Dear Veronica:

I found your name in a list of names from the Kentucky Catholic Reunion. I am interested in the Edelen/Edlin family.

My branch of the family came from Maryland sometime after 1809 and probably settle in Grayson County sometime before 1830. My ancestor, Dominick Edelen/Edlin was in Grayson County in 1830 and was about 23 years old. I believe that he may have had brother name James and maybe one named Joseph. This is only speculation because James and Dominick lived next to each other according to the census.

Since the early census does not give children's name, I am finding it very perplexing trying to find his parents. Is there any chance of you know this family?

I am sending you a family group sheet for Dominick Edelen/Edlin and would like any information that you may have concerning this branch of the family.

The reunion must have been a great success. I understand there were more interest in the families than expected.

Enclosed is a SASE for your convenience.

Rosemary Finney

Sincerely,

February 9, 1992

Dear Ms. Hill:

I am researching the name EDELEN in Kentucky and have come to a standstill. I thought perhaps you may have some information that would give me a boost in the right direction.

I found your name in the Surname Index, Maryland Catholic Descendants to Ky. Reunion, Nazareth, Ky. July 1990.

I am enclosing some family history sheets on my Edelen's which is all the info I have at this time. The Sarah E. (Sallee) Edelen b: 1852 Leitchfield, married Louis Hilary Mattingly is my great grandmother. One great mystery about her is that no one knows where she is buried. I believe her to be the daughter of J.C. and Ann Edelen. The information on the sheet enclosed taken from the 1860 Grayson Co Census.

Thank you for your help on this.

Sincerely,

Margaret Bennett

Dear Mrs. Hill,

Recently a genealogical friend, Walter Overstreet, visited the Marion Co Library, knowing of my intense interest in the EDELEN family he Xeroxed and brought some papers to me. My maternal grandmother was an EDELEN, enclosed is chart that starts with my mother. I am building a data base of the descendants, to the 10th generation, of Richard EDELEN and Elizabeth BANTON, the immigrants to MD.

He told me that when he brought something to you be Xeroxed you offered the other papers from your own files, however, he didn't tell me what came from your files.

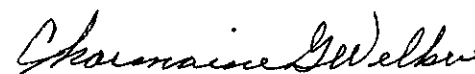

He brought me some material prepared by Crolan William EDELEN, my 2nd cousin. I have corresponded with him for quite a few years and have copies of all of his research.

The other papers that Walt brought to me are titled "Ancestry of James McHenry Edelen", I am guessing that these are the papers that came from your file. I have a James McHenry Edelen in my data base (FGS enclosed), he was a 1st cousin to my mother, and his Edelen ancestry would be the same as starting with #6 on my mother's chart. He was the brother of Joseph Hubert Edelen 'Hubert' who was a long time correspondent of Crolan William Edelen.

The rest of the papers that came with this "Ancestry of James McHenry Edelen" were on the descendants of George Edelen and Sarah Edelen, so this may be a different James McHenry Edelen, but I do not find him in the charts and list that I received.

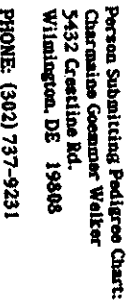

I would very much like to correspond with you and learn of your connection to the EDELEN family. I am leaving on vacation on Thur. and I may get a chance to visit the Marion Co Library between Sept 1 and Sept 3, if I do I will ask for you, if I don't get there I would appreciate having you write to me.

Sincerely,

Charmaine Goemmer Welker

Dear Miss Parrott,

Thank you for your letter of August 11th. I'm glad you liked the notes on the Marion County line and find the material of some use to your patrons.

I am in the process of sorting out my collection of notes and entering the related ones in copy books according to the County where the pioneer ancestor first settled, or the one that became a separate County after words. This means separate copy books for Washington, monroe, Nelson, Fayette, Hardin and Grayson Counties to clearly identify the descendants of each pioneer settler. There are more lines than I imagined when first starting this project many years ago. As an example, I now know that Richard Edelen whose descendants are found in Hardin County, was an orphaned Edelen of Pioneer George County, Maryland who was raised in Virginia and was the first of the name in Kentucky. Happily, one of his descendants has written a book on that line making it unnecessary to spend much time on the Hardin County line. Grayson County is quite another problem and I have been unable to identify the Tanner and Dominic F. Edelen who settled there. The descendants of the latter are now numerous.

If you wish to establish a file in the library, I will send more notes after entered into the appropriate copy book. Then, later on when the books are in order, I will either send Xerox copies of all the contents or make another copy for the library. By sending my notes for the file, your patrons will have the benefit of them until the books are finished.

The parentage of the George Edelen who settled in Lebanon remains a mystery. Tradition has it that he came to Kentucky from Baltimore which may be so. The 1790 Census of many land reveals a George Edelen living in Washington County, Maryland who may have been the one on the way to Kentucky. Some descendants are investigating this possibility. George's wife, however, is known. She was Sarah Ann Edelen daughter of Edward Edelen and Susannah Wathen, of Charles County, Maryland, and the sister of Joseph Edelen who settled on Pathogene Creek. She was married to George Edelen in Charles County, Maryland by Rev. Pile.

Enclosed are copies of a Bible record relating to the family of the son of Christopher Edelen, who settled in Fayette County, Kentucky, Robert Parramore Edelen, who returned to Maryland.

All best wishes.

Sincerely yours,
C. William Edelen

James Mahoney who married Mary Spalding was the grandson of William Mahoney, one of the early settlers on Pottinger's Creek in Nelson County, Kentucky - His mother was the daughter of Charles Henry Payne. His father, son of William, died of Yellow Fever in the South. James had a trait that the majority of his descendants seem to have inherited which is impatience. Anything he decided to do had to be done "Right Now!", and he would work feverishly to get it done. He also had a temper. Once when one of his horses refused to stand still, he set the dogs on it. If the horse wanted to move and run, he was going to keep it running!

Mary (Spalding) Mahoney, wife of James was noted for her charity to all. She never turned away the needy and there was always an abundance for her own family.

Special Note - St. Clement's Island

Just before this issue of the Chronicles went to press, the Editor learned that the return of St. Clement's (Blackistone) Island to the State of Maryland has been approved by the General Services Administration. Thus, the first half of the St. Mary's County Historical Society program to develop the Island as a historic shrine has been accomplished, after 10 years of effort. However, we cannot afford to wait an additional 10 years for the completion of the second half of the program, namely, to preserve it and erect a suitable memorial. The Island has eroded from an original 400 acres to the present 40 acres and it is now a race against time if this historic spot is to be saved.

In the past week, the Editor visited the Island and made a complete circuit of its shores. The fences erected a few years ago by the Butterfield Family now stretch out into the Potomac River for 20 to 40 feet, which will give some idea of the speed at which the remaining ground is disappearing. It was noted however, that at three points along the shore protection had been provided by the use of crushed rock and at these points no erosion has occurred. This is noticeable, particularly, at the site of the old Light-House, which was erected in 1852, so this crushed rock has given adequate protection for 110 years. This would seem to argue that an expensive seawall around the Island is unnecessary and that the relatively inexpensive crushed rock to protect the shores will do the job adequately. But speed of action is of the utmost importance now. Let's complete the job in 1963.

Perhaps the most fitting memorial would be to rebuild the old Light-House on its original foundation. It could be used to house local artifacts, for memorial meetings and its light tower would give a panoramic view of the mighty Potomac River. But let's do the job in '63, which will mark the 325th year of political independence. It was in 1638 that the members of the Assembly informed Lord Baltimore, in no uncertain terms, that they were free men and capable of making the laws to govern Maryland. They then went on to enact formally the first law for Church liberties, which confirmed Baltimore's written instructions of 1634 that there was to be religious toleration in the colony.

Yes, 1963 will mark 325 years of political and religious independence - the formal foundation of the Free State - let's complete the job in '63.

Death Comes Suddenly To Prominent Business Man

HOGUE EDELEN HEART VICTIM

Passes Away Few Minutes
After He Is Stricken Early Sunday Morning.

WAS LEBANON NATIVE

R. Hogue Edelen, member of the firm of John B. Carlile & Co., president of the Citizens National Bank and one of the city's most prominent business men, died suddenly at his home on West Main street Sunday morning at 4:15 o'clock. Death was due to heart trouble. Although not in good health for the past two years, he seemingly was as well as usual when he retired Saturday night. He awoke about 4 o'clock feeling ill and a physician was immediately summoned, but he lived for only a few minutes after the physician arrived. News of his passing came as a profound shock to every one and caused wide-spread sorrow throughout the community.

Mr. Edelen was for more than forty years with Carlile & Co., one of the largest and best known mercantile firms in central Kentucky. His first position with the store was as bookkeeper. Several years later he became interested in the firm as one of the owners, having with W. P. Myers and C. H. Litsey purchased a half interest from Col. John B. Carlile. Following the death of Col. Carlile the three surviving partners, together with W. W. Litsey, now deceased, took over the Carlile interest in the business. The store has since been conducted in the same firm name, and Mr. Edelen, during office work and had general charge of the accounting department, a position for which he was particularly well qualified. He was regarded by every one as a safe, conservative business man, and much of the outstanding success of the firm has been due to his splendid business ability.

He was elected president of the Citizens National Bank on May 23, 1930, succeeding the late J. A. Kelly, and had since held that position. Previous to his elevation to the presidency of the institution he served for four years as its vice president and before that had for many years been a director. He was also a director of the old Home Telephone Co. and helped to organize that company, serving as its secretary until it was sold to the company that now owns it. Mr. Edelen was also prominent in fraternal circles, having been a member of Marion Commandery, Knights Templar, and also of the Lebanon Rotary Club. He was interested in every movement that had the betterment of the community for its object, and was one of the city's most public spirited citizens. He was one of the few citizens whose financial gifts made possible the present Marion County Library building on East Main street. He was a member of the Episcopal church, but as there is none in Lebanon he was a regular attendant at the Presbyterian church.

Mr. Edelen was a son of George T. and Amelia Edmonds Edelen, both deceased, and was born in this city on July 26, 1867. He was reared and educated in Lebanon and all of his life was spent here. He was married to Miss Susan Belle Potter of Consec, Ontario, on October 23, 1913, the wedding taking place at the home of Dr. R. C. McChord. Surviving him are his wife; one sister, Mrs. J. A. Kelly, and one brother, G. Bruce Edelen.

Funeral services, conducted by the Rev. G. B. Rich, were held at the residence Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock in the presence of an unusually large number of friends. Burial followed in Ryder cemetery. The active pallbearers were: E. C. Litsey, W. W. Rabol, Dr. Will S. Hodgen, W. B. Timmons, Frank S. Lancaster, R. E. Mattingly, Dr. Chas. McChord and W. O. Blandford. Honorary pallbearers were: W. P. Myers, C. H. Litsey, B. J. Molohon, Dr. R. C. McChord, J. R. Sterrett, J. P. Hundley, J. R. Thomas, O. D. Thomas, J. R. Durham, E. N. Jackson and
