

Dorsey

Coppage-Dorsey.

Miss Christine Coppage of Bradfordsville and James Arthur Dorsey of Gravel Switch were united in marriage in Louisville Saturday at the home of a friend. The ceremony which was performed by Rev. George E. Swann, pastor of the Edenside Christian church, was witnessed by only a few close friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey returned here and are making their home on his farm on the Danville pike eight miles from Lebanon.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Coppage and possesses a lovely disposition which has endeared her to a large circle of friends. She attended Eastern State Teachers College at Richmond and since finishing her education there has been an efficient teacher in the schools of the county. At present she is teaching in the Consolidated School at Bradfordsville and will continue her work there until the close of the present term.

The groom is deputy sheriff of the county, having held that position for the past five years, and is a well known farmer of the county. Previous to being named to that place he was for eight years principal of the school at Gravel Switch. He was at one time a teacher in the Foundation Depart-
