Dear Librarian,

I have many ancestors who lived in and around Marion County. One of them, Robert H. Doyle built the first house in Lebanon. Do you know of a genealogical researcher in or near Lebanon? I would like to engage a researcher to do some work for me. Thank you.

Yours very truly

Raymond C Adams

Dear Mr. Adams:

I do not know of anyone in the County who does research as a business. We do have a local genealogist who has done considerable genealogy work and has published several genealogy books. He may be of help to you or know of someone willing to do research.

His name and address with phone number is:

Gerald Thompson

Good luck in your research,

Mary
