

~~1928~~ Sisters Are Brides.

A double wedding took place at Holy Mary's church at Calvary Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock when Miss Annie Corine Buckman, 20, became the bride of George Bowen Lockett, 26, and Miss Edwina Buckman, 18, became the bride of Robert McDonald Spalding, 21. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. P. Welsh in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends of the contracting parties.

After the ceremony a breakfast was served at the home of the brides after which the couples left on a ten days bridal trip.

The brides are sisters and are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Buckman of Calvary. They are well known and have many warm friends in the community where they live.

Mr. Lockett is a son of the late Will S. Lockett, while Mr. Spalding is a son of William Spalding.

IMPROVING AT HOSPITAL

John Will Buckman, well known carpenter who lives at New Market, had a narrow escape from death last Friday morning while working on the home of Oscar Kemp on West Main street. He fell off the house, a distance of about twenty feet, and hit a mortar box used for mixing concrete, fracturing several ribs, one of which pierced one of his lungs. He was taken to Boldrick's Infirmary for treatment and is now improving. His many friends wish him a speedy recovery and hope that he will soon be able to be out again.

Mr. Buckman stated that a short time before the accident he moved the scaffold he had been using and forgetting that it had been moved stepped backward which caused him to fall. Mr. Buckman is 54 years of age and has been engaged in the carpenter business for several years.

The wedding of Miss Frances Florece Feather and Joseph Earl Buckman, both of Calvary, was solemnized Thanksgiving morning at 6:00 o'clock. The ceremony took place at Holy Mary's church and was performed by the Rev. James P. McGee in the presence of quite a number of relatives and friends.

The attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Spalding of Bradfordsville, the latter a sister of the groom.

The bride was attractively attired in a Burgundy crepe dress trimmed in gold, with hat to match. Her flowers were white chrysanthemums and ferns.

Immediately following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Buckman left for a short bridal trip. They returned to Calvary the first of the week and are with the groom's parents.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Feather and is an attractive young woman.

The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Buckman. He is well known in the community where he lives and is a farmer.

Blair-Buckman

Sept 12, 1932

The wedding of Miss Mary Lockie Blair and Paul Clifford Buckman was solemnized at 7:30 o'clock Tuesday morning at St. Francis Church at Chicago, the pastor, Rev. N. Werner, officiating. The ceremony was followed by a Nuptial High Mass. The sanctuary and altars were prettily decorated with lighted candles, ferns and summer flowers.

Miss Marguerite Blair, sister of the bride, was the bridesmaid, and Leo Mills was the groom's best man. Lawrence J. Elder and Richard Blair were the ushers.

The bridal party entered the church to the strains of Lohengrin's Bridal Chorus, played by Miss Nell Nugent, organist, assisted by Mrs. Robert Mattingly and Talmage Riggs, violinists. During the ceremony "I Love You Truly" was played and at the offertory of the mass Clement Lamkin of Raywick sang "Ave Maria." The party left the church as Mendelssohn's Wedding March was played. The Chicago church choir assisted with the music.

The bride was gowned in white ruffled taffeta. She wore a veil edged with lace which was adjusted to head in cap fashion and held in place by orange blossoms. Her flowers were an arm bouquet of Bride's roses.

The bridesmaid was attired in a blue taffeta with pink sash and other trimmings. She wore a large pink hat and carried an arm bouquet of pink roses.

Following the ceremony a breakfast was served at the home of the bride for the wedding party and a few relatives and close friends, after which Mr. and Mrs. Buckman left on a trip to the Century of Progress Exposition in Chicago, Ill. They will also visit relatives in Tippecanoe, Ind. They expect to go to house-keeping shortly after their return here.

The bride is the attractive daughter of F. N. Blair of Loretto, and is a young woman possessing many qualities of mind and heart that have won for her a host of warm friends. She was graduated from St. Augustine's High School and later completed a course at a Louisville business college. She was cashier at the F. S. Marshall Company in this city until about a year ago when she resigned.

The groom is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Buckman of New Market. For several years he has been associated with the Lerman Bros. Department Store in this city. He is a splendid young man and is highly regarded by all who know him.

Buckman Double Wedding.

The marriage of Miss Denie O'Bryan and Robert A. Buckman was solemnized at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning at Holy Cross church in Louisville, and that of Miss Dorothy Buckman, cousin of the groom, and Richard Bredhold was solemnized at the same time, the double ceremony being performed by the Rev. Father Hill, assisted by the Rev. Jos. A. Newman. The church was beautifully decorated with palms and ferns.

Miss Thelma O'Bryan was her sister's maid of honor, and Miss Julia Woods her bridesmaid. Patrick C. Sweeney was Mr. Buckman's best man, and Richard Williams was groomsman.

Mr. Buckman's bride wore white Georgette over satin, made with draped skirt and uneven hem line. A hat of white hair braid completed the costume, and her flowers were a shower bouquet of bride's roses, lilies of the valley and smilax.

The maid of honor's dress was of pale green Georgette with fitted bodice and flounced skirt. She wore a picture hat with streamers of green satin. The bridesmaid's dress was of pink Georgette, similarly designed. Both carried pink roses and ferns tied with tulle.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of Mrs. Bredhold's mother, Mrs. Lillie Buckman, on Virginia avenue.

The newlyweds left immediately afterward for a honeymoon trip to the Great Lakes.

--- There may have been other children ---

Robert Abell, son of Samuel Abell III; died in Maryland Sept. 1802, age 46 years; married Margaret Mills, Nov. 3, 1777 in Maryland. She died Feb. 19, 1818, age 59 years, at St. Thomas Ky. After several years spent around Loretto, he undoubtedly selected Calvary as a place of settlement for his kin and neighbors of St. Mary's County, Maryland. Robert and his oldest brother Samuel Abell IV bought lands on Cloyd's Creek near the river. He was recommended for magistrate in 1788 with Hanna Lincoln, a gentleman. He was elected several times to represent Nelson and then Washington County in the Legislature and as a member of the first Constitutional Convention. As a magistrate he presided in the first term of the Washington County Court in Springfield in June 1792. He was a sort of country lawyer wrote many wills, deeds and other instruments, but does not seem to have had the thrift usual in his family. His little fortune was soon gone and becoming involved in debt in 1802 he left Kentucky for no known reason and went back to Maryland on a voyage where it is said he died.

JOSEPH BUCKMAN (22) was born in 1787 in St. Mary's County, Maryland, the son of CHARLES BUCKMAN (4) and Jane Dunbar. As a young lad he accompanied his parents to Washington County, Kentucky. In Washington County on 7/11/1807 he married Elizabeth "Betsy" Abell (b 7/24/1788 in MD, d 2/10/1831 buried Holy Mary), the daughter of Robert Abell and Margaret Mills. Rev. Charles Nerinckx performed their wedding ceremony at Holy Mary, Calvary, Kentucky.

In the 1810 census of Washington County, JOSEPH BUCKMAN is listed with his wife, one son and one slave. JOSEPH BUCKMAN purchased 190 acres on the Rolling Fork River from Samuel W. Venable (Deed E:458). In the 1820 tax list JOSEPH BUCKMAN had 185 acres on Rolling Fork and two horses. His first wife Elizabeth died shortly after the birth of their daughter SUSAN REBECCA.

At St. Joseph's in Bardstown on 7/23/1831 JOSEPH BUCKMAN married secondly Harriet Drury, the daughter of Ignatius Drury. They resided first in Marion County and then in Nelson County. Their three youngest children were baptized at St. Joseph's in Bardstown. Harriet died in 1845.

At St. Joseph's in Bardstown on 11/20/1847 JOSEPH BUCKMAN married thirdly Mrs. Teresa Clancy Horrell, the widow of Henry Horrell. Their marriage ceremony was celebrated by Rev. B.J. Spalding. Teresa had four children from her first marriage who were baptized at St. Joseph's in Bardstown: John Richard Horrell b 9/23/1827; Bernard Horrell b 4/3/1829; Margaret Ellen Horrell b 12/22/1830; and Rebecca Frances Horrell b 4/17/1832. JOSEPH BUCKMAN and Teresa Clancy Horrell had no children.

In the 1850 census of Nelson County, JOSEPH BUCKMAN and Teresa are listed with four children: HENRIETTA BUCKMAN, ELIZA BUCKMAN, JOSEPH BUCKMAN and JOHN BUCKMAN - all children from JOSEPH BUCKMAN's second marriage. JANE BUCKMAN, the youngest child of the second marriage, was living with her oldest half-sister MARY ANN "MOLLIE" BUCKMAN in the household of MARY ANN's uncle, Rev. Robert Abell, in New Haven, Kentucky.

After their marriage JOSEPH BUCKMAN and Teresa purchased a lot in Bardstown from Turner Wilson for a mortgage of $158.50 (Deed 26:14). On 10/14/1852 Teresa Buckman died and was buried at St. Joseph's Cemetery several blocks from their residence. Two years later on 8/29/1854 the lot and house on Main and Strawberry Street was sold to pay the debt owned by JOSEPH BUCKMAN and Teresa to Turner Wilson. James Slaughter purchased the lot and house.

According to the Kentucky Vital Statistics, JOSEPH BUCKMAN died on 4/10/1859 at the age of 72 in Nelson County. The record states he was the son of CHARLES BUCKMAN and that he had died of old age.

BARDSTOWN, KENTUCKY

Bardstown, Kentucky, the area where JOSEPH BUCKMAN (22) spent at least 30 years of his life, is nestled in the heart of Kentucky among hills, springs, and friendly winding roads. On the slopes surrounding Bardstown are the once famous family-owned distilleries, now mostly run by large corporations. My old Kentucky Home - The Rowan Mansion - is a famous piece of architecture in the town. Other lovely historical structures are Federal Hill, the home of three governors, and the picturesque Old Talbott Tavern.

St. Joseph's Cathedral, the third in the United States and the first west of the Allegheny Mountains had its cornerstone laid on 7/16/1816. Some BUCKMANs might well have been present on this unusual occasion. The Church was consecrated on 8/8/1819.

Bardstown was the forerunner of the Archdiocese of Louisville. On 2/2/1995 Bishop Charles G. Mabney, auxiliary bishop emeritus of Louisville, was named to the honorary title of the first Titular Bishop of Bardstown when the former diocese was re-established as a titular see, one of only three in the United States. Titular Diocese are named to "keep alive the memory of places that were important."

St. Joseph's has historic value, and is also a shrine of art. A great number of tourists yearly visit the area and view the masterpieces the Cathedral houses.

Bishop Flaget, the first and only Bishop of Bardstown, Kentucky, received nine Master paintings from generous friends in Europe. The paintings are said to be the work of Van Bree, Jacob Hast and other nineteenth century European artists.

When Archbishop Kelly petitioned the Holy See to re-establish Bardstown as a titular diocese, his reason was "to maintain the title of the center of the Catholic faith in Kentucky as intimately involved with the church's ministry of bishops" (Information from 2/17/1995 MESSENGER).

A certificate from the Department of the Interior, Washington, D.C. states:

The historic building known as St. Joseph's Cathedral in the County of Nelson and State of Kentucky has been selected by the Advisory Committee of the Historic-American Building Survey as possessing exceptional historic or architectural interest and as being worthy of most careful preservation for the benefit of future generations and that to this end a record of its present appearance and condition has been made and deposited for permanent reference in the Library of Congress.

URBAN A. BUCKMAN (117) was born 2/22/1815 in Washington County, Kentucky, the son of JOSEPH BUCKMAN (22) and Elizabeth Abell. He married first Henrietta Mattingly, who died following the birth of their second child. At St. Michael's in Fairfield, Kentucky on 6/10/1845 he married secondly Tabitha Cecil. Their three oldest children were baptized at St. Michael's. Then they moved to Daviess County, Kentucky where their next three children were baptized at St. Lawrence's. The family is listed in the 1850 census of Daviess County, and his brother GEORGE T. BUCKMAN, a wagon maker, is residing in their household. Then the family moved to Spencer County, Kentucky. The Catholics in Spencer County were administered to by the priests from St. Michael's in Fairfield until the opening of St. Benedict's in Spencer County. Their other children were baptized at St. Michael's. URBAN A. BUCKMAN died 10/6/1893. He and his wife are buried at St. Benedict's in Taylorsville.

ROBERT BUCKMAN (118) was born 10/31/1818 in Washington County, Kentucky, the son of JOSEPH BUCKMAN (22) and Elizabeth Abell. In Nelson County, Kentucky on 11/16/1839 he married Teresa Shircliff (b 1/22/1822, d 3/10/1888), the daughter of Joseph Athanasius Shircliff and Elizabeth Walker. Rev. Robert Abell, his uncle for whom he was named, performed the wedding ceremony.

They were living in Hardin County, Kentucky when on 3/3/1853 they sold land in Nelson County which they had received from Joseph Shircliff, the father of Teresa, to Raymond Shircliff (Deed 28:235). A deed was recorded in Hardin County on 2/9/1854 in which ROBERT BUCKMAN purchased land from Raymond and Susan Shircliff. The deed says "exchange of deeds" (B#1:193).

In 1840 ROBERT and Teresa BUCKMAN moved from Marion County, Kentucky to Stithton, Kentucky (now Fort Knox). Here they spent the remainder of their lives, living on property directly across from the Chapel at Fort Knox, which at their time was St. Patrick's Church. A Chapel had been at St. Patrick's starting in 1831 when Father Coomes first recorded baptisms. On 11/30/1853 Ignatius and Mary Ann Corbett deeded land for St. Patrick's Church to Bishop Martin J. Spalding. The tract bordered on ROBERT BUCKMAN's land (Deed 1:61). ROBERT BUCKMAN, his wife, and eight children were members of the parish in 1853. This Church served the Catholics of the area, with Mass being said by priests from Bethlehem Academy. After

THE LEBANON ENTERPRISE, FRIDAY, MAY 9, 1924.

Celebrate Golden Wedding Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. M. Buckman celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage at their home in the county on Sunday, January 13, 1924. Following a special mass said for them at St. Charles church by the Rev. S. J. Mensa at 7:30 o'clock in the morning the happy old couple returned to their home to receive the congratulations and good wishes of their children, grand children and friends. Both are in good health and it is the wish of all who know them that they may live to celebrate many more occasions of the kind.

An unusual coincidence in connection with the celebration was the fact that the day was also the twenty-first anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Buckman's only son, Oscar Buckman, to Miss Fronia Ray; the twentieth anniversary of the marriage of their daughter, Gertie, to J. A. Moore and the tenth anniversary of the marriage of their daughter, Pearl, to J. S. Mills.

Attend Sales Clinic

Warren McClellan, Foster Settles, Sidney Gordon, Gene Young, Billy Graham and Miss Shelby Walls, employees of Southern States Lebanon Co-op, have returned from a special merchandising clinic held by Southern States Cooperative for its retail personnel at Bardstown.

The session covered advertising, radio, direct mail; proper use of facilities; telephone courtesy; use of merchandise display equipment and the influence of people in making sales. The climax of the meeting was an actual sales room laboratory held in a local Southern States retail outlet.

The session was one of 12 held by the cooperative for its personnel at selected points in

During the last five years the county's average was 74 per cent. If Marion County falls below 80 per cent of its quota this visit the hospital will get 90 days' notice that blood will be discontinued.
"Very few families in this county have been able to get along without the use of blood in some form from the Blood Bank. Last fiscal year Marion countians received over 500 pints of blood from the Red Cross Blood Bank. Every person between the ages of 18 and 60 years who is physically able should feel it his responsibility to give a pint of blood," Lancaster said.
The mobile center will be staffed by local doctors, regional Blood Center registered nurses, and nurses and aides of the Mary Immaculate Hospital Auxiliary.

Farm Accident Is Fatal To Buckman Youth

John Dale Buckman, 10-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Buckman, Route 1, Lebanon, was killed at 4:30 p.m. Saturday when he was trapped in a grain bin on the Campbellsville Highway farm of his grandfather, Ray Buckman.

The Buckman youth, who was known as "Jack" was with his father on the elder Buckman's farm when the freak accident took place. Members of the family said the youth's father was mixing small grain at a barn. In this operation the mixture of wheat and barley was being taken through a small opening in the bottom of the eight-foot deep bin, by means of a portable mixer, attached to a tractor.

The Buckman youth evidently was standing in the bin during the operation. The grain, falling from the sides of the bin, and the void in the center of the bin, trapped the youth. The youngster called for help but efforts of his father to shovel the grain away, or to pull the boy from the bin, were unsuccessful. A neighbor, Albert Smothers, helped the boy's father remove the youth from the bin and he was rushed to Mary Immaculate Hospital, but was dead on arrival there.

The accident victim, who was a fifth grader at St. Charles Elementary School, is survived by his parents, Robert R. and Pauline Malone Buckman; two brothers, Danny Ray and Robert Gerald Buckman, both at home; three sisters, Sheila Marie, Julita Catherine and Sue Ann, also at home. Also surviving are his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James Malone, Raywick, and great-grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George L. Thompson, Sr., Route 1, Lebanon.

The body was at Bosley Funeral Home until time for the funeral services which were held at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday at Our Lady of the Hills Church, Finley. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Pallbearers were six classmates—Tim Mattingly, Michael Peterson, Joe Keith Badgett, Michael Maupin, Ronnie Brown and Terry Bates.
