Dear Mr. Klass:

I did not find anything in any of our records on the parents of one JAMES BRADY who you inquired about. I did however find James Brady listed on the records of St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church, Raywick, Kentucky.

On Baptismal records:

John Henry Brady, born 6 Dec 1847, baptized the same day with Martina McCauley as sponsor; son of James Brady and Ellen McCauley. Bk.1 pg.23

Benedict Joseph Brady, baptized 18 Apr 1850 at the age of 3 months, 6 days; with Joseph McCauley (spelled McAuley on some records) & Martine McCauley; son of James Brady and Ellen McCauley. Bk.1 pg.28

Mary Elizabeth Brady, born 17 Nov 1854; baptized 2 Jan 1855 with Ellen McCauley as sponsor; daughter of James Brady and Ellen McCauley. Bk.1 pg.51.

The following were baptized at St. Charles Catholic Church, St. Mary, Ky.

Charles Franklin Brady, born 11 Apr 1843; baptized St. Charles Church 26 May 1843; sponsor was Nellie McCauley; son of James Brady & Ellen McCauley.

Richard Pius Brady, born 22 Nov 1841; baptized 27 Nov 1841, St. Charles Church; sponsor was Paul Friend; son of James Brady & Ellen McCauley.

Another son of James Brady & Ellen McCauley, James W. Brady born around 1845 married Sarah Jane Cross daughter of William Madison 'Mat' Cross and Catherine 'Kitty' Blair.

James W. Brady & Sarah Jane Cross had a baby girl; born and died 15 Jan 1886; buried St. Francis Xavier Cemetery. Sarah Jane Cross Brady died 2 March 1886; Sarah Jane was born 13 Nov 1854; she was baptized 13 Nov 1854 at St. Francis Xavier Church.

The Court House in Lebanon was destroyed during the Civil War, and all records prior 1863 for Marion County were burned. The period between 1833, when Marion County was formed from parts of Washington County and Green County, and 1863, there are no recorded records other than church records.

I hope the above information, however small, will be of some assistance to you. I have exhausted every source available to me. I will keep your name on file and if anything surfaces in the future I will let you know.

Sincerely,

Mary Parrott

Dear Sir:

In reply please refer to #32203-BRADY/MAD

We are currently conducting genealogical research for our client, Michael Steven BRADY and are in need of assistance from your office. Research has revealed that the family were early Catholic settlers in Washington (now Marian) County, Kentucky. A book by Gerald THOMPSON, called "Kentucky Catholic Pioneers", may contain some important information on the BRADY family. The book is in several volumes, but each volume is indexed. Would you please notify us of the proper procedure of obtaining copies of the BRADY entries in each volume?

Enclosed is a self-addressed, stamped envelope for your convenience in replying. Thank you for your assistance in this matter. We look forward to your reply.

Sincerely,

Mike Dowd

Hog dies

About a week ago Mr. Charles B. Brady gave 20 of his fattening hogs one bushel of wheat bran with a due proportion of salt mixt and since that time some three or four have died and as many more appear to be sick. Different views are entertained as to the cause of their death. Some hold that it was the bran and salt, while others think it is cholera.
