Lucketts observe 50th anniversary

Preston and Amy Luckett celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary at a family dinner on Sunday, Feb. 25.

The couple married Feb. 26, 1946, at Holy Name of Mary Catholic Church in Calvary.

They have 17 children—12 daughters, Betty Lancaster, Lois O'Keefe, Sue Reynolds, Mary Yates, Theresa Brahm, Caroline Smith, Marilyn Spalding, Fran Medley, Janice Vize, Cindy Kelly, Angela Thompson and Amy Jaglowicz; and five sons, Wendell, Johnny, Jim, Joe and Michael Luckett. They also have 44 grandchildren (three deceased) and four great-grandchildren.

Luckett family is one of our largest

We occasionally devote this space to an interview with a Farmers National Bank associate who has been with us for a significant period. Today we want to share with you an interview we had with Cindy Kelty, who works in bookkeeping at the downtown bank.

Cindy, a native of Marion County, has been at Farmers since 1987. She is a member of one of the county's largest families, the Preston and Amy Luckett family which has 17 children and over 50 grandchildren.

One of the interesting aspects of the Luckett family is that all 17 of the children now live in Kentucky with nine residing in Marion County and four in Washington County. Cindy, who is the fourth from the youngest, says "We are a very close family and have had wonderful times together over the years."

At one time, 12 of the 17 were in school at the same time at St. Augustine, Lebanon Junior High and Marion County High School. The Luckett children--five boys and 12 girls--have produced over 40 grandchildren for Preston and Amy.

Cindy says she enjoys her work and would recommend banking to young people who are getting out of school. "We have very good people working here," she said, "and it is a relaxed atmosphere but business-like."

Cindy is married to "Ruck" Kelty and they have two children, Chris who is 8 and Brian who is 6. As a family, they like canoeing and camping out and both boys are active in soccer and baseball. It is families like the Lucketts and the Keltys who help make Marion County such a family-oriented and wonderful place to live.

THE ELECTION.

The election in this county last Monday passed off very quietly. A pretty full vote was polled. In the Lebanon precinct, notwithstanding the large vote taken, uninterrupted, good order was maintained. This result was no doubt partly due to the wise action of the City Fathers in closing all the saloons.

The negroes voted early, but, we are glad to say, conducted themselves very well.

The entire Democratic ticket was elected, except the nominee for Sheriff, who was beaten by Beaven, independent. The following is the

Dear Brenda,

Again Brenda I am sending you some information, I have not found it allyet!

ST. MARY'S

St. Mary's is a small community about 6 miles southwest of Lebanon. Like Holy Cross, Nerinx and other Catholic communities in our area it has been a part of the early development of our county. The Catholic church there is St. Charles and there is a cemetery nearby. St. Charles had a fire in the late 1800's (I think) and not all but a number of their records were destroyed, mainly marriage records. The enclosure entitled: THE CENTENARY OF CATHOLICITY IN KENTUCKY (heck of a title huh?) by Hon. Ben J. Webb gives an early description of the community and the establishment of St. Mary's College. In the late 1960's the priests sold the property to a group of people from California who established a communal type living arrangement for its members. The local people, county wide, did not receive this "new" group and their real or implied living arrangements and we, in general, Catholic and Protestant alike mourned the loss of the college. About 10 years ago the commune sold the property to a group of men who established it as a minimum security prison for profit. In other words, it is not ran by the state but by private corporation. My mother is the head nurse there now. Many persons were born in St. Mary's community, but don't think to many if any where born at the college. It was an all men's school.

FAIRLY FARM

I am not familiar with any farm in this area by that name. There is a Fairfield community in Nelson County that has a Catholic church, St. Michael's. Also there is in the western part of the state a community known as Fancy Farm. I have taken the liberty of sending information on it. A number of Catholic families from here went to Henderson, Daviess, Union and Graves counties in the west. Fancy Farm has quite a political history. It hosts an annual picnic that provides political candidates an opportunity to make speeches and shake hands with voters. It draws thousands of people from all over the state.

MARION COUNTY MARRIAGES

These are marriages that were performed in this county from 1834 to 1872 that we have a record of. The second page tells which are recorded in the Marion County Courthouse and which were located in records at the Catholic churches.

SAMUEL LUCKETT

It appears that Lloyd Luckett did have a brother named Henry and they were the sons of Henry Luckett who was the son of Samuel Luckett. As for proof on this information I have none, I found this information in the family files in Frankfort at the Historical Society. Perhaps if you could locate the book, "THE LUCKETTS OF PORTOBACCO" the proof may be recorded in it. The book was not at the historical society. Information on it may be available in Maryland.

CENSUSES MARION COUNTY KENTUCKY

1850, 1860 - These pages have the George Luckett's family on them.

1880 - This has Amanda Spalding Luckett and children living in the home with I assume her parents.

1910 and 1920 - I copied the information only on Joseph and Eugenia Luckett's family. The children who were born after 1911, I would be able to get a copy (if on file) from the local health department of their birth certificate. The certificates there are $3.00 each but are not the official ones. You can get an official birth certificate from the Office of Vital Statistics, 275 E. Main Street, Cabinet for Human Resources, Frankfort, Kentucky, 40601 for $10 each. The certificates from the local health department contain the same information: name of parents their ages, number of births, number of living children as the official record. The only difference is you get a xerox copy from the health department and the Vital statistics folks put it on official paper and notarize it as a true copy. To get to the baptismal records may take some doing and I don't know if I can accomplish this. I am protestant and it is very difficult for anyone who is not a direct relative to get access to the Holy Name of Mary church records in Calvary. But I will see.

HOLY NAME OF MARY CATHOLIC CHURCH - CALVARY KENTUCKY

Enclosed is a listing of Lucketts buried in this cemetery. This listing was done around 1970 so a lot of newer burials are not recorded here. Evidently there are four enfants buried there but have no names or dates. William Eugene is a possibility but again just a birth date and no death date. In looking over it I did not see any infant deaths that would have fit the time frame for Joseph B. and Eugenia's children. From everything that I have found thus far, they were members of this parish.

Sincerely,

Dear Mary Ella,

I am sorry for not getting back to you sooner. I've really not had a chance to work on my family tree for about a month, alot going on around here. I have not forgotten you though.

I just wanted to "Thank you" for all your hard work in getting me all the information that you have.

At this point I am currently going to work on another name in my search.

I believe these people are from Ohio.

Therefore, you can take a break from searching for my names and help someone else. But I would like to know if I do need your help again that I could write you.

I am enclosing a check for your amount due.

Thank you again.

Sincerely
Brenda Tolman

Dear Ms Glasscock,

Thank you for all your hard work. Enclosed is a check for the amount I owe you. I'm sorry it took so long to get back with you. The holidays keep us all very busy.

I think right now the only few things I need are the baptismal records and marriage records of the following names.

If you run into a snag about the records could you tell them that you are doing research for me. If you need a really close relative, I can possibly get my uncle to write a letter. Since he is the son of Cynthia Hester Luckett and grandson to Joseph Luckett. I'm only a great granddaughter by marriage to Joseph Luckett.

Names on next page.

Sorry I couldn't get to this sooner. There will be a $15.00 for certificates, time involved & postage. Make payable to:

Walters Memorial Methodist Church 3265 Hwy 208

Bert N. Joe On Boards

Against St. Joe on Tuesday, the Panthers led almost from the beginning. Though their 85 per cent shooting average failed to match that of the Old Kentucky Home team, the L.H.S. crew excelled in rebounding, winning the boards, 36 to 26, effectively control both boards.

Grahams led in three departments with 23 and pitched in 16 points to take runner-up honors in scoring, second only to the 25-point contribution of Edward Randallton. Next in line were Rivers with nine and Lynn Wilson with six.

St. Joe's Perry Schreiber was all point-makers with 20.

The quarter teams found Lebanon in top by 16-15, 32-27 and 45-36.

Nelson Five Tips Falcons By 78 to 58

After topping the crown in the St. Francis Invitational Tournament Sunday on their home court, the Falcons of St. Francis High School Tuesday night fell victim by 78-58 to Old Kentucky Home High School's netters at Bardstown.

The Falcons went ahead of the Nelson Countians early in the game, and the first stanza ended with St. Francis on top by 14-13. Old Kentucky Home outpointed the Marion Countians by 11 points in the second frame, however, to take a 35-26 lead, and were in front by 66-47 at the end of the third period before winning by 20.

Forward Bert Spalding led St. Francis with 22 and E. Taylor sank 20 for the winners.

The loss gives the charges of Coach Sam Thomas a record of eight wins and 12 defeats. The Falcons meet Mackville on the Falcon court Tuesday and next Thursday will play Rosedale High School at Sterrett Gymnasium.

Tigers Defeat Boyle Cagers By 47 to 45

St. Charles guard Bert Luckett pumped through 27 points Tuesday night to lead the Tigers to a 47-45 win over Perryville High School on the Tiger hardwood. It was the fourth win in 16 starts for Coach Jack Deppeler's netters.

The Tigers got a slim lead in the second period and held it. After it was tied 10-10 at the end of the first period, the St. Charles cagers went 18-10 in the second half and stayed close, reduced by 26-26 at the end of the third period before winning. The two teams played to a tie at 38.

Month-Old Baby Dies In Wreck

A month-old baby was fatally injured and four other persons were hurt—two of them seriously—in a Sunday morning automobile accident in Washington County.

Dead on arrival at Mary Immaculate Hospital was Richard M. Graves, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Leo Graves, Route 2, Springfield.

Injured were Mr. and Mrs. Graves; another son, Joseph William, 2; and Joseph Adolf Hagan, 40, also of Route 2, Springfield.

Mrs. Graves, the former Miss Lula Bland of Calvary, suffered a fractured jawbone and a broken right arm. Hagan, a brother of the Rev. Hubert Hagan, pastor of St. Charles Church, received a fractured back and a broken left ankle. Both are under treatment at Mary Immaculate Hospital.

Graves and his two-year-old son escaped with minor injuries.

State Trooper William Brodt said cars driven by Graves and Hagan collided at the crest of a hill on Bear Wallow Road, seven miles west of Springfield. The accident occurred at 8:50 a.m.

Funeral services for the Graves baby were held at 10 a.m. Monday at the grave in St. Rose Cemetery.

Dear Mary,

This letter is to confirm my telephone call of January 7th.

I am still looking for some proof that Henry Luckett is the father of Lloyd R. Luckett.

When I was in Lebanon in August, I found on your microfilm rolls of "Wills" a copy of the Will of Henry Luckett which listed the names of the children and I thought that would be all I would need.

However, in the Will my Lloyd R. Luckett is listed as Richard (A or R) Luckett. We believe that Lloyd and Richard are one in the same but the wording in the will is not clear.

I am hoping that you also have on microfilm there other probate activities for the Estate of Henry Luckett, specifically a "Final Settlement" of the Estate of Henry Luckett that may list the disposition of real property owned by Henry.

I know this will involve some time so I am enclosing my check for $20.00 to help cover some of the costs. Let me know if there are others.

My sisters and I are planning a return trip to Bardstown/Lebanon in June to do somemore searching. We will definitely stop in to see you.

Thanks for your time.

Sincerely,

Carolyn Luckett Smith

Dear Carolyn,

I have enclosed copies of the settlement of Henry Luckett's estate. I hope it contains the proof you need. I pieced a copy together to make it a little easier to read. I left the original micro-film copy in sections. I think it will be fairly easy for you to assemble. I numbered them so you would know which one was first etc.

I look forward to seeing you in June.

Enumerations were taken in the thirteen original states: Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Connecticut, Rhode Island, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, and Georgia. Enumerations were also taken of Vermont which became a state in 1791, Maine which was part of Massachusetts, Kentucky which was a part of Virginia, and the present states of Alabama and Mississippi which were parts of Georgia. There was also a census of the present state of Tennessee which was a part of North Carolina in 1790 but was organized as the Southwest Territory soon thereafter.

Unfortunately, some of the early census schedules had been lost or could not be found by the Census Bureau in 1907 when the Director of the Census directed their publication. Those missing are for the states of Delaware, Georgia, Kentucky, New Jersey, Tennessee (Southwest Territory), and Virginia. They were believed to have been destroyed when the British burned the Capitol at Washington during the War of 1812. This has been discounted because most of the schedules likely remained in the hands of the U.S. District Courts until the resolution of March 28, 1830.

For the states for which the schedules are missing the government attempted to fill in with substitutions from state and county tax lists.

Source: NORTH CAROLINA 1800 CENSUS INDEX

The 1850 census is the first to list the names of the wife, children, and other persons in each household. Their age, occupation, value of property is listed. This census reveals whether adults could read or write, who had married within the year, children attending school, and those with physical impairments, such as: blind, deaf or idiotic. As the majority of the adults could not read or write, many of the names are spelled phonetically. In many cases the vowels are missing. The same family name has a number of variations, such as: Payton, Peyton, and Pyton.

Appreciation is expressed to Bertha Wesley who assisted in checking microfilm information, and to the personnel of the Casey County Public Library for assistance and cooperation in many ways.

It is hoped that this publication will encourage the research of ancestors who lived in Casey County, Kentucky in 1850.

"In all of us there is a hunger, marrow-deep to know our heritage . . . to know who we are and where we have come from. Without this enriching knowledge, there is a hollow yearning. No matter what our attainments in life, there is still a vacuum, an emptiness, and the most disquieting loneliness."

Dear Carolyn:

I have been unable to come up with anything that would document the birth of Lloyd R. Luckett. I am enclosing some copies made from "Baptismal Records of Holy Mary Church Calvary, Ky" compiled by Joseph E. Johnson; I did not find Lloyd's baptismal but did find a couple of the other children of Henry Luckett and Elizabeth Beavens. You may already have this information; I have enclosed it just in case you do not.

Sincerely,

Mary

I am planning a trip to your area the first week of August to do some geonological digging.

I am looking for a record of birth for

LLOYD R LUCKETT

Ms. Mattingly:

I am writing in response to your call for old photographs for the Marion County history book. My great-great grandparents were Eugenia (THOMAS b1875) and Joseph Benjamin LUCKETT (b1872). They had a farm and raised 13 children in Lebanon, KY.

As a result, my family now has a collection of photographs (1914-1919) most of which are stamped "J.W. Miller Lebanon KY." Fortunately, one of my ancestors was very organized and labeled and dated most of these photographs. I have enclosed a general listing of the photos. I have a feeling that most of the people were friends or neighbors to my relatives.

Even if these photos will not help with the history book, I would love to share them with anyone who is interested!

Thank you,
Amy Stoll
