Dear Mary,

I certainly appreciated you answering my letter Sept, 1981.

I have tried to go through different sources to find my family history but I am having a lot of trouble connecting my lineage. Most of the publications I have received cover the Northern and North-Eastern part of Kentucky, but there is very little on the North-Western section.

I am hoping you have some information I need. I would appreciate anyone who could look through some specific material for me. I will gladly pay them for their time. Just let me know the fee they would require.

McAnally

The most important information I lack at this time is on

George McAnally.

He is my Great-Grandfather.

The info I have is:

1835 - Nancy McAnally was born to
(Death Record) George McAnally and Pally Bannister

1850 - Nancy's Mother, Pally, was listed as census married to a Ragland

(Nancy McAnally married James Dever)

The information I need:

1840 - Census - to see if George McAnally
is listed
Also, his death record between 1840 and 1850

1860 - Census - to see if Pally Ragland (and husband) is listed

Sometimes McAnally is spelled with an "e" - McAnelly.

I appreciate your time given on this.

Sincerely

Janita Simon

Dear Juanita,

I could not find George Mc Anally on the 1840 census. I found only one Mc Anally and that was James, between 30 and 40 years of age with one male between 5 and 10 and one male between 10 and 15; with three females under 5, one female between 5 and 10, and one female between 30 and 40.

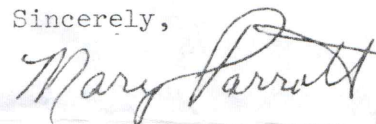

The 1850 census listed: McAnally, Thomas, age 22, with Margaret age 26, and John W. age 6 months. I also found Danile Ragland, age 33, farmer born Ky. with Polly, age 43, born North Carolina, and Nancy McAnelly, age 15, born Ky. However I did not find Danile Ragland on the 1860 nor the 1870 censuses.

The 1850 census also had:

Eli McAnally,	age	33,	farmer,	born	Ky.
Roda "	"	, age	43	"	Va.
Albert "	"	"	14	"	Ky.
Nancy "	"	"	12	"	"
Lucy J. "	"	"	10	"	"
John "	"	"	8	"	"
W.T. "	"	"	5 male	"	"

Sorry I could not be of more help.

Sincerely,

Mary Parrott
