

MRS. HEAD DIES SUDDENLY.

Mrs. Lou Head, aged 76 years, died suddenly early yesterday morning at the home of Dr. A. O. Mitchell, near Raywick, where she was visiting. She was ill only one day. Death resulted from a complication of troubles.

The funeral services will be held this morning at 9 o'clock at the Catholic church at Raywick, conducted by Rev. A. C. Zoeller, and the burial will be in St. Francis' cemetery.

Mrs. Head was the widow of the late W. H. Head, who for many years was president of the W. H. Head Distilling Co., at Raywick. She was a most excellent christian woman and was widely known and greatly admired for her many commendable traits of character. Mrs. Head was a life long resident of the county, having been born, reared and spent her life in the community where she died.

One daughter, Mrs. G. F. Hughes, and five grandchildren and one great grandchild survive.

AGED CITIZEN DIES

George W. Duran, aged about 85 years, father of Mrs. Walter Harrison, of near Lebanon, died at his home

Lebanon Woman Falls From Truck, Dies Under Wheel

Special to The Courier-Journal

Lebanon, Ky., Sept. 22.—Mrs. Irene Brussell Head, 59, Lebanon was killed at 1:30 a.m. today when she fell from the cab of a truck and the rear wheel passed over her head.

Driver of the truck was James Thomas, 43, Louisville. The accident occurred on KY 150 near Loretto, Marion County. Thomas was not held.

Coroner John Hickey said Mrs. Head died instantly.

Survivors include her mother, Mrs. Edda Walston Brussell, Lebanon; two daughters, Mrs. Bernice Steins, Cincinnati, and Miss Pauline Head, Lebanon; five brothers, Leonard Brussell, Springfield; Charles Brussell, Calvary; James Brussell, Lebanon; Thomas Brussell, Bardonia, and Raymond Brussell, Raywick, and four sisters, Mrs. George Hickman, Dayton, Ohio; Mrs. William Myers, Cincinnati, and Mrs. Ernest Williams and Miss Louise Brussell, both of Lebanon.

The funeral will be at Truitt-Hickel Funeral Home at 9 a.m. Monday. Burial will be in St. Augustine Cemetery. The body is at the funeral home.

Virginia, in 1735, in Henrico County, but that is questioned. He married Judith Watkins, who was born at Monicantown, in 1742, the daughter of Stephen Watkins, who owned land in Chesterfield County. Another, Elizabeth, married Col. John Jones of Buck-ingham County. She became the ancestress of the people who made the names of Jones, Winston, and Pettus famous in Georgia, Alabama, and Mississippi. Asaph Walker had brothers, but their names have been lost.

Foreman

Joseph Foreman, of Pennsylvania or Maryland, was born in 1763, died June 3, 1838, married Rebecca Fry of Virginia, born 1767, and died 1848. They settled in the part of Jefferson County, Kentucky, which is now Nelson, on a farm, to which belongs "The Foreman burying ground." The children of Joseph and Rebecca were Thomas Foreman, married Patsy Ewell; William, married Ruth Chenoweth; Joseph, Jr., married Elizabeth Glasscock; Rebecca, married Thomas Shadburn; Kitty, married Dr. David Cox; Christine, married Robert McGhee; Elizabeth, married Abraham Birkhead; and Nancy, married Martin Yewell.

Palmer

Two cousins, both named William, came into Kentucky from Virginia in 1816. One settled in Scott County (the father of Gen. John M. Palmer); the other went into Nelson County. They came from Loudon County, Virginia, near the Fairfax County line.

Cotton

Ralph Cotton, son of John Cotton, born January 10, 1742, married Elizabeth, daughter of William Kitchen, Loudon County, Virginia, issue: Henry, born September 4, 1763; Susannah, born February 14, 1765; Peggy, born August 4, 1767; Jemima, born August 8, 1769; Mary Jane, born January 27, 1772; John, born February 12, 1774; William, born March 13, 1776; Sarah, born May 10, 1778;

Mary Etta Coldiron Day, 485 McCausey Ridge, Frenchburg, KY 40322; 606/768-3271, shares this photo taken at the Goosetown School on Indian Creek in Menifee County, Kentucky. Front row, l-r: Rosetta Vititoe, Violet Morrison, Jerry Ingram, Janice Morrison, Betty Ingram, Jerry Pierce, Richard Lawson, Joann Brown, and Buddy Morrison. Back row, l-r: Millie Brown, Paul Morrison, Jimmy Lawson, Bobby Morrison, Jerry Nott, Louisa Morrison, Connie Vititoe, Ralph Nott, and Alice Morrison. Date of photo not given.

Nathaniel, born April 1, 1788; Ralph, born January 17, 1786; and Robert, born September 4, 1788. George Calhoun, first lieutenant, ensign, and quartermaster of the Revolutionary Army, born in Pennsylvania, 1750, died in Daviess County, Kentucky, 1835, married Susannah Cotton; issue: 1. Elizabeth, born June 1800, married Samuel Pyles in 1817 (died in 1832); issue: Madison and Susannah. Madison Pyles, M. D., married Corelia La F. Talbot April 1847. Susannah married Daniel M. Dougail of Port Gibson, Mississippi. 2. Sarah, married John Pyles; issue: George, John, William, Conrad, Willie, Samuel, Sarah, and Eliza. Eliza married Dr. Sam Duke of Paducah, Kentucky.

Steele

Brice Steele lived five miles from Lexington, Fayette County, Kentucky, on the Versailles Pike. His children were Elder O. C. Steele, the pioneer Christian preacher of Missouri; William; Thomas; James; Mrs. Mary Richardson; Mrs. Eliza Porter; Mrs. Jane Reynolds; and Mrs. Kate Bashford. Brice Steele was born in Londonberry County, Ireland, in 1772 and came to America in 1794.

Johnson-Grubbs

Leroy Johnson, M. D. and Elizabeth G. Grubbs were married in Virginia and emigrated to Franklin, Tennessee, thence to Lexington, Kentucky, where he died in 1843, aged 77 years. She died in Louisville, Kentucky, and is buried at Cave Hill. There were eight children. One son, Nelson Cole Johnson, married Fannie Pollard Smith. Their son, William B. Johnson, now lives in Missouri.

Head

Rev. Jesse Head was born in either Virginia or Pennsylvania in 1788 and moved to Washington County, Kentucky, in the latter part of the century and later moved to Mercer County, dying in Harrodsburg, Kentucky, in 1812.