Dear Sir/Madam:

I hope you can help me with a historical question. I am attempting to research my HARBIN/HARBEN ancestors. One of them, a David Harbin, is listed on the 1850 census as attending a St. Mary's College in Marion County. Can you tell me anything about the college? It does not seem to be in existence now, although I note a St. Mary on the map.

I would really appreciate any information about the college, when it existed, the extent of its offerings, who might have its records, etc. Do you have any references to HARBIN or HARBEN families in local cemetery records, land records, or such records as you might have? I would gladly pay the cost of any photocopying charges.

Thank you very much for your help. I really appreciate your time and trouble in answering my questions.

Sincerely yours,

Joan Marie Salzmann
