Hughes

Hughes-Blair.

The wedding of Miss Mary Emma Hughes of Raywick and Louis Bertrand Blair of Loretto was solemnized at St. Francis Xavier's church at Raywick Thursday morning at 5 o'clock, the Rev. Vincent Sciolla officiating. The ceremony which was followed by a Nuptial Mass was witnessed by quite a number of relatives and friends.

Miss Mary Lockie Blair, sister of the groom, was the bridesmaid, and Raffo Blanford was the groom's best man.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride after which Mr. and Mrs. Blair left on a short bridal trip.

The bride is an attractive young woman and possesses many qualities of mind and heart that have endeared her to a host of warm friends. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hughes. The groom is a splendid young man and is a prosperous farmer. He is a son of former Sheriff F. Nan Blair. Both the bride and groom are well known and popular in the communities where they live.

Nov 4, 1934 Hughes-Clayton.

A wedding which came as a surprise to friends of the couple was that of Miss Estelle Hughes of Raywick and Leonard Clayton of Holy Cross which took place at the Cathedral of the Assumption in Louisville Monday evening. Rev. J. P. Hayden, pastor of the Holy Cross Church, this county, performed the ceremony.

Miss Kathleen Hughes, sister of the bride, and Doyle Hayden of Holy Cross were the attendants.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton returned to Holy Cross yesterday and were entertained at a six-o'clock dinner last evening at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clayton.

Mrs. Clayton is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hughes. Both the bride and groom are 21 years of age, and are quite popular in the communities where they live. His occupation is that of a farmer.
