

Patricia Jones of Tulsa, Oklahoma, shares this photo of her great-great-grandmother, Rachel Haddix, born 1814 in Clay County (later Breathitt County). Rachel was the daughter of William Haddix, the first sheriff of Breathitt County, and was married to Absalom McIntosh.

Evelyn Mardis, 436 Country Club, Lebanon, KY 40033, shares this photo of the 1948 graduating class of Bradfordsville High School (Marion County). She would like to hear from members of the class. Shown are eight boys, eight girls, and the principal. Front row, l-r: Phyllis Glasscock, Juanita Turngate, Clarice Edwards, Myrtle Richards, Lois Ann Spalding, and Evelyn Wooley. Back row, l-r: Teresa Crews, Eddie Lee Hogan, Charles Crowe, Billy Cox, Cleo Gribbins, Charles Cook, principal B. H. Crowe, Billy Wilson, William Wooley, Wendell Overstreet, and Edrie Wright.

Old Photos (Preserved photographs!)

as John C.C. Mayo (1864-1914) in York City in 1914, he was held in Paintsville.

J.W. Heath, P.O. Box 381, Livermore, KY 42352, shares this photo taken in the early 1960s during the construction of the Tennessee Valley Authority's large steam plant on the Green River at Paradise in Muhlenberg County. During its first year, the plant burned more than 23 million tons of coal. Mr. Heath was foreman of this crew of pipefitters on the job. From left to right: J.W. Heath, Clifford Peach, Gene Whitaker, Sam Variot, Pete Webb, and Walter Simms. In the late 1960s the plant was greatly enlarged and today provides over one million kilowatts of electricity to the area.

Letcher County dulcimer maker, James Thomas (1850 - 1933), made approximately 1,500 dulcimers.

May 27 - 1964

Mrs. Irene Mardis Dies At Norton's

Mrs. Irene Mardis, of the Kindness community of Taylor County, died suddenly at Norton Hospital in Louisville Tuesday, May 26, at 2:30 a.m. Funeral services will be conducted Wednesday, May 27, in the Parrott-Ramsey Funeral Home at 3 p.m. by Rev. D. L. Druien, and Dr. J. Chester Badgett. Burial will be in the Colvin Cemetery.

Mrs. Mardis, 60 years of age, was born in Taylor County in 1903, daughter of the late Thomas and Mary Eunice Colvin Mardis. She was a member of the Pleasant Hill Baptist Church.

She united in marriage to Malcom Mardis, October 28, 1922 and to this union two children were born. David Mardis of Anchorage and Mrs. Bobbie Benningfield of Lebanon.

Besides her husband and children, she is survived by two brothers, J. R. Mardis, Rt. 2, and James Mardis, Rt. 6; two grandchildren and one great-grandson.

Pallbearers were Stanley Raffety, Closkey Colvin, Leonard Richerson, Charles Mardis, Harry Leslie Mardis and Tom Mardis.