GEORGE KAYS Widely 1817 LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT
Mary Huffman came from Virginia no birth date died 1830

✓ In the name of God, Amen, the Thirty First of July in the Year of our Lord, 1817. I, George Kays of Kentucky in the County of Garrard, being very sick and weak in body, but of perfect mind and memory, thanks be to God for the same and calling to mind the mortality of the body and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die, do make and ordain this my last will and testament, that is to say, principally, and first of all, I give and recommit my soul to God, that gave all, and for my body, I recommit to the earth to be buried in a Christian like and a sacred manner at the discretion of my Executor, doubting not that at the general resurrection, I shall receive the same again by the mighty Power of God, and as touching such worldly estate where it has pleased God to help me in this life, I give devise and dispose of in the following manner, that is to say in the first place, I give and bequeath unto Polly, my dear beloved wife, all my property during her life widowhood. Also my father and mother is to have the privilege of continuing on my land and plantation during their lives. I also appoint Polly Kay and Reuben Taviant, my sole Executors, at the expiration of the said. I wish my property to be equally divided between my 10 children, which is to say, John, Jane, Betsy, (William) Solomon, Jesse, James, Polly, Henry, and Patsy. I do hereby utterly disallow, revoke and disown all and every other former Testamentary Wills and legacies. Request Executors by me in any way before this time named, will and ratify and confirm this and no other to be my last will and testament.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal the day and date before written.

Signed George Kays

DATE 10th. August 1991

Dear Mr. Keeling,

Please forgive the delay in answering your letter, forwarded to me from Ken Brown, former Secretary of NDFHS.

I have searched our Directory of Members' Interests, the Indexes of our Journals and several Indexes to the Census Returns of Northumberland, but regret that I can find no reference to the surnames MATHERLY / MOTHERLY etc. Nor do the telephone directories of Northumberland, Durham and Tyne & Wear list any of the above surnames. The name does not appear in the Index to Hodgson's Pedigrees of Northumberland, but there are several Northumberland Indexes, lists of monumental inscriptions etc. which I have not yet searched, but will do so when next I visit the Newcastle upon Tyne Local Studies Dept.

If and when I find the birth of Israel Matherly c.1755 or any useful information about the family I will inform you at once.

When next I visit the Northumberland Record Office at Melton Park I could check the baptisms and marriages in your list if you think it would be worthwhile.

I regret that I have been unable to help you more in your researches but will carry on the search as time permits.

Meanwhile, I would like to remind you that when writing to the Secretary or to any official of the Society it is earnestly requested that three International Reply Coupons be enclosed from overseas enquirers. (U.S. postage stamps are not valid in the U.K.)

Yours sincerely,

John Ashburner.

Dear Mayme,

Well, the waiting has begun. I almost feel like an expectant father. It's hard to believe that all of our hard work will soon be rewarded.

Yesterday, the photographer was finally able to take some of the shots in the Deep Creek area. (We did tell you that we are including around 25 photographs in the book, didn't we?) The weather had not been very cooperative for the past few weeks. We still haven't been able to get what Walter needs to do the cover artwork. He wants a shot of the Matherly ridge from the creek below. That will involve climbing over the fence behind the church and then hiking down to the creek. I hope to do that next Saturday. That will also be the day when the photographer will have all of our portrait copies ready and we will choose what we will use from what she took yesterday.

Some of the other lines (i.e. Abisha, Abner Hanan, and Lemuel) have also been contacted about photographs. If they want to include them, they are to send us ready-to-use copies. We already have most of what we need for Banister Coleman and Henry Archelaus.

Did I tell you that we found where the name Abisha originated? I thought that it was the name of one of King David's sons, but I was apparently mistaken. The chief of the three Hebrew warriors who broke through the Philistine lines to get David a drink of water from the well near the gate of Bethlehem was named Abishai. Of course, I mentioned that in the book. Also, Archelaus was the name of one of Herod the Great's sons. He succeeded his father as the puppet Judean king, but was later banished to Vienna for displeasing Caesar. I found that out by paying attention to the preacher's sermon last Sunday morning. I still don't know where Banister Coleman got his name, but I'll bet that it has something to do with the Banister River in Pittsylvania Co., Va., where he was born.

Have any of your contacts found out anything else about George's line yet? I haven't gotten a response from anyone. As I've told you before, I'm not real concerned about it, because they've had plenty of opportunities to get involved. Considering the situation, maybe it's best to just leave well enough alone.

There has been a John Matherly trying to contact us from Switzerland or so says my brother. He's called twice, but my irresponsible brother has been the only person home. He never thinks to take down any useful information (eg. address or phone number) or to ask for it if it is not volunteered. It really irritates my mother. Anyway, this person is supposedly either interested in getting a copy of the book or he has some information for us to use. I'm hoping that he'll write.

We've also had people contacting us about the 1990 Matherly Family

Dear Mayme,

I have the marriage bond of Davis Thomas and Mary Duggins Kays. I don't know whether you have it or not. I have had it several years, but forgot about it until I was going through some envelopes for information. I received this from a lady in Benton Harbor, Michigan. You can see how this family research just goes everywhere. Her husband was a John CAYS. As you can see the spelling was changed years ago. His wife is Darlene, and they have traced their family back to what appears to be a brother to the George and Mary Huffman Kays. As you know, George is the grandfather of Davis Thomas Kays. This brother of George appears to be Charles Kays and they have sent information on him. There is another brother and his name is John. I have seen tax lists on him, but there is no information on his family except a son named Robert. And speaking of spelling, notice how the name of Davis Thomas Kays was spelled, Kaze.

I have begun to complete some of my families on William Kays and ran into something that I thought you might be able to help me with. George Kays, brother of Davis Thomas had a very big family. One of his daughters was Elizabeth Kays that married Richard Dennis. I believe you remember her because I have a written item on the page with Elizabeth where you told me that you all called her Aunt Sis. I hope you remember telling me this. You also told me that Margie Smothers of Frankfort told you that she believed that Elizabeth was married more than once. I am planning on buying that Wash. Co. Cemeteries, Vol. III, that Faye Sea Sanders has for sale. You sent that to me once, but I only copied Kays names. I think this Elizabeth Kays Dennis is buried in Willisburg. This may help me out on the second marriage. One thing I wanted to ask you about was whether you remembered any of her children.

Her husband, Richard Dennis, was first married to a Mary Ann Curtsinger. They had five children before he married Elizabeth Kays.

Lucy	Marr. Davis Kays (brother to the above Elizabeth)
Mary Belle ✓	Marr. James H. Kays (I have this information)
Nannie J. ✓	Marr. George W. Gordan ✓

I got an index list of marriages of Wash. Co. from the clerk, Bubba Robertson. I am going to send for a few of them when I get the chance. What does he charge you for a copy? Maybe sometime, I could get you to get the copies and send them to me and save a little money. Naturally I would pay for the copies and your postage.

I am almost finished with the William Kays (son of George and Mary) history. You can only go so far and then it gets very hard to come up with all that old information.

I guess I've run out of conversation so I'll close until next time.

209 E. Virginia Ave.
Springfield, KY 40069

Dear Mayme,

I also want to say that I enjoyed the Sunday afternoon I spent with you and Mary. You sure have helped me out a lot and I certainly appreciate it.

I hope you are having your eyes attended to now that you know the problems.

I believe Mary needs to see another doctor if he is waiting to get the heart monitor repaired. That is hard to believe that a doctor would ask her to wait. He should have sent her immediately to another doctor. It's the same old story, they want all the money they can get rather than send you to another doctor.

I want to thank you and Mary for the information on D.T.'s family. Here is the finished copy so you can put the corrected copy in the history I sent to you.

The clipping you sent on the wedding anniversary of a George Kays was the brother of Eathel Kays Richard. The clipping was dated Oct. 17, 1990, but the date I have that Eathel sent to me was Oct. 19th. George was married to Juanita Wilham. They probably did not have to be living in Springfield in order to have the article printed.

I have found a few things of importance from the history, but not a great deal. Do you remember that I was asking you about a Edgar Kays that was buried in the Peter's Cemetery in Mackville? His wife was listed as Mary Emma on the tombstone. I found her in the history under the heading Burns-Elliott on page 241, the first column. They have her name as Mary Emily in the history, but I would be inclined to go along with what was on the tombstone. Edgar Kays was a grandson of Lytle Kays and they belong to the Soloman Kays line from which Charles Kays of Louisville comes. I know this is correct because I sent to Frankfort for his death certificate so that I would be sure.

I want you to turn to page 319 of the history and make a correction in that story that I had you send in. Go back to the two last sentences in column 3 of page 318. The sentence should read like this: Nephew William, who was the son of brother George, enlisted in the same company July 20, 1862 just two days before his father. (PERIOD) The next word George should start a

After Richard married Elizabeth Kays (Aunt Sis), they had only one daughter as far as I know. Her name was Lura D. Dennis. This came off the Wash. Co. Census report of 1900. This Lura might not be correct. Some of the names on census reports weren't correct. If you know anything about them or if you know some of the Dennis family that might be able to help me, please let me now.

You may not know anything about any of these people, but I thought I would ask. You know, this is getting to be a full time job.

This Darlene Cays I mentioned above is supposed to come down to her sister-in-laws in Junction City some time in May or June. She wants to go back to the Kays graveyard and house over in Battle where you took me several years ago. Her husband died last year and I guess she wants to go back to some of the places where they went.

Hope you are doing well, let me hear from you when you get the time.

Springfield, KY 40069

Dear Mayme,

Thanks for the information that you just sent me in your last letter. I had most of the information, but you did help me. I was glad to get the correct name of Ressie Arnold Kays. I have just made that change on my computer.

I will send your pictures back to you. You are right, I did get a copy of those two several years ago.

I'll just mention a couple of things that you had in your letter. I know it does get confusing when you have so many Elizabeth's. My sister is Sarah Elizabeth. Eathel's mother was Elsie Dennis instead of Elizabeth.

I do have that information about Jewell Settle's great grand-mother, Eliza, that was married to Isaac Newton Dennis. You gave me some of it that Jewell gave you, and some of it I got from Eathel.

It isn't critical, but I just wanted to get some information on the children of Davis Kays and Lucy Dennis. That was Richard's daughter when he was married to Mary Ann Curtsinger. I sure was glad to get that marriage date of Richard and Mary Ann.

I'm all straightened out about the Elizabeth that was called Aunt Sis. I really had it, but I had forgotten. I was just thinking it was the Elizabeth that was married to Richard Dennis.

I just got a form in the mail a few days ago to join the Wash. Co. Historical Society. I can't come to the meetings, but I'm sure I can pick up valuable information from the newsletters. I just sent my dues in, so you can tell those people just who I am if you want to.

When is Timothy going to start work on the old homestead? I hope he takes pictures before he starts. I wanted to get down there before he does start. Let me know before he tears any of it down or at least tell him I would like to have a picture of it just as it is now. Maybe I can come down one day soon. Is Timothy planning to live there?

I have the family of the George Kays and Sarah that you had on the last page of your letter.

new sentence instead of being set off with commas. It should go on to say in a new sentence: George was wounded during the retreat of the Union Forces to Chattanooga, TN, from the Battle of Chickamauga in Northern Georgia. Those two commas around George changed the whole meaning. What it makes it sound like is that William enlisted two days before his father was wounded in that battle. After both commas are taken out and the period put in front of George it reads like it should have. It really was meant to say that William enlisted just two days before his father enlisted. I hope I haven't gotten you confused.

I think it is a terrific book and everyone that worked on it should be proud of it.

Let me hear from you when you have the time.

Sincerely,
