

Hall-Wuerth

The wedding of Miss Martha Ann Hall of Springfield and William Joseph Wuerth of Louisville, son of Prof. Joseph W. Wuerth and Mrs. Wuerth of this city, was solemnized Monday morning at 7:00 o'clock at St. Dominic's Church at Springfield, the Rev. James J. Maloney officiating.

Miss Mary Hall, sister of the bride, was the bridesmaid, and Sam Boldrick of this city was the groom's best man. The ushers were Cooper Clarkson and Joe Henry Wuerth, the latter a brother of the groom.

The bridal party entered the church to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March, played by the groom's father and Charles Wuerth, a brother, the former playing a violin and the latter presiding at the organ. Mendelssohn's Wedding March was rendered as the party left the church.

A wedding breakfast was served for the couple and their attendants and a few close friends at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Hall at Springfield, immediately following the ceremony. Later Mr. and Mrs. Wuerth left for Louisville where they will make their home.

The bride's gown was dark blue taffeta with a Queen Elizabeth maline collar. She wore a dark blue hat, shoes and other accessories to match. Her flowers were a shoulder bouquet of Marshal Neil roses. The bridesmaid was attired in a beige crepe dress with brown accessories. She also wore a shoulder bouquet of roses.

Mrs. Wuerth, who is a graduate of the Springfield High School and of the University of Kentucky, Lexington, has for some time held a responsible position in Lexington. She is a young woman with many admirable traits.

Mr. Wuerth made his home here until about a year ago when he accepted a position with Bernheim Distillery Co., Louisville. He is a graduate of St. Augustine's High School and later attended Notre Dame University for two years. He is quite popular among the younger people here and is an enterprising young man.

Both Mr. Wuerth and his bride have many friends who wish for them much and continued happiness.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were: Prof. and Mrs. Joseph W. Wuerth, Mrs. C. C. Boldrick, Miss Benita Spalding, Miss Mary Rose O'Daniel, Charles Wuerth, Sam Boldrick, Joe Henry Wuerth, Henry Boldrick and Cooper Clarkson.
