

Gladys Marie Price Dever, 81

Gladys Marie Price Dever, 81, Edmond Ave., Lebanon, died Thursday, Jan. 21, 2010, at Spring View Hospital after an illness.

Dever was a member of the Church of Jesus Christ and Latter Day Saints and a housewife.

She was preceded in death by: her husband, Clifton Dever; parents, Martin and Nora Price; and two brothers, William Clyde Price and Walter Doug Price.

She is survived by a host of cousins and friends.

The body was cremated. A memorial service was conducted at Lincoln View, Sunday, Jan. 31, 2010, with burial in the Crews Cemetery.

Campbell-DeWitt Funeral Home, Lebanon, was in charge of arrangements.

Phinas Dever, 87, Dies At Hospital

Phinas Dever, 87, died at Mary Immaculate Hospital August 24 at 10:30 p.m. of complications. Mr. Dever, a native of Marion County, had been in failing health for several months, and had been hospitalized for 10 days. He was a retired farmer of the Bradfordsville area.

He was the son of the late James and Nancy McAnelly Dever. His wife, Mrs. Nellie Mullins Dever, is deceased.

He had made his home for the past three and a half years with a niece, Mrs. Nora Turpin, on the Bradfordsville Highway.

He is survived by one son, Clifton Dever, Gravel Switch; and one foster daughter, Mrs. Clarence Staton, Campbellsville.

Funeral services were held at Bosley Funeral Home Saturday at 2 p.m., by the Rev. Kenneth C. Williams, pastor of the Bradfordsville Methodist Church. Burial was in the Dever Cemetery, near Bradfordsville.

Pallbearers were Alton Turpin, Jr., Lester H. Spalding, Carl Wilcher, Stanley Wilcher, John C. Glasscock and Marion May.

Death Comes Suddenly.

John I. Dever, 75 years old, who was well known in the Holy Cross section where he lived, died suddenly last Thursday night. Death is thought to have been due to an attack of heart trouble. He was apparently as well as usual on Thursday, and on Friday morning was found dead in bed by one of his grandchildren who went to the home where Mr. Dever lived alone. He was born and spent practically the whole of his life in the same neighborhood where he died. All of his life he was a farmer. His wife died many years ago. Surviving him is one daughter, Mrs. Josie Davis, of this county.

Funeral services were conducted at the Catholic church at Holy Cross Saturday morning by the Rev. J. P. Haydon, and burial was in the church cemetery.