MRS. MARY BROCKMAN SUCCUMBS WEDNESDAY

Mrs. Mary Melinda Brockman, 69, widow of J. H. Brockman, died of pneumonia Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Will Newcome following a lingering illness. She came here four months ago from her farm in the Moore's Creek section, because of ill health.

Mrs. Brockman was born July 2, 1874, in this county, a daughter of Raymond and Mary E. Moore Buckman. She was twice married, having been wed first to Doc Allen, about forty-eight years ago. Following his death a few years later, she married Mr. Brockman, now also deceased. One son, Twyman Allen, born to the first union, survives, and five of the nine children of her second marriage. They are Mrs. Victor Carrico, this city; Pfc. Roscoe Brockman and Pfc. Chester Brockman, U. S. Army, both stationed in Florida and called here by their mother's illness; Gerald Brockman, Louisville, and Mrs. Marvin Reynolds, this county. Surviving also are a sister, Mrs. Eva Benningfield, and a brother, J. O. Buckman, this county.

Funeral services will be conducted at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning by the Rev. Robert E. Canty at Our Lady of the Hills Church at Finley, and burial will be in the church cemetery.

THE LEBANON ENTERPRISE, Friday,
 December 8, 1950. MAN KILLED IN CAR ACCIDENT. Raymond Brockman Victim Of Mishap Saturday Near Jessetown. SKID AT CURVE BLAMED.

Roscoe Raymond Brockman, 31-year-old farmer of the Jessetown community, was killed almost instantly Saturday night about 8:45 o'clock when the Ford cabriolet in which he was riding with Marvin Benningfield, also of Jessetown, went off the Jessetown-Calvary Road and overturned in a ditch. The cloth top of the car collapsed under the impact and Brockman's head and chest were crushed by the door.

A group of coon hunters, who came upon the scene while walking in the vicinity, said that the accident may have occurred some fifteen to thirty minutes previously. They reported that they found Benningfield in a dazed condition but not seriously hurt. They summoned aid and later arranged for Brockman's body to be brought to the Pruitt-Hickey Funeral Home in this city.

World War II Veteran.

The fatally injured man was born October 29, 1919, and was reared in the Jessetown section, where he made his home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brockman. He was not married. During World War II, he served with the U. S. Army in the European theatre (sic) of operations and was wounded in his left shoulder and chest. He had engaged in farming since he was discharged from the military forces -----years ago.

Funeral services were conducted at the Muldraugh's Hill Baptist Church Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock by the Rev. William R. Beard and buried with military honors in the church cemetery beside the rave of his grandfather a Civil War veteran.

Surviving, other than Mr. Brockman's parents are eight brothers and two sisters. They are Pfc. Albert Nrockman, with the U. S. Army, stationed at Fort Eustis, Va.; Ernest and Omar Brockman, of this city. Leslie, Carl, Clifton, Gilbert, and Roy Brockman of Jessetown and Mrs. Robert Hardison of Louisville and Mrs. William Veatch of Marion
