Emma Ellen "Nellie" Clark
(1860 - 1922)

Fourth Child of: John David Clark and Maria Frances "Fannie" Merimee

Emma Ellen "Nellie" Clark (m) Bernard Philip Englert and they had seven (7) children

This packet of 58 Family Group Sheets included the children, Grandchildren, Great Grandchildren and Great Great Grandchildren of Emma Ellen "Nellie" Clark - Englert thru March 1989.

This information was sent to me March 1989 by:

Ora Marie Englert - Rawan
the youngest and only surviving child of Emma Ellen "Nellie" Clark - Englert.

Ora lives in Lompoc, California and will be age 85
on 13 July 1989!

Although Ora didn't send many dates and places of birth, marriage and death or cemeteries, I think for her age she has done a marvelous job!

FENWICK FAMILY

Thomas M. & Amanda Willett Fenwick, c

In 1891, Thomas Matthew & Amanda (Willett) Fenwick moved their family from Union Co. to Maxon's Mill (now Paducah), McCracken Co. Their home in Union Co. had burned. They moved furniture, horses and cattle down the river by flatboat. He purchased 800 acres and a 13 room house.

In 1918, Thomas retired from farming and left his boys and their families to attend school. He and Amanda moved to Fancy Farm to be near a Catholic Church. Their daughters, Mary Beatrice "Mollie" and Abeth "Lizzie" both lived in Fancy Farm.

THE PASSING OF

MRS. JOSEPH ENGLERT,

St. John's, McCracken Co.

The congregation at this place sustained a great loss in the death of one of its most faithful and exemplary members, Mrs. Joseph Englert, who was stricken fatally, Tuesday, August 29, as she sat sewing. Her husband and children, except one little daughter, were busied in their various avocations when the mother, feeling faint put her hand to her heart and told the little girl to call the others. A son, working near the house, responded at once and had barely time to place his mother on the bed when she gasped a few times and was dead. A hurry call for the priest brought her devoted pastor, Rev. A. Reinhart, who, however was too late, as she was then unconscious. He gave her conditional absolution, the last anointing and recited the prayers for the dead and dying.

It was a sad and mournful household that gathered in from the fields to find the mother they had seen in health so short a time before now lying silent in her last long sleep, deaf to the lamentations and tears of her distracted husband and children.

When the doctor arrived he said her death was due to acute indigestion, from which she had suffered at various times. Her death removes one of the best wives and mothers in this parish. Of her ten children, eight are living, the youngest being about eight years old.

On the morning of the 31st, her remains were brought to the church and laid before the altar, before which she had often knelt and worshiped with devotion. The Requiem Mass was celebrated by Father Reinhart, at the conclusion of which he spoke feelingly of the deceased and exhorted the great congregation present at the obsequies to take to heart the lesson the presence of the sombre coffin brought home to each one. That death was simply the opening of the door into life, that as human beings we are moving in a limited sphere, beyond which are horizons without limit, words beyond comparison, all hidden from us, but to behold which we must die. Death opens up before our amazed vision the beauty, the grandeur and the sublime glory of the heavenly mansions, it is the key that unlocks to the view of the human soul the treasures of its inheritance in the kingdom of its Heavenly Father. And surely none were more deserving of beatitude than Mary Catherine Englert. Generous in heart and mind, no labor was too great for her when it meant work for God and the Church and the school; she was ever foremost in every work for charity and religion. How God must have loved her soul in the cheerful giving of itself to every good work, from the kind word which cheered the heart, to the kind deed that found her by the side of her neighbor in trouble, sharing the burden with a willingness that only those who experienced her warm friendship could appreciate at its proper value.

After the Mass she was carried forth and laid to rest in the quiet church-yard, the whole congregation following the pastor and acolytes to the cemetery. The little children whose voices she loved to hear singing the praises of God, united in her requiem as her body was borne hence to its last resting place to await its triumphant resurrection. May she rest in peace with God.

A Friend.

Mary bore to John his Master and his King. He could not go to God. God came to him. — Père Bymard.

"We have loved her in life, let us not forget her in death." St. Ambrose.

In Loving Remembrance

Mary S. Englert

who died August 29, 1916

PRAYER.

O gentlest Heart of Jesus ever present in the Blessed Sacrament, ever consumed with burning love for the poor captive souls in Purgatory, have mercy on the soul of Thy servant MARY, bring her from the shadows of exile to the bright home of Heaven, where we trust Thou and Thy Blessed Mother have woven for her a crown of unfading bliss. Amen.

On her soul, O Jesus, have mercy. Merciful Jesus, grant her eternal rest. Immaculate heart of Mary, pray for her. St. Joseph, friend of the Sacred Heart, pray for her.

(100 days for each aspiration.)

O Sacred Heart of Jesus, ever present

DEPUTY MARSHALL WAS KILLED BY NEGRO.

Hopkinsville, Ky., Aug. 5.—While acting as deputy marshal at Gracey, M. M. Martin, a popular citizen and carrier on the rural free mail delivery route, was shot and instantly killed by Duke Lewis, colored.

Martin was near the railroad depot looking for hoboes, when he ran upon Lewis. The officer asked the negro what he was doing, and the latter pulled his gun and fired twice, each of the bullets passing through Martin's heart.

George Waters, the regular marshal saw the shooting and emptied his pistol at Lewis, as did the negro at him, but none of the shots went home, and the murderer made his escape in the darkness. Great excitement exists at Gracey, and blood hounds have been sent for.

Robert Clark

Robert Clark, a well known citizen of Owensboro, died of pneumonia at his home in East Twelfth street at 11 o'clock Sunday evening. Mr. Clark had only been ill for a short while, and his sudden death was a shock to his family. He is survived by his wife, who was formerly Miss Clara Elizabeth Payne, sister of Henry Payne, and six children, who are ill with the "flu." He is also survived by two brothers, William Clark, of Owensboro, and T. J. Clark, of Henderson, and one sister, Mrs. Joe Spaulding of this city. Mr. Clark was forty-nine years of age, and served for four years as county assessor. He had been in the produce business for many years. The funeral will be conducted from the St. Paul's church at 9 o'clock this morning with services by Father FitzGerald. The interment will be in the Catholic cemetery, with the following acting as pallbearers: J. W. Barr, Bishop Kendall, Bernard O'Bryan, Bernard Hazel, W. W. Clark and Dr. J. W. McGary.

A WOMAN'S RECOMMENDATION

Mrs. D. T. Tryor, Franklin Ave., Osego, O., writes: "Nine years ago I was very much afflicted with kidney trouble I bought different kinds of medicines, but all to no effect, until one day I bought a box of Foley Kidney Pills. I realized so great a benefit from the use of that box that I concluded myself cured of kidney trouble. I feel safe in recommending Foley Kidney Pills to any kidney sufferers. They relieve backache, sore muscles, stiff joints, rheumatic pains and bladder ailments.—Friedman's Pharmacy.—Adv.
