trouble Mudd was for several years employed by the L. & N. Railroad Company, but for some time past had been janitor of the Marlon National Bank.
 He also did similar work for several other concerns. He was seriously ill for only a few days, attending his duties up until last Thursday. Mudd was energetic, attentive to his work and was held in high regard by everyone who knew him. He is survived by his wife, who was Julia Maxwell, and seven children.

Funeral services will be held this afternoon at the colored Baptist church and burial will be in St.
 Augustine's cemetery.

Charlie Graves died at his home on West Main street Monday morning at 2 o'clock of infirmities due to his advanced years. His exact age is not known. "Uncle Charlie," as he was familiarly known, had been in poor health for many months and was confined to his home for some time before he died. He was a veteran of the Union Army in the Civil War, serving as a private in Company A, 100th colored regiment of infantry. A number of years ago he was a leader of the colored branch of the Republican party in this section.

Funeral services were held Tuesday morning at St. Monica's church, after which the burial took place in the National cemetery.
