Carolina, who settled in Wash-ton (later Grimes) county. They were related also to the KOENIG family of Fayette County, who were "in-law" cousins of the Kings. The following records relating to the marriages in this Washington Co.,
family, were found:

W. H. KING married Margaret
Ann Harvey in Washington County,
Texas, in September, 1838.
RACHEL M. KING married PRICE
ERNEST (?), March 18, 1839.

JOHN P. KING, whose parents have not been identified, was born at the beginning of the war between the States, in Washington County.
In 1870, he went or was taken to a farm four miles from Brenham, Texas, on December 5, 1861, when his parents moved to Fort Worth, Texas.
He went to school in Fort Worth &
was a student at old Add-Ran College at Thorny Springs. After that he was county clerk of Tarrant Co.
for ten years, when he retired and went into private business. Eventually he established the famous King Candy Company, of Fort Worth, out of which he accumulated an independent fortune. He was of course, eventually, a bank director and a civic leader in the Chamber of Commerce of that Great North Texas city. He died on AUG.
10, 1948.

JOSUEA HADLEY, a celebrated
Austin colony emigrant from North Carolina, whose home was in that part of Washington, which became finally, GRIMES COUNTY, was the son of Benjamin Hadley and his 1st wife ELIZABETH KING, daughter of WILLIAM KING and his wife AMELIA SLADE KING, progenitors of the family of KINGS who lived in Washington and Grimes Counties. -See
Dr. Blair's Hist. of Grimes County, pp 94-95.

DANIEL J. KIGER

DANIEL J. KIGER lived in the town of Washington on the Brazos and died at the age of 37. In another note we have erroneously named him "KAZER". He married Miss Hellen Harris in 1838. He was born in Winchester, Va. in September, 1815.
---Item from TEXAS STATE GAZETTE,
MAY 1, 1852. (p. 294, column 2).

There was a KEY FAMILY that lived in or near the town of BRENHAM &
the head of it appears to have been a certain JOHN P. KEY. Nothing pertaining to the family appears on the county records, but the tombstones in the old Masonic cemetery gives forth the only records available. The inscriptions
are as follows:

JOHN P. KEY, died Oct.
9, 1867, aged 56 years.
(He was born about 1811)
SUSAN E. KEY, wife, died
Sept. 18, 1867, aged 36
years, 5 months and 21
days.
MILDRED A. KEY; born July 10, 1856; died Feb.
24, 1866.
ROBERT H. KEY; born Oct.
21, 1855; died Feb. 19th
1860.
JUDITH KEY, born in 1861
and died in 1860.

LIAM P. KING

WILLIAM P. KING and JOHN G. KING were brothers, and the family declares they both died in the Ala-ma, but it appears that only WIL-LIAM P. KING so fell. The two brothers lived some ten or fifteen miles above Cozales. (Miss Amelia
Williams in S. W. Hist. Quarterly, Vol. 12, p. 289.) R. B. KING was a Major prisoner with Pat Lusk and others, and the KING FAMILY of Washington County were related to all three of those named. Rufus B.
KING was a brother of John King, who was born in 1814 and served in the Texas army and later settled in Ball County, where he moved over into Williamson and held county office at one time. He is buried in the old "Corn Hill" cemetery,
near the present town of Jarrall.
These Kings were some of them of North Carolina stock, and related to Rufus King, one time Vice President of the United States, who was a neighbor of JESSE GRIMES in North

DR. PLEASANT W. KITRELL was born in 1805 in GRANVILLE COUNTY, N. C.
He attended the University of N.
C., and afterwards moved to ANSON COUNTY, where he served as representative in the North Carolina Legislature from that district. He was twice married, first to MRS. ANN EVANS, who died in Alabama in 1846,
and second to MARY FRANCES COREE,
the daughter of L. J. COREE, who was born in Newberry District, S. C. and moved with her parents to MARION, or ALABAMA. DR. KITRELL settled in or near Huntsville, Texas, Walker County about 1850, and served two terms
from that District in the Legislature of the new state. He died in Walker County in 1867, and his wife,
the former Mary Frances Coree, died in Montgomery County in 1807. She was the mother of Judge Norman Core Kittrell, a well known Texas jurist.

Two of the brothers of MARY FRANCES (COREE) KITRELL came to Texas and settled, both of whom received their schooling at INDEPENDENCE in Washington County, one of whom was ROBERT DANIEL COREE, who afterwards went to West Texas (Knox County) and for whom the town of COREE was named. The Hon. B. K. COREE, of Fort Worth, Texas, is a son of ROB-ERT DANIEL COREE. The other brother (Coree) of Mary Frances Kittrell was Superintendent of the Penitentiary
system of Texas in the days of Gov.
R. B. Hubbard, and left a son ROBERT COREE, now living on his plantation in Aberteen, Mississippi, though he was born in Texas.

The mother of DR. PLEASANT W.
KITRELL, was a Miss Hunt, and WILLIAM HUNT KITRELL, of Cisco, Texas was a brother of NORMAN COREE
KITRELL, and his son WILLIAM HUNT
KITRELL, JR. is a well known Texas writer and politician, who lives in the City of Dallas.

KILBY FAMILY

That there was a family by the name
of KILBY that lived in Washington County is attested by the marriage License issued June 10, 1864 to marry a young lady in that county by the name of SARAH J. KILBY.

COL. WILLIAM KINCHELOE was the brother-in-law of ROBERTO COREE-MAN, the old Austin Colony surveyor, - or else his father in law. My card is not explicit on that point. The wife of Col.
Christman, sister of Col. Kinchelo, or his daughter, and her sister, died on the flat boat Col.
Christman had built to float them down the Mississippi to New Orleans. After this, in New Orleans Col. KINCHELOE "took over" and either chartered or bought a small vessel called the "ONIX SON" to bring the party on to Texas and to Stephen F. Austin's colony. Both Col. Kincheloe and Christman were among the Stephen F. Austin first
"three hundred".

This WILLIAM KINCHELOE came from an old VIRGINIA FAMILY, of Stafford County, members of which moved to Kentucky and Missouri;
also to Tennessee.

In a long letter from JOHN HAWKINS to Stephen F. Austin, in 1822, that gentleman does not give Col. Kincheloe a very good reputation, and states that he was claiming to be part owner with Austin, of his colony on the Brazos and Colorado. The reply of Col. Austin, however, appears to ignore the statements, indicating he discredited the remarks.
(Barker's Austin Papers pp 502-505).

On the subsequent records of the territory embraced in the Austin colony, the name of Kinchelo frequently is found, indicating that male descendants of Col.
Kincheloe remained in Texas. They appear on the records of Fayette County.

WILLIAM KINCHELOE (a person of the same name) left a will in Washington County, Tennessee, dated August 6, 1840, in which he named his wife KINERVA and children as follows:

- 1. SARAH KINCHELOE
- 2. MARY KINCHELOE
- 3. ARCHIBALD KINCHELOE
- 4. GEORGE KINCHELOE
- 5. JOHN KINCHELOE

JOHN KINCHELOE was Executor, and

Dear Mrs. Loomis:

We have no compiled genealogy of the Kincheloe family, but find the following references:

William Kincheloe, born in Virginia May 26, 1736, married Vellie White, and came to the Falls of the Ohio (Louisville, Ky.) in 1783 or 1789. Later he built Kincheloe's Station, or Fort, in Nelson County, Kentucky, near the Spencer County line, on Simpson creek. This Fort was later referred to as the Burnt Station, as it was destroyed by the Indians in 1782, many of the occupants being killed, and others captured.

(Virginia Magazine of History, Vol. 5, p. 209, and Historical Society Register of Kentucky, Vol. 32, p. 169)

The William & Mary Quarterly Magazine, Vol. 22, p. 185, gives the following: An extended account of the Kincheloe family appears in the Baltimore Sun of Dec. 29, 1907.....

The first of the name was probably John Kincheloe of Prince William Co. Va., who married Margaret Foote, daughter of George Foote.

John Kincheloe died prior to Sept. 25, 1764. He had children, John; Margaret, who married Geo. Foote, of Fauquier Co. Va.;

and probably others. John Kincheloe Jr. had George, Elijah and James Kincheloe, who married Elizabeth Hardwick in 1790

..... Possibly another son of John Kincheloe, the emigrant, was William Kincheloe, born May 26, 1736, died in Nelson Co. Ky. in 1797. He married Molly White, born Feb. 9, 1744, died Nov. 21, 1831. They had Thomas, Peggy, Stephen, Molly, Lewis, Clarissa, Elias, Sally and William Kincheloe. - One Nathaniel Wickliffe, late of Prince William Co. Va., died intestate in Nelson Co. Ky. in 1790, his land passing to the next of kin, namely, John Kincheloe, Daniel Kincheloe, Cornelius Kincheloe and wife Dorcas, Robert Kincheloe etc. The Kincheloe heirs are the children of Daniel Kincheloe and wife Sukey (Wickliffe?). Said Daniel, who may have been a son of the emigrant John, died in Fairfax Co. Va. about 1785 leaving John; Daniel, born 1750; Elizabeth Prince, married William Wheatley?; Nancy, married Presley Smith?; Sarah Wickliffe; Mary, married Joshua Ferguson?; Cornelius; Robert; Nestor; Hector; and Jesso Kincheloe.....

As for James Patterson, he is listed with 100 acres of land on Floyds Fork in Jefferson County, Kentucky, in 1795. In 1796 James Patterson Sr. is listed with 100 acres on Chenowith's Run, which had been originally entered in the name of Richard Chenowith. In this year James Patterson Jr. appears, but without land holdings. In 1797 and 1799 neither James Sr. nor James Jr. is listed with land, and James Sr. is not listed with land prior to 1795. Accordingly it would seem that he did not have a land grant. There are, however, several references to James Patterson in Swathmey's Virginians in the Revolution. Jefferson County would not have been the correct location for Revolutionary bounty land in Kentucky, as this bounty land, as set aside by Virginia, was South of Green River. Of course, James Patterson may have been entitled to a grant, and not have taken it up, as was the case in many instances.

Sincerely yours,

PATTERSON

My dear Mr. Hardin;

I remember with such pleasure my trip to Kentucky and your lovely Historical Society. I am writing you once more in regard to my Kentucky ancestors. I know you do not have much on this James Patterson of mine but perhaps you could help me with his wife's family.

James Patterson was a resident of Jefferson Co., Ky. in 1789. His wife was Miss Kincheloe, possibly her name was Delilah Kincheloe as she had a daughter named Delilah and a granddaughter was named Delilah K. McKeown. The John McKeown's named one of their other daughters for his mother and I believe this child, Delilah, was for her mother.

I am wondering if you have record of the family tree of the Kincheloes. It is my supposition that they came from Augusta Co., Va. to Kentucky in the early days. Possibly James Patterson married Miss Kincheloe in Ky. as his daughter was born May 14, 1788 and in 1789 he was recorded as living in Ky. I remember that early census had some Kincheloes in it.

Would you be able to tell me if James Patterson received a land grant for Revolutionary war services. I am trying to find out something of his life in Kentucky as well as his ancestry. His ancestry is a complete blank up to now. But if I could find out what land he owned in Jefferson Co., Ky. and if it were a war grant, then I would know something. Apparently, he left no will recorded.

His list of children came from "The Commemorative Biographic Record of Representative Men of Indianapolis and Vicinity", by Beers. The children of James Patterson were: Peggy, Polly, John, Squire, Isaac, Delilah, Catherine, Zeruey.

Catherine Patterson was born May 14, 1788, married in Jefferson Co. Ky. Dec. 20, 1809 John McKeown. They had:
Rachel
Delilah K. m. 1832 Peter Maple
Eliza Ann, m. Simeon Pottorf
Leah P. m. Wm. Malott
Robert P., died young.

Would you tell me what this data will cost, please.

Thanks,

Sincerely yours,

Margaret W. Loomis

Dear Mr Hardin;

Mr Muir of Bardstown kindly sent me some Kincheloe data that I thought might be of interest to you for your files. Unfortunately from my point of view it upsets the apple cart.

The will of Capt. William Kincheloe is found in Will Book A, page 321 and the appraisment is found in Will Book A, page 335. The will is dated Oct. 13, 1788 and is probated Aug. 8, 1797. The will said in part that he left to his wife, Molly during her natural life the lands and Plantation I now live on and one negro boy called Damon. In the will he mentions children: Thomas, Peggy Davis, Molley Davis, Clarey and Sally. He mentions his 4 youngest sons: - Lewis, Elias, Jesse and Wm.

Marriage records show: - Thomas to Nancy Edwards - bond Nov. 29, 1794 by Jas. Chambers. Lewis W. to Peggy Kincheloe, bond April 3, 1833. This marriage was not reported by the minister but there are many cases of this in the early records. Elias W. to Elizabeth Smither Oct. 15, 1829 by Samuel Harrison. Warren Davis to Molly Kincheloe, bond Jan. 2, 1787. Isaac Davis to Clarissa Kincheloe, bond Jan. 10, 1799, by Wm. Taylor.

Will of Elias Kincheloe is found Will Book 11, p. 122. Settlement was dated Nov. 9, 1861.

Mr Muir states he read an account of the raid on Kincheloe's Station as related by Isaac Davis who was aged 6 at the time. This account was published in the Bardstown Saturday Gazette about 90 years ago. The account said that Mrs. Davis, wife of the Colonel was killed and a widow Davis escaped. This would be Peggy and Molly Kincheloe Davis.

The Miss Kincheloe who was the mother of Catherine Patterson must have been a daughter of a brother of William Kincheloe. We know Wm. had brothers Daniel and John and possibly there were others. I am baffled at present about how to continue this search but eventually I have hopes of finding the knowledge somewhere. Perhaps some later generation of the Patterson family may know the answers.

Miss Helen Snyder, former librarian at Jeffersontown, Ky. says there is a family of Pattersons who live not far from Jeffersontown now. I shall try to get in touch with them. I tried in vain to get in touch with the Bishop family who live near Louisville and might be relatives. On the whole, most people are not interested in genealogy at all.

Whenever I find anything I think would interest you, I shall send it on to you. I feel I can never repay you for all the help you have given me.

Please excuse this horrible looking letter but I am pressed for time and cannot copy it.

Sincerely yours,

Margaret White Loomis.

Kincheloe Family History

Megan has been working hard to uncover information about the Kincheloe Family Name and we will include her findings on this page of our Web Site... If you have any bits of family information please send us an e-mail!

The surname Kincheloe appears to be locational in origin. Our research indicates that it can be associated with the Scots, Irish and English, meaning "one who came from Kingslow (the king's seat), in Shropshire".

Spelling variations of the surname are Kinsloe, Kinslow, Kinchelow, Kinsella etc.... The family arrived in the US early on... rumor has it that President Lincoln's maid was a Kincheloe! Who knows?? But, statistical information shows that about 867 Kincheloe households reside in the US, and at least 4 families are located in Canada. Most are in Texas, California, and Virginia (DC area). A search of Switchboard shows 803 "Kincheloe" listings...Try it out?

J.B. KINCHELOE was born in Spencer County, Ky., February 26, 1843, the eldest of a family of five born to A.C. and E.S. (Buckner) Kincheloe. A.C. was born in Spencer County, Ky., and has always been engaged in agricultural pursuits. He is a son of Jesse Kincheloe, who was born in Virginia. Mrs. E. S. Kincheloe was born in Spencer County, Ky., a daughter of M.V. and Rhoda (Stillwell) Buckner. M.V. Buckner was born in Virginia, and at the age of one year moved with his parents to North Carolina, and in 1804 immigrated to Kentucky, and settled in Green County, where he remained only a short time, and then moved to Spencer County. Our subject was educated at the common schools. In 1868 he moved to Shelby County, Ky., and engaged in agricultural pursuits until 1875, then went to Henderson County, Ky., and was appointed cashier and chief deputy revenue collector, which position he held, giving universal satisfaction, until 1885. He then returned to Spencer County, and has since been engaged in agricultural pursuits. He married, January 19, 1881, Miss Tillie Huston, of Henderson County, Ky., a lady distinguished for her beauty and many fine qualities. She is a daughter of Capt. W.W. and Sophie (Woodruff) Huston. Capt. W.W. Huston was born in Louisville, Ky., and for years was a steamboat captain. One children was born to this union, Sophie. Mr. Kincheloe is politically a Republican. He owns 300 acres of fine land. Mrs. Kincheloe is a strict member of the Presbyterian Church.

A.C. KINCHELOE was born in Spencer County Ky., February 6, 1816, the eldest of a family of three children born to Dr. Jesse and Annie (Cochran) Kincheloe. His father was a native of Kentucky, and was quite a noted physician. His mother was born in Jessamine County, Ky., a daughter of Robert and Mary (Laird) Cochran; Robert was a native of Virginia, immigrated to Kentucky in an early day, settled in Jessamine County, and subsequently moved to Spencer County. Our subject was educated at the common schools. When a boy he learned the carpenter's trade in Louisville and worked on the City Hotel there in 1832. He was the first magistrate elected under the new constitution in Spencer County in 1852, and held the office until 1863. He was then elected sheriff, and served two consecutive terms; was then elected magistrate and served eight years, when he resigned. He married, October 16, 1839, Elvira S. Buckner, of Spencer County, Ky., daughter of Moses V. Buckner, and five children were born to this union: Jesse B., who married Tillie Huston and had one child, Sophie E.; Moses B., a physician, who married Mrs. Nealey; Elvira J., married, first to George Tansill, by whom she had one child, Charles A., and after his death, she became the wife of James W. Jewell; A.C., a dentist; A.X. married a Miss Kincheloe and had two children, Willard and Morris, and is engaged in merchandising in Hardinsburg. Mrs. Elvira S. Kincheloe died in 1856, and our subject married, December 4, 1859, Mrs. Lizzie A. Woodsmall (Tichenor), daughter of James B. and Mary L. (Pittenger) Tichenor. Mr. and Mrs. Kincheloe are members of the Baptist Church. Mr. Kincheloe is a Royal Arch Mason, and politically a Democrat. He owns 300 acres of land.

rent rolls of Fairfax Co., Va. for land there in 1774, appointed by order of Fauquier Co. court to serve with brother, John Kincheloe and others to "survey a road from the Loudoun Co., Va. line to the main road above James V. Usom's house", served as Lt. in Capt. James Scott's Co. of Va. militia in the American Revolution, which was organized at Fauquier Court House, Va. Feb. 1777, serving from Feb. 14 to Mar. 14, 1777 for which he was paid 27 pounds, 11 shillings and 5 pence, paid for services from Mar. 14-Apr. 29, 1777 for 45 days 17 pounds and 6 shillings, paid Feb. 27, 1777 for "2 bushels of oats purchased by Lt. Kincheloe of John KINCELOM", paid "Lt. William Kincheloe Mar. 4, 1777 for finding himself rations for 5 days, 44 shillings." He marched in his Co. via Leesburg to Noland's Ferry crossing the Potomac to Frederickstown, Md., Lancaster, Pa., -to Philadelphia, crossing the Delaware River to Quibble (near New Brunswick, N.J.) where the Co. remained 2 months, promoted to Captain before mustered out in 1778. His sword of heavy British pattern, captured near Valley Forge in 1777 was used by his son, Dr. Jesse Kincheloe, K-1-9-9, pp. 346 and 379, in the War of 1812, since in possession of Jesse Buckner Kincheloe, K-1-9-9-2-1, p. 379, son of Almazor Cochran Kincheloe, K-1-9-9-2, p. 379.

There is some tradition that Lt. William Kincheloe was with Gen. George Washington's command in winter quarters at Valley Forge. William served Sept. 28, 1878 as one of the appraiser of the estate of James Hathway, deceased in Fauquier Co., Va. He was at "the Falls of the Ohio" (Louisville, Ky.) in 1778 or 1789 and soon thereafter built Ft. Kincheloe ("Burnt Station") one mile below the mouth of John Bland's Spring Branch on Simpson's Creek in Nelson Co., Ky. near Bloomfield. William Kincheloe and family lived there from 1780 to Nov.

all being of Wickliffe ancestry William Kincheloe is probably referred to in warrant No. 715 issued from the Ky. Land Office, June 25, 1788 to Capt. Logan Barrett for 100 acres in Nelson Co., Ky. on waters of Pottinger's Creek "near Kincheloe's cabin." He received grants from Ky. for 400 acres on branch of Salt Creek, Jefferson Co., Ky. William Kincheloe appears on the tax list for Nelson Co. Nov. 22, 1792. He signed will Oct. 13, 1788, probated Aug. 9, 1797 in Bardstown Court House, Nelson Co. Ky. bequeathing to "my beloved wife, Mollie," land and household goods, "sons, Thomas and Stephen", "daughters, Sallie TAYLOR, Clary DAVIS, Peggy DAVIS, Molly DAVIS", "balance of my estate to 4 younger sons, Lewis, Elias, Jesse and William KINCHELOE". a stone wall. In an application for pension for William's Revolutionary service by his widow William Ford signed proof that he "served in Capt. William Kincheloe's Co." A Kincheloe genealogy, 276, 6 pp. states that William "was at the surrender of Cornwallis at Yorktown." The foregoing is repeated, or supplemented in that part of the biographical sketch of his brother, John Kincheloe, Jr., K-1-5, on page 122, treating of events in their lives in Fauquier Co., Va. As residents of Fauquier Co., Va. K-1-9-1- Thomas Ludwell? Kincheloe, p. 346, has generally been found recorded as only "Thomas Kincheloe" very few recorded references to him is as Thomas L". In more than one generation of his descendants the double Christian name, "Thomas Ludwell" Kincheloe has appeared suggesting the "L" found as initial of his second Christian name probably meant "Ludwell". No ancestral surname "LUDWELL" has been discovered.

He is designated as "my son, Thomas Kincheloe" in the will of his father, William Kincheloe, K-1-9, pp. 7 and 346, dated Oct. 13, 1788, as "Thomas L. Kincheloe" served in Capt. Peter Grant's Co. of 11th. Va. Militia from 1778 to the close of the American Revolution, in which he was promoted to Sgt. for bravery, "..." while residing in Fauquier Co., Va. "..." served from some time in July 1777 or 1778 about 2 years recognizing Sgt. in Capt. Peter Grant's Co.

ters of Beech Fork in Co., Ky., moved from Fauquier Co., Va. to "Davis Settlement" on waters of Chaplin Creek in Nelson Co., Ky. and after the death of his father in 1797 to the Forks of the Rough in Breckenridge Co., Ky. which was formed from Hardin Co., Ky. in 1799 where he served as Justice of the Peace in the first Breckenridge County Court in 1800, followed by filling 2nd. and 3rd. terms as Sheriff of the new county of Breckenridge beginning about 1805 when he moved to Hardinsburg, Ky., county seat where he spent the remainder of his life. In 1832 he stated his residence in Breckenridge Co. to have then covered 32 years. He and his father-in-law, Philip EDWARDS, brought their families to Breckenridge Co., Ky. when there were but few families in it. At the time of his settlement on Rough Creek Hardin (since Breckenridge) Co., Ky. there were fortified settlements at Elizabethtown, Hodgenville, Hardinsburg, Hartford and Vienna (now Calhoun) all within Hardin Co., Ky. Thomas' first settlement was above these forts at and near Hardin.

He also served as Captain in Ky. in some of the early expeditions against the Indians.

This settlement by him and his father-in-law, Edwards, led to the opening of a large and valuable agricultural section. As 1 of the first justices of Breckenridge Co. as above he participated in opening the first court of the new county Jan. 21, 1800. In the orders of that court the town is called, first, "Hardin's Burg" "Hardin's Town", Mar. 17, 1800 and "Hardinsburg", Jan. 19, 1801. Thomas Kincheloe bought lots 12 and 18 Feb. 8, 1800 from Joseph Allen to which he moved in 1805. He had been nominated for Justice of the Peace for the new county, Breckenridge, at its organization in 1799.

years recruiting Sgt. in Capt. Peter Grant's Co. He enlisted Feb. 1, 1781, served 4 months as orderly Sgt. in Capts. John Chun(?) and John Eden's companies, Col. Armistead Churchill's and Elias Edmunds' Va. Regts and was in a skirmish near Williamsburg. He enlisted July 1, 1781, served 3 months as orderly Sgt. in Capt. William Grigsby's Co., Col. Brent's Va. Regt. He was discharged at Fauquier Court House, Va. due to sickness, 2 messmates assisting him home." Proof of these services was made by Henry F. FLOYD of Union Co., Ky., b. Sept. 1, 1761 that he so served with Thomas 3 months in 1781 under Capt. Grigsby, - by William Young of Muhlenberg Co., Ky., b. 1755, when 78 years old in 1833, who lived in Fauquier Co., Va. during the Revolution and served in the Northern Army when Thomas Kincheloe served in Capt. Peter Grant's Va. Co., - by oath of Barney Miller of Breckenridge Co., Ky. b. Sept. 15, 1764 while serving in the Revolutionary Army from early 1781 until Fall of 1781, frequently hearing of Sgt. Kincheloe, in a different Co. of his Division as being very swift in races "and was a good deal talked about his races with other men." by Joseph Allen stating that his father moved to Nelson Co., Ky. in 1797 where Thomas Kincheloe had previously moved, that he knew Nancy EDWARDS, 2nd. wife of Thomas L., - as a girl and knew Thomas L. Kincheloe until his death.

Thomas Kincheloe's discharge was shortly before Cornwallis was taken. He was in a skirmish at Yorktown, Va. apparently during the siege against Cornwallis. Thomas Kincheloe suffered loss of his military papers in the Revolution in the burning of his home Feb. 11, 1784.

Thomas Kincheloe had a grant surveyed for Apr. 26, 1792 for 200 acres on Hardin's back-

Thomas Kincheloe served as Capt. of the first Co. of the Battalion of Ky. Mounted Volunteer Militia, organized June 24, 1813 and attached to Col. William Russell's Regt. of U.S. Regulars. David H. Moorman was Lt. in the Co. and Isaac DeHaven, ensign. General John Thomas who later commanded the Ky. troops in the New Orleans campaign, was 1 of the 4 Majors of the Battalion constituted of 129 men. William Hardin, Jr. was Adjutant and Joseph Allen, Quartermaster.

N O T E :- While the paragraph next above does not state that Thomas Kincheloe participated in the New Orleans campaign, other statements show that Thomas was in the battle at the River Raisin in Mich. a few months before the final victory over the British and Indians in the War of 1812 at the battle of The Thames in Canada, Sept. 5, 1813. It may be possible after the return from Canada he also went into the New Orleans campaign, although definite record of his participation in both campaigns in the War of 1812 has not become available to the compiler.

After returning from the War of 1812 Thomas Kincheloe engaged in the tavern business in Hardinsburg, Breckenridge Co., Ky.

He received a grant from Ky. Apr. 7, 1831 for 36 acres in Breckenridge Co., Ky., signed Oct. 17, 1832 as resident of Hardinsburg, Breckenridge Co. Ky. for Revolutionary pension pursuant to the Act therefor approved Sept. 17, 1832 for which he was accepted Dec. 2, 1833, receiving $35 per year. In his application he stated his birth date as Oct. 8, 1761. The official record of his services in the American Revolution include " ... -in 1781" under Capt. William Grigsby, Maj. Walsh, Col. Brent and Gen. LaFAYETTE. His messmates who carried him home when discharged as sick were Peter RUSSELL and SHACKLEFORD.

Among other details of his life history preserved in his obituary then published there are: ".... about 46 years of his life was spent in Breckenridge Co., the latter 40 of that in Hardinsburg, Ky. The last 17 years of these was as a sincere and devoted Christian, As a man he had more sympathy for the distressed than was consistent with his pecuniary prosperity, a true and firm friend, - an affectionate and kind relative, in all the posts, - civil and military, - which he occupied, - and the many scenes through which he passed, sustained the character of an honest man, faithful to all the trusts reposed in him". ".... Before he was required by law to perform military duty, he joined the ranks of those patriots who were contending for their rights and liberties, against the tyrannical aggression of the mother country and continued in the service until the surrender of Cornwallis at Yorktown." ".... He emigrated to Ky. when its citizens had to build forts for their protection, - and when bread and water were procured only at the hazard of life, encountered his share of the toils, privations and dangers of Ky. pl-

Kincheloe, RAMLS and PREWETT left St. Louis, Mo. in 1822 to drift down the Mississippi River to New Orleans en route to Austin's Colony in South Texas. Chriesman was appointed surveyor for Austin's Colony. On the way to New Madrid, Mo., - bound for New Orleans Chriesman's wife and one of her sisters died. After the party arrived at New Orleans, Col. William M. Kincheloe "took over", chartering or buying a small vessel, the "Only Son" to carry on to Stephen F. Austin's Colony in Tex. departing from New Orleans Feb. 7, 1822 on two schooners for passengers and baggage. Several of the colonists d. of yellow fever in a delay in Galveston Bay. Late in March 1822 they landed at the present side of Matagorda, Tex. on the west bank of Colorado River, 3 miles above its mouth. Among the passengers with Kincheloe on the "Only Son" was Maj. George HELM of Ky. whose sons included Gov. John L. Helm of Ky. and Rev. Samuel Larue Helm of Ky. Baptist. They finally unloaded in June, 1822 somewhere near Brazoria County "Bell's Landing in Matagorda Co., Tex.", the arrival of the first of the "300" colonists. A tradition preserved among these colonists is that "Col. William M. Kincheloe came from an old Stafford Co., Va. family, members of which moved to Ky., Tenn. and Mo." He had claimed joint ownership with Austin of the colony. In subsequent records of the Tex. counties included within this Stephen F. Austin Colony the name is frequently found, male descendants appearing in Favetta Co., Tex. Of these 2 schooners the

"Lively" was ill-fated on this trip beyond New Orleans. Soon after the first landing of these colonists they were visited by Carancahua Indians, the only cannibals of more than 40 tribes, later learned to be the most treacherous and blood-thirsty. Four guards left in charge of an improvised warehouse storing supplies, farming implements and necessities, while other colonists spied out home sites, legally required to be 20 miles inland, stealthily attacked and killed these guards and utterly destroyed or carried away everything stored for the operation of the colony.

In a battle which soon followed these Indians were punished, who breaking all treaties caused much further trouble, but within 25 years were extinct.

William Kincheloe burned off a cane brake and with a sharp-ended stick planted the Colony's first corn crop where Wharton, Tex. stands, the land being long known as "Old Caney", classed with the richest land in the world. William had an abundant harvest, saving the settlers much suffering in their first year, 1822.

Among the 11 Baptist families traced of the first 300 families who landed in the Stephen F. Austin Colony in Tex. 1821-22 a sketch of but one of the 11 has been published. It is the family of William Kincheloe. In Kincheloe's cabin in 1822 the first preaching in Austin's Texas Colony was probably by Joseph BAYS. Catholics forbid preaching by others. After the neighbors had gathered at Kincheloe's home, their 10 years old son whispered to his mother to ask: "Where is the fiddler?" William and wife both d. before there was a Protestant church for them to join. Texas Baptist histories record this as the beginning of their faith in the Republic (State) of Texas. The only information obtained about descendants of Col. William M. Kincheloe is transmitted through descendants of hardships he finally completed the journey and trapped on the West Coast until he accumulated a considerable cargo of furs and arranged with an old-fashioned sail boat for passage around Cape Horn to New York City and worked as a sailor to pay freight on his furs. Leaving New York with the proceeds of his trip he went to Tex. in time to participate in both Mexican wars and served as a member of Gen. Sam Houston's Army at the battle of San Jacinto when Santa Anna was captured and brought before Gen. Sam Houston. His name is on the plaque on the San Jacinto monument near Houston as: "JAMES GREEN". He d. in 1882 and is buried in Burnet (Tex.) Cemetery and has a centennial monument for his services in that war.

Nancy Jo and family moved to the Matagorda peninsula when it was still in the Republic of Tex., -before statehood. They were people possessing considerable property until the storm of 1854, -in which they lost their home and all cattle. The servants pulled a buggy in which Nancy Jo and all her small children rode to the highest spot on the peninsula and there dug holes and "planted" the children to keep them from blowing away in the high wind.

Her son, Gustavus Edward Green, K-1-9-1-1-5-7, p.350, preserved to his children his recollection of the family returning the day following the storm to the site of their destroyed home. Everything was gone. A colored servant woman dug around in the sand and found an iron pot and a piece of bacon. The children waded out and gathered oysters, which she cooked, making a most enjoyable meal. The family returned to Wharton Tex. carrying all they had left, their money, -in gold, -in a sack.

The grant of land, in Wharton, Tex. was the home of all the children for a considerable period. The family next moved to Blanco Co., Tex.

From such language there may be ambiguity and that her own mother, Nancy (TAYLOR) Kincheloe d. in Mo. From the date of her parent's marriage to the date of Nancy Jo's birth, 4 other children may have been born and she is designated herein as a 5th. child. Another tradition preserved through others is that Col. William M. Kincheloe had 7 bachelor sons who were prominently identified with early Texas history. K-1-9-1-1- -Lewis, 1812, p.

Among Fannin's men massacred by order of the Mexican commander at Goliad, Tex. May 27, 1836 was KINCHELOE, whose widow was Gustavus E. EDWARDS' housekeeper at Matagorda, Tex. and later at Wharton, Tex. after her husband's death. 156, 395(a) No one else is as likely the father of the deceased soldier as Col. William M. Kincheloe. Nancy Jo 13 years old, came with her parents from Ky. via Mo. to Tex. and was long and intimately connected and associated with it as a Republic and as a State. She never weighed over 100 pounds and became an old-fashioned lady, smoked a pipe, used little salt, -not caring for it because so much of her life had been spent where it was hard to get, n. 1st.

1774, appointed by order of Fauquier Co. court to serve with brother, John Kincheloe and others to "survey a road from the Loudoun Co., Va. line to the main road above James M. Usom's house", served as Lt. in Capt. James Scott's Co. of Va. militia in the American Revolution, which was organized at Fauquier Court House, Va. Feb. 1777, serving from Feb. 14 to Mar. 14, 1777 for which he was paid 27 pounds, 11 shillings and 5 pence, paid for services from Mar. 14-Apr. 29, 1777 for 45 days 17 pounds and 6 shillings, paid Feb. 27, 1777 for "2 bushels of oats purchased by Lt. Kincheloe of John KINELON", paid "Lt. William Kincheloe Mar. 4, 1777 for finding himself rations for 5 days, 44 shillings." He marched in his Co. via Leesburg to Noland's Ferry crossing the Potomac to Frederickstown, Md., Lancaster, Pa., -to Philadelphia, crossing the Delaware River to Quibble (near New Brunswick, N.J.) where the Co. remained 2 months, promoted to Captain before mustered out in 1778. His sword of heavy British pattern, captured near Valley Forge in 1777 was used by his son, Dr. Jesse Kincheloe, K-1-9-9, pp. 346 and 379, in the War of 1812, since in possession of Jesse Buckner Kincheloe, K-1-9-9-2-1, p. 379, son of Almazor Cochran Kincheloe, K-1-9-9-2, p. 379.

There is some tradition that Lt. William Kincheloe was with Gen. George Washington's command in winter quarters at Valley Forge. William served Sept. 28, 1878 as one of the appraiser of the estate of James Hathway, deceased in Fauquier Co., Va. He was at "the Falls of the Ohio" (Louisville, Ky.) in 1778 or 1789 and soon thereafter built Ft. Kincheloe ("Burnt Station") one mile below the mouth of John Bland's Spring Branch on Simpson's Creek in Nelson Co., Ky. near Bloomfield. William Kincheloe and family lived there from 1780 to Nov.

William Kincheloe is probably the same as Grant No. 715 issued from the Ky. Land Office, June 25, 1788 to Capt. Logan Barrett for 100 acres in Nelson Co., Ky. on waters of Pottinger's Creek "near Kincheloe's cabin." He received grants from Ky. for 400 acres on branch of Salt Creek, Jefferson Co., Ky. Feb. 24, 1783, 700 acres on Brasher's Creek, Jefferson Co., Feb. 16, 1783, Feb. 4, 1783 1,000 acres on Ash Creek, Jefferson Co., July 13, 1784 112 acres on Beech Fork, Jefferson Co.; Aug. 30, 1786 331 acres on Ashe and Chaplin's Creeks, Nelson Co., Ky., Feb. 22, 1786 506 acres on Chaplin's Fork, Nelson Co., Jan. 18, 1796 500 acres on Brasher's Creek, Shelby Co., all in Ky. William Kincheloe appears on the tax list for Nelson Co. Nov. 22, 1792. He signed will Oct. 13, 1788, probated Aug. 9, 1797 in Bardstown Court House, Nelson Co. Ky. bequeathing to "my beloved wife, Mollie," land and household goods, "sons, Thomas and Stephen," "daughters, Sallie TAYLOR, Clary DAVIS, Peggy DAVIS, Molly DAVIS", "balance of my estate to 4 younger sons, Lewis, Elias, Jesse and William KINCHELOE". A Kincheloe genealogy, 276, 6 pp. states that William "was at the surrender of Cornwallis at Yorktown." The foregoing is repeated, or supplemented in that part of the biographical sketch of his brother, John Kincheloe, Jr., K-1-5, on page 122, treating of events in their lives in Fauquier Co., Va. K-1-9-1- Thomas Ludwell? Kincheloe, p. 346, has generally been found recorded as only "Thomas Kincheloe" very few recorded references to him is as Thomas L". In more than one generation of his descendants the double Christian name, "Thomas Ludwell" Kincheloe has appeared suggesting the "L" found as initial of his second Christian name probably meant "Ludwell". No ancestral surname "LUDWELL" has been discovered.

He is designated as "my son, Thomas Kincheloe" in the will of his father, William Kincheloe, K-1-9, pp. 7 and 246, dated Oct. 13, 1788, as "Thomas L. Kincheloe" served in Capt. In 1832 he stated his residence in Breckenridge Co. to have then covered 32 years. He and his father-in-law, Philip EDWARDS, brought their families to Breckenridge Co., Ky. when there were but few families in it. At the time of his settlement on Roagh Creek Hardin (since Breckenridge) Co., Ky. there were fortified settlements at Elizabethtown, Hodgenville, Hardinsburg, Hartford and Vienna (now Calhoun) all within Hardin Co., Ky. Thomas' first settlement was above these forts at and near Hardin

He also served as Captain in Ky. in some of the early expeditions against the Indians.

This settlement by him and his father-in-law, Edwards, led to the opening of a large and valuable agricultural section. As 1 of the first justices of Breckenridge Co. as above he participated in opening the first court of the new county Jan. 21, 1800. In the orders of that court the town is called, first, "Hardin's Burg", "Hardin's Town", Mar. 17, 1800 and "Hardinsburg", Jan. 19, 1801. Thomas Kincheloe bought lots 12 and 18 Feb. 9, 1800 from Joseph Allen to which he moved in 1805. He had been nominated for Justice of the Peace for the new county, Breckenridge, ...

Thomas Kincheloe's discharge was shortly before Cornwallis was taken. He was in a skirmish at Yorktown, Va. apparently during the siege against Cornwallis. Thomas Kincheloe suffered loss of his military papers in the Revolution in the burning of his home Feb. 11, 1784.

Thomas Kincheloe had a grant surveyed for 41 1/2 Apr. 26, 1792 for 200 acres on Hardin's backswat its organization in 1799.

Thomas Kincheloe served as Capt. of the first Co. of the Battalion of Ky. Mounted Volunteer Militia, organized June 24, 1813 and attached to Col. William Russell's Regt. of U.S. Regulars. David H. Moorman was Lt. in the Co. and Isaac DeHaven, ensign. General John Thomas who later commanded the Ky. troops in the New Orleans campaign, was 1 of the 4 Majors of the Battalion constituted of 129 men. William Hardin, Jr. was Adjutant and Joseph Allen, Quartermaster.

N O T E :- While the paragraph next above does not state that Thomas Kincheloe participated in the New Orleans campaign, other statements show that Thomas was in the battle at the River Raisin in Mich. a few months before the final victory over the British and Indians in the War of 1812 at the battle of The Thames in Canada, Sept. 5, 1813. It may be possible after the return from Canada he also went into the New Orleans campaign, although definite record of his participation in both campaigns in the War of 1812 has not become available to the compiler.

After returning from the War of 1812 Thomas Kincheloe engaged in the tavern business in Hardinsburg, Breckenridge Co., Ky.

He received a grant from Ky. Apr. 7, 1831 for 36 acres in Breckenridge Co., Ky., signed Oct. 17, 1832 as resident of Hardinsburg, Breckenridge Co. Ky. for Revolutionary pension pursuant to the Act therefor approved Sept. 17, 1832 for which he was accepted Dec. 2, 1833, receiving $35 per year. In his application he stated his birth date as Oct. 8, 1761. The official record of his services in the American Revolution include " ... , in 1781" under Capt. William Grigsby, Maj. Walsh, Col. Brent
