Jarboe-Thomas.

The wedding of Miss Hattie Mae Jarboe and James Robert Thomas was solemnized yesterday morning at 5 o'clock at Holy Mary's church at Calvary. The ceremony was performed by Rev. B. J. Wight and took place in the presence of quite a number of relatives and friends. The attendants were Miss Edith Clements and Mark Wathen. Jan 29 1925

After the ceremony a breakfast was served at the home of the groom's brother, Theo Thomas, after which the couple left by motor for a short trip to Louisville. Upon their return they will make their home on the groom's farm near Calvary.

The bride is an attractive young woman and has a host of warm friends. She is a daughter of the late Arnold Jarboe. For some time past she has been an operator at the local telephone company.

The groom is a son of W. A. Thomas. He is a highly regarded young farmer.

Moraja-Jarboe.

The wedding of Miss Louise Moraja and Joseph Rezin Jarboe took place at 6:30 o'clock Tuesday morning, August 28, in the Cathedral of the Assumption, Louisville. Rev. Byrne Jarboe, brother of the groom, performed the ceremony.

Miss Elsie McClure was bridesmaid and Leo Mackin was best man.

The bride wore a dress of orchid crepe de chine with satin slippers and hat to match. She carried a shower bouquet of Bride's roses and lilies of the valley.

Kelly-Jarboe

Dec 30, 1935

The wedding of Miss Jennie Kelly and Joseph B. Jarboe, Jr., was quietly solemnized Monday morning at 9:00 o'clock at St. Augustine's Parochial residence with the Rev. Joseph A. Hogarty performing the ceremony in the presence of only the immediate families. The attendants were Frank Jarboe of Louisville, brother of the groom, and Bernard Ryan.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Jarboe left on the morning train for the South. Upon their return they will occupy an apartment at "I'm At Home Inn" on East Main Street.

The bride is the daughter of County Clerk John J. Kelly and Mrs. Kelly and at present is a member of the faculty at the Lebanon High School. She is a graduate of the Lebanon High School and of the Eastern State Teachers College at Richmond.

The groom was graduated from St. Augustine's High School in 1929 and shortly afterward accepted a position in the office of the Marion County Stock Yards. Two years later he resigned to take a position with the S. H. Grinstead Co., which he held until entering the retail liquor business under the firm name of Joe B. Jarboe & Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Jarboe have a wide circle of friends who wish for them much happiness.

Dear Mr. Dunavan:

The library does not have microfilm for the period of time you requested. The early years have many missing dates. There were no dates available for July of 1898 and the only date available for August 1898 was the 26th.

I was impressed with your letter. The picture was excellent and the information very complete. I edit the Marion County Historical Society quarterly and would like to use the information and picture in the winter issue, if you don't mind.

Sincerely,

Mary

Dear Madam:

I have a copy of the Jarboe genealogy from your library that my sister and nephew found there in 1987. This genealogy was a great help in tracing my maternal Jarboe lineage.

Mary Jo Maquire - 9959 Piedmont - Detroit, Michigan - 48228 did the research on this genealogy and the address above was on this research. I sent to her a Thank You card and note and it was returned to me today. The post office stamped on the envelope - No forwarding address on file.

I would appreciate it if you would send on the enclosed stamp post card her correct address if you have it or know any of the Jarboe's in your area who might have her address.

Many thanks to you and your associates.

Sincerely,

Dear Phyllis,

I'm sorry I took so long to answer your query. I did not have any luck in locating any info on Hennesee James other than what you already seem to have (such as: married 3rd time at age 56 ; was born in Virginia ). I checked the deed index 1963-1911. I found no James listed until 1870-1872 entries and that was Thomas James buying land from A. Mattingly. I looked for any entry of a Hennessee or any H. James purchasing land and found none.

I did correspond with Mr. Ben Jones some years ago. I have several of his books but do not have a copy of his last book "Scottsridge School - 1890's". The library does not own that book either. I must check around and see if it is available anymore.

Sincerely,

Mary

WALTER JARBOE (JB-3)

Walter Jarboe was only seventeen when his father died.

He did not marry until October 7, 1805. With his bride, Treacy, daughter of Basil Smith, he moved to Hardin's Creek, about two miles west of Lebanon. Here, Treacy and Walter raised a family of ten children.

Walter lived out his life on this homestead, as did several of his children and grandchildren. He must have been well liked and held in high regard by his family and contemporaries as his name frequently appears as appraiser, witness, or executor in court documents, he was appointed to hold elections, and to assist in determining roadways.

Walter died intestate in March 1832. His land, 185 acres, was valued at $6.00 per acre, a high rate for those days.

Treacy died July 18, 1851, and is buried in St. Charles Cemetery. Her tombstone gives her birthdate as August 3, 1781.

Donna,

We are responding to your e-mail of 6-25-1999, subject, "The Marion County Historical Society." We hope to offer the Society some data on family lineage of the Bradshaw, Heavrin, Jarboe, & Wathen families that lived in Marion County during the 1800s. We have enclosed a sample of family links and notes that you may choose to use. I am sure that the data is of no new news, but maybe it's arranged in such a matter that could be a help others. Our links to Marion county has resulted in a data base that connects over 35,000 family members; much to large to submit in hard copy. We are excited that we may have an opportunity to participate in your project and share the many hours spent we've spent behind these key boards (worn out a few).

My mother's grandparents, a Jarboe and a Wathens, can trace their roots to the first colonial settlers of St. Mary's Co., Md. As a compiler of genealogies, I find it intriguing how those, and our related families help establish catholic communities in early Maryland, Kentucky, and end up helping developing other catholic communities across the country. Especially, the one that I hail from in S. E. Kansas, Osage Mission, aka today St. Paul, Ks. And how so many stay'd catholic is surely remarkable, if not divine.

By collecting and computerizing genealogies from many Catholic researchers, one becomes aware how closely we are truly related to the to Marion/Washington County families as well as those of early Maryland. We think that the decision of the Marion County Historical Society made in publishing a family history is a great idea and much over due. At this time we can offer only one picture of a onetime Calvary resident, Joseph Aaron Jarboe, my grandfather. We are currently asking family members for additional KY photos and will forward when and if any are found. The back page of this letter is the writers pedigree. We thought it appropriate to validated our connections to Marion County.

We wish you well in your project.

She was born October 03, 1866 in Calvary, KY<sup>7,8</sup>, and died in Neosho County, St. Paul, Ks<sup>9,10</sup>.

Notes for JOHN ROBERT JARBOE, JR.:

The place of birth is probably Calvary, Kentucky, rather than Cavalry. Calvary is in Marion County, KY, and is where my grandfather, George Wilson BRADSHAW, was born in 1877. Richard BRADSHAW (my gr-grandfather) and family is shown in the New Market Precinct in the 1870 Census. New Market and Calvary are close together in southern Marion County. From what I can tell, the David A. WATHEN family (Mollie's family) lived just down the road from Richard, Mary, and her parents, the James W. JARBOEs.

Is he the John R. JARBOE that died in 1899 and is buried at Holy Name of Mary Cemetery in Calvary?

JOHN BAPTIST JARBOE (46) (JB-1)

John Baptist Jarboe was born in Maryland, probably in the 1740's. He was the son of HENRY JARBOE (18) and is often confused with the John Baptist Jarboe, son of John Jarboe, who died in Maryland in 1794.

John B married in Maryland and most, if not all his children were born there. The surname of his wife, Ann, is not known but family members suspect she may have been an Askins.

John B inherited land in Kentucky from his brother, Stephen, who had located 1035 acres in what was then all Nelson County. In company with another brother, Henry, John Baptist moved his family to Kentucky about 1789. The family settled on 100 acres of Cartwright's Creek. This land is described in the tax lists as being entered in the name of Matthew Walton, so it probably was somewhere near St. Rose Church.

Henry and John B sold Stephen's Cartwright Creek land shortly after their arrival in Kentucky. However, the family held on to the Cox Creek land in Nelson County until the 1820's.

John Baptist Jarboe died in May or June, 1794, but his family remained on the homestead until 1805-6 when they moved to Hardin's Creek.

In tracing this family, I have designated them the JB line. JOHN BAPTIST JARBOE, then, is JB-1.

STEPHEN JARBOE (JB-2)

Stephen is the wanderer of this family. His age is known from tax lists which show when he came of age. In 1799, he married Margaret Harbison, daughter of John Harbison, in Washington County. Mr. Harbison was one of the men appointed by the court to transfer John Baptist Jarboe's (JB-1) land for his young children.

Original consent notes for marriage licenses are a marvelous source of original signatures. The witness, Matthew S Jarboe, is probably Stephen's nephew, son of his brother, Walter. No Matthew ever appears in tax lists, although the tax lists for this particular year are missing.

In 1800, Stephen received 127 acres of the Cox Creek land from his mother, and family members have the original paper on which he agreed to accept this land as his full portion of his inheritance. However, tax lists indicate he is frequently out of the county, and at least one daughter, Levina, was born in Missouri.

Stephen's first wife may have died in Missouri, since his second marriage occurs shortly after the birth of Levina.

Baptismal records for two additional daughters were found this past summer.

No probate has been found for Stephen, and it is quite likely he died out of the state. Only five of his children are known at this time, and their birthdates range from 1800-1841! There must be many more who's names are not known.

WALTER JARBOE (JB-3)

Walter Jarboe was only seventeen when his father died. He did not marry until October 7, 1805. With his bride, Treacy, daughter of Basil Smith, he moved to Hardin's Creek, about two miles west of Lebanon. Here, Treacy and Walter raised a family of ten children.

Walter lived out his life on this homestead, as did several of his children and grandchildren. He must have been well liked and held in high regard by his family and contemporaries as his name frequently appears as appraiser, witness, or executor in court documents, he was appointed to hold elections, and to assist in determining roadways.

Walter died intestate in March 1832. His land, 185 acres, was valued at $6.00 per acre, a high rate for those days.

Treacy died ~~July~~ 18, 1851, and is buried in St. Charles Cemetery. Her tombstone gives her birthdate as August 3, 1781.

ROBERT JARBOE (JB-4)

Robert Jarboe lived on the Trace Fork of Pitman Creek. He also had land on Robinson's Creek and a salt works on Casey Creek. He moved to Taylor County shortly before his marriage on January 22, 1801 to Sally Richeson, daughter of Thomas Richeson. At that time, Taylor County was still a part of Green County.

He died shortly before June 13, 1857 when his will was offered for probate. His sons-in-law inherited his real estate. His wife and two sons had pre-deceased him.

In a case filed March 1867 in Circuit Court, Ed Miller testified on behalf of John W Jarboe. Included in the testimony is a brief history of the family.

Ed Miller states that John W Jarboe married his sister, and that he married Jarboe's sister. About 1856, Jarboe purchased the Telegraph Mill on the Salt River in Bullitt County, about seventeen miles from Louisville. He had been running it for his brother-in-law George S Miller some time prior to that.

"The Telegraph Mill was an excellent mill, situated in good wheat country. Jarboe was a very hard working, industrious man and a good miller, but the business failed. A year or two later, they (the Jarboes) moved to Taylor County and carried on milling there until about 1859, when they moved to Lebanon. Jarboe was hard pressed and insolvent and had but little property when he came to Lebanon.

"My brother George S Miller and Jarboe were always intimate and friendly. George left for the South about 1861 and died about 1863. Jarboe's wife is so sick, and having removed back to Taylor County, that he couldn't be in court much."

The court appeared satisfied that John W Jarboe did not have any money belonging to the estate of George S Miller, dec.

In the 1880 census, John W's brother, Henry, and Henry's children are living with John and Rebecca. The children are Thomas Jarboe b 1874, Mary Jarboe b 1875, and William Jarboe b 1878. Rebecca, obviously, recovered from her illness.

In later years, John W lived with his daughter Mary E McWhorter.

WALTER JARBOE (JB-3)

Walter Jarboe was only seventeen when his father died.

He did not marry until October 7, 1805. With his bride, Treacy, daughter of Basil Smith, he moved to Hardin's Creek, about two miles west of Lebanon. Here, Treacy and Walter raised a family of ten children.

Walter lived out his life on this homestead, as did several of his children and grandchildren. He must have been well liked and held in high regard by his family and contemporaries as his name frequently appears as appraiser, witness, or executor in court documents, he was appointed to hold elections, and to assist in determining roadways.

Walter died intestate in March 1832. His land, 185 acres, was valued at $6.00 per acre, a high rate for those days.

Treacy died July 18, 1851, and is buried in St. Charles Cemetery. Her tombstone gives her birthdate as August 3, 1781.

William Jarboe Grove, Lime Kiln, MD - 1922

"A copy of the original letter which is in the possession of Mrs. Charles Rohrback, written more than one hundred years ago showing the hardships and suffering the early pioneers with their families emigrating, settling, and opening up a new Country, the sacrifices they made will never be appreciated by those who have followed them. Joseph Jarboe was Mrs. Rohrback's and my [Wm. Grove's] great grand father, who with his family and slaves were leaving Maryland for his Kentucky home he have purchased several years before. His son William, who was so seriously injured by the wagon upsetting in the river, when a Mr. Maginis through pity took him to his home and my great Grandfather tells of pathetically when he heard the voice of Billy, his child, the relief and happiness brought to him through Mr. Maginis when he returned to him, his boy only shows what a blessing it is to make some sacrifices for the happiness of others. His son, Billy, stayed in Kentucky about two years when he returned to Maryland, this was my grandfather, William Jarboe who live here [Frederick County, Md, Carrollton Manor] until his early death at Alexandria Virginia, where he had gone on business. My Grandfather was the only one of the Jarboe family to return from Kentucky after leaving their Maryland home. Some went to other States, but many of their descendants are still living in Nelson County [KY], and other parts of Kentucky. The [original] letter is written on both sides of unruled paper in small but plan hand. The letters are well formed and follow straight across the paper, the ink holds its color well and owing to its value from a family standpoint the is kept in a glass frame by Mrs. Rohrback. The letter follows without corrections."

Dear Brother:

I gladly embrace this opportunity of writing you these few lines, hoping they will find you and family in good health. I shall wish to acquaint you of my Journey to Kentucky. We arrived at Brownsville, or Red Stone Old Fort, the fifteenth day after the commencement of our Journey. It was there agreed by Mr. Honell and myself to take water, which after five days we agreed with two gentlemen who was bound down the Ohio to Lime Stone. We unloaded our wagons sent them on by land and the families goes on board the Boat, except Mr. John Philpot, my sons John and William, Mr. Hone's son who went with the wagon, but I think I must not forget to inform you that my horses ran down Brownsville hill ran unto the stone bank, my Wife and several of the children in the wagon. John who was driving, fell off the saddle horse by the side of an old tree, the wagon ran over him, but the tree prevented the wagon from mashing him to pieces. He was much hurt for awhile. This was the first accident that happened. We start in our boat, Rubbing on every Ripple and the second day she got quite fast on a Rock. My poor Wife and Ann Philpot, negro Margaret and six children remaining in her in a freezing condition. All the larger ones, we set on shore to travel on foot to Wheeling and to get to Lime Stone as the could. You must understand this is in the Mongahala about thirty six miles above Pittsburgh. I then hired a small boat to take my company to Fort Pitt, you must now understand we are divided in three companies. We arrived at Pittsburgh the second morning after leaving the boat, and then continued ten days before I could get a passage, and when I got a passage it was in a Reel bottom boat, deeply laden with merchandise. No fire except some coals in a Kittle, I expected we should all freeze together, to inform you of every disagreeable circumstance going down this river would be too tedious. We arrived at Lime Stone in two weeks after leaving Pittsburgh on Monday morning about two hours before the appearance of day. I goes up into the town inquiring of every person I saw respecting my poor scattered family. I goes into a Mr. Lee's Tavern speaking as I went in at the door, my poor distressed children cried aloud, "That's my father." I began to inquire of them how they got that place, the informed me they got into an open Boat some part of the way down the River in a freezing situation as my party has been. Immediately beheld my son William in bed his collar bone and shoulder bone broke, his leg dreadfully wounded by Mr. Philpots wagon upsetting with twelve barrel of flour going down the River bank the wagon went over three times before it stopped. A doctor and surgeon of that town was attending on him. Mr. Lee informed me that my family had been at his house thirteen days and that he could not with propriety render me a bill of the expense to do himself justice in my unfortunate situation. Eight barrels of the flour to pay for, but since the damage flour sold for twenty dollars the loss of the four is about twenty dollars, as whole was estimated at forty dollars. But just before I arrived at this place my son Harry with six of my negroes set off down to Bardstown one hundred and four miles below Lime Stone. The remainder of my family left Lime Stone Tuesday evening with our wagons, excepting my poor child which I was obliged to leave to the care of Mr. Lee, and the doctor. We arrived at Samuel Gatton's the twenty-third day of December. In a few days after our arrival, I received a letter from Mr. Lee informing me that my poor child William was attacked with violent pleurisy, and extremely dangerous. I thought I would go up to Lime Stone at any risk in hopes I might see him alive. You may guess what my feelings must be respecting my poor child, no Priest to come near him, but my journey was prevented. My Wife was taken also with a violent pleurisy, both Priest and Doctor called to her both agreed there was little or no hope of her Recovery. Thanks be to God she is now likely to recover. Now I am going to inform you of our uncommon circumstance and the greatest favor I may say I ever had done me. One night as I was almost distracted with grief as I was almost all times, I heard it spoke Billy was come. I started up and saw him personally before my eyes with young Cornelius Maginis who had had take his wagon and carried Billy to his fathers house and there was nursed till this young man brought him down to me, one hundred and fifty miles, as severe weather as I ever felt in Maryland. I do and ever shall respect the name of Maginis, he would not have one cent from me. You may guess the expense of my unfortunate journey to Kentucky but the uncommon favor of Mr. Maginis saved me many dollars. Dear Brother, I hope you have sold Jack or taken him yourself, I received four hundred and seventy five dollars from you, the wages of hire for Jack and Lewis was one hundred and six dollars and two thirds for the last year, except you sold Jack before the year expired. I hope you are safe from the two gentlemen respecting the hire, suppose you are. Then I have received of your money, three hundred and sixty eight and two thirds. What little may be coming to me I hope you will send by Mr. Medcalf, who brings this letter, sorry I m, you should know my distress for money. I was obliged to borrow sixty dollars before I go to Pittsburgh, am now owing the doctor that attended Billy. My case is deplorable on account of my misfortunes. I hope you'll send every cent that is coming to me for God's sake send me some if I have to come to Maryland to repay you. I cannot expect one cent from Montgomery County, till the expiration of nine months, if you should do me the favor of sending more money, then due me ask my son Joseph who waits to settle my business in Montgomery County and he will repay you. I shall not say anything Respecting Kentucky in this letter. I expect the land you requested me to inquire of is not to be found in any Office in that State. And I surely believe there is no such land, I even thought I knew the situation of Kentucky and I am satisfied my idea was tolerably correct. If I was to inform you in this letter what I thought of Kentucky you might say I had not been the County long enough to be a Judge therefore, I will send you my opinion of that state in my next letter, but be assured I have paid dear for my arrival to Kentucky. Be pleased to hand this letter to Mr. James Stevens after you have read it. Dear Brother, you will treat the gentleman who hands you this letter the same as you would me, he being a Respectable Character and useful member of Nelson County.

Am with sincere affection your loving Brother till death,
Joseph Jarboe

Everyone of my family send their love to your family and Mr. Stevens.

N.B. Dear Brother: You will be friend to the utmost of your power to this worth gentleman, Mr. Medcalf, Respecting any business he may have to do in your neighborhood. Your compliance with my request will greatly oblige.

Your B. J. J.

Dear Sydney,

Aug. 9, 1970

2228 S.E. 70
Portland, Ore. 97215

After struggling along for what seemed an eternity, I finally retired from my job as stenographer with the City of Portland on June 26. It was just too difficult putting in eight hours typing with my hands in the shape they are. I won't be 60 until September, but I can make out all right; whether I get disability or not, I will get a State retirement pension, I have paid a lot into it, at 60.

After a couple trips down in the southwest, I decided that is where I would head when I retired. On my vacation in May I spent two weeks in Yarnell, Arizona, it is 78 miles north of Phoenix and 33 miles south of Prescott. It is sort of high desert country, not over 950 in the summer and quite mild in the winter. I liked it very much, and bought a lot, it is not in a trailer park but there are a few trailers around there. You have the feeling of seclusion, but there are others around close by! It seems very peaceful and the air is wonderful. Best of all, my arthritis feels much better down there. I just don't ache and hurt so much.

My house is for sale, and I am hoping I can get moved by the end of Oct. at the latest. I have a mobile home all picked out, it will be shipped from Hemet, California as it is much closer than Portland.

Marge, (my sister) may follow me when she retires, if not, we can enjoy visiting each other. I will probably be calling bro. Gil and Marge once a month, or whenever I get lonesome for them! People are very friendly down in Arizona, and it never worries me about making friends, I never have trouble that way!

Now that things are settled down a bit, I got out several folders on my genealogy. genealogy which has been so sadly neglected the past few years. In my "Future Reference" file, I read a letter from my Aunt Ida Philpott, Dau. <sup>of Wm. I.</sup> <sup>her sister</sup> <sup>Mary</sup> LPhilpott, in which she mentioned among other things, that Wm. I. Philpott's grandmother was a widow and had remarried a man by the name of "Mitchell". Then right next to this letter was one from Sydney Leake, a Philpott cousin who has been working very diligently on the Philpott line, in this letter she copied from a record from N.Y., stating that Henrietta widow of Samuel Philpott Had left certain things <sup>two</sup> to her two <sup>son</sup> <sup>son</sup> Philpott and Ann Henrietta Eleanor Philpott Mitchell.

in December next, the duck in the river will be better than it is now.

Sydney had it pinpointed very well when she stated that either John or Samuel Philpott was the father of our Charles H. Philpott! It seems like all the pieces in the jigsaw puzzle have been fitting together now; needless to say how elated I feel, so very much time, effort, and considerable money too, has gone into searching out the parentage of Charles H. Philpott.

I would like to share all the information I have, and express thanks and appreciation to all those who have contributed substantially to the pieces of the jigsaw puzzle:

Mrs. Lewis Leake, 8119 Cottage, Dunn Loring, Va.
(da. gt. grandau. of James, eldest son of Chas. H.)

Mrs. G. N. (Carol) Waite, 2075 N. Shafer, Orange, Calif.
(Gt. grandau. of Charles H. Philpott, Jr., son of Chas. H.)

Mrs. Howard (Nellie Miller, 75-2nd St. N.E., Carrollton, Ohio 44615
(gt. grandau. of Charles H.)

Mrs. Jack (Diane) Stakebake
(dau. of Merle Philpott and gt. granddau. of Wm. I. Philpott, son of Chas. H.)
Mrs. Bart Philpott, 7526 S.E. Holgate, Portland, Oregon (4th gt. grandson of the Charles Philpott born about 1690, who was gt. grandfather to our Charles H.)

Mr. Charles Hughes Philpott, 2260 Cranford Road, Durham, N. Carolina
And many others who are all working together on the Philpott lines.

How are you and all your family?
Summer vacation will soon be over!

In trying to enclose all sources of information I used. If you have any questions, please know!
I'm going to be better on my genealogy and find and prove under all that strand

Dear Dorothy -

A lady in Bala town Ky, who is checking the deeds there sent this:

Deed book 10, p 22.

12/6 1814

Grantor: Henrietta Philpott widow of Samuel Philpott

Grantee: Charles H. Wagoner
Philpott and Ann Henrietta Eliza Philpott - conveys to me and affection I have for my two children.

Personal property: 12 silver teapots
12 .. tablespoon

I lay these says upon to my daughter above mentioned.

This is the same day on which she married Joseph Wagoner

Do you have any record of what the H. stands for
in Charles H. Philpott?

This would seem to be our Charles Philpott - Well have to find the children

This is probably the grand father of Charles Philpot -

according to the census records Barton the younger had no sons who fit in age bracket for Charles H.

This leaves either Samuel or John as possibly the father of Charles H. The genealogist who helped me in Frederick Co. suggested we follow
John, and as you can see there is the
John in Fairfax Co. Va, in 1810, Clay Co. 1820
Kentucky, and Cumberland Co. 1830 - who is of the age to be Charles father.

In 1861, as Second Lieutenant, he was promoted to a First Lieutenant, and also served as Adjutant until January, 1863. Later he was commissioned Captain, and also a Colonel, but on account of the regiment being under the minimum, was not mustered in.

In November, 1865, the war being ended, Mr. Philpott retired from the service with an honorable discharge, and resumed his law practice at Carrollton, Ohio, where he remained until the spring of 1867. In April of that year he came to the new State of Nebraska, taking up his residence in Lincoln, and soon after opened a law office in partnership with Ezra Trellis, which continued three years. He next associated himself with S. J. Tuttle, and subsequently with T. J. Cantlon; later with R. E. Knight. The latter was a very able lawyer. The next partner of our subject was J. C. Johnston, a member of the State Legislature.

Mr. Philpott, in 1872, was elected to the first State Constitutional Convention, where his judgment in relation to the important matters therewith connected, served to place him still higher in the estimation of the people of Southern Nebraska. In 1880 he was considered a fit candidate for the County Judgeship, was accordingly elected, serving his term acceptably, and since its expiration has devoted himself to his private interests and his general practice.

The marriage of James E. Philpott and Miss Anna B. Field, sister of the present District Judge, Allen W. Field, was celebrated at the home of the bride in the city of Lincoln, Sept. 4, 1872. This union resulted in the birth of two children—Imogene M. and Charles W. Mr. Philpott is a Republican, politically, but supported Greeley in 1872. Socially, he is a Master Mason, and a member in good standing of the G. A. R.

The career of our subject as an attorney received an early interruption by the outbreak of the Civil War, and he enlisted first in the three-months service, but upon getting as far as Camp Chase found there were more volunteers than were required, and he, with others, was excused and sent home. He had determined, however, to assist in the maintenance of the Union, and not long afterward re-enlisted, in Company A, 80th Ohio Infantry, and was assigned to the 17th Corps, Army of the Tennessee. He was soon called to take part in the siege of Corinth and the battle of Iuka, being at the latter wounded in the left arm by a gunshot, which necessitated his confinement in the hospital two months. He rejoined his regiment in time to participate in the battle of Port Gibson, and was subsequently at Raymond, also in the first battle of Jackson, the siege of Vicksburg, and in a number of minor engagements. His army experience covered a period of three years, during which he was commissioned on
