucky; Smith at 'Ingle-side,' near Danville, Boyle County, and Bowman in Fayette County, only a few miles further away.

A few years thereafter the estate known as Bellevue came into the possession of John Bowman, father of the present owner, by bequest from an uncle. John Bowman was a man of more than ordinary culture for his time, a lawyer by education and a pupil of Henry Clay. His wife was Sarah Mitchem, of Woodford County, daughter of Dudley Mitchem from whom have come the Woolfolks, Haydens, Bannons, and other families well known in Louisville, Lexington, and the Southwest. Their children were the late John Bryan Bowman, for many years Regent of Kentucky University; the late Abram Hite Bowman, many of whose descendants now live in Louisville and various parts of the state; and Dudley Mitchem Bowman, the present owner of Bellevue. It is a rarely beautiful old country home, nearly a century old and substantially built. The arched windows, picturesque fans over the doors, and beautiful hand-carved wooden mantels and window frames take one back to the architecture and house decorations of old Colonial days. The walls are covered with portraits of the former owners and occupants of the home. Mr. Bowman tells with justifiable pride that only Indians and Bowmans ever owned the place. It has been for a century the seat of a princely hospitality, and it was an interesting occasion, the celebration of a golden wedding, that brought under its roof the descendants of the pioneers of a century ago.

"A notable feature of this delightful reunion was the singularly appropriate remarks of the Rev. Owsley Goodloe. Two conspicuous figures were Uncle Louis and Aunt Caroline, former slaves, whose marriage antedated that of Mr. and Mrs. Bowman by six years. At the wedding 50 years ago Uncle Louis had the distinction of driving the carriage and Aunt Lucy was maid in waiting to the bride.

"Owing to the death of a lovely daughter, Mrs. Caroline Bowman Ringo, the guests were limited to the family and a few intimate friends. Among those present were Mary Watters Bowman, widow of the eldest son; John Bryan and his son and daughter; Jennie Bowman Cassel and her two daughters; Dudley M. Dunlap, Jr., and wife, Mary; Nannie Bowman Moore and her five children; Abram Smith Bowman of Fairlawn, Lexington; Miss Nannie Smith; Mary D. Bowman; Mrs. John Augustus Williams; Phil B. Thompson; Rev. Strother Cook; Ben C. Allin and wife, who have been married nearly 65 years; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Riker; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bowman; Rebecca Jones; Mr. and Mrs. James Kunniano; and Mr. and Mrs. William Rowland and Miss Vivian.

Mr. and Mrs. Bowman, though rapidly approaching that age which marks the evening of life, are yet hale and hearty, and give promise of being able to celebrate many more anniversaries of their marriage."

John Walters, known as an Indian fighter, came to Phillips Fort in Larue County in 1780.

Irwin was a Revolutionary soldier. Elizabeth Ball, daughter of Wm. Ball, of Frederick County, Virginia, married George Smith and came to Shelby County, Kentucky, where both are buried in the family graveyard. George Smith was also a Revolutionary soldier in Company I, Third Virginia Regiment Infantry. Among his comrades were William Posey, of Henry County, Kentucky, and Thomas Threlkill, of Shelby County, Kentucky. One of the Ball descendants was the first Magistrate of Jefferson County, Kentucky.

Gaines

James Strother Gaines married Judith Easley and had three brothers, Phillip Gaines, George W. Gaines, and Francis Thornton. Phillip Gaines, the eldest brother, married Miss McGavock. George W. Gaines married Miss Joyce, of North Carolina, and moved to Kentucky prior to 1800. Francis Thornton, the youngest brother, married Miss Kade. He was Clerk of the Court of Eric in Green County, Alabama ca. 1820.

Talbot

Matthew Talbot, born 1699, died 1759, married first Mary Williston; second Jane Clayton; sons, Charles, John, James, Matthew, and Isham. James married Elisabeth, and had, among others, Isham Talbot, born 1760, a Revolutionary soldier, who married his cousin Jane and had Dr. John M. Talbot, of Louisville, Kentucky, deceased; Sophia, who married Judge Peck of Tennessee; Elizabeth, married John Raine, Sr.; and Isham Talbot, Sr., married Elizabeth Davis and had, among other children, Isham Talbot, a Senator, and Jane.

Linthieum

Thomas Linthieum, Sr., of Bardstown, Kentucky, married Nancy Williams, daughter of Charles Williams and wife, early settlers at Louisville, and later moved to Bardstown, dying there. Carles Williams had Ruth, married Mason; Priscilla, married Samuel Bebnear; Basil, returned to England. Thomas Linthieum had Nancy, married William Kendrick; Sallie, married Robert Abel; Ruth, married Frank Nalk; Priscilla, married Oliver Howard; Delphia, married Marmaduke Berkley, of Missouri; Mary, married Stephen Cameron; Angeline, married William Foreman; Elizabeth, married Judge Albert Botts of Owensboro, Kentucky; Linda C., married Henry Lewis; Charles, married Elizabeth Slaughter; Judge Thomas L., married Elizabeth Malone of Nelson County.

Morris

Lettice Morris of Loudon County, Virginia, married George Curtis, of Fairfax, and moved to Mason County, Kentucky in 1780. They lived at Curtis' Station, two miles west of Washington, Kentucky, and in the block house their eldest daughter Polly was born. Their youngest daughter, Elvira Desha Gill died at age 87. Robert Morris, a brother of Lettice was a merchant, and owner and hotel keeper in Lynchburg from 1820 to 1855. Another sister married Mitchell Philoman L. Mitchell of New Orleans. James M. Mitchell, of Palatine Hills, opposite Natchez, Mississippi, were among the descendants of this marriage, as were the Olivers and Bowers of Memphis.

Bowman

The pioneer Bowman family of Eastern Kentucky can be traced to ancestors who first settled in Madison County, and then spread into Estill, Clay, Breathitt, Owsley, Lee, and other counties around the state. The first of the family with definite information is John Bowman, born around 1725 in Virginia, and died in Madison County, Kentucky, 1800. He and his son, Cornelius Bowman, and their families moved from Virginia to Madison County and settled on Muddy Creek ca. 1790. Cornelius Bowman, son of John Bowman, born 1740, in Virginia, died January 1, 1826 in Madison County, Kentucky, married Susanna Abbott (born in Virginia ca. 1742, died in Kentucky in 1802). Their children were (I.) Elijah Bowman, who married Elizabeth Gentry, in Madison County. Their children were: Henry Bowman, married Rachel Plummer; Elisha W. Bowman, married Evaline Isaacs; Ibbey Bowman, married Valentine Crawford, of Lee County, Kentucky; Joseph Bowman, married Cynthia Crawford; Debbie Bowman, married John Brandenburg and lived in Lee County, Kentucky; and Thomas Bowman. (II.) Rev. Elisha W. Bowman, born in Virginia, December 25, 1775; died in Estill County, Kentucky, October 3, 1845. He was a celebrated Methodist preacher and capable physician. He was converted early in life and licensed to preach at the age of 16.

The names of these boys will be sent to the Commissioner of Agriculture who will furnish each with one-half gallon of seed corn. A number of prizes will be awarded for the best corn grown, and an expert will be sent here from Frankfort to examine the corn and make the awards. Each boy growing sixty bushels or more, no matter what seed is used, will be given a diploma of honor by the State. John W. Clarkson.

IS PAINFULLY HURT.

Miss Wilfred Spalding, daughter of Mayor C. C. Spalding, was painfully hurt while driving in an automobile with a party of friends Sunday afternoon. The party had motored over to St. Mary's where Carl Spalding is a student at the college, and returning home the car struck a rough place in the road. Miss Spalding, who was on the rear seat, was thrown with much force against the top of the car. One of the wooden ribs supporting the top struck her in the face, cutting a deep gash across her nose and badly bruising her right eye. The wounds were very painful and bled profusely. The machine was quickly stopped and Miss Spalding taken to a nearby house where her wounds were bathed and temporarily dressed. Arriving in town she was driven at once to the hospital where medical attention was given her injuries. For several days following the accident her injuries were extremely painful. They are not, however, of a serious character, and are now rapidly mending.

YOUNG GIRL IS VICTIM OF AN ATROCIOUS ASSAULT.

Charged with an atrocious crime, John Boorman, Jr., and Clarence Alford were arrested Tuesday afternoon by Sheriff John A. Burton and placed in the county jail. The warrant, under which they were arrested, was sworn out before County Judge A. P. Carter by Minnie Deering, the 18-year old daughter of John Deering, who lives in the Simms' neighborhood, six miles northeast of Lebanon, and charges the two young men with rape.

The alleged crime was committed Sunday afternoon near the Sulphur Springs, a mile and a half southeast of town, and, it seems, was kept quiet by those who knew of it until after the men had been placed under arrest. Even then few were aware of it, and not until Wednesday morning did the news spread to any considerable extent. Since that time a great deal of indignation has been expressed, and some talk of mob violence has been heard. Wishing to take every precaution to protect the men, Judge Carter Tuesday night had the jail guarded to thwart any attempt that might be made to lynch the men. The examining trial was set for yesterday, but the prisoners waived examination and were remanded to jail without bond to await the action of the April grand jury.

The pitiful story told by the girl, and which, in part, is corroborated by three well known young men of this city, places the crime among the most brutal that have occurred in the county in years. The girl lives with her parents near Simms, and enjoys an excellent reputation among those who know her.

According to her story she was visiting her sister, Mrs. John Carrico, who lives with her husband on the farm of R. N. Wathen, on the Danville pike just outside the city limits, and had been there only since Saturday. Sunday afternoon Boorman, whom she said she had known but a short while, drove to the Carrico home about five o'clock and asked her to go riding with him. She told him, she said, that it was too late, but when he said they would drive only a short distance out the road and would soon return she consented. Boorman drove to the Sulphur Springs. There they were joined by Alford, who had earlier in the afternoon been seen with Boorman driving about town, and who had by arrangement. It is said, walked to the springs to meet Boorman. The girl said she begged the two men not to harm her and to take her home, but that they paid no attention to her entreaties. She said she was made to drink whiskey and that they threatened her life, but that notwithstanding this fact she resisted them until she had been cruelly beaten and her strength was entirely exhausted. She was then shockingly mistreated by the men. Boorman later brought her home, she said, and told her he would kill her if she should ever divulge what had happened.

Upon her arrival she at once told her sister of what had taken place. Her clothing was partly torn from her, and her waist was besmirched with blood. She exhibited a number of wounds as evidence of the frightful ordeal through which she had passed.

Monday the girl, accompanied by her sister, went to the office of Judge Carter where she recited her story and asked for a warrant for the arrest of Boorman and Alford. When asked if she had evidence of any kind to corroborate her story she said that three young men came to the springs while they were there, but that she did not know any of them. They remained but a short while and left. She said that

AFTER A MANUFACTURING

The local Business Men's endeavoring to secure for Lebanon a large manufacturing plant, the of which is to make all kinds of buckets. G. B. Scott, of the Traveling Industrial Agent, L. & N. R. Co., was requested by G. Ewer, of Detroit to recommend a suitable location for this plant. Mr. Scott was here today to meet members of the Men's Club and place the matter before them. He also wished to find out the advantages Lebanon possesses for the establishment of a plant of this character. The of the Business Men's Club was to write to Mr. Ewer, inviting him to visit Lebanon as the guest of the club and to personally inspect the advantages it offers to manufacturing industries seeking a location. It is very probable that this offer will be accepted, and either Mr. Ewer, a member of the firm, will possibly be here in a few days. It would be of great benefit to us if of this kind could be induced in our midst. Nothing builds up a town more than manufacturing plants and every effort should be made by our citizens to encourage of this kind. The ENTERPRISE is of the opinion that the city council should tax for five years any manufacturing plant that will locate here. Our citizens extend to the representative of the bucket concern visit here every courtesy and power.

ROAD-BUILDER COMES

The J. I. C. Case Manufacturing Co. of Racine, Wis., have brought a road machine for the purpose of constructing the modern method roads and public highway was made yesterday. The of the county has under the purchase of one of the for use on the county roads of this company claim. The machine is the best machine for this purpose and wished to show it to the county officials to work their machine is capable of doing the work.

TELEGRAPH RATES

Beginning last Wednesday the Western Union Telegraph Company rated a "day letter" service for the night letter service. The company's several morning day letters are accepted for delivery immediately at destination, at one and the night letter rate. The 50-word night letter from Louisville for 25c, while a day letter of 50-words company requires all messages written in plain English language is not admissible.

A NEEDED CHANGE

The reckless disregard of the drivers of delivery town if not stopped will result in some person being hurt. Very often

IS PAINFULLY HURT.

Miss Wilfred Spalding, daughter of Mayor C. C. Spalding, was painfully hurt while driving in an automobile with a party of friends Sunday afternoon. The party had motored over to St. Mary's where Carl Spalding is a student at the college, and returning home the car struck a rough place in the road. Miss Spalding, who was on the rear seat, was thrown with much force against the top of the car. One of the wooden ribs supporting the top struck her in the face, cutting a deep gash across her nose and badly bruising her right eye. The wounds were very painful and bled profusely. The machine was quickly stopped and Miss Spalding taken to a nearby house where her wounds were bathed and temporarily dressed. Arriving in town she was driven at once to the hospital where medical attention was given her injuries. For several days following the accident her injuries were extremely painful. They are not, however, of a serious character, and are now rapidly mending.

County Attorney Henry S. McElroy sustained a similar injury a few months ago while motoring with a party of friends.

TAKES A SHORT VACATION.

Uncle Ben Wilson, the station house keeper, has requested a leave of absence, and expects to spend a short vacation visiting his son in Washington county. He contracted a severe cold several days ago and hopes that a change for a few weeks will be beneficial. Mayor Spalding yesterday appointed T. B. Hicks to act in Mr. Wilson's place until the city council meets, when that body will take steps to elect some one to fill the position while Uncle Ben is away.

GOOD NEWS FOR TEACHERS.

J. W. Clarkson, County Superintendent of Schools, has just received the last installment of the teachers' money, which was due the 11th day of February, and all parties interested can have same by applying to him Saturday at his office at the Marion National Bank. This only applies to those teachers who have filed their registers monthly and time reports.

D. A. R. CHAPTER ORGANIZED.

A chapter of the Daughters of the Revolution was organized in this city Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Ben Johnson, of Bardstown, who is the Kentucky State Regent. It will be called the Israel Putnam chapter, and the following officers were elected: Mrs. L. A. Spalding, Regent; Mrs. John McChord, vice-regent; Mrs. W. G. Cleland, Registrar; Mrs. Sam J. Spalding, Historian; Mrs. T. T. Durham, Recording Secretary; Miss Margaret Wilson, Corresponding Secretary; and Mrs. W. S. Hodgen, Treasurer. The other members of the chapter are Miss Sarah Bottom, Miss Laura Johnson, of New Haven; Miss Annie Rogers, Mrs. Percy Johnston and Mrs. O. D. Thomas. A delegate will later be appointed to attend the Continental Congress which will convene in Washington City the week of April 19.

HEART AND HAND.

Miss May Woods, who is a daughter of Ben Woods and lives in the West end of this county, and Patrick Willett, of Nelson county, were married at New grove to the Springs. There they were joined by Alford, who had earlier in the afternoon been seen with Boorman driving about town, and who had by arrangement, it is said, walked to the springs to meet Boorman. The girl said she begged the two men not to harm her and to take her home, but that they paid no attention to her entreaties. She said she was made to drink whiskey and that they threatened her life, but that notwithstanding this fact she resisted them until she had been cruelly beaten and her strength was entirely exhausted. She was then shockingly mistreated by the men. Boorman later brought her home, she said, and told her he would kill her if she should ever divulge what had happened.

Upon her arrival she at once told her sister of what had taken place. Her clothing was partly torn from her, and her waist was besmirched with blood. She exhibited a number of wounds as evidence of the frightful ordeal through which she had passed.

Monday the girl, accompanied by her sister, went to the office of Judge Carter where she recited her story and asked for a warrant for the arrest of Boorman and Alford. When asked if she had evidence of any kind to corroborate her story she said that three young men came to the springs while they were there, but that she did not know any of them. They remained but a short while and left. She said that it was after this that the two men mistreated her.

Ray Johnston, LaMotte Spalding and McHenry Bottom, drove out to the springs late Sunday afternoon, and when they reached there found standing just outside the spring-house a buggy in which were Boorman and a girl. The young men were compelled to walk by the buggy to get to the spring, and as they did so heard Boorman cursing. This he continued, stating, among other things, that he had nothing to fear and that he wasn't afraid of every one in the county.

They said that Boorman was drinking, and that he had a bottle of whiskey which he made no effort to conceal. The three young men had been at the springs but a short while until Alford, whom they had passed walking along the road, arrived. He passed the buggy, speaking to the occupants as he did so, and sat down at the spring-house. The young men say that while they were at the springs the girl got out of the buggy; that she begged to be taken home and that it was apparent she had been crying.

The Deering girl is the daughter of humble parents, but is given an excellent name by prominent citizens who know her.

Boorman was involved in a similar trouble a year or so ago when he was indicted at the instance of a girl who alleged that he had mistreated her while returning from a dance near New Market. He was tried twice, but each time the jury failed to agree upon a verdict and he finally secured a dismissal.

A TIMELY SUGGESTION.

Editors of THE ENTERPRISE:

After reading in THE ENTERPRISE a short time ago that the bazaar recently held in Lebanon by the members of St. Augustine's congregation cleared $1700, the idea occurred to us that the Catholics of this city could easily establish and maintain a free school by holding a bazaar each year, and applying the proceeds to support the school. All that is necessary to be done is for a few of the wide-awake progressive citizens of the community to start the movement and success will surely follow, as the people of Lebanon are a unit in matters of this kind, and would willingly do their duty. Why not start a movement of this kind now and be ready for next September?

For the second time within the past few months a jury in the Marion circuit court has inflicted the death sentence. John Boardman, who has been on trial since Monday, charged with mistreating Miss Minnie Lamb, the 17-year-old daughter of poor but respected parents residing about seven miles northeast of this city and near the Washington county line, Tuesday night brought in a verdict of guilty and fixed the penalty at death. The case was given the jury, which, with one exception, was composed of Boyle county citizens, shortly after nine o'clock, and thirty minutes later the verdict was in the hands of the court. It is said that

Mrs. Ellen Smothers, aged 71 years, wife of Isaac Smothers, deceased, died at her home at Riley Wednesday morning, of infirmities due to old age. The funeral services were held yesterday morning and the interment was in the Edwards burying ground. She is survived by several children. Mrs. Smothers was well known in the community in which she lived, and many friends unite in extending sympathy to the family in the loss they have sustained.

There was a mistake made last week in announcing the date of the Teachers' Association at Pleasant Run Methodist church. The date announced in the local papers was Oct. 14. It should have been Saturday, Oct. 21, 1911. The error is much regretted but it is hoped all patrons and friends will find that the later date will suit their convenience.

A program has been arranged which it is believed will prove of interest to but two ballots were taken, the first on the guilt or innocence of the accused and the second on the penalty that should be meted out. On the first ballot the vote was unanimous. Before taking the second ballot one of the jurors, it is said, asked to have explained to him some phase of the court's instructions. This was done, and when the vote was taken each one of the twelve men favored the death sentence. Boorman received the verdict with the utmost calm, and was apparently unmoved by the words spoken by the foreman of the jury. The following men composed the jury: Joe Tarkington, Parksville; J. M. Barrack, Mitchellsburg; J. P. Foster, Perryville; W. B. Overstreet, Parksville; J. E. Caldwell, Perryville; W. L. Tenny, Perryville; Henry Bonta, Danville; Geo. W. Carter, Danville; R. J. Morrissey, Danville; J. W. Coulter, Parksville; G. L. Potts, Parksville, and Gatton Miller, of Raywick.

Clarence Alford, indicted along with Boorman for the same offense, the two being together at the time, will not be tried at this term of court. The two men elected to have separate trials, and that of Boorman was held first. Or account of the fact that the four weeks' session of court will end tomorrow Alford's case was continued until the January term.

Boorman is about 28 years of age and has heretofore figured in an affair of a similar nature. He was, however, acquitted, the testimony of Alford being largely responsible for the jury's verdict. The crime for which Boorman has just been tried occurred a mile east of Lebanon the latter part of last February. Almost immediately afterward Boorman and Alford were arrested, and so strong was the feeling against them the authorities thought best to remove them to the Jefferson county jail for safe keeping. They have been kept there almost continuously from that time until brought here a week or so ago to stand trial.

Jim Buckner, colored, who murdered Night Officer John A. Robey in May and was quickly tried and sentenced to die for the crime, was the first victim put to death in the electric chair at Eddyville.

LEBANON, MARION COUNTY, KENTUCKY, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 27.

THE JURY AND COURT OFFICIALS FIGURING IN THE TRIAL OF JOHN BOARMAN CONVICTED OF ASSAULT AND SENTENCED TO DIE.

Top row, reading from left to right—J. P. Foster, Joe Tarkington, Henry Bonta, Commonwealth Attorney Clem S. Hill, Deputy Sheriff J. H. Sparrow, County Attorney Henry S. McElroy, J. W. Conlter, J. M. Barrick and J. B. Caldwell.

Bottom row—Gatton Miller, R. M. Morrissey, Geo. W. Carter, Circuit Judge I. H. Thurman, W. A. Overstreet, W. L. Penny and Geo. Potts. The jury, with the exception of Mr. Miller who lives near Raywick, was composed of Boyle county citizens.

CUTTING CORN FOR SILAGE.

The composition of corn undergoes rapid changes from the tasseling period until maturity. The dry matter shows an increase of tons per acre from the time the corn is in tassels until the kernels are dried. Tasseled corn has only one-fifth as much dry matter as mature corn. It is owing to such changes that corn must be cut at the proper stage if it is to make the best silage. If cut too green, the silage will sour more easily, and will not possess the fullest food value. Immature corn is often the cause of the complaints that silage makes undesirable milk. If cut too ripe, the desired succulence is lost. The proper stage for cutting is when the lower leaves have commenced to turn brown, yet when the greater part of the leaf is still green. The kernels should be out of the milk stage and dried and hardened.

LICENSE TOO HIGH.

Five thousand dollars a year is too much for a saloon license in Bowling Green, the Court of Appeals decided recently in affirming the Warren Circuit Court in the case of Townsend, Mayor against John Gorin and same against Montgomery & Williams. The Court of Appeals holds that the license fee is unreasonable and intended to defeat a statute. When Warren county took a vote on the question of saloons the city of Bowling Green voted wet, but the city council met and fixed the saloon license at $1,000. Saloon-men brought suit to compel the council to grant licenses and the lower court granted a writ of mandamus against the council, requiring it to issue licenses under the old law. The lower court is sustained by the higher court.

A SURPRISE SHOWER.

The following of interest here, where Miss Averitt is well known, is taken from the Castle Rock (Washington) Advocate: Wednesday evening, at the comfortable home of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Wehtje, Dr. Fryer and Miss Ruby Averitt were the recipients of a surprise shower by a number of their friends. That these young people who are soon to embark on the sea of matrimony are very popular was evidenced by the large number present and the many expressions of hearty wishes.

REAPER CLAIMS DR. TUCKER.

DeWitt Tucker, a former citizen of this county and well known to the older residents here, died at his home in Danville last Friday of infirmities due to old age. He was 80 years of age at the time of death. The funeral services were held at his residence in Danville, conducted by Rev. E. M. Green, after which the remains were brought here and interred by the side of his parents in Ryders cemetery. He is survived by his wife and five children. The following notice of his death is taken from the Danville Advocate: "DeWitt Clinton Tucker was born Oct. 3, 1831, in Marion county. After attending St. Mary's College he graduated from the Kentucky School of Medicine in Louisville, and in 1852 from Bellevue Medical Hospital in New York, thereafter locating in Danville, where he practiced his profession for forty years, with the exception of a brief period which was spent in Marion county. Thirty-eight years ago he was united in marriage to Miss Anna Magoffin, of Harrodsburg, daughter of the late Gov. Beriah Magoffin, and is survived by his wife and five children, viz: Messrs. D. C. Tucker and Magoffin Tucker, Misses Annie and Lettie Tucker, of Danville, and Mrs. J. S. Moorman, of Louisville. Dr. Tucker was the last of the charter members of Franklin Masonic Lodge, No. 28. He was also a Knight Templar. He was a man of fine education and many accomplishments, in addition to his native tongue speaking fluently German, French and Spanish; a whole-souled, genial companion, of amiable disposition and kindly heart, never speaking an unkind word of any human being; readily recognizing and unhesitatingly giving expression to what he conceived to be the commendable qualities of his fellow-men."

WE call on every Democrat in the county to do his duty at the coming November election. The State ticket, headed by James B. McCreary, is one worthy the support of every patriotic citizen of the State. S. H. Rogers, the Democratic nominee for the Legislature in this county, is a gentleman of high standing, superior ability and capable of making an efficient and useful member. Being a farmer, he is especially qualified to look after their interests and protect them from burdensome legislation. With the ticket composed of such splendid material, the call to arms should be answered by every patriotic citizen, and every loyal Democrat should commence now to work for the entire ticket. Let every man do his duty at the coming November election and a Democratic victory is sure to follow.

A VERY able and interesting communication appeared in THE ENTERPRISE recently written by Judge H. W. Rives, of this city, on the subject of "Kentucky Roads and Convict Labor." As these two questions are subjects of much discussion between the Democratic and Republican parties in the campaign now going on, and as both questions, if solved in the proper manner, would be of great importance to the material welfare of the State, the article referred to is worthy of the most serious thought and consideration. These questions have been before each session of the Legislature of Kentucky for years, and while Representatives admitted the injustice of having the products of convict labor come in competition in the open markets with that of free labor, yet no satisfactory way was ever suggested and no practical plan ever devised that received sufficient notice to be

The Democratic was the first paper to call for the calling of a Democratic convention to frame a platform and adopt a declaration of principles. Other papers have since followed in the lead. We hope and believe more will follow, and by their united efforts induce the Democratic State Executive Committee to call a convention and adopt a platform. The success of the party depends upon it. A very existence is at stake. Let all lovers of liberty and good government fall in line and demand of the governing authorities the opportunity of proclaiming to the world the principles for which they stand and the doctrines in which they believe. Having commenced this fight we propose to stay in it to the end.

With the tobacco market in an unsettled condition, and with a slim prospect ahead for the tobacco growers to realize a plan of procedure satisfactory to all, we think it a bad time for farmers to make plans to raise a very extensive crop of tobacco the coming year. While some are still advocating the plan of cutting out entirely the crop this year, there are a great many who insist on a curtailment of acreage, and the arguments they advance why this course should be followed seem to be rapidly gaining in favor. Under these conditions we believe the best way to proceed is to go into the field only a limited amount of tobacco and be prepared to take advantage of such favorable conditions as may arise in the near future.

Many of the Democratic newspapers are beginning to awaken to the danger that would confront the party should it go into the election this fall without a platform, and are joining in the fight started by THE ENTERPRISE many weeks ago to have the Executive Committee call a convention for the purpose of framing a declaration of principles. The Columbia News is the latest rejoinder. Hitherto that paper has had much to say on the subject, but this week it contains a strong editorial in which the Executive Committee is taken to task for its action in refusing to allow the Democrats of the State to meet and adopt a platform. The News says to part.

The Executive Committee was elected to serve and not boss the party. It has no right to deny a convention for the purpose of making a platform, and in doing so it is undemocratic. The action on the part of the majority of the committee to set our party nominees adrift without party pledges, is nothing but a cowardly attempt to dodge issues and carry water on both shoulders. It will not work for the good of the party nor for our nominees, and will prove the most costly blunder made in years. This paper has no faith in such a course, and does not believe in leaving it to meet victory.

There seems to be no doubt that the nomination for State offices, as well as the election of a United States Senator which we live should be remodeled. A system of internal improvements is badly needed. Our school system is not what it should be. Our penal and charitable institutions need legislation. The management of our penitentiaries should be vested in a Board of Control, non-partisan in nature, and unbiased by political considerations. These are the present living, important questions now engaging the minds of the people, and candidates seeking their suffrage must express their position as to the best manner of dealing with these propositions. There must certainly exist a strange condition of affairs when the governing authorities of a great party in one of the States of the Union, are so engrossed and are more interested in deciding how to select their nominees than in framing a declaration of principles in which these nominees shall profess allegiance. If platforms and declarations of party principles are to be sacrificed for individual and personal favorites to fill public offices, then the Democratic party is straying into undiscovered lands and following wreckless and dangerous leaders. If disaster overtakes the party at the coming November election, the blame will rest solely on the heads of the Democratic State Executive Committee. We wish to sound a note of warning. Time will prove whether or not we possess the power of a prophet.

COUNTY COURT PROCEEDINGS.

The following business has been transacted in the county court since the last issue of THE ENTERPRISE:

Mother Thomas Rodman, of Loretto Academy, tendered in court her commission as a notary public, gave bond and qualified.

An order was entered transferring John Boardman, Jr., and Clarence Alford from the Marion county jail to the Jefferson county jail for safe keeping.

The will of Miss Belle Thomas was probated at the regular term of court Monday, having been proven by the oaths of George Mattingly and Albert Abell, the attesting witnesses. The estate is bequeathed to a number of the heirs of Miss Thomas. The will was written August 21, 1902, and George Mattingly is nominated executor.

George Mattingly qualified as executor of the will of Miss Belle Thomas, deceased, and O. D. Thomas, C. C. Boldrick and R. L. Spalding were appointed appraisers of the estate.

In the Wimsatt road motion the petitioners filed exceptions to the report of the Commissioners who had reported adversely to the change sought in the Chicago and Raywick county road. The case was continued until the next term.

TO HAVE BETTER ROADS.

The Fiscal court met yesterday to discuss the advisability of purchasing a steam roller for use in working the roads of the county. Representatives of several companies were present and addressed the court concerning the merits of their respective machines. After carefully considering the matter, it was decided not to purchase a machine at this time, and instead the court entered into a contract with T. M. Estes whereby he is to furnish the county his steam roller, place it in charge of a competent road-builder and work the roads at the agreed rate of $10 per day for each day of ten hours worked. It is estimated that about one-fifth of a mile of road can be worked per day. By adopting this plan the court will have an opportunity to learn something of the work that can be done with one of the rollers, and if it should prove in every way satisfactory it is probable the county will later purchase a machine.

Now that the county has paid all its indebtedness, it is probable that considerable more money will be expended for the improvement of county roads than has been in the past.

DEATH CLAIMS A GOOD MAN.

J. Arcena Bickett, one of the best known and most popular citizens of the county, died at his home at Raywick Sunday night of stomach trouble. Mr. Bickett was 84 years of age at the time of death. The funeral services were held Tuesday morning at St. Francis Xavier's church, conducted by Rev. A. C. Zoeller, after which the interment took place in the cemetery there. The remains were laid by the side of his wife, who preceded him to the grave several years ago. He is survived by five children, namely: Mrs. Len Edelen, of Louisville, and Miss Bridget and Ernest, Nat and Will Bickett, of this county. The sudden death of Mr. Bickett was a great shock to the entire community. He was at church Sunday morning and on reaching home after the services was attacked with a severe chill and died about 11 o'clock the same evening. No man stood higher in the community in which he lived than did Arcena Bickett. Honest in his actions and upright in his dealings with men, he enjoyed the confidence and merited the good will of all who knew him. Mindful of the uncertainties of life and ever practicing the duties belonging to his station, he was a God-fearing, christian, charitable man, giving to the poor and ever ready to lend a helping hand to those in distress. Many friends and acquaintances extend sympathy to the sorrowful family in their great bereavement.

DEATH CLAIMS MRS. YOWELL.

Mrs. Mattie Lue Yowell, wife of J. Q. Yowell who lives above Bradfordsville, died at her home on Thursday morning, October 19, 1911, after an illness of several years duration. Mrs. Yowell was about 48 years of age at the time of death. Funeral services were held Saturday morning at Pleasant Valley church, conducted by Rev. Joseph Montgomery, and the interment was at Old Liberty burying ground. She is survived by her husband and two daughters, Mrs. Mary Swiggett and Mrs. Estell Adams, both of whom live in this county; also by one brother, two sisters and one half brother.

Mrs. Yowell was formerly Miss Mattie Weatherford, daughter of Thomas Weatherford a prominent citizen of the Bradfordsville section. In October, 1883, she married J. Q. Yowell, a son of Hardin Yowell, and a brother of Chief of Police William Yowell of this city. Mrs. Yowell was a splendid christian woman and greatly loved in the community in which she lived. Many friends unite in expressing sympathy to the family in their great bereavement.

NEW TRIAL DENIED BOARMAN.

Circuit Judge I. H. Thurman on Saturday, the last day of the recent session of court, overruled a motion for a new trial in the case of the Commonwealth against John Boarman, convicted and sentenced to die for assaulting Minnie Lamb, a 17-year old girl residing in the extreme northeastern part of the county, last February. At one o'clock in the afternoon Boarman was brought before the court and the judge, in a most impressive manner, pronounced the death sentence, naming Friday, November 17, as the day when the death penalty should be inflicted. The prisoner stood motionless while the death sentence was being delivered and showed no outward sign of fear. It is reported that a bill of exceptions has been prepared by Boarman's lawyers and that the case will be appealed.

Clarence Alford, charged with the same crime, will be tried at the January term of the Marion circuit court. As stated in last week's ENTERPRISE, the jury that tried Boarman was composed of eleven men from Boyle county and one from this county. After the rendition of the death sentence, Judge Thurman granted a stay of execution for sixty days pending an appeal of the case to the Court of Appeals and ordered that Boarman be sent to the Jefferson county jail to await the action of the higher court.

TWO CHANGES IN FIRMS.

Messrs. Ward and Lewis Edmonds have purchased from the estate of the late A. H. McChord the stock and good will of the firm of McChord & McChord, and will conduct the business under the name of Edmonds & Bro., thus reviving one of the oldest and best known firm-name in the city's history. Both gentlemen are well known. Ward Edmonds has been with McChord & McChord since the business was established five years ago. He is thoroughly conversant with every detail of the business, and in its conduct will have a valuable assistant in his brother, Lewis Edmonds. The latter has been the efficient head book-keeper for the Lebanon Lumber Co. for a number of years past. He has tendered his resignation, but will remain with the company until his successor is chosen.

On Monday C. W. Hagan, of this city, sold his half interest in the meat and grocery business of Thompson & Hagan, on the corner of Main street and Spalding avenue, to T. M. Estes. The consideration was private. Mr. Hagan retires from the business on account of his health and wishes to remain at home.

TO DIE THIS MORNING.

John Bowman, who was convicted in the Marion Circuit Court in October, 1911, of criminally mistreating Minnie Deering, the 18-year-old daughter of John Deering, and sentenced to die for the crime, will, unless Gov. McCreary last night commuted the sentence or granted a respite, die in the electric chair at the Eddyville penitentiary early this morning. After the man has been pronounced dead the body will be turned over to a local undertaker, who is now in Eddyville, and brought to this city for interment.

The crime for which Bowman will pay the penalty with his life was committed at the Sulphur Springs one mile east of this city the latter part of February, 1911. It took place on a Sunday afternoon and when news of the affair spread it caused a great deal of indignation. Bowman and Clarence Alford, who, it was said, was also deeply implicated in the crime, were arrested a few days later and placed in jail. So strong did the feeling against the two men become the authorities removed them to the Jefferson county jail for safe keeping. Bowman was tried in October, 1911, by a jury composed, with one exception, of Boyle county men. He was found guilty and sentenced to die. The case was taken to the Appellate Court and affirmed. For more than a year Bowman has been awaiting death at the Eddyville penitentiary. Alford was more fortunate than his companion. He was tried and convicted and sentenced to the penitentiary for a term of from ten to twenty years. He is now serving his sentence at the Frankfort penitentiary.

The Deering girl's story of the crime was an unusually pitiful one. At the time she lived with her parents near Simons, but was visiting her sister, Mrs. John Carrio, who lived with her husband on the farm of R. N. Wathen near town. She said that Bowman, whom she had known for only a short while, drove to the Carrio home the afternoon the crime was committed about five o'clock and asked her to go driving with him. She told him, she said, that it was too late, but when he said he would drive only a short distance out the road she consented and got into the buggy.

Bowman drove to the Sulphur Springs. There they were joined by Alford, who had been in the afternoon been seen with Bowman driving about town and who had, it was said by other contact, walked all the spring to meet Bowman. The girl told the judge that she not to harm her and to take her home, but that they paid no attention to her entreaties. According to her story, she was made to drink whiskey and they threatened her life, but notwithstanding these facts she resisted them until she had been cruelly beaten and her strength was completely exhausted. She was then shockingly mistreated by both men. She said that Bowman later brought her home and told her if she divulged what had taken place he would kill her. The girl immediately upon her arrival home told her sister of what had happened. Her clothing was torn and partly besmirched with blood. She exhibited a number of wounds as evidence of the frightful ordeal through which she had passed.

The pitiful story told by the girl was in part corroborated by three well known young men of this city who visited the springs that afternoon and saw Bowman, Alford and the girl there. They said that Bowman was drinking and had a bottle of whiskey which he made no effort to conceal. They heard the girl ask to be taken home and said she had evidently been crying.

Bowman on a previous occasion was indicted for mistreating a girl while returning from a dance at New Market. He was was tried twice but never convicted and was finally acquitted, the evidence of Alford being largely responsible for his dismissal.

NEW COUNTY CHAIRMAN.

On account of the resignation of J. T. Averts as chairman of the Democratic committee of Marion county, a meeting was held Saturday afternoon for the purpose of electing a new chairman. The only name presented for consideration was that of Richard M. Spalding and he was elected unanimously. Mr. Averts' resignation was due to the fact that his business interests prevented him in a large measure giving the time that was necessary to the management of party affairs. Mr. Spalding, the new chairman, has had much experience in the conduct of the committee work, having been a member of the body for several years, and the knowledge and experience thus gained enables him to assume charge as leader of the party with every assurance of success.

TOMMY DIES OUT THE DORE

Tommy Dore, the popular postmaster at Lebanon, was in Louisville yesterday presumably to talk Chairman John Langley and Republican State committee members, what wonders the Republican of Marion county intended to perform. Tommy, however, denied the charge of impeachment and said he came solely on business. Pressed for some political gossip, Tommy admitted that McCrory would carry Marion county by a small majority. Some lightning calculations had handed Tommy figures, showing that O'Rear could carry the State by 7,000 but at night he expected the election to be won by the down for 30,000. The Republican column, however, employed a different tactic. It was safe to say, O'Rear would carry him. He is the last stand on the Republican side in the Legislature from Marion county. Many friends unite in expressing sympathy to the family in their great bereavement.

DEATH OF WILLIAM FENWICK.

William Fenwick, a well known citizen of the county, died at his home at Raywick last week, after a brief illness of a complication of diseases. He was 60 years of age at the time of death. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. A. C. Zoeller at St. Francis' church at Raywick, and the interment was in the cemetery there. Mr. Fenwick was a Union soldier and served through the war with honorable distinction. He was an honorable man and will be missed in the community in which he lived. He is survived by his wife, four daughters and two sons.

DIES AFTER SHORT ILLNESS.

Geraldine, the 17-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Burke, died at the home of its parents at Loretto Sunday evening, after an illness of only one day. The child was in perfect health until Saturday night when it was taken with convulsions, which caused her death. The funeral services were held Tuesday morning at Smock's Chapel, conducted by Rev. J. O. Hoakinson, and the interment took place in the cemetery there. She is survived by her parents, one sister and one brother who have the sympathy of the entire community.

NEW TRIAL DENIED BOARMAN.

Circuit Judge I. H. Thurman on Saturday, the last day of the recent session of court, overruled a motion for a new trial in the case of the Commonwealth against John Boorman, convicted and sentenced to die for assaulting Minnie Lamb, a 17-year-old girl residing in the extreme northeastern part of the county, last February. At one o'clock in the afternoon Boorman was brought before the court and the judge, in a most impressive manner, pronounced the death sentence, naming Friday, November 17, as the day when the death penalty should be collected. The prisoner stood motionless while the death sentence was being delivered and showed no outward sign of fear. It is reported that a bill of exceptions has been prepared by Boorman's lawyers and that the case will be appealed.

Clarence Afford, charged with the same crime, will be tried at the January term of the Marion circuit court. Dan Thompson will continue in active charge of the business.

THREE FARMS SOLD.

At the sale of the L. D. Mattingly land near St. Mary's Tuesday a large crowd was present and the bidding at times was quite spirited. The property, consisting of household and kitchen furniture and farming implements, was offered for sale first and brought good prices. Only a few head of stock were sold. Those offered brought the following prices: 1 7-year-old stallion, $145; 1 6-year-old brood mare, $106; 1 aged mare, $17; 1 pair horse mules, three years old, $230; 1 yearling horse mule, $37. The home place, consisting of 127 acres of land, was purchased by Hugh Mattingly at $45 per acre, and 61 acres of land, lying near the Brown-Foran Distillery, was purchased by Col. A. P. Anderson, keeper of the National cemetery, for $1,430.

The sale of W. O. Buckler on Monday was well attended and the bidding on personal property spirited. The farm of 90 acres was withdrawn at $2,550. Farm implements, household goods, buggies &c., sold well. Old corn brought 68c, new corn in field 58c, hay 70c, 1 mare brought $170, 1 mare $165, 1 mule colt $40, 11 head of cattle $25 to $40 per head, fat hogs $12 per head, and a lot SUDDEN DEATH.—Mr. Ben. Luckett, who lived in the vicinity of Calvary Church, in this county, died last Thursday of pneumonia, after an illness of only four days. The deceased was about sixty years of age, and was regarded by all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance, as one of the best citizens of the county.

GOOD TEMPLARS.—Dr. J. J. Hickman, Grand Worthy Chief Templar of Kentucky, lectured at the Christian Church in this city, last Tuesday night. After the conclusion of his remarks a lodge was organized with twenty-five members. The name, "Kentucky Star," was agreed upon.

Dr. Hickman will lecture again at the Christian church in this city, next Monday night. We hope that the house will be full.

Sabbath Schools.—The superintendent and teachers of all the Sabbath Schools in the county are requested to meet at Dr. M. S. Shuck's office at 2 o'clock P. M. on the second Monday of August, to elect delegates to the State Sabbath School Convention, which meets at Bowling Green on the 30th of August.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—While on his way home from Raywick last Monday afternoon, Mr. Joseph M. Boorman was thrown from his buggy and sustained injuries that caused death on the following morning.

Mr. Boorman was a well-known and prominent citizen, having once represented the county in the Legislature. His many friends will learn with deep regret of his sudden and melancholy removal from the scenes of time.
