

Duncan-Sansbury.

The wedding of Miss Jennie Kelly Duncan of Springfield and Joseph Robert Sansbury of this city was solemnized at the Cathedral parochial residence on Fifth street in Louisville yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. A. Hogarty, pastor of St. Augustine's church in this city, and was witnessed by only a few close friends and the immediate families.

Miss Elizabeth Duncan of Springfield, sister of the bride, was the bridesmaid and Sam B. Spalding of this city was the groom's best man.

Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Sansbury left for Chicago and other points North on their bridal trip. They expect to be gone about two weeks and upon their return will go to housekeeping on West Chandler street.

The bride is one of Springfield's well known young women and is also well known and has many friends in Lebanon where she has frequently visited. She is a girl of lovable traits and is greatly admired by all who know her. She is a daughter of Mrs. Lillie Duncan of Springfield.

The groom is a son of G. T. Sansbury and is one of the city's prominent young business men. He is one of the owners of Humkey's Confectionery and through his business connections has made friends of all his acquaintances.

THE FAMILY RECORDS OF
SAMUEL DUNCAN AND JOHN DUNCAN OF NELSON COUNTY

Transcriptions of the following Duncan family Bible records were contributed by Robert P. Moore (2512 N. Granada St., Arlington, VA 22207). Mr. Moore's research suggests that "the Duncans who settled near Bloomfield, Kentucky, in the 1780s, were somehow related to the family of William Duncan and Ruth Raleigh of Culpeper Co., Virginia."

The original Bible volume of the Samuel Duncan family is in the possession of Elizabeth B. Humphrey of Bardstown, Kentucky, who has confirmed the presentation which follows.

Robert P. Moore transcribed the following family record from photocopies of the original pages made by Caroline Kalb Horrell of Shawnee Mission, Kansas. Mrs. Horrell verifies that after the death of her uncle, Arthur V. Kalb, who had "cherished the Bible record of his mother Emma (Emily) Jane Duncan Kalb," the volume disappeared. Mr. Moore notes that while the title page information is not available for the Bible of this part of John Duncan's family, the pagination of the Family Records section (four pages torn from the book) is exactly the same as that of the Samuel Duncan Bible, as is the format of each page and the border decoration around each page. For that reason, it is assumed that the John Duncan Bible is the same edition from the same publisher.
