The wedding of Miss Lena Lee and Edelen Mills was solemnized Monday morning at 9:30 o'clock at St. Joseph's church in the western part of the county, the pastor, Rev. Henry P. Jasinski, officiating in the presence of a number of relatives and friends. The ceremony was followed by a Nuptial High Mass. The church was decorated with lighted candles, potted plants and ferns.

The bridal party entered the church to the strains of Farrar's Wedding March, "Love's Confiding," with Sister Dorothy Ann at the organ. Battmann's Chapel March was played as the party left the church.

Miss Lucille Lee, sister of the bride, was the bridesmaid, and Leo Mills, brother of the groom, was the best man.

The bride was attractively attired in a medium blue crepe dress with hat and slippers to match and carried an arm bouquet of pink rosebuds and ferns.

The bridesmaid wore a rose crepe dress with brown hat and slippers to match. Her flowers were an arm bouquet of pink roses.

Following the ceremony a dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Mills will go to housekeeping on his father's farm at St. Joseph.

Mrs. Mills, who is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lee of St. Joseph, is quite popular and possesses many qualities that have endeared her to a wide circle of friends.

Mr. Mills is a son of W. J. Mills and is a splendid young man. The couple has many friends who wish them much happiness.

(a mission church branched from Holy Mary Church, Calvary, Ky. formed around 1874. However records do not go back that far. The church was located on top of Muldraugh Hill, on a road known as St. Matthew Ridge, also known as Peanut Ridge and Finley Ridge. The road connected Finley and St. Joseph Roads. I think it was called Clear Creek also, but am not certain of that. The church was torn down when the new church at Finley, Our Lady of the Hills (on Lebanon - Campbellsville Road, close to Marion-Taylor County Line) was Built in Jan 1908. The old cemetery remains at original site, but only a few of the original stones have survived over the years.

James Hayden Mills born 12/11/1887, the son of JOSEPH HAYDEN MILLS and SUSAN CATHARINE MOORE.

Joseph Hayden Mills born c 1857 in Marion County, Kentucky the son of James Mills and Cynthia Jarboe, married in Shawneetown, Gallatin County, ILL on 7/5/1880 Susan Catharine Moore b 1860 in Gallatin Grove, ILL.

Joseph Hayden Mills born 11/8/1858 in Marion County, Kentucky, the son of JAMES MILLS and Cynthia Jarboe (b 6/7/1821, d 6/18/1869).

James Mills (b c 1822) and Cynthia were the head of a household in Marion County, Kentucky in 1850 census with Emily J. age 7, John F. age 5, J.B. age 3 (boy), M.C. age 1 (girl) and Dolly Jarboe (Dorothy Jarboe) age 19 - probably sister of Cynthia. The same family in 1860 census of Marion County - Emily age 16, John age 15, James age 13, Mary age 11, Marcus age 8, Elizabeth age 7 and Joseph age 2 (JOSEPH HAYDEN MILLS born 1858).

1850 census of Marion County -- couples old enough to have son James Mills b c 1822 who was married in 1850.

1. Joseph Mills age 47 (b c 1803, not yet 21 in 1823), with wife Susan (age 44, b 1806) and children: Thomas Mills age 20, William Mills age 18, G.W. (boy) Mills age 17, Martha A. Mills age 15, Dennis Mills age 12, Martin Mills age 12, Susan Mills age 9, Elizabeth Mills age 7, E.J. (girl) Mills age 6, and Joseph Mills age 1. (This couple was old enough to have James Mills born in 1822, and probably other children who were also married.) Joseph Mills married Susan Ray on 1/16/1827 -- THIS ONE DELETED.

2 Cornelius Mills age 59, wife Sarah age 50 b in MD, with children John Mills age 23, Charles Mills age 21, Laura Mills age 19, Amanda Mills age 18 (This couple was old enough to have James Mills born in 1822.) Cornelius Mills m Sarah Bolds on 1/8/1814.

3 James Mills age 51, wife Nancy age 56, and children Margaret A. age 20, Martha age 19, Mary C. age 13, Isabella age 11. (This couple was old enough to have James Mills born in 1822.) James Mills m 11/8/1828 Anne Mills. THIS ONE DELETED.

4 Nicholas Mills age 49, wife Catharine age 49, and children Thomas age 23, Mary A. age 16, William age 13, Elizabeth age 11, Nancy age 8.

Ignatius Mills wrote his will (D:300) in Washington County, Kentucky on 9/10/1827 and it was probated on 11/26/1827. He named his wife Mary, and six sons James Mills, Steven Mills, Cornelius Mills, Martin Mills, Leo Mills and Thomas Mills, daus Allavesa (Aloyisia - Louisa) m 11/6/1806 Richard Fenwick in Wash Co. Bk 1:71), Mary Mills, Martha Abell (Martha Mills m 10/12/1819 Joseph Abell, Jr. in Nelson Co., KY).

Nicholas Mills wrote his will (B:347) on 4/8/1814 and it was probated on 7/11/1814. He named his wife Sarah, his brother Ignatius Mills, no children. Nicholas Mills m/2 Sarah Bickett on 11/4/1811, no children. I believe he was married in Maryland before coming to Kentucky -- apparently all of his children were provided for at the time of their marriage, or were deceased, since none were mentioned in his will.

Nicholas Mills and his older brother Ignatius Mills were the sons of Nicholas Mills b c 1735 and Anastasia _____. They had another brother Justinian Mills who married Mary Ann Dant. The children of all three of these brother were in Washington County, Kentucky. Some moved into Union County, Kentucky. Joseph Mills the son of Justinian Mills left a will in Union County, Kentucky in 1853. This Joseph Mills' brothers Nicholas Mills and Peter Mills also lived in Union County.

Since your James Mills was in Marion County in 1850 and 1860 I would think he would be the son of Cornelius Mills of Ignatius Mills b 11/16/175- in St. Mary's County, MD, d 1827 in Washington Co., KY.

I haven't anything more on the Mills. If you ever find any proof for any more of this line, I would greatly welcome this information. I will keep your material on file and will let you know if I came across anything more.

Cynthia Jarboe with a sister Dorothy "Dolly" Jarboe, I have no proof for parents. I would say you need to check the 1840 census record of Marion County to see who had a daughter born in 1821 or 1822 and another daughter born in 1831. Whoever that person is would probably be her parent. Not in any of my Jarboe material. Probably Mark, Stephen, Walter or a William Jarboe. God bless you abundantly during this blessed season and a joyous 1995,

Happy hunting,

Mary Louise Drannelly

P.S. I allow people to make their own donations toward my genealogy work.

Hi Mary

Have I've been using the wrong
last name?, (AKERS)
If so, I'm sorry.

I'm still reviewing the material I received today.

Good stuff if you come up with any thing else, let me know.

Here's a check for $60 50 to cover the charge that you stated in your letter.

I only wish my penmanship was as good as yours.

Happy Holidays
Yours truly
Willis

Dear Willis:

It is with deep regret that I am returning your information about your loved ones and it saddens me that my records do not indicate any info about their past. The blame could be directed toward bad book-keeping or maybe St. Ambrose is not a part of the Hayden and Mills family history. Please notify me Willis if I can help out in any other way.

God Bless You.

Att Jane Thomas;

Dear Jane Thomas;

During the Catholic Reunion this past week I visited the Genealogical Room of the Lebanon Library and found the Railey family file.

In the file was a letter from Brent Mills Bledsoe requesting help in finding information on the parents of Stephen Mills who married Ann Railey in Washington Co.

There is a hand written note on the bottom of the page which said this request was passed on to you and was dated Sept. 1994.

I wish that Brent had put his address in the letter. I am also looking for the same information on the parents of Stephen Mills.

I thought that it was Charles Mills who was married to Ann Brown, but have been told by on other researcher that the Stephen Mills who was the child of Charles and Ann was her ancestor and that she has already had it submitted and approved by the DAR.

Stephen Mills who was married to Ann Raley is my gg grandfather. The children were Bernard b-abt 1831, Mary Ann b- Nov. 1, 1832, Elizabeth A. b- Jan 4 1834, and Benjamin Thomas b- DEC 29 1836.

Something happened to Ann Raley between 1836 and 1845, because Stephen Mills married Belinda Pierceall Bright who was a widow with six children and they moved out to Indian Creek Mo.

Stephen and Belinda had five more children born in MO. Most records refer to Belinda as Milinda For those who are checking out sources.

Stephen and Belinda are buried in the Indian Creek Cemetery, located next to St. Stephen's Catholic Church, Monroe CO, MO.

Stephen listed a Joseph A. Mills as a son in his Will, who was already dead when the will was written, with Joseph share to go to his heirs. Two sons signed for their share.

Joseph was not listed as a son of either wife. It may be possible that Stephen was married before Ann Raley. He was born in 1804, he married Ann Jan 19, 1829 at the age of 25 it appears.

I have information on many of the descendants of Stephen and Belinda . I would like to contact Brent Mills Bledso if you still have an address some where, or know where he was from. I would like to talk to anyone else who can help us find Stephen's parents. I will be glad to share information.

I am hoping to put together a Genealogy Book on the Stephen Mills Descendants, and place it in some of the Libraries where others can continue the research.

Any help you can give me will be appreciated. I will inclose some information to put in your Mills family file.

Sincerely;

James M. Mills

Dear Researchers,

I have been doing research on the Mills family from Washington & Marion counties and I was wondering if you could help.

I have enclosed family sheets showing the family I need help on. I am trying to find the parents of Stephen Mills who married Ann Railey in Washington Co. Their son, Benjamin Thomas, was given up at an early age to Israel Cannon of Washington Co. who then came to Warren Co. I don't know the reason why Benjamin was given up or what happened to his parents. Any help you can give will be appreciated.

Thank you,

Brent Bledsoe

8-19-1987

Dear Sir or Mam,

I am writing to you in hopes you can help me to further my research on my family tree. Some time ago a relative gave me some information but at the time it didn't make much sense.

At the Library the other night a very helpful librarian was able to give me your address and so I'm writing to you and I am asking you for help. I have been searching the books and other records for information on my MILLS line but without much success, so I'm sending you what information so you can help me.

My family migrated from Maryland down thru the territory to Kentucky and then later ended up in Parsons, Kansas. The papers I have tell me that the old court records of Nelson and Washington counties should help me. I have gone thru all our Genealogical records on Kentucky looking for these two particular counties but without success. Could you please send me addresses of the court houses of these two counties?

Also I found in my records that there was a Holy Cross parish, the first Catholic Church in Kentucky territory was founded in 1785. Also a Holy Mary's parish at Calvary was founded in 1798, the date being on the corner stone of the present church which was built in 1891. My records that the Mills pioneers to Kentucky settled in Holy Mary's parish.

What I need at this point is addresses of the Churches I have just mentioned. Also the names of the towns in which they are in. If I had the addresses then I could write to them myself the get the information I need.

Also in my notes it says that in a St. Matthew's Cemetery, which is now abandoned, on Muldroughs Hill, four miles west of Finley, in Marion, Ky., off the Dug Hill Road about 1 1/4 miles, is a monument to a Joseph Mills, wife Susan.

Now, is there anyway I could prove the information that I just gave you? Who could I write to. If its you could you please help me on this too? The following are the names of the people I am searching for:

Susan Ann Mills b 4-25-1860 d 5-12-1912

George Martin Leviston Mills b 3-1-1859 d 2- -1896

Susan Beatrice Wathen Mills b 12-6-1842 d 7-26-1917

If I have left out any information that might help you like dates please let me know and I'll try to help you further. As I have asked before, if you can send me some addresses I would really appreciate it. If any of the above names turn up any land papers or any further info I would really appreciate anything more on my Mills. Thank you for your time. Hope to hear from you in the near further.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Pat Kunkel

Dear Mary,

Once again I am requesting help from you to complete additional papers for my Daughters of the American Revolution file.

This time I am working on the MILLS side of the family.

When in Lebanon last year I noted you have a copy of "Catholic Settlers of the Rolling Fork Settlement" by Gerald Thompson, 1989. I need to have copied all pages from that book referencing MILLS.

My sisters and I met Mr. Thompson and had a delightful visit. I am enclosing a copy of his letter giving permission to copy these pages.

We hope to make another trip to Lebanon this summer. Perhaps this time we can get together for the promised lunch. Last year you were not at the library the day we were.

Thanks again for your help.

Dear Lockett Sisters:

Martha, Father Steve Pohl, and I enjoyed meeting you three very much.

Marcella, I got your wonderful letter the first week of July. Please pardon my failure to respond to it before now. You didn't enjoy my story about Sister Agnese's bloomers any more than I did your stories about your years with and immediately after leaving the Sisters of Charity of Lawrence, KS. My arm got even worse Sunday and I was just about sure that Dr. George would put me in the hospital Monday for surgery. But the double antibiotics kicked in Sunday night and I was much better that Monday. Went back to work. I enjoyed hearing about your trips to Calvary and Sacred Heart Cem. at Waverly/ St. Vincent, KY. Thanks for the additional information on the ancestry of Martha (Mills) Lockett. There are still many of the Combs family (pronounced Coomes) in St. Mary's Co., MD.

We had a wonderful week in St. Mary's Co., MD. I will treasure it the rest of my life. It was my first time there. The time just wasn't long enough and I can hardly wait to return.

I had misplaced your letter. I will give Fr. Steve Joseph Pahl's address. I told him with St. Anthony's help (we both have a devotion to him) I'd find it and share it. Well I did he'd be glad to get it and to tell you ladies a fond hello!

We hope you three and the other sister will return for a visit next year and look us up.

Carolyn, I received your THE LUCKETT FAMILY BOOK, I am glad to have it for my files. I enjoyed reading it very much. When I got back from Paducah, this Friday, ^{your letter was here} and regret to inform you that my book has not been in print since April 1989. Some day I may reprint it. I give you permission to copy the LUCKETT AND MILLS pages and use them in any way that will help you in the updating of your Lockett book.

God love and keep all of you.

Sincerely, your KY cousin,

Gerald

Dear Researchers,

I have been doing research on the Mills family from Washington & Marion counties and I was wondering if you could help.

I have enclosed family sheets showing the family I need help on. I am trying to find the parents of Stephen Mills who married Ann Railey in Washington Co. Their son, Benjamin Thomas, was given up at an early age to Israel Cannon of Washington Co. who then came to Warren Co. I don't know the reason why Benjamin was given up or what happened to his parents. Any help you can give will be appreciated.

Thank you,

THE MILLS FAMILY IN AMERICA

The Mills family came to America from England at an early period before the Revolution. John Mills I, a London merchant, and his wife and several children established a homestead at Mills Point on Chaptice Bay, four miles from the town of Chaptice, Maryland. Unfortunately no records have been found which give the exact date of their migration or the year the original Mills homestead was constructed. The family records brought to North Carolina by Charles N. Mills and all correspondence between the Carolina and Maryland branches of the family were destroyed by fire.

But the original Mills home at Mills Point was probably built before 1680. One incomplete record says that the homestead was known as "White Hall", and that all the doors, mantels and stairways were made in England." The house still is in existence and until recent years was owned by a distant relative. It is located in the western part of St. Mary County, the southernmost portion of the state between Potomac and Patuxent Rivers. Names still existing give evidence to the Mills family in the area. Near Mills Point are Mills Eng, Mills Run, also Cocks Hope -- all homes belonging to the family. Some 10 miles south of Chaptice is Millstown, a considerable village.

Practically all of the settlers in this region were English Episcopalians of High Church tendencies. They were large slave owners and planters on an extensive scale.

The War of the Revolution found Mills Point in the possession of John Mills Sr., b. 1730, a direct descendant of the London merchant. He married Elizabeth Rial, a daughter of Admiral Edward Rial of Marseille, France.

To John Mills, Sr., and Elizabeth Rial eight children were born. They were: John Jr., James, William, George, Andrew, Charles, Nathaniel, Rebecca and Elizabeth. Little is known about several of the children because fire razed the courthouse and the British destroyed the church and grave stones on their only visit to St. Mary's. It has been said that grave stones were taken up and utilized in many ways after the short British occupation of the area.

The children of N. N. Mills are dealt with individually elsewhere in this volume.

THE FAMILY OF JOHN MILLS SR.

John Mills Sr., b. 1730, d. 1799, a native of St. Mary's Co., Md. served as a captain in the Continental Army, m. Elizabeth Rial, a daughter of Admiral Edward Rial of Marseilles, France. John Sr. and wife were buried in old St. Andrew's graveyard near Leonard Town, Md. They had eight children.

I. John Mills Jr., served first as an ensign and later as a captain in the Continental Army. Records of the War indicate that he lived in St. Mary's Co. Md. and then in Rowan Co., N. C. near Iredell Co. However, there are no known records which substantiate that he lived in N. C. and no records which show a marriage or children.

II. George Mills, a sea captain, made Baltimore, Md., his home port. Most of his voyages were to Vera Cruz, Mexico and other southern ports from whence he returned with many curios, including a Spanish-speaking parrot that was a great curiosity in the home of C. N. Mills in N. C. There was some objection to George's marriage and the families drifted apart. There are no known records of his descendants.

III. William Mills d. 1871, remained a citizen of St. Mary's Co., Md. throughout his life. He married a Miss Barber. After his father's death William moved into "White Hall" with his elderly mother and was buried in the garden. His wife was buried in St. Andrew's. This union had four sons and three daughters:

A. Charles Oliver Mills, d. 1862.

B. James John Mills, moved to Kentucky

C.D. William and George Mills, twins, moved West before the Civil War and lost contact with their family

E. Elizabeth Mills, a spinster

F. Maria Mills, m. Thomas A. Reeder

1. Richard Reeder

G. Ann Locke Mills d. 1863, m. Benjamin Gough, d. 1857. They had three sons and three daughters:

1. William Henry Gough (Six children)

2. Richard T. Gough, unmarried physician

3. Benjamin Gough Jr., unmarried physician

4. Charlotte Leigh Gough, m. Dr. Louis S. Williams of Philadelphia. They had two children:

a. Louis Williams

b. Richard Williams

Z. G. Elizabeth Ann and Mary Louise Gough, spinsters who lived at "Marpton", homeplace on the Potomac River.

 IV. Charles Nathaniel Mills, b. Jan. 12, 1752, d. Dec. 14, 1843.

V. Andrew Mills, b. May 8, 1769, d. Dec. 30, 1809, m. Jan. 10, 1790 to Chloe Good, b. Feb. 15, 1769, d. July 15, 1809. They lived in St. Marys Co., Md., and died within five months of each other and were buried in St. Andrew's Graveyard. They had only one child:

A. William Mills, a lieutenant in the U. S. Marine Corps, moved to N. C. after death of parents and lived with C. N. Mills, an uncle, for several months before becoming engaged in business in Salisbury. He died June 7, 1819 of morbus cholera and was buried with masonic rites in the garden on "The Hill."

VI. Rebecca Mills, m. Andrew Barnes, frequently mentioned in Maryland history. There are no records of their children, if any.

VII. Elizabeth Mills, m. George Dent, b. Dec. 21, 1756, d. Oct. 15, 1842, a son of Thomas and Elizabeth Dent. They had two sons and four daughters:

- A. William Dent
- B. Hozakiah Dent
- C. Eliza Dent, m. John A. Burroughs
- D. Elizabeth Dent, m. Joseph Burroughs
- E. Ann Dent, m. John Duke
- F. Harriet Dent, (husband's name unknown)

VIII. James Mills, a bachelor, was the first coroner of St. Marys Co. Md., under the State Government following the Revolutionary War.

 Our interest is in Charles Nathaniel Mills.

The Mills home in St. Mary's Co., Md. was called "White Hall" several of the family are buried there in the Garden.

Aunt Nettie was about half John W's age when they married, another aunt told me that Aunt Mary L. Mills Nail played Cupid when Uncle John came back to Il. after the death of 1st wife. I have the wedding picture and Aunt Nettie was so pretty and Uncle John with such a beard that he looked like father time for sure. I have copy of Uncle John's will, he must have done very well in Nebr. From a relative have info that the home in Araphoe was quite nice.

John W. Mills had two step daughters, Rebecca Jane and Lucinda Martin. They did not get along with him and Lucinda eloped at age 16 with Israel Carriker, they married in St. Louis after having skated over the Mississippi River. Lucinda and Israel are buried at Greenwood Cem. near Trumbull, where ironically so is the step-father John W. Mills. Have more info on Aunt Nettie's family if anyone is interested.

She did not recall where they came from (Nebr or Calif.) seemed to be at time of a World's fair. Probably was Chicago 1934. Lamirah Jane Mills White and her brother zachariah Wm. Mills had red hair and blue eyes and James David had very light hair and blue eyes.

Dear Researchers,

I have been doing research on the Mills family from Washington & Marion counties and I was wondering if you could help.

I have enclosed family sheets showing the family I need help on. I am trying to find the parents of Stephen Mills who married Ann Railey in Washington Co. Their son, Benjamin Thomas, was given up at an early age to Israel Cannon of Washington Co. who then came to Warren Co. I don't know the reason why Benjamin was given up or what happened to his parents. Any help you can give will be appreciated.

Thank you,

Brent Bledsoe

As far as I knew this cemetery had not previously been recorded. It was in a terrible condition. It is in the middle of a cornfield belonging to Mr. Fleas Begley. I was fearful of rattlesnakes & copperheads as I trugged through the growth in this abandoned cemetery. I am not at all sure that this was all of the stones. I found one other broken one with no name on it.

Hi Mary Ella;

I'm sorry I haven't written before now. I hope you and your family are OK?

I heard there's a reunion coming in June? I'm going to try and make it.

Did you ever find ~~out about~~ any more information about my family?

I still believe that James H. Mills had 2 brothers? Augustine & Joseph. Augustine was married to Caroline Payne and Joseph was married to Frances ~~Warren~~?
WARREN, ~~Warren~~

My Computer is down. My hand writing looks like chicken scratches.

I believe Augustine & Caroline was married in Nelson Co.?? Maybe that's where James & Cynthia Garbo was married?

MATTINGLY TRADITIONS

1. CHARLES MATTINGLY
2. HENRY MATTINGLY

Two traditional yeomen of the early Catholic settlers in Maryland. The exact time of their life can not be established, but it is sure that they lived in Maryland, and that different branches of the family do trace their origin back to one or the other of these two men. Further back we cannot go, save that traditions say that three brothers, Charles, James and Caesar came to this country with Lord Baltimore, landing at Old Point Comfort Feb. 24th, 1633. Traditions further say that these three brothers married three sisters, and here all traces of them cease until we find their descendants in Maryland a century and a half later.

According to Stanton's Catholic History of Western Maryland, John Mattingly, No. 6, is entitled to the distinction of being the first recorded immigrant to what is now called Cumberland, Md.

The three brothers with Lord Baltimore were ship-carpenters, or what we now term chief engineers, and no ship was allowed to leave port of England except with the approval of these brothers.

3/ CHARLES MATTINGLY

All the different branches of the Kentucky Mattinglys trace their origin back to this Charles, only three of whose issue we have any record:

3. William. -- 4. Benjamin
4. Leonard
5. Luke.

2. HENRY MATTINGLY.

The Ohio traditions lead us back through four brothers to Henry Mattingly as their progenator:

6. John.
7. Samuel.
8. Henry.
9. William

3. WILLIAM MATTINGLY

It is positively known that this Wm. Mattingly with his brothers, Leonard and Luke, came to Hardin Creek settlement, Kentucky, in the year 1786, and that they came from St. Mary's County, Maryland. He was married in Maryland to a Miss Spalding and they were accompanied to Kentucky by their three sons:

10. James.
11. Edward.
12. Richard.

His first wife dying, he subsequently married Elizabeth Clark by whom he had the following issue:

13. William.
14. Mary.
15. Benjamin.
16. Felix.
17. Ignatius.
18. Julia.
19. George.
20. Susan.
21. Catherine.
22. John.

4. LEONARD MATTINGLY.

Was married to Polly Hayden, came to Kentucky with his two brothers, William and Luke and located in Hardin Creek settlement in 1786. In 1806 he was instrumental in the building of the first St. Charles Church, which has since been rebuilt twice and is now one of the most flourishing churches in Central Kentucky. He died in 1827 at the age of 90 years. His issue:

23. John; married Polly Fenwick.
24. Leonard, Jr.; married Cissil.
25. William.
26. Basil.
27. Ignatius; married Fowler.
28. Joseph; married Hayden.
29. Susan; married John Thomas.
30. Margaret; Became a Sister of Loretto.
31. Jane; married Basil Payne.
32. Mary.
33. Elizabeth; married John Miles.
34. Nancy; became a Sister of Loretto.

5. LUKE MATTINGLY.

The last of the trio of brothers who settled in Hardin Creek in 1786, of whom nothing can be recorded, save that a few years ago, one of his descendants, John G. Mattingly, was living in Manton, Washington County, Ky., a respectable member of Holy Rosary Church.

6. JOHN MATTINGLY.

According to the records of the Alleghany court house, Cumberland, Md., Marriage license was issued to this, "John Mattingly, and one Arnold Sept. 11, 1796. Married by D.A. Galitzin, Cath. Priest.

Issue:

35. Henry.

HISTORY OF THE OLD LEONARD MATTINGLY FAMILY AND THEIR EMIGRATION FROM MARYLAND TO KENTUCKY.

Leonard Mattingly the forefather of many of the Mattinglys and their connections who now reside and have lived in past years in Washington, Marion, Nelson, Davies, Union and Breckenridge Counties, Kentucky, was born in or near Leonardstown, St. Mary County, Maryland, in the year (about) 1739.

He was either a son or grandson of Charles Mattingly who, with his brother Caesar Mattingly, was the first of the name who emigrated to Maryland from Richmond, England, in (about) the year 16 , Both Charles and Caesar were ship carpenters by trade. Unfortunately, very little is now remembered about them by their numerous descendants who have since scattered over the middle, western, and southern states, and who are counted by the thousands.

Leonard Mattingly and his large family, and William Mattingly, his brother, also with a large family, and another brother, viz., Luke, made up the party of Mattingly emigrants who emigrated from Leonardstown, Maryland, about the years 1770 to 1772 and, after a most difficult and perilous journey, settled in the wilds of Kentucky. In making this journey, this little band of Mattingly emigrants came down the Ohio River in some crude kind of boat, or other floating craft to a certain point in Kentucky then known as the "Falls". This stopping place was not even a village at that time, but is now the site and location of the flourishing city--Louisville, Kentucky.

Kentucky then was a dense and heavy forest and almost a trackless wilderness--still the home and haunts of the savage and treacherous Indians who claimed the country as their own and considered all parties of white settlers, whether large or small, as their most deadly and dangerous enemies; moreover these wild forests were infested with whole droves and packs of wild and ferocious beasts, such as bears, panthers, wolves, etc., all of which roamed and prowled at large and were dangerous to man and domestic animal nearly everywhere. But this little band of frontiersmen, who had courageous minds, strong nerves, and hard muscles, feared not the many hardships and hazards of the journey they had undertaken. They pressed onward through unknown swamps and over hills and valleys until they reached a place which is now in Washington County, Kentucky, where they finally settled on an island in a small stream of water which is now known as the Beech Fork, said island being about one half mile north of the present village of Fredericksburg. Just how long it took this band of Mattingly pioneers to make this journey is not now remembered, but such a journey in those days was necessarily slow, laborious and fatiguing, wholly without comforts or conveniences of any kind and extremely hazardous.

John Mattingly, the eldest child of Leonard Mattingly, was then about 35 years of age and a married man. He was the only man of the whole party who could read, write and cipher too, so that he was an educated man for those days. He was noted among his relatives and friends for his energy and integrity, prudence and intelligence, hence, naturally, he was the leader, director and general manager for the whole party for almost the entire journey and his relatives followed him through the unknown wildernesses with the utmost willingness and confidence.

After erecting log cabins on said island in which to live, these sturdy frontiersmen soon found it undispensably necessary to fortify their little crude homes so as to protect themselves and their families from the bullets and treachery of the red men who were then about their only neighbors--so, they palisaded their crude homes strongly all around with high and heavy timbers which also in a great measure served as a protection from the howling and famishing hordes of wild beasts which prowled and reamed around them daily and nightly. Whether Leonard Mattingly or any of his party of pioneers purchased the lands on which they first settled is not now distinctly remembered, but some of this party must have bought land in that vicinity because they cleared up the virgin forest near said island until they had quite a large field from which they raised all crops of grain necessary for their sustenance while they resided in that vicinity which was from five to ten years during which time they hunted over and explored far and near the whole country adjoining their little fortified settlement. Some of the same old palisaded timbers used by these Mattingly pioneers: still to be seen on the above mentioned island.

In the meantime, other parties of white settlers were coming to Kentucky in large numbers, many from St. Mary's County, Maryland, old friends and acquaintances of these Mattingly pioneers and many newer settlements were established.

William Mattingly and his family were the first members of this little Colony to move away from their fortified settlement, but the exact date of their going away is not now remembered, but about the year 1785, or perhaps earlier, all of this Mattingly Colony, except Luke Mattingly, a brother of both Leonard and William Mattingly, moved away from their original settlement about ten or twenty miles south to that part of Washington County which was afterwards made a part of Marion County, Kentucky--viz., to a high and dry locality about one-half mile northwest of the present station on the L. & N. RR.

called St. Marys—all of which country was then a dense woods and dark wilderness with possibly one or two settlements of white people some five or ten miles away from that locality.

Luke Mattingly remained on or near the above mentioned island in the Beech Fork River and raised a family in that vicinity, some of whom, or their descendants, still reside there or in that neighborhood.

About this time most all of the six sons of Leonard Mattingly were about grown men and strong and able-bodied workmen.

Old Leonard Mattingly purchased and cleared up the land on which his great grandson Benjamin F. Mattingly now has his residence—in the vicinity of St. Marys, Ky. William Mattingly's sons by his first wife, viz., James, Edward, and Richard, were also now grown men. He had purchased lands in that section of the country one or two years previously and after so doing, seems to have induced his brother Leonard and family to move to the same neighborhood, and after Leonard had purchased land, then his sons and sons-in-law, one after the other, also bought lands and nearly all of them located close to or around him— Old William Mattingly bought the lands now owned by Old Ruloy farm afterwards owned by Colon Mattingly, the son of Leonard Mattingly, Jr.

For a fuller account of old William Mattingly, who was known as "Constable Billy", see the "Centenary of Catholicity in Kentucky" by Honorable B. J. Webb, pages 45 to 50.

Nearly all the foregoing facts and details of the journey from Maryland to Kentucky and the original settlement on the island in the Beech Fork Creek or River were related to the compiler of these memoirs by Mr. Ignatius Mattingly, the tailor, of Bardstown, Ky., who was a son of old William Mattingly by his second wife and nearly all the same facts were repeated to the compiler by Dr. Cyprian P. Mattingly of Bardstown, who was a grandson of old Leonard Mattingly and a great many of the facts and details here-in given have been repeated by Mr. John C. Mattingly who is a great great grandson of old Leonard, the compiler hereof being a great great grandson of Old Leonard Mattingly — C. C. Mattingly of Louisville, Ky., being the compiler.

After their purchases of lands had been completed these Mattingly pioneers seemed to vie with each other in their laborious and toilsome work of felling the trees of the wild forests, in clearing the land for cultivation and in preparing their little habitations — and without delay they erected their log cabins large or small according to their circumstances which they were always anxious to improve and ornament in their crude way as much as possible.

Necessity was the mother of the custom or ceremony of "House raising" or "log rolling", on which occasions all able-bodied and healthy men were expected and even required to be present and willing to give a helping hand nor were such men lightly or readily excused for not coming forward and helping in the work freely and willingly, which custom was still fashionable almost up to the beginning of the late war.

In a comparatively short time nearly all these Mattingly pioneers had small fields cleared and as the soil was new and fresh, it was fertile and produced bountiful crops of all kinds of necessary grains almost every year.

In a few years that section of the country bore the appearance of civilization and looked like the home of the white man; everybody was bush and thriving. The whole community was prosperous — these pioneers acquired more property each succeeding year and many of them even became the owners of slaves. St. Charles Church was established in the year 1806 and seemed to flourish from the beginning.

Most truthfully can the descendants of old Leonard Mattingly and his sons and daughters and of old William Mattingly and his sons and daughters call their forefathers the real pioneers in that part of Marion County, Kentucky, and they should very justly feel a great pride in these forefathers. There were is still enough of a record to show and prove that they were not only all honorable men, but that their reputations for integrity, honesty, energy and industry, thrift and piety were always the best and the brightest. While there was neither any great genius nor any great and powerful hero among their numbers—still it can most appropriately be said of them, that they are "Ablest generation" of people. Leonard Mattingly had married a Miss Mary Hayden in Maryland long before emigrating to Kentucky. She was a cousin of old Joseph Hayden who also afterwards emigrated to Kentucky with his family.

She was remarkable for her great energy and fortitude and perseverance throughout her life. She contributed in a very great degree to all the success achieved by her husband in all his many laborious and fatiguing undertakings. She not only attended to her household duties and gave all her children all needful attention but she was accustomed also to go forth with her husband and sons to fell the trees of the forests and to clear the land and afterwards to make a full hand in the cultivation of the fields, she was the mother of twelve children; six boys and six girls, all of whom grew up to manhood and womanhood and afterwards married and, in turn, raised families; some of them very large ones. She died in the year _____. All of her children and her husband surviving her. She was buried in the St. Charles graveyard. She was one of the first of a true Christian Mother and wife to the great edification and honor of all her children, friends and associates.

Old Leonard married again - this time Miss Dolly Hardesty - and this union was blessed with two girls, neither of whom reached maturity, both having died in childhood.

Old Leonard Mattingly died in Sept. 1829, at the age of ninety.

Nancy Mattingly Walker was a sister of Old Leonard Mattingly. Her husband was named Harry Walker. They raised five sons; Ben, Thomas, James, Joseph, Ignatius; Sallie, Betsy, Nancy, Matilda and Mary were the five girls born to the union, making a family of ten children.

Ben Walker moved to Union County and married Miss Birch. She had six children, all of whom died in one month in Spencer County. Thomas Walker then married Miss Hettie O'Brian who had seven children all in Union County, Kentucky.

Ignatius Walker married Teresa Daily and they had six children. Mary Jane married John Spalding, Hardin County; Nancy, George Graves, California; Levina, a Mr. Fensick, Daviess County. The boys were Hugh, Ben, and Simeon.

Leonard Mattingly must have been well advanced in life, probably 50 years or more, when he emigrated to Kentucky, as all, or nearly all, of his children were born in Maryland.

His children and grandchildren have variously described him but all agree that he was a man of a strong and healthy constitution and a hardy and brave frontiersman. As a pioneer he was, more or less, rough and unpolished, but was a good neighbor and a good friend. He was always a Catholic of good standing and he and his most excellent wife raised all their children in the same faith and same doctrine and as he lived, so he died. His death occurred in the year 1829. He was buried at St. Charles Church. His children were: John, Leonard, Basil, William, Joseph, Ignatius, Jane, Susan, Margaret Elizabeth and Pollie.

A brief sketch of each of them is given further on herein.

Elizabeth Mattingly, sister of old Leonard, married William Thompson, lived near Fredericksburg, Washington, County, Ky., There are very few descendants now.

Also, a sister of old Leonard married a Mr. Daily, who was the father of Ben Daily, a pioneer blacksmith.

They had _____ children. He died in the year 1844, about 80 years of age, and was buried in St. Charles Church graveyard, and after her death, his wife was also buried there in the year _____. He went blind several years before his death. His children were:

Elizabeth Downs

Elizabeth was the seventh child of Benedict Downs and was born on the 22nd day of August, 1828. In her youth, she acquired a fair education for her days -- schools being scarce and inconvenient. After her school days were over and when she was fully grown, she married John G. Mattingly, concerning whom, please see page 2 of these memoirs.

Throughout her life, she contributed in a very great degree to all the success achieved in business by her husband.

She was always remarkable for her great energy, industry and economy and for her strong common sense and sound judgement in all the details and particulars of the practical affairs of life on all occasions. Her constant rule in life was Fidelity to her husband and to her children. She was a lady of great refinement and of invincible faith in her holy religion, and she was not excelled in her piety, and was always faithful in her daily religious devotions.

In her circle of friends and acquaintances, she was always held in the highest respect and esteem for her well known veracity and for her great sympathy for all suffering humanity, her christian resignation and fortitude always sustained her in all troubles and trials in life. She was always of a prayerful disposition and always was comforted and strengthened by prayers.

She was a mother of eleven children. Ten of these children she saw reach manhood and womanhood. Their names are as follows:

Columbus C. (the writer of these memoirs)
Lawrence D.,
Susan M.,
Bennett D.,
Preston J.,
Wallace J.,
Sallie V.,
Hugh D.,
Lee A., (died in infancy)
Elizabeth, (died in infancy)

(see foregoing write-up of John G. Mattingly.)

Joseph Hayden
1750 to 1843

Joseph was son of Lewis Hayden, who lived and died in St. Mary's County, Md., The number of other children said Lewis Hayden had is not known by the descendants of Joseph Hayden.

Joseph Hayden married Sallie Haskins in Georgetown, Md., in _____. He and his wife emigrated to Marion County, Kentucky, most probably in the second colony of Mattingly emigrants, as a great many other pioneer settlers did, and they all settled in the same section of Marion County, Ky., about 1782. Joseph Hayden bought and partly cleared the land which is now owned and occupied by some of the heirs of Felix Mattingly, deceased -- some two or three miles north of St. Mary's, Ky., on the L & N R.R., on the south of its right of way.

This whole country was then a wild and unbroken forest. Joseph erected the first log cabin house ever built on this land which is still standing, January, 1897.

He was a thrifty pioneer farmer and he was ably and faithfully encouraged by his most deserving and ever industrious and economical wife, Sallie. She died in 1839. He was always energetic and a useful and law-abiding citizen, being highly esteemed and respected by his neighbors and circle of acquaintances. He endeavored to give all his children a good education, but owing to a dispute or misunderstanding over a settlement for the schooling of his sons with the Reverend William Burns, the founder and President of St. Mary's College, he quit the catholic church and tried to persuade all his children to do the same. Only one, viz., Augustin, followed his example. His wife and her other children were ever true and faithful to their church.

He could never be reconciled to his church again and so died. On the subject of religion, he almost lost his reason.

His wife was buried in the graveyard at St. Charles Church at her death in the year 1839 and he was buried on the Felix Mattingly farm in the year 1843.

Their children were as follows:

Joseph, Clement, James, Augustin, George W., Mary, Sallie and Elizabeth.

Joseph Hayden, Jr.

Joseph Hayden, Jr., married his own cousin Julian Hayden, the daughter of Stanislaus Hayden who lived in Bardstown and then moved to Owensboro, Ky., and left one child -- James. He and his wife reside near Owensboro, Ky.

Clement Hayden
James Hayden

These two boys about the year 1835 went flat-boating down the Rolling Fork and then into the Salt River and then into the Ohio River and thence into the Mississippi River and were never heard of again by their parents or brothers or sisters. They were supposed to have been drowned.

Mary Hayden

P P
Mary married Joseph Mattingly, the youngest son of old pioneer Leonard Mattingly, concerning whom, see the front of these memoirs, which gives a sketch of each of them and of their descendants.

She had six children -- three boys and three girls -- by him, and then he died. Children were:

Mary, Rosa, Elizabeth, Joseph, James and Augustine.

After his death, she married John Mills and had three boys and three girls by him. After his death, she married Charles Thompson in her old age.

George W. Hayden

George was the youngest son of old Joseph Hayden. He studied for the priesthood at St. Mary's College but never finished his studies there. He was ordained a priest at St. Thomas' Seminary in the year 1830. He emigrated to Texas with the Reverend _____ Clark, his classmate, about 1834.

Reverend G. W. Hayden was always a priest of good standing and many years after his residence in San Antonio, Texas, he established the first school in English language in _____ of Texas. He died of yellow fever in Houston, Texas, before 1846. He established a flourishing school for boys in Lavacca County, Texas. He was the first American priest to say Mass in San Antonio, Texas.

Augustus Hayden

Augustus, son of Joseph, in his early youth studied for the priesthood both at St. Mary's College and afterwards at St. Thomas Seminary in Nelson County, Ky., and about the same time of his brother George W. Hayden.

His father had a misunderstanding with old Reverend William Burns about paying for the schooling of his sons -- as old Billy Burns said "with pigtales" -- when he delivered him dressed hogs in payment as per contract, at which old Joseph Hayden took such offense that he never forgave the Reverend William Burns, and he and his son Augustus, quit the Catholic Church and were never reconciled again.

Augustus married the widow Jones, after a great breach of promise suit, and after her death, he married Harriett Haggard of Taylor County, Ky., and they raised ten protestant children. Augustus died in the year 1888 and was buried at Ryder Cemetery at Lebanon. His children were:
