hair poultice compound. Kargent the former compound Syrup, Sar- saparilla three ounces.

These simple ingredients can be obtained from our home drug-gists, and are easily mixed by shaking them well in a bottle. Relief is generally felt from the first few doses.

The prescription forces the clog- ged up inactive kidneys to filter and strain from the blood the poi- sonous waste matter and uric acid, which causes Rheumatism.

As Rheumatism is not only the most painful and torturous disease, but dangerous to life this simple recipe will no doubt be greatly valued by many sufferers here at home, who should at once prepare the mixture to get this relief.

It is said that a person who would take this prescription regularly, a dose or two daily, or even a few times a week, would never have serious Kidney or Urinary disorders or Rheumatism.

Cut this out and preserve it. Good Rheumatism prescription which really relieve are scarce, indeed, and when you need it, you want it badly.

Wholesale Poisoning.

At the home of Brent Powell, near Campbellsville, water is kept in a cooler on the rear porch. At breakfast last Friday morning Powell's eight children, including three daughters and five sons, ranging in age from 2 to 18 years, drank water taken from the cooler. William Denson and wife and two children who were guests of the Powell's, drank of the same water. Shortly after drinking the twelve became desperately ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Powell, who had escaped, hurried for a physician. When the doctor arrived the twelve patients were writhing in pain on the floor. Their suffering was intense. Doctors and neighbors came to the rescue and antidotes were administered as rapidly as possible and it is reported that all have recovered from the ill effects of the poison.

The water had been on the porch all night, but as the Powells are most excellent people and recent acquisitions in the population of the little town, many think that reasonable as the plaintiff's suit recovered a cent.

Henry Brussels Killed.

The whole community was shocked at the death of Henry Brussels which occurred at nine o'clock Friday night. Young Brussels and Oscar Roberson, a young man living near Lebanon, quarreled and fought in front of Bland and Rollins' pool room on Main street between four and five o'clock that afternoon and in the fight Roberson stabbed Brussels just above the collar bone. The wound was but slight and was not considered dangerous, but about 7 o'clock his condition became worse and at nine o'clock he was pronounced dead. The funeral services were conducted at St. Augustine's church in this city Saturday and interment in the cemetery at Springfield. Deceased is survived by his wife, father, mother and one brother who have the sympathy of friends.

The examining trial of Roberson was held before Judge Burton Monday, and about 19 witnesses testified, and the testimony of every witness was in substance about the same, and when the prosecution rested, a motion by Attorney for defendant for dismissal was made and sustained by the court.

Drs. McCleod, Moser and Kober testified as to the disclosures of a post mortem, and described the nature of the wound. Neither were of the opinion that the real cause of his death was caused directly by the wound, but that his constitution was not strong enough to stand the shock.

May Chastise pupils.

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 20.—A teacher may punish a child by whipping, decides the Assistant Attorney General Thomas B. McGregor. There has been so much agitation of the question and State Superintendent Crabbe has been so besieged by teachers who wanted to know their rights, he asked a ruling of the Attorney General on the subject. The ruling of Mr. McGregor has the endorsement of the Attorney General and in it he says, that Section 4506 of the Kentucky Statutes in part says:

"The teacher is authorized and directed to hold each pupil to a strict accountability for any disorderly conduct on the playground or during any intermission or recess or on the road to and from school."

Our courts have never passed directly upon this question but have passed upon questions dealing with the suspension or expulsion of disorderly pupils from schools, but quite a number of authorities can be found from the decisions of other State courts upon both sides of this question.

After citing a number of authorities from other States he continues:

"The teacher of a Kentucky common school does have the right to inflict corporal punishment, when it becomes necessary to hold each of his or her pupils to strict accountability for any disorderly conduct on the playground, or during any intermission or recess, or on the road to and from school. But this punishment must be justified in the first place by the disorderly conduct of the pupil, and may never be excessive for it it goes beyond, the teacher is not only civilly, but criminally liable."

"I long to see the day in which this custom can be done away with, but I fear that as long as Kentucky produces vivacious, energizing quick-tempered American boys it will be necessary to have hanging on the wall somewhere in sight the proverbial dogwood pointer of our grandfather schoolmasters, for this instrument was one of the greatest appreciable influences in the wonderful development and growth of American life in civilization" — Courier Journal.

Back from Mississippi

Drs. Irvin Abell and J. C. all, who have a bungalow in the wilds of the Tallahatchee Mississippi, returned Wednesday from a three weeks' stay. They were successful in their quest for big game, killing five deer and a bear. While they spent their time after larger game numbers were by Mrs. J. L. Abel.

Mr. Tom Wilson, of Cave City, bought of S. C. Mackin, an extra good sorrel walk-trot gelding for $250 and also bought of X. Purdy, of Bradfordsville, a bay gelding. Price private but fancy.

In the county court, Mr. J. A. Kelly, qualified as administrator of the estate of Mrs. Susan A. Finnigan, deceased, with C. J. Edmunds as surety on the bond. W. J. O'Daniel, W. B. Wray and Geo. Borders, were appointed appraisers of the estate.

the abomination. Dr. McCord summoned to assist the Spanish physicians, and all done for injured man that was possible his wound was fatal. It is felt that the negro will be lynched when caught.

An Enjoyable Affair.
