

RICHARD GREGORY WILL

Washington county Kentucky

I, Richard Gregory, being of perfect mind and memory do make this my last will and Testament and revoking and disnulling every other will or will before made by me. And first of all I give to my wife, Anne Gregory, the plantation where on I now live; and the first choice of two negro slaves; and also as many of the cattle and hogs and sheep as she thinks fit. And one horse such as she may choose and all the rest of the household furniture during her natural life

Second, also I give unto my Grandson Uriah Sandifer Gregory one negro by the mane of Stephen, and one feather bed and one horse namely a blushing stud colt that he has now in his possession. And also to divide equally with my nine children in each division of my estate. Whereas my children have had their equal parts to this time hereafter mentioned: Smith Gregory, John Gregory, William Gregory, Uriah Gregory, Abel Gregory, Asa Gregory, Godfrey Gregory, Polly Lething, and Leroy Gregory with which my grandson, Uriah Gregory equally to inherit and share all the remainders of my estate except

And then my will is that my son Leroy Gregory have the sixty acres of land which he is now possessed of lying and being on the South side of the plantation which I now live. And I also constitute and appoint my two sons, Godfrey Gregory and Leroy Gregory and my son-in-law, Randle Lething the executors of my estate.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my Seal this fifth day of September one thousand eight hundred and twelve.

(signed) Richard Gregory (SEAL)

Signed, sealed, delivered in the presence of
William Moody
Berman Hatchet
John Phillips

At a County Court begun and held for Washington County on Monday the 12th of day of May 1817, this last Will and Testament of Richard Gregory, deceased, was proved by the oaths of William Moody and Beriman Hatchett two of the subscribing witnesses thereto and ordered to be recorded and on the motion of Godfrey Gregory, one of the Executors therein named, he having made oath and with John Thomas and Patrick Morgan his securities, executed and Acknowledged bond in the penalty of seven thousand conditioned as the law directs. A certificate is granted him for obtaining a probate in due form. And leave is reserved that the other executors therein named to join in the probate thereof when they may think fit.

BERRYMAN FAMILY BIBLE RECORDS

I, Robert McAlear, P. O. Box 23, Nice, California 95464, have in my possession a photostat copy of the entries recorded in the Berryman family Bible now in the possession of Mrs. Clema Bartley, Glasgow, Kentucky. The Bible, published in 1851 by E. Morgan & Co., originally belonged to William Berryman who married Mary Landers, 20 April 1820, in Washington County, Kentucky. Shortly after their marriage, they settled in Barren County, Kentucky, where they raised their family.

On 13 February 1978, I abstracted the following entries from the Bible. Items in parentheses are my additions. I am a great grandson of Sarah Jane Berryman.
