

Doody-Wathen.

The wedding of Miss Elizabeth Doody and J. Henry Wathen was solemnized at 8 o'clock Tuesday morning at St. Augustine's church in this city, the pastor, Rev. J. A. Hogarty, officiating. The church was beautifully decorated with white peonies, purple iris, ferns and lighted candles. The ceremony was followed by a Nuptial High Mass.

Miss Geneva Riedel of Louisville was the bridesmaid and Eugene Abell of Glasgow was the groom's best man. The ushers were Harry B. Thompson of this city and Joseph A. Wathen of Louisville, brother of the groom.

The bridal party entered the church to the strains of Lohengrin's Bridal Chorus, played by Miss Cordelia Spalding, who had charge of the musical program. La Hache Mass of Corpus Christie was played by Miss Spalding and during the ceremony she played Schumann's "Traumerie" and a quartet composed of B. J. Madden, W. C. Madden, Cy Williams and Harry B. Thompson rendered "Ave Maria." Mendelssohn's Wedding March was played as the bridal party left the church.

The bride entered on the arm of her brother-in-law, Robt. L. Spalding, by whom she was given in marriage, and was met at the altar by the groom and his best man. She was gowned in orchid organdy with orchid picture hat and slippers to match and carried an arm bouquet of Killarney rosebuds. The bridesmaid, who entered alone, wore a pink organdy dress with blue picture hat and slippers to match and carried spring flowers.

Immediately after the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride on Walnut street for the bridal party, after which Mr. and Mrs. Wathen left by motor for Louisville where they took a twelve-o'clock train for New Orleans, La. At the conclusion of their honeymoon they will make their home in Louisville.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Maurice Doody and is an accomplished young woman who has a host of friends. She is a graduate of St.

tended Webster Grove College, Webster Grove, Mo. For several years she has held a position in the local Kentucky Utilities office.

The groom is a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wathen of this city and made his home here until a few years ago. He is a graduate of the Lebanon High School and also attended Centre College, Danville. During his school life he was a star athlete in all branches of sport. He now has a position with the Illinois Central Railroad Company.
