MATHERLY-PURDOM FAMILY OF WASHINGTON COUNTY

David Houston Matherly (1853-1934) and Sarah Frances (Purdum) Matherly (1852-1934) came to Washington County in the 1890s.

Married in Mercer County (1874), they lived on Deep Creek off Harrodsburg-Mackville Road near the Washington County line until moving to a farm they purchased (Derwood Shewmaker farm) near Mackville on the Willisburg Road.

He was a son of James Jefferson Matherly (1825-1905) and Elizabeth (Devine) Matherly (1830-55); grandson of Banister Coleman Matherly (1803-61) and Susanna (Taylor) Matherly (1803-61), all of Mercer County, and his great grandparents were Israel and Sarah (Cheney) Matherly (married in North Carolina 1778) who settled at Deep Creek in 1810, coming from Virginia.

The Matherlys originally came from

Her parents were William (1825-1910) and Elizabeth (Blacketer) Purdom (1828-55); grandparents were Marcus and Polly (Billator) Purdom, married in 1814, and her great grandparents were

*John Purdom and 21st
Susannah Graham Purdom*

The Purdoms, farmers and timber people, also settled at Deep Creek. They came from Wales via England after 1770.

The seven children of David (Dave) and Sarah Matherly, and their offsprings were:

William Jefferson Matherly (1875-1960), married Sally Shewmaker (1875-1961), son, Roy Matherly.

Mecie Willis Matherly (1876-1901), married Oscar Sweeney, daughter, Gladys Sweeney.

Ollie Elizabeth Matherly (1878-1963), married William Lee Shewmaker (1873-1928), children, Ona (Mrs. Herman Kays); Jewell (Mrs. Ruel Keeling); Georgia (Mrs. Roy Gabhart), and Hansford (Hamp) Shewmaker.

Cordelia Pearl Matherly (1882-1962), married William Dell Bottom (1881-1963), children, Maurice Bottom, Raymond Bottom, Mrs. Frances Beck, Mrs. Sally Norton, Mrs. Willa Frank, and Robert Merrill Bottom.

Flora Belle Matherly (1884-1958), married Herman Shewmaker (1882-1964), children, Granville Shewmaker, Thelma Shewmaker, and Mabel Frances Shewmaker (Mrs. R. C. Moore).

Robert Matherly (1887-1977), married Ada Kays (1888-1936), children, Miss Mayme Frances Matherly and Evelyn Matherly (1916-26).

Charles Hartford Matherly (1893-1977), married Edith Trent (1896-1986), daughter, Mrs. Marilyn Matherly Fender.

Mr. and Mrs. Matherly were prudent people. He was short in stature and recognized as one of the county's best known farmers and livestock producers. She was a housewife whose tasty teacakes were enjoyed by her own and three succeeding generations.

He was oft quoted. " 'Pon (upon) my honor," he would vow in verifying his spoken words, and made sage reference to peoples' favor-trading activities by saying, "There's policy in war."

They were Baptists and bold in pointing to biblical warnings and promises that reveal fear of God as a divinely approved motivation for pursuing righteousness.

The influence of David and Sarah Matherly is still exercised as the year 2000 approaches. It is evident in lives of their descendants living around the world.

Washington countians in 1989 among their descendants are granddaughters Miss Mayme Frances Matherly, retired teacher, Springfield; Mrs. Roy (Georgia) Gabhart, Mackville, and Mrs. R. C. (Frances) Moore, Mooresville.

Great grandchildren in the county are Mrs. George (Wanda Shewmaker) Matherly and Lynn Keeling, Springfield; Kenneth Gabhart and Mrs. Mitchell (Dottie Shewmaker) Burns, Mackville, and Helen Moore Leschman, Dorothy Moore Shewmaker, Jacqueline Moore, Bill R. + Geraldine Warland.

There are also a number of great, great, great grandchildren.

Simpson in Harrodsburg on 02-MAR-1918 (MCM Bk. 28, Pg. 56). He was twenty-seven and she was nineteen. Both of them were born in Washington Co. Her parents were Dave and Lettie Simpson. The witnesses were A. Matherly and G. C. Bottoms.

Sterling Matherly (b. 26-JAN-1919, d. 25-APR-1984), son of Raymond and Grace, is buried in the Peters Cemetery in Mackville. He married Virginia M. Darland, one of James M. ("Dick") Matherly Sr.'s descendants on 07-OCT-1946.

William W. Matherly, said to be the oldest of George W.'s children, married Laura B. Martin in Springfield on 22-OCT-1893. (The bond date was 21-OCT-1893.) They were married at Wm. Brown's by the Rev. R. L. Purdom. The witnesses were John Peter and J. T. Barker, and the surety was Sherman Bottom.

W. W. and Laura B. had at least two daughters. Leona married Carrol Stopher on 20-DEC-1928 in Mercer Co. (MCM Bk. 40, Pg. 75). Eolin married Kearney B. Johnson (s/o of Will and Margaret Johnson) at Bruner's Chapel in Mercer Co. on 08-DEC-1921 (MCM Bk. 33, Pg. 36), with the Rev. J. G. Prather officiating.

Mayme: Do you know anything else about them?
Vernon Lee is thought to have been the youngest of George W.'s children. One of his sons, George Vernon Matherly, is a retired banker in Springfield, Kentucky. His wife is a descendant of David Houston Matherly and, as a result, they and their descendants are among those featured in the section devoted to the James Jefferson Matherly line. Like his sister, Mrs. Helen Lipsey, George Vernon was not able to provide any additional information about his family's history. Mrs. Mayme Matherly, a neighbor of George Vernon, knew of two more sons of Vernon Lee: Roy Marvin and Donovan Turner.

Mabel Matherly (1896-1962), wife of Vernon Lee Matherly, is buried in the Peters Cemetery in Mackville. Beside her is Frank Morris Matherly (1921-1939).

In a letter, Mrs. Lipsey wrote that her uncle, Walter Jeffries Matherly, Sr., traced the family tree about thirty years ago. Unfortunately, Walter and his wife are both deceased and Mrs. Lipsey did not know where the information is now located. Walter Jeffries Matherly II believes us that there may be some genealogical information among some of his late parents' papers, and he plans to investigate this possibility.

Rosa Matherly married Thomas Purdom at George Matherly's in Mercer Co. on 26-OCT-1897 (MCM Bk. 17, Pg. 466). She was 21 years old. The surety was Andrew Lester.

Mary F. ("Fanny") Matherly married T. Sherman Bottom on 21-FEB-1889 at George Matherly's in Washington Co. (The bond date was 19-FEB-1889.) George W. Matherly was the surety (WC 1886-1893 Bonds, Pg. 165). Fanny and Sherman are buried in the Peters Cemetery at Mackville. Fanny's daughter Florence married Johnnie Devine, a barber from Danville.

Because more information is available on Walter J. Matherly, Sr.'s line than on most of the other lines from George W. Matherly's children, the details on him and his descendants are presented in the family group format used in previous chapters.

NOTE: most of this information was taken from a letter written by Walter J. Matherly II.

Mr. Robert Matherly
Springfield, Ky.

Dear Robert:

You was interested in knowing who your grandmother Pardon was, hence I was in the Court House here in Harrodsburg and looked through an index and I found that one W. M. Pardon, was married to Eleanor Minor 1837--Another W.M. Pardon married Mary Jane Russell in the year 1856 and that William O. Pardon married Rosa Salmon in yr. 1907. I knew this woman who became to be the widow of Ben Patterson, and died just a few years ago here in Harrodsburg.

Thought that you might figure out from this information the answer to your inquiry.

It was nice to see you and your daughter during the holidays. I can very well remember the close friendship of my our grandmother and your father--I took her to Mackville at differed times to visit.

Sincerely Yours

Chas. S. Matherly

Mayme Matherly
209 E. Virginia Ave
Springfield, Ky. 40069

Dear Mayme,

It might not be too long before I come to see you. I will be sure to call you before I come. I know you are gone a lot.

I have been in contact with Faye S. Sanders of late. I have begun purchasing her books because it would be almost impossible to have enough time to come to the Washington Co. Library to look through them. The University of Kentucky Library might have them, but I would just as soon buy them and then I could do research to my heart's content without leaving the house.

There was some information that you and Eathel Richard both sent to me that I want to ask you about. It concerns the family of Abraham Smith Kays and his wife Myrah Belle Deadmon Kays. One of his grandchildren by Edward and Naomi Pearl Gibson Kays was Mary Louise Kays, married to an England, but the first name wasn't listed. Faye Sanders went to high school with her. The way it came up was that Faye asked me if any of the Kays family I was researching came from Tatham Springs. Faye told me she thought Mary Louise still lived in Tatham Springs, but was a widow. She thought her married name was Ingalls or some such spelling. She could have been married again. The Tatham Springs listing should probably be in your telephone book. If you could, would you see if you could locate her for me? I would like to write her and get more information on her family. You may even know someone in Springfield that might know her.

If the history is going to come out in August, I might wait until it is published before I come. If it is going to be later, I will probably try to come on.

I have noticed in some of the books Faye has had published on the cemeteries has your name in them. You must have spent a lot of time coping the records from the gravestones. I know what it is like from the small amount that I have done.

How is Mary doing these days. I know some months ago you said she was getting along a lot better. I hope she still is.

Hope to hear from you soon.
