THOMPSON-McBRIDE.

The marriage of Miss Mabel Thompson, of this city, and Charles McBride, formerly of this county but now of Pittsburgh, took place at St. Augustine's church Tuesday morning at six o'clock. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. A. Hogarty in the presence of only a few relatives and friends.

Miss Catherine Barr and Julian Thompson, of Louisville, were the attendants.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. McBride left for Louisville by motor, and later took a train for Pittsburgh where they will make their home. They will go to housekeeping at once, Mr. McBride having recently purchased a modern home in that city.

The bride is a daughter of the late D. T. Thompson and is a well known Lebanon girl. For some time past she has been employed as a saleswoman by Boner-Oldham Co., and previous to accepting a position with that house was with other local firms. She enjoys a wide acquaintance both in Lebanon and in the county. Mr. McBride has been making his home in Pittsburgh for several years, and is employed as a conductor by the street railway company. He is a son of John McBride, and previous to going to Pittsburgh lived in the Bradfordsville section. Mr. McBride has previously been married, his former wife, who was Miss Annie Clarkson of this county, having died a year or two ago.
