Country music entertainer Phillip Clarkson from Bradfordsville won a Roadrunner/Coyote's Video Music Award in Louisville's Coyote's nightclub on West Jefferson Street. Clarkson was thrilled and a little nervous when the announcement came that he was the winner of a 1995

RYOTE Award in the category of Best Country Homegrown Video.

Clarkson's winning video is titled "Doggy-Dog World" and Marion County native won 1992 graduate of Marion County High School was nominated for his song

"We Had It All." Clarkson was nominated for Best Country Performance, Best Country Song, and Best Country Overall Video, and nominated for Best Country Style-line/Concept.

Sixteen rock—eight country and eight rock—were presented at the event. There were five nominations in each category.

In accepting his award, Clarkson thanked his wife, K.T., Clarkson

Whisper Pines, Terry Cambron

(Elvis), Mark Ringer, Matt Mattingly, Donald Harrington, Judy

Bobbie, John Brady, and Clark, Mary

Jo and Sue, Joey Riddon, Adam

Tungate and Joe Pittman, Kathy

Clarkson also thanked Kathy and Bob Abell for doing the videography for "We Had It All."

The annual music awards program, which was televised just in Jefferson County on Jan. 23, is to promote Louisville area musicians.

"I hope this will give me a little more recognition and help me get some shows in the Louisville and Lexington areas," said Clarkson.

He was nominated for two awards last year, for songs "Cold

October Night" and "Lifestyles

of the Broke and Poor."

Richway Records of Nashville is planning an album and several single releases for Clarkson for 2001, plus an overseas tour.

He still performs locally at the Fish

Wheel Lounge in Rawwick on Wednesdays and at the Whispering

Pines on KY 49 between Lebanon and Bradfordsville on Thursdays.
