

Lambe-Faulkner

Sept. 16, 1934

The wedding of Miss Kathryn Lambe of this city and James Garnett Faulkner of Campbellsville was solemnized at 3:00 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the Christian Church in this city, with the pastor, Rev. W. P. Walden, officiating.

The church was decorated in ferns, dahlias and fall flowers. Mrs. George Lowe, Jr., of Columbia, cousin of the groom, played the wedding march and rendered several selections preceding the ceremony.

Miss Helen Lambe of Bloomington, Ind., sister of the bride, was the bridesmaid, and the groom's best man was his cousin, Joseph Faulkner of Campbellsville. The ushers were Milton Goodwin of this city and Ralph Faulkner of Campbellsville, cousin of the groom. Little Miss Bettie Carol Smith was the ring-bearer.

The bride was attractively attired in a rust crepe dress, trimmed in brown chiffon velvet, with a brown chiffon velvet hat and brown accessories. She carried an arm bouquet of Talisman roses, gardenias and ferns.

The bridesmaid wore brown velvet with brown accessories and carried a bouquet of Leonard Darron roses, tube roses and ferns. The ring-bearer, who carried the ring on a satin pillow, was dressed in cream satin with slippers to match.

Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Faulkner were entertained at six-o'clock dinner at the home of the groom's parents at Campbellsville. Twenty guests were present. Later the couple left on a short bridal trip. They are making their home at Campbellsville.

Mrs. Faulkner, who was a senior at the Lebanon High School this year, is a daughter of Mrs. R. H. Lambe and is a young woman of many lovable traits of mind and heart. She is quite popular with the younger set and has always taken an active part in all work of the Christian Church, of which she is a member.

The groom is one of Campbellsville's most highly regarded young men and at present is successfully engaged in farming near that city. He is a son of Fred Faulkner, prominent lawyer of Taylor County, and Mrs. Faulkner, and attended the Taylor County High School.

Among the out-of-town guests here for the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Young, Mr. and Mrs. Lucius Clark, Mrs. O. S. Dunbar, Mrs. Ralph Chelf and little daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Huston and Mrs. Fred Faulkner of Campbellsville, Miss Martha Walker Pardiew of Bardstown, Miss Helen Keeling and Miss Carrie Lambe of Bloomington, Ind., and Miss Margaret Lambe of Louisville.
