FIRST GENERATION

1001. MARK HARDIN was born perhaps about 1680. There are various versions of his birth place and date: France, New York, and Virginia, from 1660 to 1685. There was a strong tradition that the family was of French Huguenot origin, but Mark's antecedents, and relationship to the other Hardin families in Virginia (and elsewhere in the Colonies) are uncertain [HW-317,318; WK-12,14,251]. He died in Prince William County, Virginia prior to 21 May 1735 when his will was proved (see below).

His wife's name was Mary; according to family tradition her maiden name may have been MARY HOGUE, but this has not been proved [HW-317; WK-12,14,25,39,94]. One unsubstantiated item alleges she was born ca. 1688 in Northumberland County, Virginia [WK-251]. She survived him, but probably died before 24 March 1755 [HW-318].

Mark Hardin's earliest recorded land holdings (ca. 1707) were in Northumberland County, Va.; then about 1716 he became one of the pioneer residents and landowners of the Elk Run district of what later (ca. 1730) became Prince William County. [HW-317; WK-xxx1]. His will disposed of over 900 acres of land.

His will dated 16 March 1734/5, proved 21 May 1735 [Prince William Co., Va. W.B. C:36; abstract HW-317,318; WK-651] named wife Mary; sons John (the eldest), Martin, Mark and Henry; and daughters Ann, Alice, Elizabeth, Martha McDonell, Abigail, and Mary.

Probably all his children were born in Northumberland County, or what later became Prince William County, and probably between about 1707 and about 1730. No exact birth dates seem to be known. [HW-318; WK-25,941]. Children are listed below in the order named in his will, not necessarily in order of birth:

++2001. John Hardin b. ca. 1707, m. Catherine Marr,

++2002. Martin Hardin, m. Lydia Waters.

2003. Mark Hardin, m. Elizabeth Ashby (daughter of Capt. Thomas and Rose Ashby of Prince William and Frederick Cos.). They were divorced as in Nov. 1753 she sued him for alimony in Prince William Co., then in 1757-58 she sued his brother John for property in the latter's hands in Frederick Co. which belonged to Mark, Mark having left the county. They probably had children, but no record has ever been found (the list in HW-331,332 is speculative). There is no known record of when or where he died.

2004. Henry Hardin. Although some sources [HW-333; WK-39,59,65,941] identify him with the Henry Hardin who married Judith Lynch and lived in Pittsylvania Co., Prof. Jones of U.W.Va. after diligent research concluded that this was not true [GH-11].

2005. Ann Hardin, possibly m. Henry Holtzclaw, and if so, was probably the mother of Winifred Holtzclaw who m. 3005. William Hardin [HW-272,3251].

2006. Martha Hardin, m. (James?) McDonell or McDonald.

2007. Abigail Hardin.

2008. Elizabeth Hardin, evidently d. ca. 1752 unmarried.

2009. Alice Hardin, may have m. William Cloud.

2010. Mary Hardin, may have m. Robert Jones.

- ++3001. John Hardin, b. 2 June 1733, m. Isabella Strawbridge.
3002. Mary (Polly) Hardin, b. prob. 1731-35, m. Owen Thomas son of Lewis and Jane Thomas, had children surnamed Thomas: 4013. Lewis, 4014. Henry b. 1758 m. Rachel Stilwell, 4015. Enos, 4016. John, 4017. Hardin, 4018. Mary (Polly), and 4019. Catherine m. (1) James Haw & (2) ----- Harrison. This family also moved from Virginia to Fayette Co., Pa. then to Ky. where they lived in what is now Marion County [GH-1] [more data WK-xiv, xviii].
 ++3003. Mark Hardin, b. prob. 1735-40, m. 3022. Ann (Nancy) Hartley.
 ++3004. Benjamin Hardin, b. perhaps ca. 1739, m. his cousin 3012. Sarah Hardin.
 ++3005. William Hardin, m. (1) Winifred Holtzclaw, (2) Susanna McGee.
3006. Jesse Hardin. By one account [JH-30] he and his brother William came home (to Pa.) from service in the Continental Army in 1781. Since he was not mentioned in his father's will, presumably he died before 1788. One source states that he married a Miss Sinnett [WK-30, 44], but possibly he was the father of the 4052. Polly (Mary) Hardin who was a legatee in his father's will, in which case his wife's name was Margaret Heely (or Huly). This Polly Hardin and a 4053. Daniel Hardin who probably was her brother reportedly were reared by their uncle 3005. William [HW-320, 321] (see page 13).
3007. Abigail Hardin, m. ----- Lynch, probably did not move to Kentucky.
3008. Catherine Hardin, m. (1) ----- Johnson, (2) Alexander Burnett who d. 1805 in Berkeley Co., Va.
3009. Elizabeth Hardin, m. ----- Martin, probably did not move to Kentucky.
3010. Susanna Hardin, m. John Walker. They moved to Kentucky and settled in Breckenridge Co.

2002. MARTIN HARDIN (son of 1001. Mark Hardin) was born probably in Northumberland County, Va. [HW-327; WK-14, 26, 94]. He died between November 1779 and July 1780 probably on Georges Creek in what is now Fayette County, Pa. [HW-327].

He married probably about 1739 LYDIA WATERS; she was born 16 April 1720 in Stafford County, Va., daughter of Thomas and Rose (Wickliffe) Waters [HW-327; WK-26, 40, 51, 94]. Evidently she died only a short time before her husband [HW-328].

Martin Hardin lived probably in that part of Prince William County, Va. that became Fauquier County in 1758. He owned 300 acres in Prince William County in 1752 and acquired more from his brother Mark in 1755; acquired 776 acres in Orange and Culpeper Counties 1748-61, most of which he sold in 1762 and 1769; as of 1770 he owned 965 acres in Fauquier County, in 1777 only 464; but by 1772 he was living on Georges Creek in Pa. [HW-327; WK-58, 65, 89]. He was licensed to maintain an ordinary (inn or tavern) called "Hardin's Ordinary" on Elk Run from about 1754 to at least 1760 [HW-327; WK-40, 57, 59, xxxi, xxxii], and was a Justice of Fauquier County as of 1769 [HW-327]. He was credited with both military and patriotic service in the Revolutionary War [DAR Patriots's Index 1:303; WK-51].

His will was dated 17 Nov. 1779, probated at Monongalia County, (W)Va. 3 Nov. 1780 (the Monongalia County Courthouse burned, with all records, in 1796; but a copy of the will exists in Nelson Co., Ky. circuit court papers, sent for use in a land case in which his son

3024. Eleanor Hartley, m. (Cornelius?) Houghland, had children
4085. Mary, 4086. Henry, 4087. Hannah, 4088. Cornelius, 4089. Macey
(Nancy?), 4090. Margaret, 4091. Eleanor and 4092. Ann Houghland.

2012. GEORGE MOORE married, about 1712, ELIZABETH LUCAS (they probably lived in Maryland). Their children were [FH-2]:

3027. Mary Moore, b. ca. 1716, m. William Scott.
3028. George Moore, b. ca. 1717, d. 1782, m. Eleanor ----- 3029. Simon Moore.
3030. Ezekiel Moore.
++3031. Aaron Moore, b. ca. 1730, m. 3036. Mary (Polly) Prather.
3032. John Moore, b. ca. 1737, d. 1801, m. Margaret Colvin (see Hist. Fayette Co., Pa. & DAR Patriots Index p. 477).

2013. COL. THOMAS SPRIGG PRATHER was born in Prince Georges County, Maryland in 1703/4. He died in 1785 in Washington County, Maryland.
[BB-1; DAR-2].

His father may have been a Thomas Prather; son of a Jonathan Prather who died in Calvert County, Md. in 1680 and whose widow Jane married (2) John Smith. This Thomas Prather married Martha Spriggs; he died 1712-13 and Martha married (2) a Capt. Yoakley. Her will was proved 13 Nov. 1742 (Md. Cal. of Wills 1:189), naming heirs: dau.
Rachel, son Aaron Prather, gdson. Aaron Prather (son of Aaron), gdson. Baruch Williams, and Charity Theobald (but evidently not Thomas Sprigg Prather). [FH-2, data reliability unknown, included here only as possible clues for further research].

Thomas Sprigg Prather married (1) ELIZABETH CLAGGETT 10 June 1724 in Prince Georges County. She was born ca. 1704, the daughter of Capt. Thomas Claggett (1678-1732) and his wife Mary Keene (d.
1759, dau. of Richard and Mary (Gorsuch) Keene). Her paternal grandparents were Capt. Thomas Claggett (b. ca. 1635 in England) who
m. 1674 Mrs. Mary Hooper, widow of Richard Hooper of Calvert Co., Md.
Elizabeth Claggett Prather died ca. 1765 in Frederick Co., Md.
Thomas Prather married (2) JEANETTE ----- [BB-1; DAR-2].

Thomas and Elizabeth (Claggett) Prather's home was "Spriggs Request", Collington Manor, Queen Anne's Parish, Prince Georges
County. About 1752 they sold this home, and moved to Conecocheague Manor, Frederick County, Md. where he was agent and collector for Lord Baltimore, from whom he leased 214 acres of land. (This portion of Frederick County became Washington County in 1776). [BB-1].

Thomas Prather gave patriotic service during the Revolutionary War. He was appointed to a committee to represent Frederick County in carrying out the agreements of the Continental Congress, also to a committee to relieve distressed inhabitants, and he donated rugs and blankets. [DAR-2].

Thomas Prather left a will naming a daughter Mary. In the final settlement she was named Mary Moore. Mary's birth was registered at Queen Anne's Parish, page 313 (original Parish Register in Bishop's Library, National Cathedral, Washington; a manuscript copy in Md.
Hist. Soc. Lib., Baltimore) [BB-1]. Children, probably all born in Prince Georges County, Maryland [DAR-2]:

3033. Thomas Claggett Prather, b. 9 May 1726, m. Margaret Prather
(a cousin), killed in French and Indian War 11 Oct. 1759.

4002. John Hardin, b. ca. 1762, served in the Revolution under his father, was evidently with him on the Sandusky expedition; Rev. pensioner aged 70 as of 7 Jan. 1833; went to Ky. as a young man, where he m. Barbara Rounder, 24 Sep. 1790 in Nelson Co. She was the daughter of Joseph Rounder, a neighbor of the Hardins northeast of Springfield [GH-1]. John was probably the "Big John" Hardin named in a 1795 tax list of Washington Co., Ky. [GH-1]. They returned to Fayette Co., Pa. (probably ca. 1803 when his father died) where he died in 1853 at age 97 leaving two sons 5009. Henry and 5010. Joseph, also had children 5011. Peter and 5012. Martha, per Iva Hardin notes [GH-1].
4003. Absalom Hardin, m. Elizabeth Powell in Nelson Co., Ky. 25 July 1789 [IGI-2577]. They settled in what is now Livingston Co., Ky., had children 5013. Rebecca, 5014. Samuel, 5015. Henry, 5016. George, 5017. Hiram, 5018. Andrew, 5019. John and 5020. Benoney [GH-1].
4004. Henry Hardin, m. prob. Catherine Hoagland in Fayette Co., Pa. He was left some land on Patterson Creek in Hampshire Co., Va. by his grandfather 2001. Maj. John Hardin; he sold this land in 1823 while living in Fleming Co., Ky. He was preparing to move to Johnson Co., Ind. when he died in 1830; his family did move there after his death. From the settlement of his estate the heirs were 5021. Thomas, 5022. Benjamin, 5023. Mark, 5024. Elihu, 5025. Alice Seybold, 5026. Rachel Waddle, 5027. Ruth Burns, 5028. Franklin, 5029. Hannah, and 5030. Elizabeth Hardin [GH-1].
4005. Miriam Hardin, m. Isaac Hoagland. They lived in what is now Taylor Co., Ky. In 1806 Isaac Hoagland recorded a Power of Attorney in Green Co., Ky. to sell land in Randolph Co., Va. left to his wife Miriam by her father John Hardin. His will probated 1834 named children 5031. Anne, 5032. John, 5033. Betsey White, 5034. Ebba (Isabella), 5035. Alsey Blakey, 5036. Jane, 5037. Levina, 5038. Mimah (Miriam), 5039. William, 5040. Hardin, and 5041. Cassa (Catherine). [GH-1].
4006. Mary Ann Hardin, m. Francis Mitchell, had daughters 5042. Isabella and 5043. Elizabeth.
4007. Mobellia Hardin.
4008. Hector Hardin, m. Hannah ----- and had children 5044. Henry, 5045. Malinda, and 5046. Mary Ann Hardin; may have lived in Randolph Co., Va. (W.Va.) [HW-322], but was on a tithable list of Nelson Co., Ky. in 1785 [GH-1]. As he received no bequest in his father's will, perhaps he died before 1803, but his children were left land by their grandfather John Hardin.
4009. Nestor Hardin, b. ca. 1759, m. his cousin 4031. Catherine Hardin (dau. of 3004. Benjamin). He was on a tax list of Springhill Twp., Fayette Co., Pa. in 1786 [Pa. Arch. Ser. 3, 22:630]. They had 10 children: 5047. Absalom, 5048. Isabel, 5049. Lydia m. 5058. George Hardin (son of 4011. George), 5050. Alcey, 5051. Mary Ann, 5052. Sarah, 5053. Catherine, 5054. Agnes, 5055. Hannah, and 5056. Nestor Jr. [BB-1; GH-1].
4010. Alice Hardin, m. Paul Duvall.
4011. George Hardin, supposedly was b. ca. 1776, d. 1854 in Fayette Co., Pa., m(1) Jane Cunningham who was b. ca. 1779, d. 1813 [HW-323]. They had 7 children: 5057. John 1797, 5058. George 1802 m. 5049. Lydia Hardin (dau. of 4009. Nestor), 5059. Esau 1804 m. Mary Ann Reed, 5060. Martha, 5061. Kate m.

- ++4025. Catherine "Katie" Hardin, m. 4094. Thomas Hollett.
- ++4026. Hannah Hardin, m. Henry Stalcup.
- 4027. Mary Hardin, m. John Summers 25 Feb. 1799 in Washington Co., Ky. [IGI-2583]. One child 5116. Isabella known, probably others [GH-1].
- 4028. Lydia Hardin, m. Jacob Rounder 4 Sep. 1801 in Washington Co., Ky. [IGI-2582], moved by 1810 to Henry Co., Ky. [GH-1].
- 4029. Sarah Hardin.

3004. BENJAMIN HARDIN (son of 2001. John) was born possibly ca. 1739 in Prince William County, Virginia [HW-323; WK-8.14.44]. In one court deposition in Washington Co., Ky. his age was recorded such that his birth date would have been 1749; however, this may have been a clerk's error [GH-1]. He died in December 1816 or January 1817 in Washington County, Kentucky [will below, WK-12].

He married his cousin 3012. SARAH HARDIN, daughter of 2002. Martin, about 1765 probably in Fauquier County, Va. She was born 10 March 1743 in what is now Fauquier County, died in 1833 [HW-323; WK-12.14.51]. Her will was dated 14 Aug. 1826, proved 14 Oct. 1833 in Nelson County, Ky., so evidently she died there at the home of her son Ben. In her will she requested burial beside her husband in Washington Co. [GH-1].

Benjamin and his family were living in what is now Fayette County, Pa. in 1772. Benjamin Hardin was a soldier in the Revolution, from Virginia [HW-324; DAR Patriot's Index 1:302]. He obtained land grants in Jefferson (now Washington) County, Ky. in 1782 [HW-323.324]; his 800 acre claim was about 3 miles south of present Springfield, but he also had a claim in what is now Breckenridge Co. [GH-1]. He and his family probably didn't move to Ky. until at least 1785 [JH-84/101], or even until just before he was recorded in the Nelson Co. tithable list in 1788.

Benjamin Hardin's will was dated 1 December 1816, proved 13 January 1817 [Washington Co., Ky. W.B. C:54; abstract AB1-101]. It named: wife Sarah; sons Warren, Martin, and Benjamin; daughters Lydia, Sarah, Rossanna, and Mary Barnett; and granddaughter Cassandra Hardin. Exeors.: wife, and Warren Hardin.

Children [will; HW-324; WK-7.9.11.12.76], one or two born possibly in Va., most in Pa.; Jephtha Hardin was known as a half-brother of 4039. Congressman Ben Hardin, and 3004. Benjamin Hardin made him a deed of gift in Washington County, Ky. in 1803 [HW-324; WK-7]; possibly he was a son of Benjamin by a previous marriage, but some investigators believe he was Sarah's son by an unknown father [GH-1]:

4030. Jephtha Hardin, moved to Illinois, was a lawyer, d. in Gallatin Co, Ill. ca. 1840. An 1848 deed listed 5117. John J. Hardin, 5118. Harriet Barger, 5119. Mary Jane Hardin, & Sarah Hardin widow as his heirs [GH-1].

4031. Catherine "Kate" Hardin, b. ca. 1766 or 1769, m. her cousin 4009. Nestor Hardin (see his listing for their children).

4032. Lydia Hardin, b. 29 Dec. 1768, m. Thomas Tobin (a Rev. soldier) 18 Aug. 1783. He went to Ky. 1781, but returned to Pa. 1783, where they both died, he in 1844. [FP-698 asserts that this Lydia was a sister of 2001. John and 2002. Martin, which appears incorrect].

4033. Sarah Hardin, b. 17 Dec. 1770, d. in Ky., m. Robert Tobin 8 brought his family to Kentucky in a year or two later. [JH-30-61,85].

William Hardin served in the 5th Virginia Regiment in the Revolution [HW-325], or in the Continental Army [JH-30], or in Morgan's Virginia Rifles [JH-43]. He was a large man: according to his great-nephew [JH-34] he was six feet four inches tall, weighed 240 pounds, had jet black hair, dark eyes, dark complexion, was active as a cat, and a swift runner. He was noted as a fierce and experienced Indian fighter, earning his nickname, and the Indians feared him. He was probably a Captain of militia, and a Justice, in Breckenridge County. There are several published accounts of his part in the settling of that part of Kentucky.

His will was dated 19 June 1821 and proved 17 Sept. 1821 [HW-326]. An 1834 deed is pertinent, as it shows that he had at least two children by his second wife; it listed as his heirs Henry Hardin, William Hardin Jr., John E. Hardin, Jehu Hardin, Amelia Merry, Celia Davison (wife of Wm. Davison), William Crawford (husband of Malinda Hardin), Hannah Ann Wilson (wife of Rhodes Wilson), Susanna Armstrong (wife of Robert Armstrong), Lucinda Holder (wife of John Holder), Elijah Comstock and Levina Spickernagle wife of Wm. Spickernagle (these last two being children of Winifred Ann Hardin Comstock); wherein Susanna Armstrong was the widow of William Hardin Sr. and Hannah Ann Wilson and Lucinda Holder were the children of Susanna and William Hardin decd. [GH-1].

In addition to his own children, William Hardin also brought up in his household a 4052.Mary (Polly) Hardin and a 4053.Daniel Hardin who were presumably his niece and nephew [HW-320,321] (see 3006.Jesse Hardin, page 5). Mary (Polly) married Benjamin Huff 1 April 1789, William signed the marriage bond as her father; Daniel married Alice Jolly 19 Aug. 1790 [GH-1].

Children [HW-326; deed above], the first four born probably in what is now Fayette County, Pa., the rest probably in what is now Breckenridge County, Ky. :

- 4041.Winifred Ann Hardin, b. ca. 1776, d. 1818 in Breckenridge Co., Ky. [FH-1], m. William Comstock 1 May 1794 in Hardin Co., Ky. [IGI-2587], had children including 5159.Elijah, 5160.Levina, and 5161.Servia Comstock.
- 4042.Henry Hardin, b. 8 June 1778. He m. Mrs. Rachel (Biddle) Walker 1 Oct. 1796, had children 5162.Elijah b. 22 Dec. 1805, 5163.Moses Biddle, 5164.Sallie D., 5165.Mahulda A., 5166.Nancy, 5167.Celia, and 5168.Rachel. His will was written in May, proved in June 1855. [GH-1].
- 4043.Malinda Hardin, b. ca. 1780, d. before 1834, m. William Crawford 15 Feb. 1798 in Hardin Co., Ky. [IGI-2577, name "Belinda"], had children 5169.Winifred b. 1799, 5170.William, 5171.Jenny, and 5172.Catherine [GH-1].
- 4044.William Hardin, b. 3 Aug. 1781, d. 24 Sep. 1850 at Louisville; m. (1) 1798 his cousin 4036.Cassandra Hardin (q.v.), they had one dau. 5173.Molly Cassandra. He m. (2) Mary Biddle, (3) Cynthia Howey (this uncertain, may have been another Wm.), and (4) Caroline Innis. He was Postmaster at Frankfort, and Warden of the Kentucky Penitentiary, reportedly had seven sons and four daughters; some possible names 5174.Nancy Jane, 5175.Sarah Ann, 5176.Mary Ann, 5177.William H., 5178.Elizabeth, the rest uncertain. [GH-1].
- 4045.Elijah Hardin, killed in an altercation in Hardinsburg in 1805 [GH-1].

Hardin set out to find homesites in Kentucky, Mark selected his land in what is now Marlon County, and built a cabin [JH-59,66,73,79]. That fall most of these men returned to the Monongahela River area to prepare to bring their families to Kentucky, which they did over the next few years. [JH-83,85,89]. Evidently Mark brought his family in 1787 (see below).

Children [GH-1; HW-329; WK-49], the first four evidently born in Pa., the rest probably in what is now Marion Co., Ky.:

4058. Martin Hardin, b. 6 Dec. 1781, d. 8 Mar. 1812, m. Jane Thomas.

4059. John Stull Hardin, b. 10 May 1783, d. 27 Oct. 1806, unmrd.

4060. Daniel Stull Hardin, b. 28 Apr. 1785 [IGI-2578], d. 9 Aug. 1824, m. Mary Higgins Chinn.

4061. Sarah White Stull Hardin, b. 17 Feb. 1787, (brought to Ky. at 6 weeks of age), d. 8 Feb. 1864, m. Christopher Chinn. One of their daughters mrd. 5144. James P. Hardin.

4062. Mark Hardin, b. 28 Mar. 1789, d. 14 Oct. 1804.

4063. Otho (Othniel?) Hardin, b. 15 Mar. 1791, d. 16 June 1871, m. Nancy Davis 24 July 1823 in Washington Co., Ky. [WK-76; IGI-2584].

4064. Davis Hardin, b. 15 Feb. 1793, d.y.

4065. William Hardin, b. 2 Oct. 1795.

4066. Lewis T. Hardin, b. 3 Jan. 1799.

4067. Letitia Stull Hardin, b. 30 Jan. 1802, m. William Thomas Buford.

4068. Susan Mary Stull Hardin, b. 10 Feb. 1808, d. 10 Nov. 1880, m. Lewis Clark Ralley 26 Aug. 1830 in Mercer Co., Ky. [WK-49,76; IGI-2586].

3016. COL. JOHN HARDIN (son of 2002. Martin) was born 1 October 1753 in Prince William County, Virginia. He was distinguished as a soldier and as an Indian fighter. He was murdered by the Miami Indians while on a peace mission in Ohio in May 1792. [HW-329; WK-57,95; JH-108].

He married JANE DAVIS or DAVIES about 1773, probably in what is now Fayette County, Pa. After his death she remarried (in Kentucky), to Christopher Irvin. She died 31 May 1829. [HW-329; WK-14,34,95,96].

John Hardin was an Ensign in Lord Dunmore's expedition (from Virginia) against the Indians in 1774. He was in the 8th Pa. Regiment of the Continental Army, and in Morgan's Rifles, with the rank of Lieutenant, in the Revolution. [FP-697; HW-329; WK-51,57,95]. After arrival in Kentucky he was Quartermaster under Gen. George Rogers Clark, then was commander of the Nelson County militia with the rank of Colonel. [WK-57; JH-100].

According to "History of the Hardin Family" he went with his two brothers from Pennsylvania to the Falls of the Ohio in the winter of 1780-81, explored the area for several months, then returned briefly to Pa. In the fall of 1782 he returned to Ky., and organized and led the group to what are now Nelson, Washington, Marion and Taylor Counties, where he personally surveyed and laid out tracts of land for each of the men who decided to settle there. He returned to Pa. late in 1782. [JH-59,78-80,83].

He brought his family to Kentucky about 1786, settling on his new holdings in what is now Washington County. He participated in several campaigns against the Indians over the next few years.

According to "History of the Hardin Family", Martin with his brothers Mark and John left Pennsylvania in Dec. 1780 and were among the new arrivals at the Falls of the Ohio early in 1781, joining the other Hardin party there [JH-59; WK-49]. Later that year he was in the group that helped 3005. Indian Bill lay out and establish Hardinsburg. He participated in the last abortive attempt to rescue 4001. Jack Hardin's wife from her captivity with the Indians. [JH-62-66]. That fall (1781) when 4001. Jack Hardin was arrested and court-martialled by Gen. George Rogers Clark, Martin helped him escape; and the two "hid out" and wintered over in the Kentucky wilderness, in the process discovering the Pleasant Run area of what is now Washington County [JH-70-75]. When 3016. Col. John Hardin led the group back to Pleasant Run in 1782 to select homesites, Martin chose his land next to his brother. That fall he returned to Pa., and brought his family to Ky. probably in 1784 or 1785 [JH-78-80, 83]. He was a scout in Gen. "Mad" Anthony Wayne's expedition into Ohio and Indiana in 1794, which finally crushed the Indian menace [JH-111].

His will was dated 16 July 1838, proved 21 Aug. 1848 [HW-330; abstract AB1-251]. His wife was not mentioned. It named: deceased son John; daughter-in-law Sarah, widow of John; grandson Robert and granddaughter Letitia, children of John; children Martin, Sally, and Lydia; daughter Lydia Yager; daughter Sarah Torrance; son-in-law Albert Torrance. Execrs.: Martin Hardin, Josiah Yager, Albert Torrance. A codicil dated 27 Nov. 1843: daughter Sally Torrance had died, so her share went to grandson William Torrance.

Children [will; HW-330; WK-76], the first two born probably in Pa., the rest probably in Washington Co., Ky.:

- 4076. John Hardin, d. before July 1838, m. Sarah Boyce 5 Aug. 1819 in Mercer Co., Ky. [IGI-2581], had children 5208. Letitia and 5209. Robert B. Hardin.
- 4077. Martin Hardin, b. 26 Jan. 1781, d. 2 Apr. 1877, m. Rosanna Fisher 4 July 1806 in Mercer Co., Ky. [IGI-2583], dau. of Stephen and Mary (Garr) Fisher, b. 25 Nov. 1781, d. 24 Apr. 1876. They had 10 children [GH-1].
- 4078. Sarah Hardin, d. before Nov. 1843, m. 16 Feb. 1818 Albert Torrence, had children including a son 5210. William Torrence.
- 4079. Lydia Hardin, b. 1789, d. 1843, m. Josiah H. Yager 9 Feb. 1806 in Washington Co., Ky. [IGI-2582], b. 1783, d. 1860, had children incl. a dau. 5211. Elizabeth Fisher Yager, b. 3 Nov. 1806.
- 4080. Letitia S. Hardin, d. before July 1838, m. Andrew Fite, left no children.

3025. JOHN HOLLETT. John Hollett married HANNAH WOOD [KH-1]. According to family tradition [LK-2] the Hollett family were French Huguenots, which is of course possible, or perhaps the Huguenot tradition of the Hardin ancestry became misapplied to this line. Nothing further is known of either the Hollett or the Wood family. Children [LK-1; original source probably his grandmother Katharine Harding Huron, as Thomas Hollett and Catherine Hardin were her grandparents]:

- 4093. Mary Hollett, never married.
- +4094. Thomas Hollett, m. 4025. Catherine Hardin (q.v.).
(and there may have been other children).

the settling of this area, this date appears several years too early. Earliest known records of the family in this area are that Abraham had a settlement claim on Scott's Mill Run in 1773 [GH-1], and that "Thomas Harden" was on a Property Return list of Bedford County, Pa., Cumberland Valley Township in 1779 [Pa.Arch.Ser.3, 22:163]. Over the next several years, all six of John Harding's sons were noted in various local records (usually with the name recorded Hardin); tax and property lists, military service, deeds, etc. (see their own entries in the next generation section). But it must be made clear that there is no clear evidence of the presence of John Harding, Sr., because of the clouded identification of the several John "Hardin"s in the various tax lists, militia lists, and church minutes.

The minutes of the Great Bethel Baptist Church between 1770 and 1784 have a few uninformative entries under the surname Hardin; John, Capt. John, Abraham, Sarah, Mary, Elizabeth, and Stephen. Of these, only Abraham and Stephen can be presumed safely to have been Hardings, although others may have been. [GH-1].

Commencing in the early 1780s most or all of John and Mary's children removed to Kentucky; but there is no evidence that either John or Mary (Sarah) did, so probably they both died in Pennsylvania. It appears that Thomas was probably the first to migrate; certainly he was with the Hardin party that went down the Ohio River to Ky. in 1780 and was ambushed by the Indians. Thomas was noted in a 1783 Westmoreland Co., Pa. tax list as "single, gone", although he was still on a Monongalia Co., Va. tax list in 1785 [BB-1]. Others of the Harding brothers may have explored in Kentucky at various times and returned to Pa.; Abraham, "Jonathan" and Stephen, for example, were noted in Jack Hardin's narrative [JH-var.]. By their disappearance from Pa./Va. local records, it appears that Stephen, John and Eden left about 1784, Robert sometime after 1786, Abraham perhaps not until about 1795 or after. (See their entries p. 29-37).

There is nothing recorded to connect the Harding brothers and sisters to their father and mother except family tradition. There may have been such documents in the Monongalia County, Va. (now W.Va.) courthouse, but it burned in 1796 and all records were destroyed [GH-1]. There is further uncertainty as to the number and names of John Harding's daughters. The six sons are all variously documented (see their entries), and that all six were brothers there is little doubt. There also is no doubt that Mary was their sister. But the names and numbers of other daughters is a moot point. Three additional names (Amy, Hannah, and Lydia) are listed below with such information as is available.

Children of John and Mary (or Sarah) Harding; places of birth not known; most birthdates not known definitely (birthdates listed in WK-102,103 appear purely speculative, and some are known to be incorrect); probably not listed in order of birth:

- ++4095. Mary Harding, b. ca. 1747, m. 4001. John "Jack" Hardin (q.v.).
- ++4096. Robert Harding, b. perhaps ca. 1748, m. Mary Martha "Patsy" Wade.
- ++4097. John Harding, m. Lydia -----.
- ++4098. Abraham Harding, b. 17 Sept. 1752 (or 1754?), m. 4106. Sarah Moore.
- ++4099. Stephen Harding, m. Elizabeth -----.
- ++4100. Thomas Harding, b. 8 Jan. 1758, m. Sarah Payne.
- ++4101. Eden Harding, b. ca. 1759, m. Dorcas Cooper.

In subsequent deeds in 1791 and 1792 his sons Hosea and wife Isabella, Aaron and wife Vilet, and Henry and wife Rhoda deeded away their interest in their father's land, describing it as "Hosea's Choice" east of the Monongahela River on Georges Creek in Springhill Township [WF-17,18,19].

Children of Aaron and Mary (Prather) Moore [WF-17,18,19 will & deeds; FH-2], most probably born in Frederick Co. (now Washington Co.), Md., most dates of birth not known:

++4105. Elizabeth Moore, m. Alexander Wade [WF-14].

++4106. Sarah Moore, b. 26 Aug. 1759, m. 4098. Abraham Harding

(q.v.).

4107. Abigail Moore, d. 1825, m. Thomas Simpson (who possibly was a brother of President U.S. Grant's grandfather).

4108. Hosea Moore, b. 1763, d. 1832, m. Isabella -----.

4109. Ruhama Moore, d. 1826, m. James Kendall.

4110. Aaron Moore, m. Vilet Moore dau. of Ezekial Moore.

4111. Eleanor Moore, m. ----- Friend.

4112. Martha Moore, m. William S. Hannah.

4113. Henry Moore, m. Rhoda -----.

4114. Nancy Moore, m. ----- Prater (or Prather).

FOURTH GENERATION

4001. JOHN "JACK" HARDIN (natural son of 3001. John) was born 8 Mar. 1752 [GH-1], probably in Frederick County, Virginia. He died 27 March 1818 in Washington County, Kentucky [GH-1; will, below]. [NOTE: birth, marriage and death dates for this family are reported to be from a family Bible].

He married 4095. MARY "MOLLY" HARDING (daughter of 3026. John) probably about 1773 in what is now Fayette County, Pa. She was born 5 November 1747, birthplace unknown; and died 25 June 1833 in Washington County, Ky. [GH-1; JH-5].

They lived for a few years in the Monongahela River country and started a family; then in 1780 became embroiled in a tragic yet heroic incident, that has become a family legend passed down from one generation to the next. Only a very brief synopsis can be given here; but a longer version is contained in Appendix F.

In early March 1780 Jack Hardin, Mary, and their young sons Stephen and Robert were among a party of several families setting out in boats down the Monongahela and Ohio Rivers to settle in the newly opened lands of Kentucky. On 20 March, on the Ohio River a little east of where Portsmouth, Ohio now stands, the boats were suddenly attacked by a large group of Indians. Several of the party were killed, including 5 year old Stephen Hardin, and others wounded; some surviving women and children including Mary Hardin and her son Robert were captured and carried off by the Indians; the helpless remainder of the party including Jack Hardin had no choice but to go on to the Falls of the Ohio (now Louisville, Ky.). From there several rescue attempts were made, without success. Molly Hardin lived as a slave to the Indians in northern Ohio for a year and a half, suffering many hardships and indignities. Seven months after her capture she gave birth to her daughter Mary; surprisingly both this infant and little

She married CLEMENT GILLIHAN 20 August 1790 in Nelson County; she was possibly married earlier, as she had a son Benoni Hardin before this marriage, but no record of a first marriage has been found. [JH-83-85; KH-2; GH-11. Clement Gillihan died 30 July 1830; his will of that year named Benoni Hardin as his stepson. [GH-1, from Iva Hardin's data].

Children, born in Ky., most of whom moved to Illinois in the 1830s [GH-1]:

- ++5067. Benoni Hardin, b. 25 Dec. 1786, m. three times.
- 5068. Mark H. Gillihan, m. Sarah Askins 20 Sep. 1813 in Washington Co., Ky., d. 1834. They had children: 6038. Elizabeth m. John J. Gordon 16 Jan. 1834; 6039. Hannah; 6040. Stephen H.; 6041. Clement; 6042. Levi; 6043. William W.; and 6044. Sarah Ann.
- 5069. Levi Gillihan, d. before 1830.
- 5070. Prudence Gillihan, m. John L. Davis 13 Mar. 1815.
- 5071. William Gillihan.
- 5072. Mary Gillihan, m. William Funk 5 Oct. 1820.
- 5073. Lydia Gillihan, m. James T. Hatton 18 Dec. 1823.

4021. HENRY HARDIN ("Short Harry") (son of 3003. Mark) was born 19 September 1764 in Hampshire County, (West) Virginia. He died 19 October 1839 in McDonough County, Illinois [GH-11].

He married, first, MARY ANN DAVIS 26 June 1792 in Mercer County, Ky. [IGI-2580]. She was born 10 December 1775, daughter of Edward Davis, and died sometime 1821-1826 [GH-11]. They had 13 children. He married, second, JANE (SMITH) HEAD, widow of John Bigger Head; she was born 1787, died 14 February 1861. They had no children, but she had children by her first marriage, of whom Nancy and Horace Head were mentioned in KH-2. After Henry Hardin's death she married as her third husband James Bentley, then in 1845 married as her fourth husband 5008. Mordecai Hardin as his second wife. [GH-11].

Evidently the whole family moved to McDonough County, Illinois in 1835; this was an area of bounty land for veterans of the War of 1812, which he may have purchased as it is not known that he served [GH-11]. Children [GH-11], probably all born in Washington County, Ky. (note Mariah, Napoleon, Victor, and Nancy Ann mentioned in KH-2):

- 5074. Mark Hardin, b. 18 Aug. 1793, d. before 26 Oct. 1830, m. Susan Payne 4 Dec. 1816 in Washington Co. [IGI-2582], dau. of Samuel Payne; reportedly had 2 sons who died young.
- 5075. Elizabeth Hardin, b. 17 June 1795, m. Hugh Doughby 19 Dec. 1816 in Washington Co. [IGI-2578].
- 5076. Davis Hardin, b. 14 May 1797, d. 11 Dec. 1868, m. Eliza Webster 30 Sep. 1824 in Washington Co. [IGI-2578], dau. of Zephaniah and Elizabeth (Weedon) Webster, b. 30 Mar. 1808, d. 6 Aug. 1901.
- 5077. Adah Hardin, b. 29 Dec. 1799, m. James Webster 8 Nov. 1824 in Washington Co. [IGI-2577], son of Zephaniah Webster, b. 18 May 1804; had two sons, divorced when the sons were young.
- 5078. Henry H. Hardin, b. 25 Dec. 1801, m. Jane McCord 20 Dec. 1837 in McDonough County, Ill. They had a dau. and two sons.
- 5079. Thomas Hardin, b. 19 Dec. 1803.
- 5080. Mariah Hardin, b. 21 Mar. 1806, d. 25 Feb. 1910 (at age 103 yrs., 11 mos., and 4 days), m. Jesse Neese 25 Sep. 1836 in McDonough County, Ill., had 3 daughters.

He married ELIZABETH CLARK 2 November 1796 in Bourbon County, Ky. [IGI-2578]; she was born 2 June 1776, with a twin sister Isabel. She survived Benjamin, and is believed to have died 24 April 1845. They lived in Washington Co., Ky.

His will was dated 18 Dec. 1819, proved 11 Sep. 1820 [Wash. Co., Ky. W.B. C:227; abstract AB1-103]. It named: wife Elizabeth; children Isibely (sic), Nancy, Mitilday, Benjamin, Eliza, Lydia, Ann, Lucretia, Mark, and Harriet. Execrs.: wf. Elizabeth, and Henry Hardin. Although apparently Ben was very successful, his estate was insolvent probably because of the goods lost on the boat, and Elizabeth renounced his will, taking instead her dower third. There were lawsuits in the Washington Co. Court well into the 1830s, trying to collect from his estate. Eventually the right to Elizabeth's dower land was auctioned off, to be effective after her death (which was after the purchaser had died). [GH-1].

Children, as named in the will, probably all born in Washington County [other data GH-1]:

5092. Isabel Hardin, b. 22 Aug. 1797, m. John Hayner (son of James Hayner) 2 Aug. 1815 in Washington Co., Ky. [IGI-2580].

5093. Nancy Ann Hardin, b. 25 Oct. 1799, m. William Hayden ca. 1 June 1819. She d. 26 July 1834, bur. St. John Cath. Church, Hardin Co., Ky. He b. 16 Apr. 1791, remarried, d. 10 Dec. 1878. Nancy & William had 8 children.

5094. Matilda Hardin, b. 20 Apr. 1801, m. Daniel McIlvoy 17 Apr. 1822 in Washington Co., Ky. [IGI-2584]. He was b. Ireland 1801, both bur. St. Rose Cath. Church, Washington Co., Ky.

5095. Benjamin Hardin, b. 8 Oct. 1803. Killed a neighbor John Hall in a quarrel, indicted, defended by Ben Hardin, seems never to have gone to trial. Left area, no further trace.

5096. Elizabeth Hardin, b. 29 Dec. 1805, m. Alexander Denny 10 July 1824, last recorded in Hardin Co., Ky. in 1830.

++5097. Lydia Ann Hardin, b. 28 Mar. 1808, m. 6101. Abraham Harding (q.v.).

5098. Ann Hardin.

5099. Lucretia Hardin, b. 24 July 1810, m. Joel Simmons 10 Jan. 1833, later moved to McDonough Co., Ill.

5100. Mark Robert Clark Hardin, b. 21 Nov. 1812 (mentioned in letter KH-2). Went to Calif. during gold rush, reportedly successful; made one trip home to see families.

5101. John William Hardin, b. 27 Nov. 1814, d. before 1820.

5102. Harriet Hardin, b. 24 Nov. 1817 (also mentioned in KH-2), d. 29 July 1890; m. 5 May 1845 John W. Berry, son of John W. and Nancy (Clark) Berry, (sister of Elizabeth Clark Hardin). He was b. 14 Jan. 1822, d. 3 Feb. 1858. They had 7 children.

5103. Juliet Hardin, b. 9 Jan. 1820, d. before 1830.

4025. CATHERINE HARDIN (dau. of 3003. Mark) was born probably in Hampshire County, (W)Virginia, date of birth not known but perhaps about 1755 - 1765. Evidently she died before 1824 (when her husband's will was drawn), perhaps in Wayne County, Indiana.

She married 4094. THOMAS HOLLETT (son of 3025. John Hollett) [KH-1, LK-2]. He was born perhaps about 1755-60, place of birth not known. He died after November 1824 in Wayne County, Indiana [will, below]. This marriage must have occurred about 1780, if their children John and Hannah's birthdates are correct. According to 4026. HANNAH HARDIN (dau. of 3003. Mark) was named (as Hannah Stalcup) in her father's will, but there is no data available on her birth date or place, nor on her death.

She married HENRY STALCUP, probably about 1782 in Hampshire County, (West) Virginia. He was born 22 September 1763, and died 7 December 1792 in Washington County, Ky. [GH-1]. Children [GH-1]:

5112. Mark Hardin Stalcup, b. 10 Sep. 1784, d. 11 Dec. 1848 at Sikeston, Mo.; was in War of 1812; m. Hannah Hunter in Mo. 1817, had 6 children 2 of whom died young.

5113. Nancy Stalcup, m. Cornelius Buckler 15 July 1800 in Washington Co., Ky.

5114. Jinny Stalcup, m. ----- Stephenson in Ky.

5115. Emmor Stalcup, b. 1786, m. Elizabeth Alers 16 Aug. 1800 in Ky. An Emmer Stalcup m. Nelly Stalcup 13 Sep. 1821 in Washington Co., Ky. (perhaps a 2nd mrg.?).

4039. BENJAMIN HARDIN (son of 3004. Benjamin) was born 28 February 1784 in what is now Fayette County, Pennsylvania but grew up near Springfield, Kentucky. As one of the finest trial lawyers of his time, in Kentucky, he had a highly successful although often stormy legal career. He died 17 September 1852 at Bardstown, Kentucky, of an injury suffered in a fall from his horse earlier in the summer. [DAB-8:243-4; GH-1].

He married ELIZABETH PENDLETON BARBOUR 30 March 1807 in Washington County, Ky. She was born 1788 in Culpeper Co., Va., daughter of Ambrose and Catherine (Thomas) Barbour, and died 2 Aug. 1852. [DAB-8:244]. In 1808 they moved to Bardstown where they resided the rest of their lives.

At age 20 Ben Hardin began the study of law with his cousin 4070. Martin D. Hardin and with others, gained his license in 1806 and commenced practice. He gained widespread prestige, practising in all the courts of his own county and the surrounding area, before the Kentucky Court of Appeals, and occasionally before the U.S. Supreme Court. [DAB-8:244].

He served intermittently for four years in the Kentucky House of Representatives and five in the Kentucky Senate between 1810 and 1832; but more importantly, for five terms in the U.S. House of Representatives between 1815 and 1837. In this latter post he was a positive figure, well known and respected. His style of speaking attracted wide attention, winning from one of his colleagues the comment "Hardin is like a kitchen knife whetted on a brick, he cuts roughly but cuts deep". From 1844 to 1847 he was Secretary of State of Kentucky. [DAB-8:244; GH-1].

Ben Hardin eventually became a large landowner. He inherited the family home in Washington County; in addition to the tract where his home was in Bardstown, he deeded considerable acreage to his children during his lifetime and left 1300 acres at his death. The tract where his home "Edgewood" still stands today was purchased in 1819; presumably a modest house was built shortly thereafter, and evidently expanded by two additions as his fortunes improved and his family grew. Children, probably born in Washington Co., Ky. [GH-1]:

5143. Lucinda Barbour Hardin, b. 2 Feb. 1809, d. 25 Dec. 1885 at Elizabethtown, Ky.; m. John Larue Helm 10 Aug. 1830, b. 4 July 1802 son of George and Rebecca (Larue) Helm, twice governor of

In 1841 he was appointed by President Tyler as U.S. Postmaster General, a post he held until 1845. He held various state and national appointments over the next several years, then was elected to Congress again in 1861, and served one term. [DAB-20:182].

Wickliffe was an able lawyer and served creditably in his various offices. His continued political success is noteworthy because he was of a haughty and disdainful disposition; among the common people he was referred to as "the Duke". His career was marked by many conflicts both verbal and physical. Like Ben Hardin, he had a talent for vituperation and was not sparing in its use. [DAB-20-183].

Children [GH-1], all probably born at Bardstown, Ky.:

- 5187. Elizabeth Christian Wickliffe, b. 16 Dec. 1813.
- 5188. Lydia Ann Elizabeth Wickliffe, b. 3 Nov. 1814, d. 20 Mar. 1837; m. William B. Kinghead 22 Oct. 1835 in Nelson Co., Ky.
- 5189. Mary Bohannon Wickliffe, b. 28 Dec. 1816; m. William M. Merrick 15 Oct. 1844.
- 5190. Robert Charles Wickliffe, b. 3 Jan. 1819, d. 18 Apr. 1895; m. (1) Anna Dawson 28 Feb. 1843, (2) Annie (Davis) Anderson 1870. He was very well educated; removed to Louisiana in 1846 because of ill health, where he practiced law and also was a cotton planter; elected State Senator for 3 terms, and Governor of Louisiana 1856-60.
- 5191. Margaret Anderson Wickliffe, b. 8 Feb. 1821, d. 14 Aug. 1860; m. (1) James M. Moorman 14 Nov. 1849, (2) Joseph Holt 2 Apr. 1850.
- 5192. Nannie Christian Wickliffe, b. 15 Jan. 1823; m. David Yulee 7 Apr. 1846 in Nelson Co., Ky.
- 5193. Sarah Martin Wickliffe, b. 5 Mar. 1825, d. 26 Jan. 1828.
- 5194. Charles Anderson Wickliffe Jr., b. 19 Feb. 1828, d. 10 Apr. 1851.
- 5195. John Crepps Wickliffe, b. 11 July 1830; m. Eleanor H. Curd 2 Nov. 1853.
- 5196. Wallace Brashear Wickliffe, b. 8 July 1832, d. 20 Dec. 1832.
- 5197. Julia Tevis Wickliffe, b. 14 July 1835, d. 1 Aug. 1913 at "Wickland"; m. William Netherton Beckham 16 Oct. 1855, b. 1832 Baltimore, son of William Thomas and Nancy Beckham, d. 1882. Their son John Crepps Beckham was a U.S. Senator and twice Governor of Kentucky.

4096. ROBERT HARDING (son of 3026. John) was born perhaps about 1748, as he was excused from militia service in Washington County, Ky. in 1793 for age and infirmity, which usually occurred at age 45 [GH-1]. Where he was born is not known. He died in 1821 at the home of his son Ede in Fayette County, Indiana [MI-365]. Some of the information concerning him and his family is tenuous and open to question.

He married MARY MARTHA "PATSY" WADE in Pennsylvania [LK-2; MI-365; WK-104], daughter of John Wade whose will was probated in Washington Co., Ky. 14 June 1819 [BB-1, Washington Co., Ky. W.B. C:197]. This marriage probably occurred about 1780 or earlier. She was born 18 December 1765 [LK-2; this date is questionable]. The date and place of her death are not known.

"He was a soldier in the Revolutionary War, as were also four of his brothers" [MI-365]; this has not been confirmed by data in Pa. Archives, as is so for Abraham, Thomas, Stephen and probably John.

5224. Israel Harding, b. 16 Jan. 1798 in Washington Co., Ky.
[IGI-2580], d. 1842, m. Nancy Johnson, dau. of Jeremiah, 1824
[WK-104].
5225. Laban Harding, m. Catherine Huston 1824 [WK-104].

4097. JOHN HARDING (son of 3026. John) was born perhaps ca. 1749. Where he was born is not known, nor are the place or date of his death. Pennsylvania records evidence several different Hardins or Hardings named John, so that ascribing any specific record to this person is impossible. For example, he probably served in the Revolutionary War; Pa. Arch. Ser. 3, 23:229, 285, 317 & Ser. 5, 4:439, 743 list several different John Hardins.

His wife's name was LYDIA ----- In a deed in Green Co., Ky. in 1822, James Carlisle and wife Polly (see list of children below) deeded 42 acres of land on Pitman Creek to Abel Harding; with a provision by Polly that Abel allow his mother Lydia to live on the land until her death [BB-1].

According to Jack Hardin's narrative [JH-91], three brothers of 4100. Thomas Harding - Abraham, Stephen and "Jonathan" - came to the Falls of the Ohio in the spring of 1781 to join the Hardin-Harding group already there; also, "Jonathan" Harding brought his family to Kentucky in March 1785 (this exact date open to question, but it may be approximately correct).

Probably he was one of the "John Hardins" on the Nelson County, Ky. tithable list of 1785 at Hardinsburg, and almost certainly by 1790. John, Stephen, Robert, Ede and Thomas Harding were on a tax list of Washington Co., Ky. in 1795 [GH-1]. He may have moved by 1787 to what is now Marion County, and in the middle 1790s into what is now Taylor County where his son-in-law James Carlisle bought the larger part of a 1000 acre claim and laid off land for him. He and his son Abel paid tax on 115 acres until 1817, when presumably he may have died, but there is no will or administration for him in Green Co. [GH-1].

"I have the Conk Shell that John Harding brought with him from Virginia to blow for Indian troubles, and which is said to have been heard 13 miles" [1947 and 1956 letters written by 8121. Henry S. Robinson of Campbellsville, copies in my possession]. On 21 March 1797 John Harding of Green Co., Ky. appointed his brother Abraham Harding his attorney to dispose of land on the West Fork of the Monongalia River in Washington County, Va. (sic - prob. Pa.) [Green Co. Ky. Deeds 1:123; SP-46]. He was involved in a lawsuit in Green County, Ky. as of 1806 (see details under child Jemimah, below).

Children of John Harding [GH-1; and records cited below]. Purely as a guess, from the marriage data, they were born perhaps in the period from ca. 1770 to ca. 1785, hence some if not all were born probably in the Monongahela River area of Pa.-Va.

++5226. Mary (Polly) Harding, married James Carlisle.

5227. John Harding, married Nancy Hayes (or Hay), dau. of Robt. Hayes. Marriage bond 20 July 1796 in Green Co., Ky. (last name Hardin), bondsman Samuel Hardin. [IGI-2581; SP-561]. John Hardin was also bondsman for Robert Hay and Nancy Moore 20 May 1806 [SP-561]. John Hardin and wife Nancy were also signatories to an indenture with Robert Hay and others regarding the sale of 100 acres on Sinking Creek to Polly Hay, widow, 6 Sep. 1817 [SP-46].

Abraham Hardin and Stephen Hardin owned land in Monongalia County, (W)Va. on Scott's Mill Run, surveyed by Capt. James Neal (husband of 3013. Hannah Hardin). This land was some 40 miles from the Great Bethel Church where they attended [GH-1]. Abraham had 1000 acres entry 4-8-1781, certified 1-19-1780, settlement 1773 [BB-1, Mon. Co. Hardin Land Records, Land Entry Book 1:174]; also 400 acres 12-6-1781; he sold 196 acres (for his brother Stephen) to John Downer May 1796; and with wife Sarah sold 702 acres to Cloverdale Cole Sept. 1796 [BB-1].

Also in Monongalia County, (W)Va. in September (no year date, but probably 1796) George Hoffman sued Abraham Hardin for breach of contract, over livestock Hardin had promised to Hoffman when they both moved together to Kentucky, but Hardin failed to go and still refuses to go. Case dismissed, no damages allowed. In May 1797 Philip Shively sued Abraham Hardin for damages for killing his dog. Hardin claimed the dog was mad. Case dismissed. [BB-1]. In May 1796 Abraham Harding acted as attorney-in-fact for Stephen Harding of Washington County, Ky. in the sale of 196 acres on Scott's Mill Run [Monongalia Co. WVa. Deed Book A:252]; and in March 1797 was appointed attorney for John Harding of Green Co., Ky. to dispose of land on the West Fork of the Monongahela River [SP-46, Green Co., Ky. Deeds 1:123]; thus apparently Abraham Harding remained a resident of Fayette County, Pa. or Monongalia County, Va., not removing to Kentucky until ca. 1796-98. He was not listed on the 1795 tax list of Washington County, Ky. with his brothers. Evidently he went to Kentucky in 1796 and bought 1000 acres of Joseph Richerson's 10,000 acre claim, land in what is now Taylor County including the town of Campbellsville; he was first on the Green Co. tax list 1797, his first deed there was dated 1798 [GH-1].

According to Jack Hardin's narrative Abraham Harding with brothers "Jonathan" and Stephen joined their brother Thomas and the Hardin group at the Falls of the Ohio in the spring of 1781 [JH-59]; in 1782 in the party led by 3016. Col. John Hardin located their new homesites on Pitman Creek in what is now Taylor Co., Ky. [JH-80, 81]; Abraham returned to Pa. in the fall of 1782, being wounded enroute in a skirmish with Indians [JH-83]; brought his family to Ky. with the party in Mar. 1783 [JH-85]; and was one of the scouts in Gen. Wayne's expedition against the Indians in 1793-94 [JH-111]. Some of these details are doubtful, for as noted above Abraham Harding probably did not permanently move to Kentucky until ca. 1796-98.

In Green (now Taylor) County, Ky. on 16 Jan. 1798 Abraham Harding purchased of Mathias Weant and wife 100 acres on Robinsons Creek adjoining land of Abraham Harding, Stephen Harding and Jonathan Williams (showing Abraham and Stephen owned land there before 1798) [Green Co., Ky. deeds 1:201]. Abraham and Ede Harding were witnesses to a deed of Thomas Harding 11 Aug. 1801 [ibid., 3:108]. On 21 Dec. 1805 Abraham Harding bought 50 acres from James Richardson [ibid., 5:37]. On 30 Dec. 1808 Abraham and wife Sarah sold to James Hill 130 acres next to Stephen Harding and David Rice, a tract of land intended for his daughter Mary Ball [ibid., 5:439]. On 24 Mar. 1810 Abraham and wife Sally sold 122 acres to their son-in-law James Dawson [ibid., 6:98].

Abraham was an active member of the Pitman Creek Baptist Church, and the Robinson Creek Church, in Green (now Taylor) county (see Appendices G and H).

The will of Abraham Harding was written 15 May 1818, proved 9 Nov. 1819 [Green Co., Ky. W.B. 2:42; I have a copy]. It named: wife Execrs.: sons John C. Harding and Asa Harding. Wit.: Levi Webb and Aaron Harding.

Children of Stephen and Elizabeth, birthplaces and most birthdates not known, not in order of birth, [will. above; SP-57]:

4100. THOMAS HARDING (son of 3026. John) was born 8 January 1758 [Bible record, AB2-3:33], birthplace not known. He died 20 June 1840 [AB2-3:32] in Hendricks County, Indiana where he is buried in the Lingeman Cemetery southwest of Brownsburg [RI-177].

He married SARAH PAYNE 5 February 1784 in Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania [PM-78]. (Their grandson stated the marriage took place in Kentucky [JH-85], which is incorrect). She was born 18 December 1765, sister of Elizabeth Payne who married 4022. John Hardin; and was still living in Hendricks County, Ind. as of July 1844 [AB2-3:32, 33].

Thomas Harden was on a Property Return in Bedford Co., Pa., Cumberland Valley Township, in 1779 [Pa. Arch. Ser. 3, 22:163]; and on a Transcript of Property in Westmoreland Co. in 1783 with the notation "single, gone" [Pa. Arch. Ser. 3, 22:424]. He was a member of the Forks of the Cheat River Baptist Church, and requested a letter of dismissal 4 Apr. 1784 [BB-1].

Thomas Harding was a soldier in the Revolutionary War. He enlisted at Stradlers Fort on Dunkers Creek (Pa. - 18 miles from the junction of Monongahela and Cheat Rivers, near the boundary between Pa. and Va.), served in Capt. McCleary's Co., Col. McFarland's Regt. 6-8 months against the Shawnee Indians; also from Stradlers Fort under Lt. Pearce 1 month, and in Capt. Cross's Co for 8 months against the Shawnee and Wyandot Indians, under Gen. McIntosh's Brigade, Regt. under Cols. Crawford, Stinson and Evins. He served as an Indian Spy in Col. McFarland's Regt. 9 months; also in Col. Gaddis's Regt. for 6 months, and in Col. McLeary's Regt. for 6 months. He was in the battle with the Indians on the plains of the Sandusky, and served last about 1782. [AB2-3:31, 32; RI-177; Pa. Arch. Ser. 3, 23:229 & Ser. 5 4:439, 743; DAR Pat. Index (1966) 303].

He was in the party ambushed by the Indians on the Ohio River 20 March 1780; he was wounded, and his sister 4095. Mary, wife of 4001. Jack Hardin was carried off into captivity [JH-2, 3, 4]. Thomas took a very active part in the subsequent unsuccessful search for the captives [JH-7-14], and in later punitive expeditions against the 4101. EDEN "EDE" HARDING (son of 3026. John) was born ca. 1759; in an affidavit in Marion Co., Indiana 25 February 1833 re 4100. Thomas Harding's Rev. War service, Ede Harding gave his own age as 73 years [LK-11]. [RI-176] gives his birthplace as "near Elizabethtown, New Jersey" supposedly from his pension claim S-32284; but no evidence to substantiate this has ever been found. He died 14 January 1846 in Marion County, Ind. [RI-176, 177]. His wife's name was DORCAS COOPER [WK-103], but nothing else is known about her.

He was a soldier in the Revolutionary War. Eden Hardin's name is on a list of "Rangers on the Frontiers 1778-1783", Westmoreland County, Pa., Nicholas Shinn's Co. (also Abraham, Thomas and John Hardin) [Pa. Arch. Ser. 3, 23:229, 285, 317]; also as a private on a list of soldiers who received pay, Westmoreland Co. (with Abraham, Thomas and John Hardin) [Pa. Arch. Ser. 5, 4:743]. While residing at "Hardin's settlement on Georges Creek" in (what later became) Fayette Co., Pa. he volunteered as a private and served: 3 mos. in the spring of 1777 in Capt. John Hardin's Co.; 3 mos. in the summer of 1777 at Lucas' Fort under Capt. John Hardin, Col. Gaddis; at the same fort, same officers, 3 mos. in the summer of 1779; later for about 15 days, same officers, against the Indians; and 1 mo. under Col. John Minor against the Indians [RI-176, 177].

Eden Hardin was on a Transcript of Property in Westmoreland Co., Pa. in 1783 (together with Abraham, Steven, Robert, Thomas and John Hardin [Pa. Arch. Ser. 3, 22:423]. He removed to Kentucky, probably in the mid to latter 1780s. He was on a tithable list of Nelson County, Ky. in 1789, and on a 1795 tax list of Washington County, Ky. [GH-11].

Ede and Abraham Harding were witnesses to a deed 11 Aug. 1801 in Green County, Ky. between Joseph Richerson and their brother Thomas Harding [Green Co. Deeds 3:108]. He may have moved to southwest Ohio with his brother Robert ca. 1808; when he moved to Marion County, Ind. is not known.

Ede Harding gave affidavit 11 Aug. 1832 in Marion Co., Ind. concerning the Revolutionary War service of his brother 4100. Thomas Harding [AB2-32]. As of 1835, age 77, he was residing in Marion Co. and receiving a Rev. War pension [WK-52].

Children [WK-103] (WK-103, the only source for most of this data, states they all were born at Licking Springs, Ky.; but the family probably hadn't moved to Ky. by the birthdates of the first few children; also the range of the birthdates, 43 years, is very unlikely; hence this information's reliability is questionable):

FIFTH GENERATION

5008. MORDECAI HARDIN (son of 4001. Jack & 4095. Molly) was born 5 March 1792, and died 1 December 1860 [GH-1]. He married 5253. AMY HARDING (dau. of 4100. Thomas) in December 1814 in Green Co., Ky. [IGI-2577, 2584; 8 or 13 Jan. 1815 per BB-1 & GH-1]. She was born 27 December 1794, and died 25 June 1844 [GH-1]. Mordecai married second JANE (SMITH) (HEAD) (HARDIN) BENTLEY 25 June 1845 in Washington Co., Ky. [IGI-2584; Nelson Co. per BB-1]. This was her fourth marriage; she was the former widow of 4021. Henry Hardin; they had no children. Mordecai's will was written 17 Nov. 1860, proved 5 Dec. 1860 [BB-1]. Children of Mordecai and Amy [BB-1; GH-1]:

- 6025. Nancy Hardin, b. 25 July 1828, d. 19 Dec. 1896; m. 6030. Joseph Hardin in 1853, had 3 sons and probably other children. She was the "Dear Cousin Nannie Hardin" in the 1893 letter KH-2 (see Appendix M).
- 6026. Martha Hardin, b. 22 Mar. 1832, d. 10 Nov. 1857.
- 6027. Thomas Bentley Hardin, b. 3 Jan. 1836, m. 16 July 1861 Mary C. Palmer, dau. of Dr. Robert and 5146. Emily (Hardin) Palmer. Thomas B. Hardin was a lawyer at Owensboro, Ky. [WK-9], had 3 sons 7011. Thomas, 7012. Hal, and 7013. Mordecai.

5067. BENONI HARDIN (son of 4020. Nancy Hardin) was born 24 June 1786 [BB-1; 25 Dec. 1786 per GH-1], probably (but not certainly) in Kentucky. His father is unknown. His mother definitely was Ann (Nancy) Hardin who later married Clement Gillihan, possibly she was married earlier to an as yet unidentified Hardin; Benoni was named as step-son in Clement Gillihan's will in 1830 [GH-1]. He died in Washington County, Ky., 22 May 1853 age 67 [gravestone, PW-163].

5222. EDEN HARDING (son of 4096. Robert) was born 16 March 1793 in Washington County, Kentucky [IGI-2578; MI-365]. He died in August 1875 at the home of his daughter Sarah Ray in Hendricks County, Indiana [LK-2; MI-365].

He married, first, MARY ROBINSON in 1816 [LK-2; WK-104], place of marriage not known. According to one source [LK-2] she was born in North Carolina. She died in 1856, and he subsequently married, second, REBECCA (BENN) GOWDY [MI-365].

Eden Harding removed with his parents from Kentucky to Butler County, Ohio in 1806; remained there until 1816 when he moved to Fayette County, Indiana then in 1822 to Marion County, Ind. where he made his home until within a year or so of his death in 1875. He was a farmer all his life. He also owned a grist mill in Wayne Township, Marion County. He was drafted into the War of 1812, but discharged on account of deafness. He was a Republican and a Baptist. [LK-2; MI-365]. He and Mary Robinson had seven children, five of whom were living as of 1893:

- ++6074. Laban Harding, b. 8 Oct. 1817, m. Jemima McCray.
- 6075. Lavina Harding, m. (1) John McCray, by whom she had one son; m. (2) Ambrose Hume, by whom she had six children.
- 6076. Oliver Harding, m. Lavinia Cox, had seven children.
- 6077. John Harding, m. Luna Brown, had three children.
- 6078. Sarah Harding, m. (1) Harrison Ray, by whom she had two children; m. (2) Robert Spear.

5226. MARY (POLLY) HARDING (dau. of 4097. John) was born perhaps ca. 1766 - 1773 in the Cheat/Monongahela Rivers area of Pa./Va. She married JAMES CARLISLE in Nelson County, Kentucky; marriage bond 27 Sep. 1787 "dau. of John Harding", consent filed with bond, surety William Carlisle [IGI-2583; NK-53]. Children (and probably others):

- ++6079. Rachel Carlisle, m. 5249. Rev. John Harding (q.v., page 36).
- ++6080. John Carlisle, m. 5252. Sarah Harding (q.v.).
- 6081. Jemima Carlisle, m. ----- Wright.
- 6082. Elizabeth Carlisle, m. ----- Wright.
- 6083. Mary (Polly) Carlisle, m. James Harding in Green Co., Ky. 12 Sep. 1834 [IGI-2580].
- ++6084. Lydia Carlisle, m. 5245. Stephen Harding (q.v.).

5232. ABEL HARDING (son of 4097. John) was born about 1787, birthplace not known, died about 1822 [IGH-1]. He married ELIZABETH B. COLVIN 3 February 1807 in Green (now Taylor) County, Ky., daughter of Henderson James Colvin, bondsman Samuel Hardin [IGH-1; IGI-2577; SP-56]; she was born 1791, d. 1858. They lived in the Pitman Creek area north of Campbellsville, Ky. Children [IGH-1]:

- 6085. John Harding, m. Margaret -----.
- 6086. Lydia Harding, b. 1811, d. 5 Oct. 1866, m. J. L. Spurling 6 Dec. 1852.
- 6087. Louisa Harding.
- ++6088. Abraham Harding, b. 15 Apr. 1816, m. Keziah Allen.
- 6089. Mary Harding, m. (1) Thomas N. Allen, son of Samuel Allen 27 Apr. 1842; m. (2) James A. Greenwell 6 Oct. 1852.
- 6090. James Harding, b. 1813, d. by 1830.

Head in Washington Co., Ky. 28 April 1806 to 22 April 1807; first published in Century Magazine Nov. 1886, Vol. 33 page 15; three lines above record of the marriage of Aaron Harding & Hannah Hollett is the marriage of Thomas Lincoln & Nancy Hanks, Abraham Lincoln's parents!. Hannah Hollett was born 30 November 1784 [KL-1] in western Maryland. She died of typhoid fever 9 November 1853 [KL-1] at Hidalgo, Jasper County, Illinois, was buried in the Aten Cemetery near there. [FH-1].

Aaron Harding was a farmer, in both Kentucky and Indiana. He purchased land in Wayne County, Indiana in 1810, and moved there, where son Thomas was born. After a couple of years he sold out and returned to Green County, Ky., perhaps because of conditions resulting from the War of 1812 [GH-1]. He and his family moved to Hendricks County, Ind. about 1833. Hendricks County deeds show that he acquired land there in Feb. 1834, Feb. 1835, and June 1835 [FH-1]. Aaron established a fine farm at Brownsburg which was in the family for many years. Evidently Aaron and Hannah moved from Indiana to Jasper County, Illinois about 1849 (where they were in the 1850 Census) [GH-1] as did several of their children; some years later after the deaths of Hannah, son Aaron, and others of the family, Aaron returned to Indiana, remaining there until he died.

Natural child of Aaron Harding and Barbara Taylor:

6100. Peninah Harding, b. in Green Co. ca. 1804-5, evidently reared under the guardianship of her grandparents Samuel and Sarah Taylor; named in Samuel Taylor's will 1819 [SP-50]; m. Andrew Bowen 16 Aug. 1822 in Greene Co., Ill. [BB-1].

Children of Aaron and Hannah (Hollett) Harding, all born in Green (now Taylor) County, Ky. except Thomas [LK-1]; birthdates KL-1:

- ++6101. Abraham Harding, b. 7 Aug. 1807, m. 5097. Lydia Ann Hardin.
- ++6102. Sarah Harding, b. 9 July 1809, m. 6120. John Rice.
- ++6103. Thomas Hollett Harding, b. 24 Dec. 1811 in Wayne Co., Ind., m. Margaret H. Davidson.
- 6104. George Harding, b. 4 Aug. 1815 (twin), d. 21 July 1817.
- ++6105. Katharine Harding, b. 4 Aug. 1815, m. Benjamin A. Huron.
- ++6106. Aaron Moore Harding, b. 25 Jan. 1819, m. Hannah H. Payne.
- ++6107. Ruah Ann Harding, b. 26 Oct. 1822, m. William Hopkins.

5235. RUHAMAH (or RUAH) HARDING (dau. of 4098. Abraham) was born 30 December 1781 [KL-1] in the Cheat/Monongahela River area on the border between Virginia and Pennsylvania. She died in March 1859 in Taylor County, Kentucky [BB-1].

She married JOHN RICE 18 or 28 May 1801 in Green County, Ky. [BB-1; GH-1]. His birth data are not known; he was the son of Randolph and Ruth (Prueyear) Rice, and brother of David Rice who married her sister 5238. Sarah Harding [GH-1]. John Rice died about 1815, the date of his will in Green Co. Evidently they were farmers, and lived most of their lives in what is now Taylor County, Ky.

Green County, Ky. Court Minutes of 1826 record Ruhamah Rice, widow of John; and children Nancy, Aaron, Sally, Polly, David, Betsy and Milton [GH-1]. Children of Ruhamah and John [BB-1; GH-1], not necessarily in order of birth, probably all born in what is now Taylor Co., Ky.:

5239. MARGARET HARDING (dau. of 4099. Stephen) was born probably before 1770, died in June 1851, her will named her daughters below. She evidently married (1) ----- CARLISLE, and (2) ----- BUTLER. Children [GH-1]:

- 6125. Nancy Carlisle, m. James Humphrey 17 Sep. 1807, consent of grandfather S. Hardin [SP-57].
- 6126. Jemima Butler, m. James Martin 11 Feb. 1812 in Adair Co.
- 6127. Sally Butler, m. John Redman 20 Aug. 1818.

5240. ABRAHAM HARDING (son of 4099. Stephen), birthdate and place not known, married NANCY BONES 14 July 1800 in Washington County, Ky. [IGI-2577], daughter of Franky Bones [GH-1]. He died before 1810, when his widow Nancy married James White in Green County 22 February 1810 [GH-1; IGI-2584; SP-64]. He and Nancy had one known child (although the will of 4099. Stephen says "children"):

- 6128. Frances Harding, m. George Jones, bond 8 Feb. 1832, consent of mother Nancy White [GH-1].

5241. SARAH HARDING (dau. of 4099. Stephen), birthdate and place not known, married WILLIAM HOVIUS (spelled Hoves, Hovins, Hovis in various documents) in Green County, Kentucky; bond 3 August 1795, named as daughter of Stephen Harding, bondsman John C. Hardin [SP-57; IGI-2585]. Sarah died, and William remarried 1813. Children [GH-1] (and probably others):

- 6129. Nancy Hovius, b. 1801, d. 7 July 1855, m. Elijah Fisher.
- 6130. Elizabeth Hovius, m. Wm. Humphries 7 Mar. 1822.
- 6131. Susannah Hovius.
- 6132. William Hovius.
- 6133. John Hovius.
- 6134. Silas Hovius.

5242. JOHN C. HARDING (son of 4099. Stephen) was born ca. 1770, probably in the vicinity of present Fayette County, Pennsylvania. He died 23 December 1856, age 86, in Marion County, Kentucky. [GH-1].

He married, first, SUSANNAH TAYLOR 3 February 1801 in Green County, Ky. [BB-1; IGI-2581]; daughter of Samuel and Sally Taylor. She died and he married, second, MARGARET HANDLEY 23 March 1818 in Washington County, Ky. [IGI-2581], daughter of James and Mary Handley, born ca. 1776, died 30 August 1854 age 78 [GH-1].

Samuel Taylor's will of 10 Sep. 1819 mentions his deceased daughter Susanna Harding, and her children Wm. Mathice, Stephen, Mary, Sary, Elenor and Eliz. Harding [SP-50].

John C. Harding's will was written 12 Oct. 1852, proved 5 Jan. 1857; it was re-recorded 31 Jan. 1866 because the original Marlon County, Ky. records were destroyed 5 July 1863 by the Confederate raiders of Brig. Gen. John Hunt Morgan [GH-1]. John C. Harding died owning 615 acres of bottom land along the Rolling Fork River in Marion Co., which he left to his son Stephen who died 6 months later. Children of John and Susannah [his will, GH-1; SP-50], probably all born in what is now Marlon County, Ky.:

6146. Mary Harding, b. 5 July 1819, m. (1) John R. Reager, had four children; m. (2) M.D. Archibald, had two more children.
 6147. John J. Harding, b. 25 Nov. 1820, m. Mrs. Frances (Brown) Butler, had one living child 7154. J. Richard Harding.
 6148. Evan T. Harding, b. 23 Dec. 1822, m. Leutha A. Boynton, had seven children, lived near Calhoun, Iowa.
 6149. Elizabeth Harding, b. 5 Sep. 1824, m. William Stitt, had children (surnamed Stitt) 7155. William W., 7156. Helen A., 7157. Laura L., and 7158. Edith B.
 6150. William Harding, b. 25 Nov. 1827, d. 30 Oct. 1846 in Mexico in Co. A, 4th Ill. Inf. in the Mexican War.
 6151. Albert Harding, b. 17 Sep. 1830, d. as a soldier at Bowling Green, Ky. in the Civil War.

5245. STEPHEN HARDING (son of 4099. Stephen) was born ca. 1792, died 22 November 1879 [GH-1]. He married, first, 6084. LYDIA CARLISLE (daughter of James and 5226. Mary (Harding) Carlisle) 31 March 1818 in Green County, Kentucky [IGI-2586]. She died about 1835, and he married, second, JANE (KNIFELY) STEPHENS 8 February 1838 in Adair County, Ky. [IGI-2586]. She was born 1807, and was the widow of William Stephens whom she married in Adair Co. [GH-1].

Stephen fought the Indians at Tippecanoe, and served in the War of 1812 from 25 August 1812 to 25 December 1812 (reference to service file SC-4674) [GH-1]. He received two land warrants in the 1850s, and applied for a pension in 1871; his widow applied for a pension in 1880 citing certificate 4674 [GH-1]. Children, all by first marriage [GH-1]:

6152. James Harding, m. Mary E. -----.
 6153. Sarah Harding, m. Joshua Cox.
 6154. Nancy Harding, m. Abraham Puryear.
 6155. Elizabeth Harding, m. William Wright.

5250. REV. SAMUEL HARDING (son of 4100. Thomas) was born 5 December 1787 [AB2-3:33; LK-1; WK-xxii], probably in Washington County but possibly Green County, Kentucky. He died of measles at age 48 in Shelby County, Indiana 14 February 1836 [WK-xxii].

From boyhood he had a sprightly, animated nature; and accumulated a good education for the time. He had a fine voice, and taught a singing school as a young man. He was baptized into the fellowship of the Pitman Creek Baptist Church about 1810, and ordained into the ministry at about the age of thirty - about the same time he was married. [FH-1]. He married ANN (or ANNA) SHIPP 21 February 1816 in Green County, Ky. [IGI-2585]. She was born 19 March 1800, died 4 January 1864 [WK-xxii], daughter of Richard and Martha (Copeland) Shipp [FH-1; GH-1].

He was pastor of some churches in Kentucky for a short time, then they removed to Shelby County, Indiana where they lived on a farm, and he preached to several churches in Shelby and Johnson Counties. He organized at least three churches (Blue River Baptist, Franklin, and Second Mount Pleasant), and was one of the founders of Franklin College in Johnson County. He helped organize the Indiana Baptist State Convention. [FH-1; JI-280/82, 340/41].

Children of Samuel and Ann, probably not in order of birth [FH-1; WK-xxii]:

long after their marriage [KH-2]. He married second, MARY (POLLY) KERR (sometimes recorded as Carr) [KH-2], 26 February 1823 in Green County [GH-1]. She was born 16 April 1804 in Kentucky, daughter of Armstrong Kerr; and died 18 January 1882 in Clinton County, Indiana [FH-1; GH-1]. They had two daughters.

They moved to Hendricks County, Indiana where he acquired 40 acres of land 23 Sep. 1834 [Hendricks Co. Deeds], and where he was a Constable in Brown Township in 1845 [HI-471], then sometime later to Clinton County. Children, born probably in Green Co., Ky.:

- ++6174. Lucinda Harding, b. 18 Jan. 1824, m. John Bristow.
- ++6175. Sarah Susan Harding, b. 1826, m. John Rector.

5255. RHUAMY HARDING (dau. of 4100. Thomas) was born 18 February 1799 [LK-1; RI-178; omitted in AB2-3:33], probably in Green County, Kentucky. She married NATHANIEL REED 23 December 1819 in Green County [GH-1; LK-1]. The children below were listed by 5257. Aaron Harding in his distribution of the estate of 5249. John Harding, with the amounts indicated [GH-1]:

- 6176. Harriet Reed, m. ----- Handley, received $200.
- 6177. Thomas L. Reed, $150.
- 6178. Sally Ann Reed, $350.
- 6179. Angeline Reed, $350.
- 6180. Margaret A. Reed, $350.
- 6181. Samuel H. Reed.

5256. PAYNE HARDING (son of 4100. Thomas) was born 8 February 1802 [AB2-3:33] probably in Green (now Taylor) County, Kentucky. He died 22 March 1883 in Pottawattamie County, Iowa [PI-659/60].

He married, first, MATILDA REED 1 March 1824 in Green County, Ky. [IGI-2584]. They removed to Hendricks County, Indiana in the early 1830s where they lived fourteen years, clearing two farms, where he was a Justice of the Peace, and where Matilda (Reed) Harding died. Payne Harding then moved to Linn County, Iowa and bought a farm on Cedar River. There he married, second, MARY REYNOLDS in December 1859. Several years later he sold this farm, and bought another in Decatur County, Iowa; but shortly left that and settled in Charlton County, Missouri, where his second wife died. After residing there ten years he sold out, and lived the remainder of his life with his son Benjamin in Pottawattamie Co., Iowa [PI-659/60].

Payne Harding was said by relatives in Indiana to have been very stubborn and quite an individualist; a typical American pioneer, restless and always looking for "something greener in other pastures" [BB-1]. Children, the first few born probably in Green Co., Ky., later ones possibly in Hendricks Co., Ind. [PI-660]:

- 6182. Sarah Harding.
- 6183. Elizabeth Harding.
- ++6184. Benjamin G. Harding, b. 20 Dec. 1830, m. Elizabeth Haskins..
- 6185. Emily Harding, m. James Kirk of Missouri.
- 6186. Rowanna Harding.
- 6187. Mary Ann Harding, m. George Daugherty of Iowa.
- 6188. Martha Harding.
- 6189. Samuel Harding.

- 6207.Lavina Harding, b. ca. 1830, m. ----- Imbler.
- 6208.Andrew Harding, b. ca. 1834, m. Mattie Dailey.
- 6209.Elijah Harding, b. ca. 1838, m. Sarah Frye.
- 6210.Elizabeth Harding, b. ca. 1842, m. (1) Dr. Jonathan Dailey.
- 6211.Nancy Harding, b. ca. 1846, m. Marion Larkins.
- 6212.Susan Harding, b. ca. 1850, m. John Larkins.
- ++6213.Mary Catherine Harding, b. 9 Mar. 1853 in Howard Co., Ind., m. William Henry Fuller.

5274.THOMAS WADE (son of Alexander and 4105.Elizabeth (Moore) Wade) was born in 1787, probably in Monongalia County, (West) Virginia. He died 27 April 1869 at the home of his granddaughter and her husband Alfred and Harriet (Wade) Conner, at Chariton, Iowa. [WF-113,131]. His wife was RACHEL TRIPPETT, but their marriage data are not known, nor who her parents were.

Thomas Wade became a large landowner in Monongalia County and Marion County, (West) Virginia. He was probably the founder of the town of Wadestown in Monongalia County. He was also a physician. In 1843 he acquired 200 acres on Scott's Run, about 5 miles west of Morgantown, which lies in the heart of the present coal fields. He lived in Indiana for a time ca. 1815-1820, as that is where three of his sons were born. About 1853 he moved to Chariton, Iowa and made his home there. Children [WF-113 et seq]:

- 6214.Alexander Wade, b. 28 Dec. 1809, m. Nancy Corbly.
- 6215.Waitman Trippett Wade, b. 15 Feb. 1813, m. Ruhama Eakin.

Dear Sir:

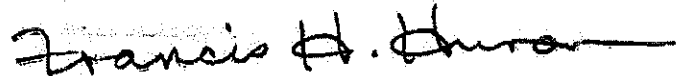

A little over 7 years ago (Dec. 1979) I presented to your Society's Library two copies of a small genealogy "The Cowan Family", of which I was co-author with my sister. My genealogical hobby has continued over the intervening years - for example in 1982 my article "Hugh Mahurin of Taunton, Massachusetts" appeared in three issues of the "REGISTER" of the New England Historic Genealogical Society.

In June 1984 I completed a 73-page typed-and-Xeroxed booklet "The Hurin-Huron Branch of the Mahurin Family", which is a supplement to the REGISTER article. This month, February 1987 I completed another 113-page booklet "Some Hardin, Harding, and Related Families of Virginia, Pennsylvania, Kentucky, and Indiana". I would like to add these to your Library and genealogical collection, and am sending one copy of each of these two booklets to you herewith.

Neither of these booklets is copyrighted. My objective in this kind of effort is to make this genealogical information as widely available as possible. Therefore you have my full permission to make copies of either or both these books, or parts thereof, by any process you wish (photocopy, microfilm, microfiche, reprinting, etc. etc.); and to convey such copies to other persons, either free or at cost of reproduction.

I would appreciate it very much if you would advise me (postcard O.K.) when the booklets arrive, and if they have sustained any damage in shipment.

Sincerely yours,

Francis H. Huron
Captain, U.S. Navy (Ret)

This work is an intensely interesting narrative of the migrations of the Hardins and Hardings from Pennsylvania to Kentucky, their hardships, their deadly battles with the Indians, and their settlements, from about 1780 to about 1795. Nevertheless, this account was set down nearly a century after the events it describes, so that some of the details (specific dates, some names, some events) are questionable or even obviously incorrect.

APPENDIX B - BACKGROUND

My father's and grandfather's families were always keenly interested in, and proud of, their Harding-Hardin ancestry; evidenced to a degree by the amount of genealogical material collected over the years and passed down to me, as well as by my given middle name.

8071. LeRoy Huron Kelsey, a first cousin of my father, was an ardent family historian and genealogist. Between the 1890s and the early 1930s he assembled a lot of data about various of our related families (Huron, Mahurin, Kelsey, St. John, Harding, Hardin, etc.). much of it evidently from correspondence and discussions with relatives. He entered this data in hand-prepared "family record sheets" similar to those used today. Unfortunately he didn't record sources on these record sheets nor, in many cases, retain his original notes or letters. Hence the origins for much of his data are no longer determinable.

In 1949 Mr. Kelsey's collection came into my possession. It consisted (with respect to the Hardin and Harding lines) of a looseleaf notebook with many record sheets, each containing all of his information and notes concerning one family; and folders of other papers, and letters some of which were dated in the 1880s, 1890s and early 1900s (e.g. Appendices L, N, O and P).

It was not until the summer and fall of 1984 that I was able to consider "publishing" this material in order to preserve it for posterity. Then a couple of things happened. First, in the Boston library of the New England Historic Genealogical Society (of which I am a member) I found a substantial number of additional published references which were "musts" for inclusion. Second, Betty Boyd and George M. Harding (as mentioned in the Introduction) began sending invaluable material and notes from their own collections. Not to mention that a few other cousins made their own contributions. As a result, the manuscript grew and grew until it reached its present size.

Now the work is finished (not completed - a genealogy is never done!); and with it go greetings from all of us who contributed, to all those who may read it, and the wish that you will find it as interesting and informative as we have.

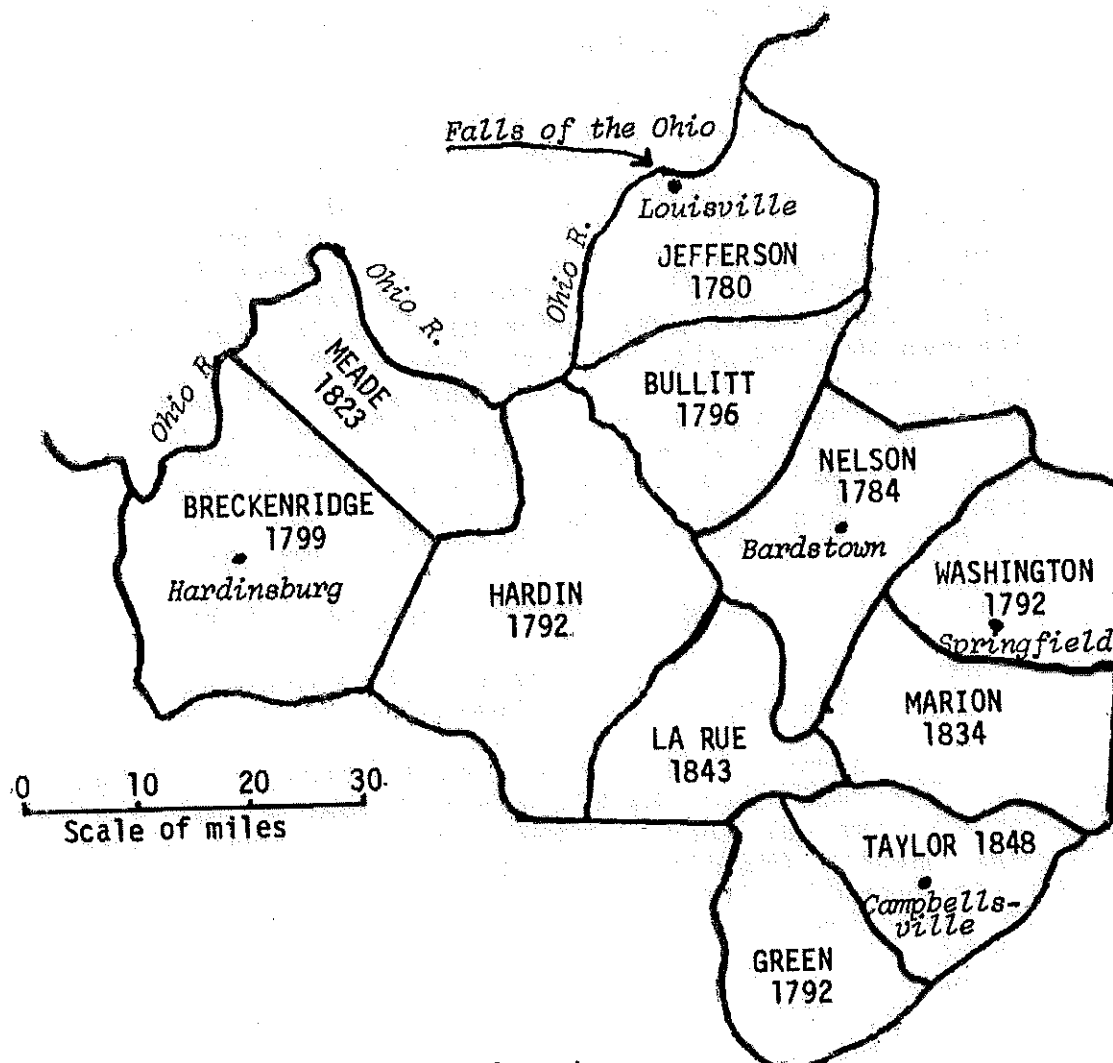

APPENDIX C - MIGRATION VIRGINIA TO PENNSYLVANIA

By the early 1760s some of 1001. Mark Hardin's children and grandchildren began moving further west in old Virginia, into Frederick and Hampshire Counties. One must be cautious in using today's maps to locate counties of that period, as at that time old counties were being subdivided into new ones continuously as the population expanded. For example, as of 1750 Frederick County encompassed what are now several nearby counties in Virginia and West Virginia. Hampshire County (now West Virginia), much larger than it is now, was formed from Frederick County in 1753.

2001. Maj. John Hardin was living in Frederick County in the 1750s and early 1760s, then in Hampshire County in 1764 and 1769. By 1771 he had moved to what is now Fayette County, Pennsylvania [HW-318]. (This successively was part of Cumberland County until 1771 when Bedford County was formed, part of Bedford until 1773 when Westmoreland County was formed, then part of Westmoreland until 1783 when Fayette County was formed). 2002. Martin Hardin remained longer in Prince William and Fauquier Counties, but by 1772 also was living help to escape from Indians, and the small boat started in to investigate. In any event, a heavy volley of gunfire came from a large number of Indians hidden in ambush along the Ohio shore, aimed at both of the Reynolds boats, which killed the oarsmen and some of the passengers in the family boat, leaving it helpless. The Indians rushed into the water and drew the small boat to shore, where they ruthlessly killed and mutilated any men or older boys still alive, and several more women and children; then systematically looted the boat's cargo. They whooped with glee as they ripped open feather mattresses and let the wind carry clouds of feathers far out over the water. Then they herded their captives - the Mallot family, Mrs. Robertson, Mary Hardin and her little son Robert, and several others ashore and headed north toward their camps on the Scioto River. Mangled bodies of the dead left on the family boat included the oarsmen, the entire Reynolds family, Mrs. Shively and her child, the two Robertson boys, and little Stephen Hardin.

Meantime, on the larger stock boat, two men were killed and several critically wounded by the initial volleys. After securing their boat near the Kentucky shore, several men in a canoe attempted to reach the family boat, but after suffering two more casualties decided that a counterattack was foolhardy. The men, only a few of whom were unwounded, were reduced to watching helplessly as the Indians looted the family boat, and marched what remained of the families off into the woods. When the Indians had gone, a party crossed the river and surveyed the horrible scene on the small boat. The dead were buried, and the boat moored in the middle of the river for the night. The next day the Indian's trail was followed for a few miles; it was concluded that immediate rescue of the captives was impossible, so the survivors proceeded on down the Ohio to the Falls to recover from their wounds, and to organize a rescue party. In the following months, there were several such rescue attempts, none of which were successful.

Thus Molly Hardin began a year and a half of captivity as a slave of the Indians. During the next few days the prisoners were marched to Indian settlements further north in Ohio; Molly to a village on the Scioto River near where Chillicothe now stands, while Mrs. Robertson was in a village on the Little Miami. Molly had to carry little Robert on her back most of the way. Prisoner's food was limited to scraps and offal. They were exposed to the weather, without adequate clothing or protection. They were treated with contempt and cruelty by the men, although some of the squaws grudgingly began to respect Molly for her courage, and to take better care of her.

One of the worst ordeals was "running the gauntlet". Indian braves lined up in two rows, then prisoners were forced to run between them, with the Indians hitting the runner with sticks or clubs as she scurried by. Molly endured this several times, acquiring scars she bore the rest of her life; but the last time, with little Robert crying "Run, Mommy, Run" she went so quickly that she was untouched; she did not have to do this again.

At another time, for some reason not now clear, she was to be burned at the stake, or otherwise killed. Two (now friendly) squaws hid her under a large fallen log, covered with dead leaves, for several days until the Chief changed his mind.

At the first place where she was held, an unsuccessful rescue attempt by Jack and her brother Thomas penetrated the camp, but a barking dog alerted the Indians, and the two barely escaped with Creek location also is known, and contains the grave of Rev. John Harding, son of Thomas. About a half-mile west of the Pitman Creek location is the "Harding Cemetery" which contains the remains of Abraham's brother John Harding and several descendants, and which is where this family then lived.

APPENDIX H - A PATERNITY SUIT

In 1805 a paternity suit was brought in the court of Green County, Ky.; which caused strong ill feelings between the families of the brothers Abraham and Stephen Harding, which were never completely reconciled.

Green County Court minutes of 24 Mar. 1806 - Barbara Taylor vs. Aaron Hardin - (abstract). Said Aaron Hardin appeared, sundry witnesses being sworn and examined, deliberation being had, opinion of the court was that said Hardin was guilty of having begotten a female bastard child on said Barbara Taylor, and that said Aaron Hardin pay the guardian of said child 6 pounds per annum for 4 years, plus costs of this prosecution. Samuel Taylor was appointed guardian to the child.

Pitman Creek Baptist Church minutes (abstracts): 5 Apr. 1806 - Brother Stephen Hardin is grieved with his brother (Abraham) for attempting to prove that Barbara Taylor's child, which she has sworn to Aaron Hardin, was not his but Asa Hardin's child. Abraham is aggrieved with Stephen about his testimony in court, appeared that it was done with prejudice, as well as contradictory to other testimony. No reconciliation. 2 May 1806 - Brethren Stephen and Abraham Hardin still not reconciled.

5 July 1806 - Brother Abraham Hardin withdrew his complaint. Brother Stephen Hardin stated his grievances against his brother Abraham, regarding the unhappy slanderous reports against Barbara Taylor, Abraham's endeavoring to establish them, and censuring Stephen for false swearing. After much altercation, the Brethren took other brethren out with them and endeavored to obtain fellowship, and after some time they made concessions and gave each other the right hand of fellowship. At the same meeting the problem between Sisters Polly Matthews and Ruhama Rice (Abraham's daughter) was taken up, as a result of which they obtained reconciliation and gave each other the right hand of fellowship.

27 Sep. 1806 - Abraham Hardin and Thos. Hardin withdrew from the Church, indicating they were not satisfied with some of the members but declining to name them.

6 Dec. 1806 - Stephen Hardin appointed to cite Sister Mathews to attend next meeting to settle a difference between her and Sister Rice. 5 Jan. 1807 - Sister Ruhama Rice complains that Sister Polly Mathews swore in Court that she Rhua Rice said she could prove that Asa Hardin and Barbara Taylor had acted together twice in Stephen Hardin's house, which she denies ever saying positively. Sister Elizabeth Hardin says that she could prove it by five or six witnesses. John Hardin also says he heard her say that all she had told Polly Mathews about her sister she could prove. The Church find no cause of censure against Sister Mathews concerning her oath. The two Sisters not reconciled. 7 Mar. 1807 - Sisters Mathews and Rice not reconciled. 3 Apr. 1807 - Sisters Rice and Mathews reconciled.

APPENDIX K - ONE HARDING FAMILY BIBLE

There is valid evidence that there once existed a Harding family Bible which apparently contained extensive records of births and deaths.

Letter of 6105.Katharine (Harding) Huron dated 27 May 1882 to her son 7089.George: "Father (5234.Aaron Harding) willed his family Bible to (7100.)Kittie Harding".

Letter of 6107.Ruah (Harding) Hopkins (sister of Katharine) to 8071.LeRoy H. Kelsey dated 24 Dec. 1902 "- - - then I thought of mother's Bible that was given to Kittie Harding, and have just got an answer from her".

7100.Kitty Harding (1842-1923) never married, but lived out her life at Charleston, Ill. and Little Rock, Ark. with her brother-in-law and sister Eli and 7099.Ann Eliza (Harding) Huron, whose daughter was 8093.Bertha (Huron) Collins.

Letter of 9100.Betty Boyd dated 4 Nov. 1959 to 9040.Francis H. Huron: "Bertha Huron Collins, Little Rock, Ark. is supposed to have Aaron Harding's Bible. Harold R. Harding visited her last Dec. 1957. And that Bible record indicates clearly that - - -".

Bertha Collins's son 9078.James M. Collins, who now lives at Little Rock, states that he never heard of or saw this Bible; but that there was a serious fire at his mother's home many years ago, and that if she had the Bible, it was probably destroyed in that fire.

It seems probable that many or most of the birth-marriage-death dates in references KL-1, CK-1, and CK-2, and perhaps other sources, came originally from the records in this Bible.

several questions. Uncle (4100) Thom, Aunt Sallie, and (5254) Noah are burried at Brownsburg, Hendricks Co Indiana just five miles north of my home. Uncle Thom dyed in June 1840. I can't remem the dates of the deaths of Aunt Sallie, and Noah.

I visited Aunt Sallie while she was bed fast. She got a fall which paralyzed her from her hips down. She lived more than four years in that helpless condition. She was an eccelent lady. She often talked about her daughters Ama (Amy?) and Ruah, wondered why they did not write or visit her. they were both dead, but Noah did not tell her. My Mother wanted him to tell her but he said he did not want to give her any trouble and he did not want her to know they were dead.

(5256) Payne moved to Ioway then to Mo where we heard he dyed his daughter (6185) Emily Kirk lives somewhere in Missouri. (5257) Aaron Harding your Mothers brother had white swelling when he was about 18 years and we lived near to a Dr who had studied with Indian Dr. Uncle Thom brought Aaron to our house to be handy to the doctor he and Aunt Sally stayed with Aaron. I was eight years old and learned to love Aaron as a brother. His Mother was a woman among ten thousand and I believe one of the best of them all.

(NOTE: Several of the original paragraphs are omitted here; they covered recent news items about her family, not of general interest).

I haven't told you half about your (5253) Mothers, and (5008) Fathers also, for he was her first cousin. Your Mothers sister (5252) Sallie married John Carlile. You asked about your Uncle (5250) Saml Harding. I was a little girl when he preached his fairwell sermon at my Grandmother Hardings. He sung the song fairwell my dear brethren the time is at hand when we must be parted from this social band. he went all around the house giving each one his hands and there was not a dry eye in the house. There is a mister harding living in Tipton whose grandfathers name was Samuel, his father dyed when he was small and his Mother went to her people he dont know any thing about his Fathers people only his Grandfather was name Samuel. And (5249) John your Mothers brother what an eccelent preacher he was. Please write soon. I havent told you half I could if you will come

APPENDIX N - REFERENCE KL-1

Letter dated Sidney Ohio Nov. 7th 1892 from 7105. Kate Lawhead to 8071. LeRoy H. Kelsey. Spelling and punctuation as in original, which is in my possession.

Dear Cousin. I recelved your letter of Oct. 4th ever so long ago, and intended answering it right away. But you see I did not find the time. Hope you will forgive the delay. I will write off as best I can, the names and dates of our ancestors and other relatives as given in the little book Father wrote for old Grandfather Harding. Your Grandmother could tell you more about them all than I can.

Abraham Harding was born September 17th 1752 - Died May 25th 1818. Sarah Moor wife of Abraham Harding was born August 26th 1759 - Died March 2nd 1833 - (Date of marriage not given). Births of their children. - Hannah Harding was born April 19th 1778 (I think she married a Dawson, but as I said before your grandmother or my mother could tell more than I can). Aron Harding (your mother's grandfather) was born April 7th 1780 (I have not the date of his

I remember, too, that I have visited several times with the Dean family in Owensboro. Mrs. Dean is a cousin. I was told by another cousin, Pope McAdams of Louisville, that Mr. John Dean died some time ago. I liked him very much. IH born Ireland, son of Thos. Lindsey & Rebecca Harris.

1- Jno. Brown Lindsey

1- Thos. Noble Lindsey

2- Danl. Weisiger Lindsey.

2- Rev. Marcus Lindsay

born 16 December 1787, Ireland

died 2 July 1833.

Washington Co., Ky., Springfield Courthouse; 11 Apr. 1832/ 29 Oct. 1833,

Will of Rev. Marcus Lindsay, Will Book E, page 225.

My last will and testament made in the name & with the fear of God before my eyes.

1- I will during my wife's widowhood that she should have the entire proceeds of my farm; in case she should marry again, the law is my will.

2- I will that her, my wife's, share of Mary Jane's estate be hers forever to do with as she may think proper.

3- I will that any money loaned out, not belonging to the estate of Mary Jane, be still loaned out, my wife being allowed, if she thinks proper, to draw the interest annually and use it. Nevertheless, if she thinks that when wants of the family rendering it necessary, she may at any time during her widowhood draw the principal & use it.

4- All stock on the farm & all the farming utensils & everything in the house & kitchen I leave to my wife to be disposed of as she wills.

5- Should my wife marry again, she may still draw the interest annually of any money that may be on interest untill ----- but at her death the principal shall be divided among the children that I have.

6- I will that my wife & Henry Buckler be appointed to execute this my last will & testament or in case H. Buckler might refuse anyone else my wife may wish to be appointed to assist her.

In testimony whereof I hereunto affix my hand & seal this 11 day of Apr. 1832.

HARDIN

Many "patriotic" memberships in the Southern states have been based on Capt. Mark Hardin's Pension W 423; sadly, in spite of the clear statements in Pension W 423, that Capt. Mark Hardin had one wife only, applications have used Capt. Mark Hardin's Revolutionary Pension, for military service, had him come to Georgia and marry twice, once to an Effie Cook. W 423 has a full Bible record of Capt. Mark Hardin and Susan Stull; they were married 25 Dec. 1780, in Fayette Co., Pa.; Capt. Mark Hardin died 5 Dec. 1835, having lived in marriage with one wife for 55 years, and Susan Stull Hardin was awarded his pension. These data can be procured, by anyone interested in facts, by sending $1.00 to the National Archives, Washington, D. C., requesting copy of Revolutionary Pension W 423.

The accompanying document, which accompanies Land Office Military WARRANT, No. 2892, granted by Va. 2 Apr. 1784, to Henry Thomas, 100 acres of land for Three years as a Soldier in the Virginia Contl. Line, shows how land was transferred three times in 4 years, Henry Thomas to Martin Hardin, Martin Hardin to Wm. Porter, Wm. Porter to Thos. Graham, with No deed, no survey, and no record entry in any courthouse.

Many early land transfers were made in this manner. Even after the land was surveyed and located, the survey order was often used as transfer. It is not uncommon to find land unpatented for as long as 50 years, and then only when the "owner" wished to sell.

WILL OF MAJOR JOHN HARDIN

Son of Mark and Mary Hardin

John Walker, Jr., 249 acres.

*: Captain John Hardin; Mark Hardin, wife Ann Hartley; Captain William Hardin; Benjamin Hardin, wife Sarah Hardin, first cousin, daughter of Martin Hardin, son of Mark and Mary Hardin, and his wife Lydia Waters.

 : The parentage of Polly (Mary) Hardin, who married Benjamin Huff, and of her brother, Daniel Hardin, who were brought up in Breckinridge Co., Ky., by Captain William Hardin, wife and 1st cousin, Winifred Holtsclaw, has never been exactly determined.

: Cassandra Hardin, born 5 September 1778, daughter of Benjamin and Sarah Hardin, their 6th child & 6th daughter, married William Hardin, Jr., son of Captain William Hardin & Winifred Holtsclaw, 8 February 1798, Washington Co., Ky., apparently died before 8 March 1799, leaving one child, a daughter Molly Cassandra Hardin, who was reared by her maternal grandparents, Sarah Hardin & Benjamin Hardin, named in both their wills.

NOTE: Major John Hardin was the father of two Revolutionary Captains, Captain William Hardin and Captain John Hardin, also grandfather of several privates in the Revolution, and of one at least that I know of, in the War of 1812. One of his sons, Benjamin Hardin, married his first cousin, Sarah Hardin, and all the family advertisement in Kentucky seems to be of Sarah Hardin's father, Martin Hardin, and his family. Martin Hardin was the 2nd son of Mark and Mary Hardin, of Prince William Co., Va., where Mark Hardin died testate, 1735; he settled in Va., from New York, 1706, in Northumberland Co. Of course Major John Hardin and Martin Hardin were brothers, and 2 more were named in the Mark Hardin will, Mark mentioned above, who married Elizabeth Ashby, and the youngest son, Henry Hardin, who married Judith Lynch; Henry Hardin died testate, 1794, Pittsylvania Co., Va.

The Hardinsburg legend is that Major John Hardin was killed by Indians, "1 mile out of Hardinsburg, on a creek, crossing the road". Probably true; certainly he came, apparently a widower, and in his old age, to Kentucky. There are probably many of his descendants in Kentucky today who never heard of him, not only Hardin, but descendants of the daughters named in his will.

Just who Polly Hardin's mother was is a puzzle, as no one has ever been able to read accurately the last name of her mother, "Margaret H.....? that was." Polly (Mary, of course) Hardin married Benjamin Huff, and I think they moved to Illinois. Some Hardinsburg histories say she married a John Huff, but the records, marriage license and deed, say her husband was Benjamin Huff.

Bedford Co., Pa. Deed Book A, page 29 - JOHN HARDIN TO WILLIAM HARDIN

THIS INDENTURE, made this 15th day of February 1772 by and between JOHN HARDIN of the one part of the Province of Pa. and County of Bedford and WILLIAM HARDIN of the Province and County aforesaid, son of JOHN HARDIN, for and in consideration of natural love and affection which he beareth unto the said WILLIAM HARDIN and for the better maintenance and livelihood of the said WILLIAM HARDIN hath given granted aliened infeofed and confirmed by these presents do give unto the said WILLIAM HARDIN his heirs and assigns a tract of land lying in Bedford County which he now lives on and all other Estate of Mine on this side of Laurel Hill, Negroes, stock and other substances movable and immovable of What(soever) kind and nature Whatsoever with the said WILLIAM HARDIN and assigns forever.

And the said JOHN HARDIN for himself and his heirs Exrs. & Adtr. doth covenant and promise and grant unto the said WILLIAM HARDIN his heirs and assigns by these presens that the said WILLIAM his heirs and assigns shall and lawfully may henceforth enjoy the said land and negroes and stock and other estate above mentioned to be granted, saved and kept from all former grants and other grants bargains, Sales and other incumbrances Whatsoever had made, committed done or suffered to be made by him the said JOHN HARDIN his heirs Extr. & Adr. or any other person from or under him.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have set my hand and seal the year and date above mentioned. (15 February 1772) JOHN HARDIN SEALED AND DELIVERED in the presence of John Masterson, Owen Davis, John Griffith.

BEDFORD CO. SS. BE IT REMEMBERED that on the 8th day of April in the year of our Lord 1772 Before me Thomas Gist one of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace came JOHN HARDIN SENIOR in within instrument of Writing Named and acknowledged the same to be his act and deed to the intent that it may be entered of Record.

GIVEN UNDER MY HAND this eighth day of April 1772. THO. GIST.
Recorded 25 July 1772. An T. Clair, Recorder.

NOTE: This land is "Choice" located in Springhill Township of Fayette County, Pa., cut 1783 from Westmoreland Co., Pa., cut 1773 from Bedford Co., Pa.; Surveyed 22 May 1770, on Survey Order #3084, but patented 9 May 1788 to Charles Griffen. Whether Griffen, Griffin, Griffith, spellings in Fayette Co., Pa., Uniontown courthouse, is the same name could possibly learned from Uniontown records.

Major John Hardin, Senior, was the eldest son, named in the 1734 will, Prince William Co., Va., of Mark Hardin. Captain William Hardin, of Breckinridge Co., Ky., was son of Major John Hardin, as also was Captain John Hardin, who died testate, 1803, Fayette Co., Pa.

HARDEN - HARDING

Contributed by: Talbott R. Allen, Sr., 947 Goss Ave., Louisville, KY 40217.

In this article (in Volume 15, No. 2, page 98 of KENTUCKY ANCESTORS) we find three different and distinct families: HARDIN, HARDING and HARDEN.

My paternal great grandmother was Mary HARDING and my maternal Grandmother was a HARDEN.

ELEXUS HARDEN made will in Adair County [KY] in 1808, but will was probated July 1812. He was a Scot. His oldest sons, Henry and Joseph were born in Maryland; two other sons, Elexus, Jr., and Ezekiel were born in Virginia; Alexander, Nicholas and John F. Harden were born in Knox County, Tenn. John F. Harden mentioned as one of the children by his second wife was born in November 1796, in Knox County, Tenn. Joseph Harden married 6 January 1799 in Knox County, Tenn. to Fanny Douglas. By 1801 the whole family was in Green (later) Adair County, Ky.

Alexander Harden married Jane Gentry 21 March 1807.

Nicholas Harden married 1st. 24 Oct. 1805 to Patsy Watson. 2nd. 11 Feb. 1823 to Sally Caskey; 3rd., 1825 to Rebecca Beard.

Elexus Harden, Jr. married Anna Ball 20 Feb. 1812.

10 Dec. 1810, James Harden, son of Henry, and Anna Lake, daughter of Jane Lake were married.

3 Sept. 1817, Joseph Harden, widower, married Judith Wilkerson, daughter of Newman Wilkerson.

12 Feb. 1818, Wm. Bryant married Rhoda Harden, daughter of Joseph and Fanny Douglas Harden. She was born on French River, Knox County, Tenn.

Lydia Harden, mentioned as one of the heirs of Elexus in his will, married John Breeding, Apr. 8, 1824. She was born in KY. about 1804.

My great-great grandfather, John Finley Harden, born Knox Co., Tenn. 1796, married Bridget Vanhook 29 Jan. 1819. He and his family moved to what is now Taylor County but near the Adair County line. I have a pretty complete line from there down.

In the article on page 98 are these that I can identify:

Feb. 1838, Stephen Hardin married Jane Stephens. He was Stephen Harding, Jr., son of Stephen and Elizabeth who lived and died in Taylor County. Jane Stephens was Jane Knifley, daughter of Phillip Knifley and she married William Stephens first and had four children by him.

12 Mar. 1847, James Harding and Mary Humphreys. James was the son of the above Stephen Harding, Jr. and his first wife, who was Lydia Carlisle, dau. of James Carlisle and Mary Harding.

16 Dec. 1819, Abell Hardin and Julie Jackson. He was Abell Harding, son of Abraham Harding, Jr.

23 Oct. 1849, Parker C. Hardin and Jane C. Lewis. He was the only one in the entire story that was a Hardin. He was born in Washington County, KY. where most of the Hardins settled.

HARDEN - HARDING

In the early records the clerks just spelled things as they sounded to them and most of them did not know the difference in these three distinct families. Maybe somewhere, sometime they were all of one family but I found the same confusion in the records of England in the 1600s.

The Harden family have always spelled the name with an E and the Harding family never fails to put the G on their names.

A Remarkable Series:

Historic Families of Kentucky

By Thomas Marshall Green

Editor's Note: We are taking excerpts from the book Historic Families Of Kentucky by Thomas Marshall Green. These excerpts consist of history and genealogy pertaining to families who were from Kentucky or came to Kentucky prior to statehood, and were prominent members of our great state. Each issue will feature another family that has left their mark on the pages of Kentucky history.

Logan

John A. Logan represented Shelby County in the Kentucky Legislature in 1839. He married, in 1837, Rebecca M. Bristow. Of their five children, but one survives, Dr. Richard F. Logan, of Shelbyville, a surgeon in the Union Army during the Civil War. The latter married Lucy Lemon, daughter of Samuel Lemon, of Louisville, Jefferson County, Kentucky. Dr. Richard F. Logan and his son, Ben, a boy of 15 years, are the only living male descendants of Gen. Benjamin Logan in the male line, and bearing the name (1889).

John Logan and Ann C. Anderson had a daughter, Elizabeth, who married a Simpson and is now deceased. Their daughter, Sarah Jane Logan, married James F. Gamble, and now (1889) resides in Louisville, with her daughter, Mrs. Jane Rogers. Another daughter of James F. Gamble and Sarah Jane Logan married Mr. J. H. Lindemberger, the banker, of Louisville. Several sons of Mrs. Gamble live in Chicago, Illinois.

The fourth son of Gen. Benjamin Logan and Anne Montgomery bore his name, and was born in Lincoln County, Kentucky, on January 3, 1789, and was well educated for a physician, successfully practicing in Shelby County. He was a surgeon during the War of 1812, participating in the Battle of the River Raisin, being captured there. He later represented Shelby County in the Kentucky Legislature in 1818, at the same time as his brother, John, and died in Shelby County on March 19, 1873, after having enjoyed the respect of the community during an honorable life of 84 years.

After the death of the father of Col. William Crawford, the commander of the ill-fated expedition against Sandusky, who was tortured to death by his Indian captors, his mother married Richard Stephenson, and had a troop of stalwart boys and several fine daughters. One of the Stephenson girls married a Pennsylvanian named Pressly Lane, who settled in Shelby County. Another, Polly Stephenson, married Dr. John Knight, who was the surgeon of Crawford's expedition, was captured with that unfortunate officer, and, like him, was reserved for the torture, but made his escape by attacking the Indian who had him in charge.

Dr. Knight also settled in Shelby County, which he frequently represented in the legislature. One of his daughters married a Hall, and was the mother of the wife of Wallace McDowell, and the grandmother of John Hall McDowell, who died in Selma, Alabama, in 1865.

Still another of the Stephenson girls, Effie, half-sister of Colonel Crawford, married Gen. Joseph Win-lock, who settled in Shelby County and represented it in the Kentucky Legislature, and was a valiant soldier, as well as a useful and influential citizen. Dr. Winlock, the Harvard professor, was a descendant of General Winlock. One of the daughters of Gen. Joseph Winlock, Effie Stephenson Winlock married Dr. Benjamin Logan. Their only son, James Knox Logan, died unmarried. One of their daughters, Ann Logan, was the second wife of Judge Z. Wheat, of the court of appeals, whose first wife was her kinswoman, and daughter of Judge Benjamin Monroe.

Another daughter of Dr. Benjamin Logan, Eliza, married Dr. Robert Glass; and one of their daughters married Rev. Robert Clelland, a Presbyterian minister, while another daughter, Lizzie Glass, married Captain Bacon, of the United States Army. Polly Logan, also a daughter of Dr. Benjamin Logan, married her kinsman, William P. Monroe. Effie, another daughter of Dr. Benjamin Logan, married W. W. Gardiner, a state senator during the War of 1812, and a man of talent. The descendants of Dr. Logan are many, everywhere, and reputable and worthy.

Robert Logan, fifth and youngest son of Gen. Benjamin Logan, was a soldier in the War of 1812, and in the regiment commanded by Col. John Allen, and was killed at the Battle of the River Raisin, where also fell the heroic Allen, whose wife, Jane Logan, was the oldest daughter of General Logan and Anne Montgomery.

Hardin

The second daughter of Gen. Logan Montgomery and Anne Montgomery, Elizabeth Logan, married the celebrated Martin D. Hardin; the union of the blood of the Logans with that of the Hardins was singularly appropriate. All through the records of the French and Indian Wars, and of the campaigns with the Indians that followed, the name of Hardin is found among the soldiers.

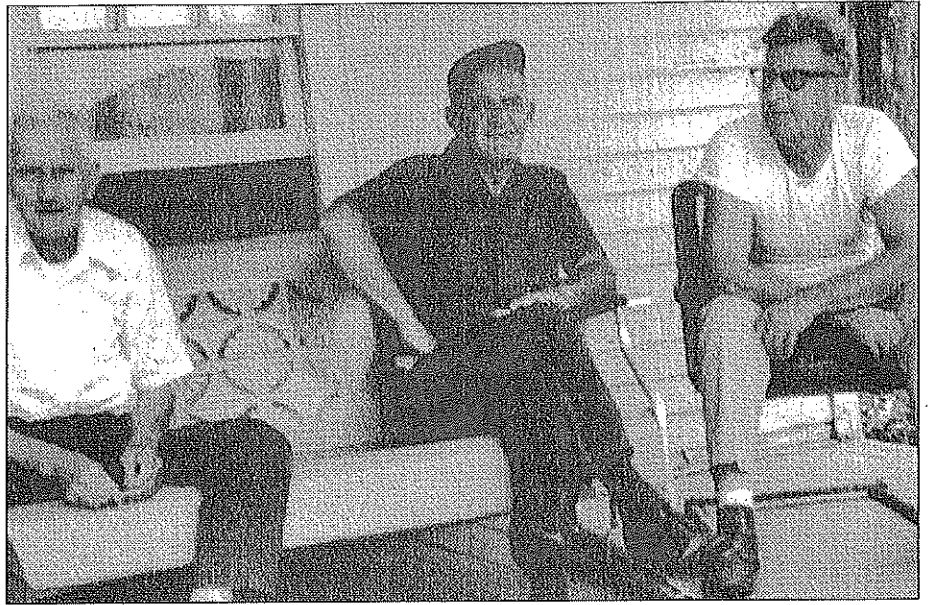

John, Mark, and Martin Hardin were among them. Martin lived in Fauquier County, Virginia, in humble circumstances, and there his son, John, was born in 1753. Thence, Martin removed to Monongalia County, around 1765. John, though but 12 years of age, was already skilled in the use of arms. From hunting the deer and bear, he was called, before he had yet passed his boyhood, to take part in repelling Indian forays and in avenging their victims. In Dunmore's Campaign he was an ensign of a militia company. Under Capt. Zack Morgan, in the ensuing August, he won an enviable distinction, and was desperately wounded in battle. The Revolutionary War commenced just as he had prepared to come to Kentucky.

John Hardin recruited a body of sharpshooters and joined the Continental Army as a second lieutenant, and was soon promoted and attached to the rifle corps of Gen. Daniel Morgan. John served with this force until December 1779, winning the respect of Morgan and the intrepid Col. Richard Butler, by whom he was frequently entrusted with the most perilous commissions.

Upon resigning his office in 1780, he came to Kentucky and located lands, John Hardin then removed his family to what would become Washington County, Kentucky. Henceforward, his history is that of the district. In every expedition against the Indians, except that of St. Clair, which a wound prevented him from joining, he had an active part, holding high command. He and James McDowell, as majors, commanded the battalions under Wilkinson. He was sent by Wilkinson in 1792 with overtures of peace to the Indians. If that arch-plotter expected him to return alive, he was the only person who did.

It is likely that Hardin himself anticipated his fate, but his gallant spirit could not refuse to obey an order to which no one else was hardy enough to execute. He was murdered by the Indians with whom he had encamped, not far from Fort Defiance. His wife was Jane Daviess. They had six children, of whom the late Mark Hardin (1889), of Shelby County, was one.

Dorothy Marshall, P. O. Box 251, Jackson, KY 41339, shares this photo of (l-r) Andy Marshall (Dorothy's grandfather), Oscar Marshall, and Aster Campbell. Andy B. Marshall, son of Jesse Marshall and Susan Allen was born 6/2/1891 and died 8/8/1989 in Breathitt County, Kentucky. He is buried in the Flatwoods Cemetery at Noble, Kentucky. Andy married Mary Jane Hudson, daughter Andrew Coleman Hudson and Cynthia Haynes. She was born 7/4/1903 and died 6/17/1992. She is buried in the Flatwoods Cemetery. Andy and Mary Jane were the parents of Oscar, John Henry (Dorothy's father), James, Andrew (Jr.), Robert, Geneva, Cynthia, Adna, Melvin, Melda, Eva, and Hoy. Oscar Marshall was born 6/21/1919 and died 6/22/1980 in Breathitt County, Kentucky. He is buried in the Flatwoods Cemetery. Oscar was the son of Andy B. Marshall and Mary Jane Hudson. Oscar married Susie Johnson, born 1/23/1930, daughter of Otie Johnson and Minnie Wireman. Oscar served in WWII, a Sergeant in the U. S. Army. He was the father of Andy B., Cola, Bobby, Minnie, Jesse, Oat, and Susan. Aster Campbell, born 8/14/1912, Breathitt County; died 3/26/1981 in Perry County, Kentucky. He was buried in the Holiday Cemetery, Ary, Perry County. Aster was the son of John H. Campbell and Melda Marshall. Aster was the brother of Gracie, Lottie, Lucy, Andrew, John (Jr.), and Ottia. John H. Campbell, 4/8/1873-10/26/1944, was the son of John D. Campbell and Sarah Holliday. Melda Marshall, 2/26/1882-9/5/1971 (Floyd County), was the daughter of Jesse Marshall and Susan Allen.

The wife of Rev. Barnabas McHenry was one of their daughters, the mother of Judge John H. McHenry, of Daviess County, and grandmother of Hon. Henry D. McHenry, of Ohio County, and Col. John H. McHenry, of Owensboro, Daviess County.

Lydia, a sister of Col. John Hardin, was the mother of Robert, Charles A., and Nathaniel Wickliffe. The mother of Benjamin Hardin was another sister, and his father a cousin. Some would say that no family in Kentucky has been more noted for the intellectuality of its members, nor has the state ever had a more courageous breed (1889).

The oldest son of Col. John Hardin and Jane Daviess was Martin, who added the "D." to distinguish himself from others of the same given name. He was a remarkably able man, an astounding lawyer, and known for his braininess and being a true son of Kentucky. He represented Franklin County in the Kentucky Legislature in 1812, 1818, and 1819, and was secretary of state under Governor Shelby from 1812-1816; a United States Senator in 1816 and 1817, and was a reporter for the court of appeals in 1808. Martin D. Hardin was one of the majors of Colonel Allen's regiment at the Battle of the River Raisin, and George Madison was the other. Hardin was present in the fight outside the stockades. He died in 1823, at 43 years of age.

One of the daughters of Martin D. Hardin and Elizabeth Logan married A. R. McKee, a brother of the colonel and regiment that was "orphaned" at Buena Vista. Another daughter married Dr. Mark Chinn, who, after graduating at Transylvania, removed to Illinois. One of Dr. Chinn's daughters married her kinsman, W. H. Stuart, of Shelbyville, Shelby County, Kentucky. Charles Hardin, a son of Martin D. Hardin, settled at Jacksonville, Illinois.

The oldest son of Martin D. Hardin and Elizabeth Logan, John J. Hardin, was one of the pupils at the famed academy of Dr. Louis Marshall, in Woodford County, and left it with the respect of that most exacting of teachers. After a creditable course in the academies, he graduated in the collegiate department and law school of Transylvania University, then removing to Illinois, where he engaged in the practice of the law, for which his talents were peculiarly adapted. Without being brilliant, he had strong sense, clear and discriminating judgment; the personification of integrity of the highest order; the embodiment of knightly honor and chivalry; possessed of an energy that never flagged; with manners at once kind, grave, and dignified; his force of mind and character soon placed him abreast of the first in his profession. Independence in fortune came to him as the reward of his labor, the Whig Party sent him to Congress from 1843-1845 as the successor of his kinsman, John T. Stuart; he was himself succeeded by E. D. Baker, afterward a distinguished senator from the Pacific slope, a gallant soldier who fell at Ball's Bluff; and Baker was succeeded by Abraham Lincoln, whose wife was a kinswoman of both Stuart and Hardin. The latter had taken an active part in the Black Hawk War; had for years been general in chief of the militia of Illinois, and having a natural taste and aptitude for the science of arms, had been a close student of military tactics. As a Whig Congressman, he had opposed the annexation of Texas. When his name was urged for a commission as a brigadier-general in the Mexican War, Hardin's political antecedents ensured the refusal of the appointment by Polk.

The first regiment raised in Illinois for the war was recruited by John J. Hardin, who was chosen as fittest to command; the colonel of the second was Bissell, also an ex-congressman. Placed under the special charge of Colonel Churchill, of the regular Army, whose rigid discipline was enforced by Hardin and Bissell, these two regiments rapidly acquired the steadiness under fire and the precision in movement of regulars and veterans. They rendezvoused at Alton, where they were found by Wool, prepared and in splendid condition for his expedition against Chihuahua.

In July of 1846, they were embarked for New Orleans; thence by steamer to Lavaca; and from the latter place on August 11th. They began their famous march under General Wool, who commanded the Army of the Center. How this force was united to that of General Taylor and how the latter, who had become too conspicuous by his triumphs at Palo Alto, Resaca de la Palma, and

Monterrey, was stripped of the greater part of his army, and nearly all of his regulars, in order that they might swell the forces of General Scott, moving on the city of Mexico from another direction, is a part of the history of Polk's administration. The exultations with which the invincible warrior turned to the Illinoisans, under Hardin and Bissell; to the Kentuckians, under McKee, Clay, and Marshall; to the Mississippians, under Davis and McClung; and, with clenched hand and set teeth, exclaimed, "These are my regulars!" They will not be forgotten while the memory of their heroism at Buena Vista lives. There the gallant Hardin proved the characteristics of his race and sealed his patriotic devotion with his life's blood.

Those who honor the brave men who fell on Angosura's plain will not tire of the recital which tells how, when the Indianians had given back, and, in their disorderly route, had swept away with them a part of Marshall's men, that Bissell's Illinoisans advanced to fill the gap, and withheld their fire, while receiving volleys from the advancing foe, until the word was given, and then poured out a sheet of flame which drove back the Mexicans. When again the enemy came surging on, they fell back to a better position, with the precision of a dress parade, and when their ground was reached, again turned and fired. McKee's Kentuckians came rushing to the front, at double-quick up the eminence, to take their place at Bissell's side, and Hardin, who had been hotly engaged in covering Washington's battery, where the Mexicans had been repulsed, passing McKee, went into action on Bissell's right, his men exposed to a heavy flank fire from a whole brigade of Mexicans who crossed the head of the second gorge. Then, wheeling his men, Hardin led them to meet the flank attack, lifted his sword, and shouted, "Charge, bayonets; remember Illinois," the men following, and hurling back the Mexicans into the gorge, covering the ground with their dead, and taking many prisoners.

From that time until his fall, Colonel Hardin was continuously in action. After Taylor had been tricked by Santa Anna's treacherous flag of truce, and deluded by the hope that the retrograde movement to escape a critical situation was an utter flight, he determined to take the battery that covered the seeming retreat. Hardin was called to lead the charge upon the belching cannon, and again shouted, "We will take that battery; charge bayonets!" and led the rush of his regiment, followed by McKee and Clay, and a little later by Bissell.

Santa Anna, surveying the field from an eminence, saw these gallant and devoted men as they neared his battery, and massed his brigade to meet the movement, in a supreme effort for the mastery. Hardin, violently attacked by overwhelming numbers on the right and in the front, changed his bayonet charge to a destructive fire; and McKee and Bissell coming up, the three regiments charged together into the Mexican ranks. The Mexicans were driven before them, their retreat apparently a flight. Suddenly they rallied; and with fresh brigades, and led by Santa Anna in person, came back, in myriads, and assailed with an avalanche of flame and lead the handful of brave Americans struggling desperately in the gorge.

An aide came to Hardin with an order from Taylor to retreat. In the backwards movement, the edge of the second gorge had been reached, a pit 50 feet in depth, with precipitous banks, narrow, affording no chance to load and fire. The crest of this gorge was enveloped by the Mexicans, who came pouring down its sides in all directions, outnumbering the U. S. troops more than five to one. Above the roar of the battle was heard the shout of Hardin, "Fight on; remember Illinois." Wounded in the thigh, and prostrated, he still shouted encouragement to his men.

The gallant McKee was the first to die in the fateful struggle. The talented son and namesake of Henry Clay had his leg shattered by musket balls, had fallen, and had bidden his soldiers to leave him and save themselves, when a squadron of lancers rushed upon him and pierced him with many wounds. In the act of falling, Hardin had drawn his pistol, and with this he made one Mexican bite the dust; another bullet struck the hero in the neck, and five lances were run through his body. Around them fell Willis, Zabriskie, eight lieutenants, and many other men. The rear guard, which covered the retreat of those who dragged themselves out of the pit, was commanded by Speed Smith Fry, of Danville. Looking back, and seeing a Mexican about to pierce the body of one of the fallen victims with his lance, he seized a musket from a soldier, and, with unerring aim, tumbled him from his saddle. General Fry always lost his head in a speech, but never in a fight.

The victorious conclusion of the bloody strife was fought by the artillery; by Davis' Mississippians, with a part of the Indianans; by the Kentucky and Arkansas cavalry, under Humphrey Marshall; and by May's dragoons.

Col. John J. Hardin married a Miss Smith, of Harrodsburg, who after his death, became the wife of Chancellor Walworth, of New York. Colonel Hardin's daughter, Ellen Hardin Walworth, a woman of fine talent and literary attainment, resides in Saratoga, and her account of the Battle of Buena Vista (from Magazine of American History ca. 1879) was recounted above. Col. John J. Hardin's oldest son, Martin D. Hardin, graduated with credit at West Point, entered the regular army, and, in the Civil War, by distinguished gallantry in battle won the rank and command of a brigadier-general, one of the youngest in the service, in which he lost an arm, and received many wounds. He belonged to the fifth generation of a race of soldiers. General Hardin is now a lawyer in Quincy, Illinois. After the death of Martin D. Hardin, Elizabeth Logan married Porter Clay, a brother of the orator (Henry Clay), and for many years register of the Kentucky land office. She died in Illinois at an advanced age.

My dear Mrs. Bogard:

Some time ago my cousin, Mrs. Frank W. (Emma Hardin) Baker, of Maryville, Missouri, sent me a letter of yours to her, April 25, 1944. I did not realize until I just looked at the date that it is so long ago. Mrs. Baker sent me the letter with several others, because she knows I, several years ago, spent a good deal of time and interest in historical research, gathered pretty largely in the history of my family.

I am a descendant of Mark Hardin and Elizabeth Ashby, ne the brother of Martin Hardin who, supposedly, married Lydia Waters. Personally, I have never been sure there was such a person, but I have several cousins who have joined the Colonial Dames on the Waters record, so the Society must accept it, even though I doubt it. I am writing largely because you say in Mrs. Baker's letter that you will, or would pay for the data. I myself have never accepted a fee for such work, but I happen to know that one of my cousins, who is a Colonial Dame member, will sell the data which she used, for, I think, $100. As compared with the money I have spent for such research, I don't mean in my case, fees, but traveling expenses and hotel bills, I suppose the fee is quite reasonable. I know I've spent several months driving in Virginia and Kentucky and at the end, sometimes, not found what I was looking for. At any rate, there it is. If you are still interested, I shall be glad to give your address to my cousin, or better still, give you hers.

Further, as to your question on the military service of Martin Hardin, as you see above, I am not a descendant of Martin Hardin, but it is impossible to work in the history of a family and not do it all. So I know something of the Martin Hardin records; I feel rather sure no military record is available for him. I rather think it was his brother John Hardin who served in the French and Indian and Dunmore's Wars. Don't get this mixed with Col. John Hardin, son of Martin Hardin, and therefore of course younger than his uncle, John Hardin. The latter was a Major, father of "Indian Bill", Captain William Hardin. I know my cousin has a DAR "bar" with the name of Martin Hardin, but I think it was given for what was called non-military service, or some such phrase, meaning furnishing supplies to the Revolutionary army; I seem to recall that the DAR stopped that ruling some time ago and now only give bars for active military service.

I gave up any historical work some years ago and am at present about as busy as I can be "making history" in the Women's Army Corps of the Army of the United States. However, Mrs. Baker did send me this group of letters and I am trying to clear them up, as I'm pretty conscientious about correspondence.

I have been in Owensboro several times; a cousin of ours, Captain Elijah H. Mathews, was buried there some weeks ago, I think.

Sincerely, Iva Hardin
