FIVE GENERATIONS REPRESENTED IN THIS GROUP.

In the picture above are "Uncle" Mike Lee, his son, Abell Lee; his granddaughter, Mrs. Mary Ellen Mattingly; her daughter, Mrs. Oscar Herron, and Mrs. Mattingly's granddaughter, Mabel Ellen Herron.
 Mr. Lee, who is among the county's well-known citizens, is in his 75th year, but notwithstanding he has passed the allotted span accorded to man in this life his years rest lightly upon him. He enjoys unusually good health and gets about as spry as one much younger. Mr. Lee is a son of James R. and Susan Haydon Lee, and was born on the Rolling Fork six miles southeast of Lebanon.
 Practically the whole of his life has been devoted to the farm, in which he has taken great pride. He is one of a family of four sons, one of whom, John D.
 Lee, died many years ago. His brothers, both of whom are well known farmers, are Albert Lee and J. R. Lee.

SUFFERING IN OLD YEARS

Was Restored to Health by Dr. E. Pink-
 Vegetable
 Compound.

"After my little sick with pains in my sides which the doctors said were caused by inflammation. I suffered a great deal every month and grew very thin. I was under the doctor's care for two long years without any benefit. Finally I was advised to use Dr. E. Pink-Vegetable Compound and after a few days I felt better and after a few more days I was able to get up and walk around the house. I am now as well as ever and I am sure that
 Dr. E. Pink-
 Vegetable Compound
 is the best medicine for all kinds of ailments." - Mrs. J. R. Lee

Genealogy From The Long Ago

(OLD SCRAPBOOK - 1890)

Editor's Note: We have come across an interesting collection of old clippings dealing with Kentucky family history. Since these clippings are over 100 years old, your editor feels they will be of interest to many of our readers. We will continue this column each month until the supply is gone.

Lewis

Thomas Lewis was born in Fairfax County, Virginia, on May 8, 1749, and married Elizabeth Payne on October 27, 1773. Their children were Nancy, born in 1774, married James Garrard, son of Governor Garrard, of Kentucky, and died in 1835; Sally, born 1776, married first Gen. Green Clay, second Col. Jephtha Dudley, and died in 1867; Hector P. Lewis, born 1778, died 1857; Asa R., born 1781, died 1850; Betsey, both 1782, married Col. Jepsey Dudley, and died 1807, leaving an infant son, Edward Ambrose Dudley. Col. Jephtha Dudley married, secondly, his sister-in-law, the widow of Gen. Green Clay; Edward Lewis, born 1785, died 1808; Hetty, born 1787, married Henry Conyers Payne, died 1829; Stephen O. Conyers Payne, died 1829; Stephen O., born 1789, died 1870; Polly, born 1792, died 1792; Thornton, born 1794, died 1872; Sophia, born 1786, married Rev. John T. Johnson, died 1849; Alpheus, born 1799, died 1865; Douglas Payne, born 1804, died 1867. Thomas Lewis died in September 1800, and his widow, Elizabeth Lewis, died March 24, 1827.

Lee

The Henry Lee who was born in Fauquier County in 1758, who represented Bourbon County in the Virginia Convention of 1788 and voted against the ratification of the Federal Constitution, and who died in Mason County, Kentucky, about 1844, was one of the sons of Stephen Lee. His mother was a widow Dunn when Stephen Lee married her for his third wife. Stephen Lee came to Kentucky, settled in Mason County, died, and was buried there, and his will is on record in Maysville. Of the antecedents of Stephen Lee, nothing whatever is known by any of his descendants. By his three wives he had many children and their descendants are numerous in Mason, Fleming, and Lewis Counties. It is not true that the Henry Lee referred to had a sister who married Ambrose Madison, a younger brother of President James Madison. The wife of Ambrose Madison was Mary Willis Lee. Her father was the second Hancock Lee and her mother was Mary Willis, daughter of Henry Willis, of Fredricksburg, by his first wife, Anne Alexander, widow of John Smith. The second Hancock Lee lived at Lee's Spring, in Fauquier County, now known as Warrenton White Sulphur. His oldest son, Hancock Lee, was with his cousins, Hancock and Richard Taylor, in their expeditions down the Ohio and Mississippi in 1769. His second son, Willis Lee, was in Kentucky in 1774 and was killed by the Indians near Frankfort in 1776. Another one of his sons was Maj. John Lee of the Revolution, who settled in Woodford County in 1794, died there in 1802.

Morton

Jacob Morton was born in Stockholm, Sweden. His son, Elijah Morton, married Elizabeth Hawkins, it is believed. Their children were (1) George, (2) William, (3) Joseph, (4) John, (5) Sallie Beldsoe, (6) Frankie Terrell, and (7) Betsy Qushenberry. William Morton married _____. Children were (1) Charles, (2) George, (3) Abram, United States Marshal, assisted in the arrest of Aaron Burr; (4) John Hite, father of John P. Morton, the Louisville Publisher; and (5) Gabriel I. John Peak, died in Ohio ca. 1835. All his family died with milk sickness, except his wife and two children, Alexander and Jane. The mother and two surviving children moved back to Nelson County, Kentucky. The son, Alexander Peak, went to Illinois about the year of 1841, and married there. The daughter, Jane Peak, was the second wife of Isaac Phillips, who lived in Washington County, Kentucky.

Beauchamp

Costen (or Causton) Beauchamp and a brother came to America together. Causton settled in Snow Hill, Maryland, and his brother in the South, possibly Louisiana. Causton afterward moved to Delaware, then to Kentucky and is supposed to be buried at Raywick, Marion County, Kentucky. He married Elizabeth Newell, to whom were born several children; was not a patriot of the Revolution, but a Tory, loyal to King George. He had his coat of arms and loved to talk of his distinguished ancestry and of the fortune that would descend to his posterity from the old country and of his knowledge of the two "missing links."

Johnson

I quote from a letter of Cave Johnson P. M. G. under Polk to his three sons, J. Hickman, Thomas Dickson and Polk Grundy: "Thomas Johnson, father of Cave Johnson, married Mary Noel, the daughter of Mary Noel, whose husband was killed during the Revolutionary War in Virginia at the Battle of Yorktown. She removed with her kinsman, the Rev. Richard Cave, to Kentucky in 1789, with her daughters, Mary and Rceanna Noel. I do not know the relationship existing between Mary Noel and the Rev. Richard Cave (were probably brother and sister). Mary and her two daughters were active members of his church. He was prominent and influential in the Baptist church. It is probable that the Johnsons of Kentucky were connected with the family of Richard Cave through Col. Richard M. Johnson, of Kentucky, and myself were unable to trace the relationship satisfactorily. Richard M. Johnson was given the name Richard after Richard Cave, whilst my mother gave me the name Cave after her much-beloved and venerated father, Col. Cave Johnson, of Kentucky, uncle of Rceanna Noel, also for this name."
