

both deceased, and she born January 29, 1865, in the Bradfordsville section of the county. She lived there until about twenty-seven years ago when she moved to Lebanon with her husband, F. M. Lollar, who died in 1915. She was buried at Ryder Cemetery. She was a good neighbor and friend and was a woman well liked by all who knew her. She united with the Christian Church early in life and remained faithful to its teachings until the end.

Surviving her are one brother, Tom Johnson of Ellisburg; three half-sisters, Mrs. Lillie Burchell and Mrs. Nannie Burchell, both of Bradfordsville, and Mrs. Monson, of Illinois; and one half brother, Dave Johnson of Ellisburg. A number of nieces and nephews also survive. A son, George Lollar, the only child, succumbed twelve years ago.

Funeral services were held at the Christian Church Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock by the Rev. Harold D. Groff, and burial was in Ryder Cemetery by the side of her husband.

The pallbearers were: Oscar Herrin, A. J. Garrison, Robert Burchell, Coakley Ellis, Bloice Woolley and Coy Overstreet.

Dr. Bennett To Speak.

Dr. R. V. Bennett, president of Kentucky Wesleyan College at Winchester, will deliver the commencement address to the graduates of the Lebanon High School on Friday evening, June 4, City School Superintendent J. H. Parker announced yesterday. Dr. Bennett is said to be an excellent speaker and should bring the students a message of importance.

The Marion County Fatground, at which thousands have assembled each year for the trading and running races and to inspect the displays of fine live stock and farm products, will be held at public auction Monday. Charles C. Boldrick will conduct the sale in accordance with a court order entered at the current term of the Marion Circuit Court. The property, located about a mile from town on Jackson's Lane, consists of approximately thirty-three acres of land. When it goes under the hammer all of the buildings belonging to the fair association, among them the grand stand and cattle

(Continued on page 2, column 2)

WILLS OF THREE FILED IN COURT

Churches, Orphanages To Share Estate Of Mrs. Lollar.

Devising the estates of three Marion County women, whose deaths have occurred recently, the wills of Mrs. Malinda J. Lollar of Lebanon, Mrs. Susan M. Cecil of St. Mary and Mrs. R. A. Padgett, were probated in the Marion County Court this week.

Various churches and orphanages share the property of Mrs. Lollar, whose will was written November 3, 1927. Following the payment of her debts and funeral expenses and the reservation of $100 to pay for the funeral costs of her father, Richard S. Johnson, if he be living,

(Continued on page 2, column 3)

COUNTY JUDGE
T. L. WEATHERFORD
ERT H. HARDESTY
ARENCE SPALDING

COUNTY CLERK
A. ("HONEY") GRAY
W. T. JONES
OHN J. KELLY

FOR SHERIFF
IN B. SPALDING
J. L. Glasscock, W. B. and J. B. McCauley
Y B. HOURIGAN
Leo Isaacs, John Beaven and Ed Thomas

FOR JAILER
E. T. BORDERS
FOR WARDEN
AX COMMISSIONER
IAM HAMILTON

OR CORONER
ERT BORDERS
ENCE WILLIAMS

MAGISTRATE
Precincts, Nos. 13 and 14
L. L. FARRIS
ONZO CRAIG
oretto, Holy Cross and incts, Nos. 19, 20, 21, 22
SLEY MEDLEY
L. OSBORN

rectincts, Nos. 15 and 16
J. L. PRICE
M. MILLER
B. BRADY

rectincts, Nos. 17 and 18
E PETERSON
NK, S. O'DANIEL
EE MATTINGLY

incts Nos. 9, 10 and 11 Calvary No. 12
HN BALLARD
REN BOBB

p. Precinct No. 5, Lebincts No. 6, 7 and 8.
RYAN WADE
M. BURRESS

ch and Riley Precincts, Nos. 1 and 2
LIAM WRIGHT

ive Nearing Goal.

ed from first page) boys in the city have sincerely embraced. The On my part, I feel it y duty to God and my has been on the tips guarantee of immortality numbers and not a few dy purchased their reparation for their own. This will

Christian spirit was reflected in the patient and cheerful manner she bore her final illness just as it was reflected in her useful life. Well read and ever eager to acquire further knowledge, possessing a pleasant disposition and an amiable nature and being tolerant and understanding, she had a wide circle of friends.

Surviving her are two sisters, Mrs.
Frank Ray of Homestead, Fla., and Mrs. A. M. J. Cochran of Maysville.
Three sisters preceded her to the grave; Mrs. R. B. Lyle, Mrs. January Grundy and Miss Cettie McElroy, and a brother died in boyhood.

Funeral services were conducted from the Presbyterian Church Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock by the pastor, Rev. Olof Anderson, and interment was by the side of Mr.
Cleland in Ryder Cemetery.

Palbearers were: P. K. McElroy, John R. Thomas, Horace A. Johnston, J. P. Hundley, L. S. Howard and George E. Kelly.

Marion Native Dies.

(Continued from first page)

family lot at Doctor's Fork Cemetery in Boyle County.

When a young man, Mr. Pipes united with the Rolling Fork Baptist Church and after locating in Alabama about thirty years ago transferred his membership to the Calera Baptist Church, of which he was an active member until stricken with the fatal illness nearly a year and a half ago. A man of considerable charity, his major interest was in small children in unfortunate circumstances.

Surviving him, other than his wife, Mrs. Nannie E. Pipes, are two brothers, J. T. Pipes of Louisville and H. T. Pipes of Clanton, Ala.; four sisters, Mrs. P. E. Hourigan of Penick, Mrs. Ann Roney of Perryville and Mrs. Will May and Mrs.
James Coyle of Gravel Switch, and a number of nieces and nephews.

Palbearers at Doctor's Fork were:
William Sinkhorn of Harrodsburg, Earl Pipes of Louisville and Hardy Coyle, Allen Harmon, Tom Lanham and Sam Moore, all of Gravel Switch.

Fairgrounds Sale June 7.

(Continued from first page)

barns, will be included.

The order of sale was the result of a suit filed by J. H. Cowherd against the Marion County Fair a mortgage on the fairground in order to satisfy a debt of $5,240.78.

The debt consists of three notes in the sum of $1,500 each, plus unpaid interest. Costs were estimated at $155.00.

The entire move is an act of the and J. Walter Hardesty were counsel for the defense. Approximately two hours was devoted to argument before the jury retired for deliberation. Those who spoke were Messrs.

Polin, Chelf, Hardesty and Green, each of whom required about thirty minutes for their summaries.

Composing the jury were: Roy Myers, Maurice Canoe, R. K. Smith, John Wright, George L. Spalding, C.
W. Yankey, Sam Evans, Irvine Mann, Richard Gribbins, Joe Ryan, Roy Newton and Les Simms.

Wills & Threes Filed

(Continued from first page)

she leaves a sum of $50.00 to the trustees of the Lebanon Christian Church and a similar amount to the trustees of the Pleasant Valley Christian Church near Bradfords-ville to be used at the discretion of the trustees for the benefit of the respective churches. A bequest of $200 is made to the trustees of the Ryder Cemetery Association, who are directed to use the income for the upkeep of her family lot. To an orphan's home in Lyndon she bequeaths $50.00 and she directs that the balance of her estate go to the Christian Church Orphan's Home in Louisville. The document states that her executor is to sell all of her household effects, her personal property and her real estate and that the proceeds be used to satisfy the legacies. P. W. Herren of Brad-fordsville is named executor without bond. Since Mr. Herren is deceased, Mrs. Lollar's nearest relatives have relinquished any right they may have to administer the will and ask that Oscar Herren be appointed to serve.

Mrs. Cecil's will, very concise, names her son, Bennett D. Cecil, as her executor and leaves him all of her household furniture and specified personal belongings. Bearing the witnessing signatures of J. Edgar the paper was written March 28, 1929.

Mrs. Padgett provides for the payment of her debts and funeral expenses, makes cash bequests to the five children of her son, T. G.
Padgett, and leaves the remainder of her property, both real estate and personalty, in equal shares to Mrs.
Fannie Whitlock, Willie B. Padgett's sister, Mattie Lanham and Bert Padgett. A. N. Powars and W. L.
Böhannon witnessed the will which is dated June 23, 1926.

To Get Diplomas.

(Continued from first page)

June 1, to the Mammoth Cave National Park. The trip will combine both education and pleasure.

told that none of the output would attempt to be sold here. Such products are wholesaled in quantities to large city stores and are on display in many of the country's most exclusive shops.

Those who were present at the meeting and who examined the bedspreads, blankets, ties and innumerable other items which were exhibited, stated that the quality of the material and workmanship and the beauty of the designs evidenced the fancy prices for which they sell.
Many of Kentucky's hand-woven merchandise is popular in Hollywood and in New York's prominent salons, it was said.

A committee appointed to solicit the needed funds here met at the City Hall Tuesday afternoon and organized for the campaign. The city will be systematically canvassed and the drive will begin shortly. Members of the committee are: John H. Boner, chairman; Robert Borders, J. P. Hundley, Irvine

An

A cordial in Springfield and the opening of o at

SPF
IN T

SATU

Because of c which includes Washington Coun

our appreciation.

Your confide numerous trips to eyesight in our ha in you by equippi visits more conven you.

Dr. L. N. Pe
charge of the Leb his son and a rece College of Entom

semi-consciousness, gradually ing weaker until she passed rs. Cleland had occasionally mented to her friends in recent the of a lack of stamina and on the night she was confined to her of years she had been con-ing specialists in regard to a re pain in her head but she was rently unaware of the heart tion.

Continued on page 2, column 2)

ARION NATIVE DIES IN ALABAMA lytic Stroke Proves Fatal To Clarence N. Pipes, 61, arence N. Pipes, formerly of county, died at his home in a, Ala., last Tuesday evening at o'clock following an illness of ysis and a complication of les. He was 61 years old and spent more than forty years in employ of the L. & N. Railroad d at the time of his death. neral services were conducted his pastor, the Rev. J. H. ock, at the Calera Baptist ch at 5:00 o'clock last Thursday noon, following which the body removed to the home of Mr. and Ray Cochran at Gravel Switch. rief services there, conducted e Rev. J. L. Adkins of Petry-interment took place in the

Continued on page 2, column 2)

County Stockman Paid $2,500 for Colt Only 10½ Months Old at is said to be the highest offered in the United for a colt and colt only ten half months old was paid to W. Cape Grant,

Farm, Le-

The colt was $2,500.
The horse was at the time in the the statement he had the fact the contract

roduced, a member of each class presenting his har classmates, and also naming himself. The sixth grade was awarded the banner for having the most mothers present.

A musical program in charge of Miss Kott presented the Blue Ribbon high school girls chorus under her direction singing the brilliant numbers: "Welcome, Sweet Springtime," "Will You Remember?" and "A Merry Life."

Officers reported on the year's activities, Mrs. Paul Goodin, secretary, and Mrs. W. H. Spragens, treasurer, reviewing the year's work. Miss Florence A. Edmonds then gave a brief outline of "The History of the Lebanon Parent-Teacher Association," for which she

Continued on page 8, column 1)

COMMENCEMENT AT ST. CHARLES IS SET

Thirteen To Receive Diplomas Sunday Evening, June 6.

Thirteen graduates of the St.
Charles High School will be awarded diplomas at the commencement exercises which have been set for 7:30 o'clock Sunday evening, June 6, at the St. Charles Church.
Arrangements for the exercises have not yet been completed but announcement has been made that on the same evening eighth grade pupils will also be presented with certificates admitting them to high school.

The 1937 graduates are: Misses Inez Buckler, Geneva Buckman, Ullaine Bickett, Georgia North-craft, Margaret Browning, Allie D.
Elder, Mary Helen Downs, Helen Mann and Marguerite Mattingly and John Edward Mattingly, Marion

Continued on page 8, column 3)

Byrnside, will not be affected insofar as its membership is concerned, was learned.

Since the proposal for expanding scouting was instituted a number of

(Continued on page 2, column 1)

THIRD STROKE PROVES FATAL

Mrs. Malinda Jane Lollar, 69, Succumbs At Home Here
Last Friday Afternoon.

Mrs. Malinda Jane Lollar, who had been confined to bed at her home on Serk Avenue in this city since early in January, passed away last Friday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock, her death resulting from paralysis. She had suffered three strokes. The first one occurred in October, 1936, and the second one in January of this year.
Last Thursday afternoon she was stricken with a third, from which she never rallied.

Mrs. Lollar was a daughter of Richard and May Cummins Johnson, both deceased, and was born January 20, 1868, in the Bradfords-ville section of the county. She lived there until about twenty-seven years ago when she moved to Lebanon with her husband, F. M. Lollar, his death in 1914 was caretaker at Ryder Cemetery. She was a good neighbor and friend and was a woman well liked by all who knew her. She united with the Christian Church early in life and remained faithful to its teachings until the end.

Surviving her are one brother, Tom Johnson of Ellisburg; three half-sisters, Mrs. Lillie Burchell and Mrs. Nannie Burchell, both of Brad-fordsville, and Mrs. Monson of Blinds and one half-brother, Dave Johnson of Ellisburg. A number of nieces and nephews also survive. A son, George Lollar, the only child, succumbed twelve years ago.

Funeral services were held at the Christian Church Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock by the Rev. Harold B. Groff, and burial was in Ryder Cemetery by the side of her husband.
The pallbearers were: Oscar Haran, A. J. Garrison, Robert Burchell, Cockley Ellis, Eloise Wesley and Coy Overstreet.

Dr. Bennett To Speak.

Dr. H. V. Bennett, president of Marion County Western College at Winchester, will deliver the commencement address to the graduates of the Lebanon High School on Friday afternoon, June 4, the school term of the year of Emmett Lee's fation of Prof. H. Clay. Because the city limits have been extended in many years dethe construction of numerous homes on the outskirts, the comunities must Lebanon, as a municipi-should embrace more territory include more of its residents in census.

A further means by which in-ance rates may be cut would be passage of an ordinance requir-certain safety measures in the struction of homes and other of buildings. Such a code, compli-with underwriters' requiremewas also discussed at the counmeeting.

Prior to adjournment, A. L.
Edmonds, Sam R. Goodin and S.
Shoemaker were again chosen equalize the assessment of property for city taxes.

FAIRGROUNDS SALE JUNE

Auction of Land and Building Ordered By Court To Satisfy Debt.

The Marion County Fairground, which thousands have assembled year for the trotting and running races and to inspect the displays fine live stock and farm produce, will be sold at public auction Monday June 14, at 10 o'clock, by Master Commissioner Charles C. Boldrick will conduct the sale in accordance with a court order entered at the current term of the Marion Circuit Court. The property located about a mile from town Jackson's Lane, consists of a proximately thirty-three acres land. When it goes under the hammer all of the buildings belonging to the fair association, among them the grand stand and cat-

(Continued on page 2, column 2)

WILLS OF THREE FILED IN COURT

Churches, Orphanages To Share Estate Of Mrs. Lollar.

Devising the estates of three Marion County women, whose deaths have occurred recently, the wills of Mrs. Malinda J. Lollar of Lebanon, Mrs. Susan M. Cecil of S.
Mary and Mrs. R. A. Padgett, were probated in the Marion County Court this week.

Various churches and orphanages share the property of Mrs. Lollar, whose will was written November 1, 1937. Following the payment of DEATH CLAIMS FERD LOLLAR.

Ferd W. Lollar, aged 52 years, died early Sunday morning at his home on East Main street of a complication of troubles, following an illness of several months. He was taken ill the latter part of last summer, and although he got able to be up and about town he never fully recovered. In October he took to his bed the second time and was never out again.

Mr. Lollar was born in Cumberland county in 1843 and spent his young manhood near Burkeville. About twenty-eight years ago he came to Marion county, locating at Bradfordsville where he was engaged in farming until six years ago when he moved with his family to this city. During his residence here he was superintendent of Ryder cemetery, and under his management the cemetery was kept in splendid condition. Nineteen years ago he was united in marriage to Miss Landa Johnson, of this county, who, with one son, George Lollar, survives. He is also survived by his mother, Mrs. Emerine Lollar, and five sisters and one brother, Mrs. Cenia Dodson, Mrs. Mary Sharp and Miss Martha Lollar, of Cumberland county, Mrs. Belle Proffitt, of Tompkinsville, Mrs. Janie Anderson, of Frankfort, Ind., and J. A. Lollar, of Taylor county.

Mr. Lollar was a member of the Christian church, and possessed high conceptions of his duty to his family and friends.

The funeral services were held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the residence, conducted by Rev. Geo. F. Duffy, pastor of the Christian church. The burial was in Ryder cemetery.

Fred W. Lollar

B. 29 Sept 1863

D. 20 Feb 1916

Sec B

W/o Malinda Jane Johnson Lollar

George H. Lla

B. 9 Nov 1897 d. 11 Mar 1926

Sec B

S/o Fred & Malinda

W/o Nora Fred Lollar

Vet. of WWI ~~Bo~~ Put. 1st

Class, Medical Dept.

Debarcation Hosp. No. 1

Malinda Jane Johnson Lollar

B. 29 Jan 1868

D. 30 Apr 1937

Sec. B

b + death?

d/o Richard S. + Mary Cummins Johnson

w/o Fred W. Lollar

Other Lollars are

Elizabeth Lollar

B. 1 Apr 1858 D. 26 Oct 1918

~~Elmer Mattingly Lollar~~

~~B. 1886 D. 1973~~

~~w/o Ben~~