

July 18, 1947.

Will L. Burrice, 59, Is Buried At New Market

Following a protracted illness of complications, William Louis Burrice, 59, formerly of Lebanon, died Saturday morning at the General Hospital in Louisville. He had been under treatment there for about six weeks, and for some time previously had been in bad health.

Mr. Burrice, who was born and reared in this county, was a son of William and Alice Newcome Burrice. He had made his home in Louisville for some time.

Two daughters survive, Mrs. Clifford L. Hall of Louisville and Mrs. Lee C. Free of Jeffersontown. Two brothers and three sisters also survive, Hugh Burrice of Louisville, Edward Burrice, Mrs. W. T. Sapp, Mrs. Hattie Newcome and Mrs. Gertrude Little, all of Lebanon. He also leaves three grandchildren.

The remains were brought to the Bosley Funeral Home and were there until the funeral services, which were conducted at 2:30 o'clock Monday afternoon at the Muldraugh's Hill Baptist Church by the Rev. H. F. Rawlett. Interment was in the New Market Cemetery. Pallbearers were W. M. and Raymond Newcome, Howard Willard and Ray Sapp, and Herbert Clark, Jr.

Burris-Lanham.

Herman Lanham of Danville and Miss Elizabeth Burris of Lebanon were united in marriage last Thursday afternoon in Scottsburg, Ind. Mr. Lanham is a native of Lebanon, but has been a resident of Danville sixteen years. He is connected with the Frank West Service Garage on Main street and is a model young man. His bride is a most attractive young lady and a member of a splendid Lebanon family. They will begin housekeeping in Danville immediately.—Danville Advocate.

Burris.