

Hood

Whitehouse-Hood

The ~~1934~~ wedding of Miss Edith M. Whitehouse of this county and Prof. Donald B. Hood of Mercer County, was quietly solemnized at 2:30 o'clock Monday afternoon, December 31, at Danville, the Rev. C. C. Warren, pastor of the Lexington Avenue Baptist Church, performing the ceremony. The only witnesses were Mrs. John Merrick and Mrs. C. C. Warren.

The bride is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Whitehouse. She attended Lebanon High School and later graduated from Berea Normal School, Berea. She also attended Eastern State Teachers College, Richmond, and State Teachers College, Morehead. For the past five years she has been a successful teacher in the county schools.

Prof. Hood is a son of Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Hood of Harrodsburg and is a highly regarded young man. He graduated from Harrodsburg High School and later attended Eastern State Teachers College and Morehead State Teachers College. At present he is taking a special course at the University of Kentucky, Lexington. He has been teaching in Mercer County for the past three years.

At the close of Mrs. Hood's school, the couple will go to housekeeping in Harrodsburg.